SUPPLEMENT TO DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT

ARI Network Services, Inc. (the Company or ARI) is making the supplemental disclosures set forth below to the definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A (the Definitive Proxy Statement) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by the Company on July 31, 2017, to provide additional information in connection with certain litigation relating to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) dated June 20, 2017, by and among ARI, Expedition Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Parent), and Expedition Merger Sub, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into ARI (the Merger), and ARI will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent.

As previously disclosed on pages 5 and 63 of the Definitive Proxy Statement, on July 21, 2017, a putative class action lawsuit was filed by a purported shareholder of ARI against ARI and its directors in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin, captioned Sean Sharkey et al v. ARI Network Services, Inc. et al, Case No. 17-cv-1012. In addition, on July 25, 2017, a putative class action lawsuit was filed by a purported shareholder of ARI against ARI, its directors, Parent, Merger Sub and TWC in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin, captioned Robert Berg et al v. ARI Network Services, Inc. et al, Case No. 17-cv-1033. Both actions generally allege failures to adequately disclose material information in violation of Sections 14(a) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder. The plaintiffs seek, among other things, equitable relief to enjoin consummation of the Merger, rescission of the Merger and/or rescissory damages, and attorneys' and experts' fees.

This supplement discloses certain additional information in response to allegations made by plaintiffs in the lawsuits described above. The Company denies the allegations of the lawsuits, believes that the definitive Definitive Proxy Statement disclosed all material information, and denies that any supplemental disclosure is required under applicable laws. The Company is disclosing this information solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and burden of litigation. The lawsuits remain outstanding.

The Definitive Proxy Statement is amended and supplemented by, and should be read in conjunction with, the supplemental disclosures set forth below. Shareholders are encouraged to read carefully the supplemental disclosures set forth below, the Definitive Proxy Statement, and annexes thereto, and the documents incorporated by reference in the Definitive Proxy Statement.

As previously disclosed in the Definitive Proxy Statement, a special meeting of the Company's shareholders is being held on August 28, 2017, at 9:00 a.m., local time, 10850 West Park Place, Suite 1200, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53224, for the purpose of considering and voting upon, among other things, the Merger Agreement and the Merger. The Company's board of directors unanimously recommends that the Company's shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and FOR the other proposals being considered at the special meeting.

Supplemental Disclosures

The section of the Definitive Proxy Statement entitled Background of the Merger is hereby supplemented as follows:

The following supplemental disclosure is added at the end of the one-sentence paragraph beginning By March 24, 2017 on page 32 of the Definitive Proxy Statement:

Each of the IOIs was expressly preliminary and nonbinding in nature, in every case subject to stated assumptions and additional due diligence. On that basis, the IOIs contained preliminary indications of interest in acquiring ARI at price ranges equaling from a bid at $5.75 to $6.25 per share, to a preliminary proposed total purchase price of $140 to $160 million.

B.

The last sentence of the paragraph beginning A telephonic meeting of the Company s Board of Directors was held on March 27, 2017 on page 32 of the Definitive Proxy Statement is replaced in its entirety with the following supplemental disclosure:

After detailed discussion, including a discussion and evaluation of the terms of each IOI, the Board unanimously agreed to continue moving forward with the next stages of the process and directed PCS to inform each of the participants of its decision and to begin preparing the strategy for the next round of bidding.

C.

The following supplemental disclosure is added at the end of the paragraph beginning On May 17, 2017 on page 34 of the Definitive Proxy Statement:

The non-binding term sheet received from the Project Apple Party contemplated the acquisition of certain assets of the Company representing less than 10% of the Company s consolidated revenue for cash in an amount ranging from $10 million to $13 million, subject to further due diligence and a number of other stated conditions.

D.

The last sentence of the paragraph beginning On May 24, 2017 beginning on page 34 and continuing on page 35 of the of the Definitive Proxy Statement is replaced in its entirety with the following supplemental disclosure:

Among other things, the bid letter submitted by TWC stated that TWC was excited about the prospect of partnering with the Company s management team to continue to profitably grow ARI and contained a request to discuss with senior management certain post-closing employment and equity participation matters at the appropriate time and with the permission of the ARI Board. Other than as described in this proxy statement, there have been no substantive discussions between TWC and ARI, or their respective representatives, regarding such matters. The Company did not have substantive discussions with Financial Party C or Financial Party E subsequent to the April 27, 2017 and April 11, 2017 meetings, respectively, with representatives of the Company as described above, and neither Financial Party C nor Financial Party E submitted final bids.

E.

The last sentence of the paragraph beginning In parallel, PCS and the Company collaborated on a calling list of financial sponsors on page 31 of the Definitive Proxy Statement is replaced in its entirety with the following supplemental disclosure:

The Company entered into non-disclosure agreements with a total of 31 potential financial partners, and conducted 23 introductory meetings or calls beginning on February 28, 2017 through March 9, 2017. With one exception, each of these non-disclosure agreements, as well as the five entered into between the Company and potential strategic partners, as described above, contained customary standstill provisions generally prohibiting the counterparties from certain acquisitions of equity or assets of ARI, participating in solicitations of ARI shareholders or acting to influence ARI's management, or from requesting waivers of the standstill provisions during the 18-month standstill period. The non-disclosure agreement with Financial Party B, which was entered prior to the Company's engagement of PCS, contained a more limited six-month standstill provision. Under the terms of each of the non-disclosure agreements, all standstill restrictions automatically terminated upon ARI's entry into an acquisition with another person and, accordingly, terminated upon ARI's entry into the Merger Agreement with TWC.
