LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES TODAY NEWSFLASH

Monday, July 10, 2006

In This Issue: A Message from Pat Russo

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFA14A

Dear Colleagues,

Today, we made two significant announcements.

First, we announced that we expect revenues for the third quarter of fiscal 2006, which ended June 30, 2006, to be approximately $2.04 billion, subject to the completion of our quarterly closing process. This compares with revenues of $2.14 billion in the second quarter of fiscal 2006 and $2.34 billion in the year-ago quarter. During the third quarter, our North American mobility business was adversely impacted by a slowdown in spending on some of our current-generation wireless solutions. As well, our year-to-date results also have been affected to some extent by delays in spending that we believe are attributable to the consolidation efforts of certain customers.

Clearly, these are disappointing results.

Our industry is undergoing a great deal of change. Consolidation among some of our largest customers and the transition period that always accompanies the adoption of next-generation technologies are just two of the factors that are putting pressure on our revenues. That being said, telecom is an industry still ripe with tremendous opportunity. For example, we expect investment in both CDMA and UMTS to increase going forward, driven by the introduction of EV-DO RevA and HSDPA (High-Speed Downlink Packet Access) solutions. As a result, assuming that our EV-DO RevA and HSDPA rollouts remain on track, we expect that mobility deployments in North America will enable us to make the fourth quarter our highest quarterly revenue period for fiscal year 2006 by a significant margin. Additionally, we believe that consolidation will lead to not only challenges but also opportunities going forward as service providers look to us to help them integrate their large, complex networks. Our job is to keep finding new revenue streams -- and maximizing the existing ones -- so we can come to Day One of our merger with Alcatel with the wind at our backs.

This brings me to our second announcement.

Lucent and Alcatel jointly provided an update on our ongoing integration work and announced that we are on track to complete our merger by the end of calendar year 2006, which is within the six- to 12-month timeframe originally announced on April 2. In recent weeks, we have achieved a number of significant milestones, including satisfying some regulatory conditions to the proposed merger. This is very encouraging news.

As we stated in the press release, the business model and the associated organization of the combined company are now defined and will be implemented immediately upon closing. The combined company will address carrier, enterprise and service markets with a strong focus on end-to-end solutions maximizing the value to customers.

The overall business will be segmented into Business Groups structured along the global requirements of those three markets, while a decentralized regional organization will provide strong local support to customers. Both the Business Groups and the regions will have P&L (profit and loss) responsibility.

The Carrier Business Groups, headed by Etienne Fouques will consist of:

- Wireless, headed by Mary Chan,
- Wireline, headed by Michel Rahier,

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFA14A

- Convergence, headed by Marc Rouanne,

The Enterprise Business Group will be headed by Hubert de Pesquidoux.

The Service Business Group will be headed by John Meyer.

The company will have four geographic regions:

- Europe and North, headed by Vince Molinaro,

- Europe and South, headed by Olivier Picard,

- North America, headed by Cindy Christy,

- Asia-Pacific, headed by Frederic Rose.

(NOTE: The press release includes further details on the four regions and can be accessed at <http://www.lucent.com/>
<http://www.lucent.com/press/0706/060710.coc.html>
<http://www.lucent.com/press/0706/060710.coc.html>. The integration announcement also contains updates on regulatory milestones and cost synergies.)

As previously announced, the company will have a management committee which will be headed by me as CEO. The members of this committee will include Etienne Fouques, senior executive vice president of the Carrier Group; Frank D'Amelio, senior executive vice president Integration and chief administrative officer; Jean-Pascal Beaufret, chief financial officer; Claire Pedini, senior vice president, Human Resources and Communication; and Mike Quigley. Mike Quigley has decided for personal reasons to assume a different role for the combined company. He will focus on the strategic direction of the company and will become president, Science Technology and Strategy. In this capacity he will devote his attention to assuring that strategic investments align with evolving market opportunities

Lastly, the corporate center reporting structure and leadership will be announced at a later date and as soon as possible.

As you can see, our joint integration teams are well on their way to helping create a world-class organization that will deliver the best of both companies to customers around the world and create enhanced value for shareholders.

Let me close by emphasizing how important it is that we deliver a strong fourth quarter. We have the right people, products and services to capitalize on the opportunities before us. I ask that we all remain focused and energized in the months ahead. With the exciting prospect of the merger transaction with Alcatel on the horizon and moving closer to completion, we must continue to be laser-focused on delivering our Q4 results.

Sincerely,

Pat
