INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE
SECTION 10(A) PROSPECTUS

The document(s) containing information specified by Part I of this Registration Statement will be sent or given to participants in the 1st Source Corporation 1998 Performance Compensation Plan, as specified in Rule 428(b)(1) promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). Such document(s) are not being filed with the Commission but constitute (along with the documents incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement pursuant to Item 3 of Part II hereof), a prospectus that meets the requirements of Section 10(a) of the 1933 Act.

This Registration Statement also includes a reoffer prospectus prepared in accordance with Part I of Form S-3 under the Securities Act, and pursuant to General Instruction C to Form S-8. The reoffer prospectus included in this Registration Statement is being filed herewith pursuant to General Instruction E of Form S-8 and may be used for reoffers and resales of shares of 1st Source Corporation's common stock that have been issued or are issuable pursuant to awards granted under the Plan.

REOFFER PROSPECTUS

We have issued certain shares of our common stock offered hereby to Christopher J. Murphy III (the “Selling Shareholder”) pursuant to the 1st Source Corporation 1998 Performance Compensation Plan. The Selling Shareholder may offer some or all of the shares issued to him under the plan for sale from time to time at prices and terms negotiated in individual transactions or in brokers transactions negotiated immediately prior to sale. We will not receive any proceeds from such sales. The Selling Shareholder and any broker-dealers who participate in selling the shares may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), in which event commissions received by such brokers may be deemed to be underwriting commissions under the Securities Act.

This reoffer prospectus relates to 10,323 shares of the common stock of 1st Source Corporation that may be offered and resold from time to time by the Selling Shareholder identified in the prospectus for his own accounts. The shares are “restricted securities” under the Securities Act prior to the effectiveness of the registration statement filed in conjunction with this reoffer prospectus. The reoffer prospectus has been prepared for the purpose of registering the shares under the Securities Act to allow for future sales by the Selling Shareholder to the public. It is anticipated that the Selling Shareholder will offer shares for sale on the NASDAQ Global Select Market at the prevailing prices on the date of sale. The Selling Shareholder will bear all sales commissions and similar expenses. We have paid the costs of filing this registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) and will pay the costs of registering or qualifying the shares under the securities laws of any jurisdiction where such registration or qualification is necessary. We estimate the expenses of this offering, which we will incur, including registration fees, legal fees, transfer agent fees and printing costs, but excluding underwriting discounts and commissions which shall be paid by Selling Shareholder, will not exceed $5,000.00.

Our common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol SRCE. On April 21, 2011, the last reported price of our common stock on such market was $20.76 per share.

Investing in our common stock involves risks. Please see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 1.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities, or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is April 25, 2011.

Neither we nor the Selling Shareholder expect to employ, utilize or otherwise engage any finders to assist in the sales of the shares.

We have advised the Selling Shareholder that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the Selling Shareholder and his affiliates. In addition, we will make copies of this reoffer prospectus available to the Selling Shareholder and have informed him of the possible need for delivery of copies of this reoffer prospectus to purchasers on or prior to sales of the shares offered under this reoffer prospectus. The Selling Shareholder may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act. Any securities covered by this reoffer prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under those rules rather than pursuant to this reoffer prospectus. There is no assurance that the Selling Shareholder will offer for sale or sell any or all of the shares registered pursuant to this prospectus.

Item 4. Description of Securities

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Company is an Indiana corporation. The Company’s officers and directors (and those who have agreed to such positions) are entitled to be indemnified under Indiana law and our Articles of Incorporation, as amended, against certain liabilities and expenses. Chapter 37 of The Indiana Business Corporation Law (the “IBCL”) requires a corporation, unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, to indemnify a director or an officer of the corporation who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding. The IBCL also permits a corporation to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent who is made a party to a proceeding because the person was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if (i) the individual’s conduct was in good faith and (ii) the individual reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation's best interests and (B) in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests and (iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual either (A) had reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was lawful or (B) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful. The IBCL also permits a corporation to pay for or reimburse reasonable expenses incurred before the final disposition of a proceeding and permits a court of competent jurisdiction to order a corporation to indemnify a director or officer if the court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the person met the standards for indemnification otherwise provided in the IBCL.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, provide for mandatory indemnification of officers and directors (and those who have agreed to such positions) if they are wholly successful on the merits of a proceeding and satisfy the standards of conduct specified by the IBCL set forth in the preceding paragraph. The Articles of Incorporation, as amended, also provide that any director or officer of the Company or any person who is serving at the request of the Company as a director or officer of another entity shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the same extent as the Company's directors and officers. In any proceeding, an officer or director is entitled to be indemnified against all liabilities and expenses related to the proceeding, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement. The Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, also provide such persons with certain rights to be paid or reimbursed for expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of the final disposition. The Company's Articles of Incorporation also provide that the Company has the discretion to indemnify employees and agents to the same extent, and on the same basis, as it is required to indemnify its officers and directors.

The Company's By-Laws authorize the Company to maintain insurance to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company against expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the IBCL or pursuant to its Articles of Incorporation, as amended. The Company currently maintains such insurance.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

The shares issued to the Selling Shareholder were issued in reliance upon the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act by the Company pursuant to the 1st Source Corporation 1998 Performance Compensation Plan. These issuances were deemed to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) as transactions that did not involve any public offering, or were deemed not to require registration under the Securities Act since such issuance did not involve the sale of such securities.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
