(Name)

(Area Code)

(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s) Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant expects to report a net loss of $3,314,000 or $(.95) per share, on revenues of $15,203,000 for its year ended December 31, 2005, compared with a net loss of $1,424,000 or $(.43) per share, on revenues of $12,344,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The net loss for 2005 includes a $1,091,000 loss attributable to the start up of One IP Voice, Inc. ("OIPV"), the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, formed to provide carrier-based VoIP telephony solutions along with network services. Its primary target market is the SMB market. OIPV's product offerings include Hosted IP Centrex and IP Trunking services, bundled with private OIPV "last mile" connectivity on a national basis, long distance calling, On Net calling, local area calling, 911 capabilities and Wide Area Network ("WAN") voice and data connectivity. Since its formation, OIPV has achieved several business plan milestones, including the hiring of key management personnel and the completion of the initial buildout of its first feature server platform, located in Denver, Colorado. In January 2006, the Company launched the national marketing of OIPV's products and services. The OIPV business is critical to the Company's future business strategy.
