- >> KLAUS PETER LOEBBE APPOINTED TO THE BOARD OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS OF BASF AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT
- >> AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS AND NUTRITION SEGMENT TO BE HEADQUARTERED IN LUDWIGSHAFEN

Edgar Filing: BASF AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT - Form 6-K

The Supervisory Board of BASF Aktiengesellschaft has appointed Klaus Peter Loebbe as a member of the Board of Executive Directors of BASF Aktiengesellschaft with effect from January 1, 2002.

The Board of Executive Directors has also approved the following changes in responsibilities:

As of March 1, 2002, Klaus Peter Loebbe will assume responsibility for the newly-created Ressort IX, based in Mount Olive, New Jersey. The Coatings division as well as the region North America (NAFTA) will belong to this Ressort.

Ressort VII, headed by Peter Oakley, will relocate its headquarters to Ludwigshafen, Germany, as of April 1, 2002. Oakley will remain responsible for the Agricultural Products and Nutrition segment which includes the Agricultural Products and Fine Chemicals divisions, Specialty Chemicals Research as well as BASF Plant Science GmbH. Following the acquisition of the crop protection business of American Home Products, this cyclically resilient segment with a clear growth strategy contributes about 20 percent to BASF Group sales.

As of January 1, 2002, Jean-Pierre Monteny, member of the Board of Executive Directors of BASF Coatings AG, will assume responsibility for the Coatings division. The Supervisory Board of BASF Coatings will be recommended to elect Monteny as Chairman of the Board of Executive Directors of BASF Coatings AG.

KLAUS PETER LOEBBE, 55, was born in Berlin and began a two-year business training program at BASF in 1966. Following its completion in 1968, he started his career in sales and marketing in the Organic Intermediates division. In 1975, Loebbe was delegated to Tokyo where he spent four years working for BASF Japan Ltd. He returned to Ludwigshafen in 1979 to work in the Intermediates division. At the end of 1984, he moved to the Basic Chemicals division and was responsible for marketing of electrolysis and sulfur products and, from late 1987, for the marketing of diols in the Intermediates division. In 1990, he was appointed Group Vice-President with worldwide marketing responsibility for diols, carboxylic acids and other products. In April 1993, he became President of BASF's Industrial Chemicals division. Since 1996, Loebbe has been President of BASF's Coatings division and Chairman of the Board of Executive Directors of BASF Coatings AG.

JEAN-PIERRE MONTENY, 55, was born in Lyon, France. He studied in Nice and has been involved in the coatings industry for more than 25 years. Monteny is a member of the Board of Executive Directors of BASF Coatings AG with responsibilities for the areas of automotive refinish and industrial coatings.

BASF is a transnational chemical company that aims to increase and sustain its corporate value through growth and innovation. The company's product range includes high-value chemicals, plastics, colorants and pigments, dispersions, automotive and industrial coatings, agricultural products and fine chemicals as well as crude oil and natural gas. BASF's approach to integration, known in German as "Verbund," is one of its particular strengths, ensuring cost leadership and a unique competitive advantage. With sales of about E 36 billion (circa $34 billion) in 2000 and over 90,000 employees, BASF is one of the world's leading chemical companies. BASF acts in accordance with the principles of Sustainable
