PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 18, 2002

INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

Stockholders Meeting

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the stockholders of Scherer Healthcare, Inc. (the "Company") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of the Company to be voted at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the "Annual Meeting"). The Annual Meeting will be held in the Princeton Hall Room at 4403 Northside Parkway, Atlanta, Georgia 30327, on Wednesday, September 18, at 10:00 a.m., local time.

The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and form of proxy card are first being sent or given to stockholders is August 15, 2002.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote

The securities that can be voted on at the Annual Meeting consist of common stock of the Company, $.01 par value per share, with each share entitling its owner to one vote on each matter submitted to the stockholders. The record date for determining the holders of common stock who are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting is August 5, 2002. On the record date, approximately 4,390,264 shares of common stock were outstanding and eligible to be voted at the Annual Meeting.

Counting of Votes

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. In counting the votes to determine whether a quorum exists at the Annual Meeting, all votes "FOR" and instructions to withhold authority to vote will be used.

In voting with regard to the proposal to elect directors, stockholders may vote in favor of all nominees, withhold their votes as to all nominees or withhold their votes as to specific nominees. The vote required to approve the proposal to elect directors is a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of shares entitled to vote, provided a quorum is present. As a result, votes that are withheld will not be counted and will have no effect in the election of directors.

Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchanges (the "Exchanges") that govern most domestic stock brokerage firms, member firms that hold shares in street name for beneficial owners may, to the extent that such beneficial owners do not furnish voting instructions with respect to any or all proposals submitted for stockholder action, vote in their discretion upon proposals that are considered "discretionary" proposals under the rules of the Exchanges. Member brokerage firms that have received no instructions from their clients as to "non-discretionary" proposals do not have discretion to vote on these proposals. Such "broker non-votes" will not be considered in determining whether a quorum exists at the Annual Meeting and will not be considered as votes cast in determining the outcome of any proposal.

As of August 5, 2002 (the record date for the Annual Meeting), the current directors and executive officers of the Company owned or controlled the power to vote approximately 2,775,878 shares of common stock of the Company eligible to be voted at the meeting, constituting approximately 63.2% of the outstanding common stock. The Company believes that the holders of more than a majority of the common stock outstanding on the record date will vote all of their shares of common stock in favor of the election of the director nominees and, therefore, the presence of a quorum and the election of the director nominees is reasonably assured.

Proxies

Edgar Filing: SCHERER HEALTHCARE INC - Form DEF 14A

Stockholders should specify their choices with regard to the election of the director nominees on the enclosed proxy card. All properly executed proxy cards delivered by stockholders to the Company in time to be voted at the Annual Meeting and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the directions noted thereon. In the absence of such instructions, the shares represented by a signed and dated proxy card will be voted "FOR" the election of all director nominees. If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote upon such matters according to their judgment.

Any stockholder delivering a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted, by giving written notice to the Secretary of the Company, at 120 Interstate North Parkway, S.E., Suite 305, Atlanta, Georgia 30339, by executing and delivering to the Secretary of the Company a proxy card bearing a later date or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting; provided, however, that under the rules of the Exchanges, any beneficial owner of the Company's common stock whose shares are held in street name by a member brokerage firm may revoke his proxy and vote his shares in person at the Annual Meeting only in accordance with applicable rules and procedures of the Exchanges.

In addition to soliciting proxies through the mail, the Company may solicit proxies through its directors, officers and employees in person and by telephone or facsimile. Brokerage firms, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries also may be requested to forward proxy materials to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by them. All expenses incurred in connection with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company.

The following report of the Audit Committee does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Company filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent the Company specifically incorporates this report by reference therein.

As set forth in more detail in the Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee's primary responsibilities include:

To carry out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee met one time during fiscal 2002.

Each of the directors who serve on this committee is "Independent" for purposes of the The Nasdaq Stock Market's listing standards. 6

These gains are based on the fair market value per share on the date of grant and assumed rates of stock price appreciation of 5% and 10% compounded annually from the date the respective options were granted to their expiration date. These assumptions are mandated by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and are not intended to forecast future appreciation of the Company's stock price. The potential realizable value computation is net of the applicable exercise price, but does not take into account federal or state income tax consequences and other expenses of option exercises or sales of appreciated stock. Actual gains, if any, are dependent upon the timing of such exercise and the future performance of the Company's common stock. There can be no assurance that the rates of appreciation in this table can be achieved. This table does not take into account any appreciation in the price of our common stock to date.

8

Option Exercises

The Compensation Committee approves the compensation of executive officers paid by the Company and determines their compensation. The Compensation Committee is also responsible for the granting and administration of stock options.

The Compensation Committee has furnished the following report for fiscal 2002:

Compensation Philosophy

The objectives of the Company's executive compensation program are to provide a level of compensation that will attract, retain, and motivate executives capable of achieving long-term success for the Company's stockholders in terms of increasing Company and stockholder value.

Executive Officer Compensation

General. There are three main components of the executive compensation program: (i) base salary; (ii) potential annual cash bonus; and (iii) periodic awards of stock options or other equity participation to encourage achievement over time and to align executive officer and stockholder interests. Executive officers are eligible for the same benefits, including group health, life, and disability insurance and participation in the Scherer Healthcare, Inc. 401(k) Retirement and Savings Plan, as are available generally to the Company's and its subsidiaries' non-union employees. Prerequisites provided to executive officers are not material.

Annual Salary. The Compensation Committee determines the salary of the executive officers, with the objective of assuring that salary levels are competitive. The salary levels are determined by considering duties and responsibilities of the officers and their impact upon the operations and the growth in value of the Company. The level of equity or potential equity participation in the Company is considered in establishing compensation levels.

Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee determines any incentive compensation on an annual basis. The Compensation Committee determines bonus awards on a subjective basis, taking into account activities and accomplishments for the fiscal year. The Compensation Committee has not granted any bonus awards to the named executive officer for fiscal 2002.

Stock Option Awards. Stock options are granted to executive officers and to other employees on a periodic basis, with vesting over several years. Awards are made at a level that is considered to provide a meaningful incentive to the executive officers. The Company granted options to purchase 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to the named executive officer during fiscal 2002.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

Robert P. Scherer, Jr. serves as the chairman of the Board of Directors, president and chief executive officer of the Company. Prior to April 1999, the Company did not pay any salary or bonus to Mr. Scherer. Beginning in April 1999, the Company began paying Mr. Scherer a salary of $150,000 per year. The Compensation Committee annually reviews the performance and compensation of the chief executive officer based on the assessment of his past performance and its expectation of his future contributions to the Company's performance. The Compensation Committee believes the compensation paid to Mr. Scherer in fiscal 2002 was reasonable.

A representative of Deloitte & Touche is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and such representative is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions. Representatives from Arthur Andersen will not be present.
