CryptoLogic marries poker and blackjack for a unique gaming experience

Hold Em Blackjack™ combines simplicity of blackjack, intensity of poker

available only from CryptoLogic

October 16, 2006 (Toronto, ON) CryptoLogic Inc., a leading software developer to the global Internet gaming industry, today unveiled Hold Em Blackjack, a brand new game that combines the simplicity of blackjack with the intensity of poker.

Hold Em Blackjack was created exclusively for licensees of WagerLogic Limited, CryptoLogic's licensing subsidiary, by Andy Goetsch, CryptoLogic's VP of Poker Software Development and a world-class poker player in his own right. Goetsch and his team have breathed new life into the traditional game of 21 by giving players the betting and bluffing excitement of Texas Hold Em Poker along with the straightforward play of casino blackjack.

Hold Em Blackjack is just the latest example of CryptoLogic's unique brand of innovation and intelligence, which consistently wins the heart of the online player, said Lewis Rose, CryptoLogic's President and CEO. For CryptoLogic, it's a simple yet exciting concept powerfully executed. For players, it's a whole new entertainment experience. And for the world's blue-chip gaming brands, Hold Em Blackjack is another way to keep players coming back for more.

Unlike traditional blackjack, Hold Em Blackjack's player vs. player format means the prize pot is determined by player bets, which ensures that a player wins every hand. The game consists of three rounds of betting, bluffing and skill. With Hold Em Blackjack, the best hand is not always the winning hand.

Hold em Blackjack pits players against each other, rather than the House, taking blackjack to a whole new level, said Andy Goetsch, VP, Poker Software Development for CryptoLogic. Because blackjack is a familiar game to play, the learning curve for Hold em Blackjack is very fast. After just a couple of hands almost anyone can be an expert.

Offered exclusively through WagerLogic, Hold Em Blackjack was recently launched at williamhillpoker.com, interpoker.com, sunpoker.com, pokerplex.com, ukbettingpoker.co.uk, littlewoodspoker.com, and classicpoker.com. CryptoLogic's latest innovation is already creating buzz throughout the international e-gaming community.

The initial response has been tremendous, noted AJ Slivinski, WagerLogic's Managing Director. Based on the feedback we've received, Hold Em Blackjack is already becoming a player favourite.

Edgar Filing: CRYPTOLOGIC INC - Form 6-K

Hold Em Blackjack online satellite tournaments provide players with the opportunity to compete for US$6,100 prize packages, each including a seat in the exclusive 200-player live event at the 2006 Caribbean Poker Classic (CPC) in St. Kitts between November 24 and December 3. WagerLogic's licensees have added US$50,000 to the prize pool, creating a total prize package of a quarter-million dollars for the CPC's Hold Em Blackjack tournament.
