All such purchases of Common Stock by each of the Reporting Persons other than James Dennedy were funded by working capital, which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business. The shares of Common Stock purchased by James Dennedy were purchased with personal funds. The amount of funds expended for such purchases was $172,178 by SSH Partners I, LP, $29,929 by James Dennedy, $40,364 by Arcadia Partners, L.P., $175,234 by Richard Rofe, $443,163 by Parche, LLC, and $3,113,774 by Starboard Value & Opportunity Fund, LLC.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF THE TRANSACTION

The Reporting Persons, each and collectively acting upon the advice of Mitchell-Wright Technology Group, LLC ("MWTG"), acquired beneficial ownership of the shares of Common Stock to which this Schedule 13D relates for investment purposes. In addition, as described below, the Reporting Persons acquired beneficial ownership of the shares of Common Stock to which this Schedule 13D relates for the possible purpose of exerting influence over the direction of the Company. MWTG's primary interest is to maximize the value of its investment on behalf of the Reporting Persons. MWTG considers the Common Stock to be an attractive investment at the price levels at which the Reporting Person's acquired the shares of Common Stock.

MWTG routinely monitors the performance of the Reporting Persons' investments in the Company. In this connection, the MWTG intends to continuously evaluate the Company's business, financial condition, operating results, capital structure, management, stock market performance, future prospects, competitive outlook and other relevant factors. As part of such evaluations, the MWTG has and may in the future seek the views of, hold active discussions with and respond to inquiries from members of the board of directors, officers or representatives of the Company and other persons regarding the Company's affairs and strategic alternatives, and the interests of other stockholders in participating in such alternatives. Depending on such evaluations, the Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, purchase additional shares of Common Stock or may dispose of any and all shares of Common Stock held by them. MWTG may from time to time develop and recommend to the other Reporting Persons plans respecting, or propose changes in, the management, composition of the board of directors, policies, operations, or business of the Company, including a possible sale of the Company.

MWTG has considered and proposed to management that, with respect to the Company and the announced merger with Primus Knowledge Solutions, Inc. ("PKSI"), the Company (i) should commit to more significant cost synergies and (ii) enact changes in the corporate governance in connection with a vote on the proposed transaction. MWTG has voiced its concerns during onsite meetings with management and in separate phone conversations. Further, on August 18, 2004, MWTG sent a letter to Bob Burke highlighting elements of our proposal, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2 hereto. MWTG has been and remains concerned with management's ability to execute on a profitable business plan. Management appears unwilling to realign the cost structure with the revenue of the business. The announced acquisition of PKSI gives MWTG further pause. MWTG approached management with an open mind to hear their rationale for the proposed transaction. In response, MWTG offered to share its thoughts and potential actions, which MWTG believes will maximize shareholder value. To date, MWTG has not received an adequate response from the board of directors or management to give MWTG confidence in the merits of management's plan. MWTG believes that the proposed merger with PKSI is an additional management challenge that increases execution risk and that management's plan produces insufficient cost synergies to justify the incremental risk resulting from the combination.

With and apart from the proposed merger with PKSI, MWTG believes that the Company's corporate governance is out of line with the current state of the market thereby preventing shareholders from effectively helping the business succeed. As of the date of this filing, the Reporting Persons advised by MWTG collectively own 5.5% of the Common Stock. As the second largest shareholder group, MWTG believes management and the board has a duty to meet and receive input from the Reporting Persons as shareholders who are expressing their sincere interest in developing solutions that will maximize shareholder value.

Based on available information and discussions with management the Reporting Persons can not, at this time, support the announced merger unless management and the board of directors commit to greater cost synergies and make the proposed changes to corporate governance in connection with the solicitation of votes on the proposed merger.

In connection with these and other plans or proposals that MWTG may develop, MWTG may conduct investigations and, if warranted by such review, make and negotiate proposals to and with the Company concerning the matters addressed in the preceding paragraph, and may enter into agreements with the Company in connection with those negotiations and proposals, including confidentiality and/or other arrangements. MWTG may identify and seek to nominate one or more persons for election to the Company's board of directors.

Except as set forth above, none of the Reporting Persons have any plans or proposals which relate to or could result in, any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D. However, the Reporting Persons intend to continually review the Company's business affairs, financial position, strategy and future prospects, as well as conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions. Based on such evaluation and review and other factors, the Reporting Persons may in the future take such actions with respect to their investment in the Issuer as they deem appropriate in light of the circumstances existing from time to time. Specifically, the Reporting Persons reserve the right to take actions that relate to or could result in the following:

- (a) acquisition or disposition of Common Stock or other securities of the Company;
- (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation involving the Company;
- (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (d) a change in the present board or management of the Company;
- (e) a change in the present capitalization of the Company;
- (f) a material change in the Company's business or corporate structure;
- (g) changes in the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws to revise or eliminate provisions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person; or
- (h) any action similar to any of those enumerated.

The Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider their position and/or change their purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto.
