Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 15, 2017, Consultant in Business Engineering Research, S.L.U. (“Ciber Spain”), a subsidiary of Ciber, Inc. (“Ciber”) and Experis ManpowerGroup, S.L.U. (“Experis”), a subsidiary of the ManpowerGroup (“Manpower”) announced that they have signed a purchase agreement (the “Agreement”) for the sale of certain of the assets and liabilities of Ciber Spain, which operates Ciber’s business in Spain (the “Ciber Spain Sale”). The terms of the Agreement include an approximately $7.0 million (USD) cash purchase price, upon which up to an additional $1.0 million (USD) earnout adjustment may be earned, as determined quarterly over 24 months after closing with respect to the performance of a certain Ciber Spain contract. The purchase price is subject to two additional escrow amounts of (a) $2.0 million (USD) tax escrow, to be settled 90 days after closing (the “Tax Escrow”) and (b) $700,000 (USD) of the purchase price for general claims, to be released in equal parts at 12 and 18 months after closing. In connection with the Ciber Spain Sale, Experis Ciber B.V. (“Experis Netherlands”), a subsidiary of Manpower, has agreed to advance Ciber Nederland B.V. (“Ciber Nederland”) $2.0 million (USD) (the “Escrow Loan”) of the $2.5 million (USD) escrow amount to be otherwise be released in June 2017 (the “First Tranche Netherlands Escrow”) relating to Ciber’s previously reported sale of its Netherlands operations to Manpower in June 2016. The Escrow Loan shall be satisfied by an early release of $2.0 million (USD) of the First Tranche Netherlands Escrow to Experis Netherlands, which amount would otherwise be payable to Ciber Nederland, after the expiration of the completion of the 31 day escrow release notification period applicable to the First Tranche Netherlands Escrow. Ciber anticipates using the proceeds from the Ciber Spain Sale and the Escrow Loan for working capital and to reduce its borrowings under its ABL Facility with Wells Fargo Bank, N.A (“Wells Fargo”) by approximately $3.2 million (USD). The Agreement also contains representations and warranties and covenants, as well as indemnification provisions customary for transactions of this nature. Completion of the transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including the performance of covenants and the satisfaction of certain other conditions, including the receipt of the consent of Wells Fargo, the satisfaction of an employee notification period, consent of certain clients, no material adverse change with respect to Ciber Spain since the date of the Agreement, and other terms as set forth the Agreement. Ciber Spain will continue to be involved in the full transition of the business to Experis after the closing of the transaction, which is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2017, subject to the satisfaction of closing conditions as described above. The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement to be filed as an exhibit to the Company’s next Annual Report on Form 10-K.

On February 15, 2017, Ciber issued a press release regarding the Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
