SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED MARCH 24, 2017

CITYWIDE BANKS OF COLORADO, INC.

PROPOSED MERGER-YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Citywide Shareholder:

We are happy to advise you that the board of directors of Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc. ("Citywide") has unanimously approved the merger (the "merger") of Citywide into Heartland Financial USA, Inc. ("Heartland") in accordance with an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated February 13, 2017 (the "merger agreement"). Before we can complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of Citywide shareholders. We are sending you this proxy statement/prospectus to ask you to vote in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement. The Citywide board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" approval and adoption of the merger agreement. In the merger, Citywide will merge with and into Heartland, and holders of both Series I and Series II of Citywide Class A Common Stock will receive merger consideration of $57.00 in cash and 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock per share, subject to certain adjustments described below. We refer to both Series I and Series II of Citywide Class A Common Stock, no par value per share, as "Citywide common stock," and Heartland's common stock, $1.00 par value per share, as "Heartland common stock."

The exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of Heartland common stock occurring prior to the completion of the merger, but if the price of Heartland common stock drops below certain levels, as described under "The Merger Agreement - Termination," Citywide may exercise a "walk-away" right to terminate the merger agreement unless Heartland increases the exchange ratio or cash component of the merger consideration by exercising its "top-up" option.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to the following adjustments:

If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as defined on page 46) is less than $113.0 million on the last business day of the month immediately preceding the month in which the closing date of the merger occurs (the "determination date"), then the cash component of the merger consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to (a) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is below $113.0 million divided by (b) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock. If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is greater than $114.8 million on the determination date, the cash component of the merger consideration will be increased by an amount equal to (x) the lesser of (A) $5.0 million and (B) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is above $114.8 million, divided by (y) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to a tax holdback of $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock, or an aggregate of $4.1 million (the "tax holdback"). The amount of the tax holdback may not be paid out, or only partially paid out, to Citywide shareholders if Heartland incurs a tax loss because Citywide or any of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) prior to Citywide's election to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014. A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. To the extent that Heartland or any of its subsidiaries incurs a tax loss based on the circumstances described in this paragraph, Heartland will be indemnified solely from the tax holdback. Any portion of the tax holdback not used to indemnify Heartland for a tax loss, plus accrued interest, will be distributed pro rata to holders of Citywide common stock on the applicable release dates, or upon the resolution of pending tax claims, whichever comes later.

Based on the closing price of a share of Heartland common stock as of February 10, 2017 of $45.75, the last trading date before the merger agreement was executed, and assuming no adjustments to the merger consideration as described above, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $203.0 million or $207.98 per share of Citywide common stock.

Based on the price of a share of Heartland common stock as of _____, 2017 of $ _____, the last practicable trading date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $ _____ million or $ _____ per share of Citywide common stock. These valuations assume no adjustments based on Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity and no claims against the tax holdback.

Because the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide and the market price for Heartland common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger, the value of the actual consideration you will receive may be different from the amounts described above. Heartland common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "HTLF."

To complete the merger, we must receive regulatory approvals, Heartland stockholders must approve an increase in authorized shares of Heartland common stock, and the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Citywide common stock entitled to vote, with Series I and Series II each voting as a separate class, must approve and adopt the merger agreement. Citywide will hold a special meeting of shareholders to vote on this merger proposal.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please submit your proxy with voting instructions for your shares of Citywide common stock in accordance with the instructions contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. If you do not vote your shares of Citywide common stock, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

We urge you to read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully before voting, including the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 15. This proxy statement/prospectus gives you detailed information about the merger, and it includes a copy of the merger agreement as Appendix A.

Sincerely,

/s/ Martin J. Schmitz

CITYWIDE BANKS OF COLORADO, INC.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JUNE 28, 2017

Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc. will hold a special meeting of its shareholders at Citywide's executive office located at 6500 East Hampden Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80224, at 4:00 p.m. local time, on June 28, 2017 to consider and vote upon the following matters:

- a proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement between Heartland and Citywide, dated as of February 13, 2017, as it may be amended from time to time, pursuant to which Citywide will merge with and into Heartland; and
- a proposal to approve the adjournment of the Citywide special meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of Citywide common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash and shares of Heartland common stock. Your attention is directed to the proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this notice for a complete discussion of the merger. A copy of the merger agreement is included as Appendix A to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

The board of directors has fixed the close of business on May 22, 2017 as the record date for the Citywide special meeting. Holders of record of Citywide common stock at such time are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Citywide special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

The Citywide board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that holders of Citywide common stock vote "for" approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Citywide shareholders who do not vote in favor of the merger agreement and who strictly comply with Colorado Revised Statutes Title 7, Article 113 have the right to assert dissenters' rights under that statute. For a description of the procedures that must be followed to make written demand for dissenters' rights, see the copy of the statute which is attached as Appendix B. In addition, a summary of the procedures to be followed in order to obtain payment for dissenting shares is set forth under the caption "The Merger-Notice of Dissenters' Rights" in the attached proxy statement/prospectus.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please submit your proxy with voting instructions for your shares of Citywide common stock. To submit your proxy by mail, please complete, sign, date and return the accompanying proxy form in the enclosed self-addressed, stamped envelope. Any holder of Citywide common stock present at the special meeting may vote in person instead of by proxy and a proxy may be revoked in writing at any time before the special meeting. The presence of a shareholder at the special meeting will not automatically revoke that shareholder's proxy. A shareholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to the voting of such proxy on any matter (without, however, affecting any vote taken prior to such revocation) by (i) filing with the Secretary of Citywide a written notice of revocation, (ii) delivering to Citywide a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (iii) attending the meeting and providing written or oral notice of revocation with the presiding officer during the meeting (at which point the shareholder may vote in person).

Sincerely,

/s/ Carol Benedict

Carol Benedict
Secretary

Your vote is important. Please complete, sign, date and return your proxy form, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

Q: What Am I Being Asked To Vote On?

Holdings of Citywide common stock are being asked to approve and adopt a merger agreement entered into between Heartland and Citywide. In the merger, Citywide will be merged with and into Heartland, with Heartland as the surviving corporation, holders of Citywide common stock will receive cash and Heartland common stock.

Q: Why Is The Citywide Board of Directors Recommending The Merger?

A: The Citywide board believes that the merger is advisable, fair to and in the best interest of Citywide and its shareholders.

Q: Why Is My Vote Important?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the Series I Citywide common stock and the Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class, is required to approve and adopt the merger agreement. If a holder of Citywide common stock fails to vote or abstains, this will have the same effect as a vote against approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What Will I Receive For My Citywide Common Stock If The Merger Is Completed?

A: You will receive merger consideration of approximately $57.00 in cash and 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock per share of Citywide common stock. The exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of Heartland common stock occurring prior to the completion of the merger. The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to certain adjustments depending on Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity as of the determination date and a tax holdback of $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. The amount of the tax holdback may not be paid out, or only partially paid out, to Citywide shareholders if Heartland incurs a tax loss because Citywide or any of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1968, as amended (the "Code") or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) prior to Citywide's election to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014. A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock.

Based on the price of a share of Heartland common stock as of , 2017 of $, the last practicable trading date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the transaction is valued at approximately $ million or $ per share of Citywide common stock. These valuations assume no adjustments based on Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity and no claims against the tax holdback.

Because the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide and the market price for Heartland common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger, the value of the actual consideration you will receive may be different from the amounts described above.

Q: What Is The Tax Holdback And How Would It Affect The Consideration I Would Receive In Connection With The Merger?

A: Because Heartland may incur a tax loss if Citywide or one of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) before Citywide elected to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014, $4.17 will be held back from the merger consideration paid for each share of Citywide common stock, or an aggregate of $4.1 million (the "tax holdback"). A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. To the extent that Heartland or any of its subsidiaries incurs a tax loss based on the circumstances described in this paragraph, Heartland will be indemnified solely from the tax holdback. Any portion of the tax holdback not used to indemnify Heartland for a tax loss, plus accrued interest, will be distributed pro rata to holders of Citywide common stock on the applicable release dates, or upon the resolution of pending tax claims, whichever comes later.

Q: When Do You Expect To Complete The Merger?

A:

We cannot complete the merger until a number of conditions are satisfied, including approval of an increase in authorized shares of common stock by the Heartland stockholders, approval of the merger by the Citywide shareholders and by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Division of Banking of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies and a waiver from the application requirement under the Bank Holding Company Act from the Federal Reserve Board, or approval of the merger by the Federal Reserve Board in lieu of such waiver. We expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2017, assuming these and other approvals are received.

Q: Do I Have Dissenters' Rights?

Yes. Citywide is a Colorado corporation. Under Colorado law, holders of Citywide common stock have the right to assert dissenters' rights and, rather than the merger consideration, demand the "fair value" of their shares. To do so, you must not vote in favor of the merger and must notify Citywide of your intention to demand payment of the fair value of your shares, rather than the merger consideration, before the special meeting, in accordance the procedures set forth below under "The Merger-Notice of Dissenters' Rights." A copy of the Colorado statutes governing dissenters' rights is included as Appendix B. Colorado law requires that the "fair value" of the shares be considered as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and without considering the effect of the merger, and requires Citywide to make the initial determination of fair value. If a shareholder objects to this determination, Citywide may petition a court to determine fair value. The fair value determined by such a court may be greater than, equal to or less than the merger consideration.

One condition to Heartland's obligation to complete the merger is that the total number of dissenting shares of Citywide common stock cannot be more than 6.5% of the number of outstanding shares of Citywide common stock. We encourage you to read the statutes governing dissenters' rights carefully and to consult with legal counsel if you desire to exercise your dissenters' rights.

Q: What Do I Need To Do Now?

After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, indicate on your proxy form how you want your shares of Citywide common stock to be voted. Then complete, sign, date and mail your proxy form in the enclosed postage paid return envelope as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented and voted at the Citywide special meeting.

Q: If My Shares Are Held In Street Name By My Broker, Will My Broker Automatically Vote My Shares For Me?

No. Without instructions from you, your broker will not be able to vote your shares of Citywide common stock. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides. Please check the voting form used by your broker to see if it offers telephone or Internet voting.

Q: Can I Change My Vote?

Yes. There are three ways you can change your vote after you have submitted your proxy: First, you may send a written notice to the Secretary of Citywide, stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you may complete and submit a new proxy form. Your latest vote actually received by Citywide before the special meeting will be counted, and any earlier votes will be revoked. Third, you may attend the Citywide special meeting and vote in person. Your presence at the meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the voting of the proxy by attending the meeting and providing written or oral notice of revocation with the presiding officer during the meeting (at which point you may vote in person).

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your broker in order to change or revoke your vote.

Q: Should I Send In My Share Certificates Now?

Please do NOT send in your share certificates at this time. After the merger is completed, you will be provided with a letter of transmittal explaining what you must do to exchange your Citywide share certificates for merger consideration.

Q: Whom Should I Call With Questions?

If you have questions about the merger or the special meeting or you need additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus, or if you have questions about the process for voting or if you need a replacement proxy form, you should contact:

Citywide Will be Merged into Heartland (Page 46).

We encourage you to read the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. The merger agreement provides that Citywide will be merged with and into Heartland. Heartland will survive the merger, and the separate corporate existence of Citywide will cease. Immediately after the merger, Citywide Banks will be merged with and into Centennial, and Centennial will have its name changed to "Citywide Banks" (the "surviving bank").

What You Will Receive in the Merger (Pages 46 to 47).

Citywide Common Stock

You will receive merger consideration of $57.00 in cash and 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock per share of Citywide common stock, subject to certain adjustments described below.

The exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of Heartland common stock occurring prior to the completion of the merger, but if the price of Heartland common stock drops below certain levels, as described under "The Merger Agreement - Termination," Citywide may exercise a "walk-away" right to terminate the merger agreement unless Heartland increases the exchange ratio or cash component of the merger consideration by exercising its "top-up" option.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to the following adjustments:

If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is less than $113.0 million on the determination date, then the cash component of the merger consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to (a) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is below $113.0 million divided by (b) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock. If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is greater than $114.8 million on the determination date, the cash component of the merger consideration will be increased by an amount equal to (x) the lesser of (A) $5.0 million and (B) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is above $114.8 million, divided by (y) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to a tax holdback of $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock, or an aggregate of $4.1 million (the "tax holdback"). The amount of the tax holdback may not be paid out, or only partially paid out, to Citywide shareholders if Heartland incurs a tax loss because Citywide or any of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) prior to Citywide's election to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014. A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. To the extent that Heartland or any of its subsidiaries incurs a tax loss based on the circumstances described in this paragraph, Heartland will be indemnified solely from the tax holdback. Any portion of the tax holdback not used to indemnify Heartland for a tax loss, plus accrued interest, will be distributed pro rata to holders of Citywide common stock on the applicable release dates, or upon the resolution of pending tax claims, whichever comes later.

Based on the closing price of a share of Heartland common stock as of February 10, 2017 of $45.75, the last trading date before the merger agreement was executed, and assuming no adjustments as describe above, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $203.0 million or $207.98 per share of Citywide common stock. Based on the price of a share of Heartland common stock as of , 2017 of $, the last practicable trading date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $ million or $ per share of Citywide common stock. These valuations assume no adjustments based on Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity and no claims against the tax holdback.

Because the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide and the market price for Heartland common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger, the value of the actual consideration you will receive may be different from the amounts described above. Heartland common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "HTLF."

Citywide's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval and adoption of the merger agreement (Pages 24 to 25)

The board of directors of Citywide believes that the merger is in the best interests of Citywide and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger agreement. For the factors considered by the Citywide board of directors in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, see the section entitled "The Merger-Citywide's Reasons for the Merger."

Citywide's Financial Advisor Has Provided an Opinion to the Citywide Board of Directors as to the Fairness to Holders of Citywide Common Stock of the Merger Consideration, from a Financial Point of View, to be paid to Holders of Citywide Common Stock (Pages 25 to 36).

In deciding to approve the merger, the board of directors of Citywide considered the opinion of its financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler"). On February 13, 2017, the board of directors of Citywide received an oral opinion from Sandler, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of February 13, 2017 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations described in the opinion, the consideration to be paid pursuant to the merger agreement to the holders of Citywide common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Citywide common stock. A copy of this opinion is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. Citywide shareholders should read the opinion completely and carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler in providing its opinion.

Certain Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger (Pages 37 to 38).

Some members of management of Citywide have interests in the merger that are in addition to or different from their interests as Citywide shareholders. Specifically, Kevin G. Quinn, President and Chief Executive Officer of Citywide Banks, has entered into an employment agreement with Heartland, Citywide Banks and Centennial, and Martin J. Schmitz, Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide, has entered into a consulting agreement with Heartland and Centennial. These agreements will become effective as of the effective time of the merger. The Citywide board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in approving the merger agreement and the merger. Regulatory Approvals We Must Obtain for the Merger (Page 38).

Citywide Banks will be merged with and into Centennial, and Centennial will change its name to "Citywide Banks." We cannot complete this bank merger unless we file applications with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") and the Division of Banking of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies (the "CDB"), and these applications are approved. The CDB must also approve the merger. We are relying on the application process with the FDIC for an exemption from a requirement to file an application and obtain the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for the merger. If the FDIC approves the bank merger, we have to wait anywhere from 15 to 30 days before we can complete the bank merger, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice can challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. We will not be able to complete the merger of Citywide into Heartland until we receive regulatory approval for the bank merger and these time periods have expired.

Citywide is obligated under the merger agreement to redeem all issued and outstanding shares of its 7.5% Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (the "Citywide preferred stock") in connection with the merger. There are currently 5,050 shares of Citywide preferred stock issued and outstanding. In order to obtain the necessary funds to redeem the Citywide preferred stock, Citywide must receive a dividend from Citywide Banks. The payment of a dividend from Citywide Banks to Citywide is subject to the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the CDB, and Citywide must first obtain such approvals prior to receiving any dividend payment from Citywide Banks.

Although we currently believe Heartland and Citywide should be able to obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to the combined company after the completion of the merger.

Completion of the Merger is Subject to Satisfying Several Conditions (Page 48).

Citywide's and Heartland's respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain mutual conditions, including:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Citywide shareholders;
- no prohibitive change in laws;
- the receipt of the required state and federal regulatory approvals;
- the absence of any injunction or order, or any law or regulation, that would impair the merger;
- the approval to increase the total number of authorized shares of Heartland common stock from 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 shares by Heartland's stockholders;
- the effectiveness of the registration statement for the issuance of Heartland common stock in exchange for Citywide common stock;
- the truth and correctness of the other party's representations and warranties, subject to the applicable standard of materiality in the merger agreement; and
- the other party's performance in all material respects of all the obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement.

Citywide's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

- no change of control of Heartland;
- the receipt by Citywide of a legal opinion from its counsel that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code; and
- the assumption of Heartland of Citywide's obligations under its statutory trust agreements.

Heartland's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

- the total number of dissenting shares cannot be more than 6.5% of the number of outstanding shares of Citywide common stock;
- the receipt of certain consents and waivers from third parties;
- the employment agreement dated February 13, 2017, among Heartland, Citywide, Centennial and Kevin G. Quinn, President and Chief Executive Officer of Citywide Banks, will be in full force and effect;
- the consulting agreement and the noncompetition agreement dated February 13, 2017, among Heartland, Centennial and Martin J. Schmitz, Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide, will be in full force and effect;
- the redemption of all issued and outstanding shares of Citywide preferred stock; and
- the acquisition by Heartland of Citywide's rights under its statutory trust agreements.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

When We Can Terminate the Merger Agreement (Pages 49 to 51).

Citywide and Heartland may agree in writing to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Citywide shareholders, if a majority of the board of directors of each of Citywide and Heartland votes to do so.

In addition, either Heartland or Citywide may decide to terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including the following:

- if there is a law or governmental order that prohibits the merger;
- if a governmental entity has denied the approval of the merger on a final and non-appealable basis;
- if holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of the Series I Citywide common stock and the Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class, fail to approve the merger at the special meeting;
- if the holders of a majority of issued and outstanding shares of Heartland common stock fail to approve the increase in authorized shares of Heartland common stock;
- if the merger has not been completed by September 30, 2017, unless the party seeking to terminate the agreement has failed to comply fully with its obligations under the merger agreement;
- if the other party has or will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement in any material respect and such breach cannot be or is not cured within 30 days after written notice of the breach is given; or
- if satisfaction of any closing condition by the other party is or becomes impossible.

Citywide may terminate the merger agreement pursuant to a "walk-away" right at any time within five business days after the determination date, if both of the following conditions are met:

- the volume weighted average closing price of Heartland common stock during the 15 trading days ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the 10th day prior to the determination date (the "Heartland determination date stock price") is below $35.00 and
- the ratio of the Heartland determination date stock price to $45.75, the closing price of Heartland common stock on the trading day immediately prior to the date of the merger agreement, is less than the ratio of the average daily closing value of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (^KRX) (the "Index"), during the same time period used to calculate the Heartland determination date stock price, to the closing value of the Index on the trading day immediately prior to the date of the merger agreement, after subtracting 0.175 from the second ratio.

However, Citywide's written notice to terminate the merger agreement will have no force and effect if Heartland exercises its "top-up" option and agrees in writing within five business days to increase the original exchange ratio to an amount equal to:

- the original exchange ratio (3.300 shares of Heartland common stock for each share of Citywide common stock), multiplied by
- the quotient of the Heartland determination date stock price divided by $35.00.

Alternatively, Heartland may retain the original exchange ratio, and increase cash consideration so that Citywide shareholders are entitled to receive the same value for each share of Citywide common stock as the holder would have received had the original exchange ratio been increased, as described above. Because the "walk-away" formula is dependent on the future price of Heartland common stock and the Index, it is not possible to determine what the adjusted merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more cash or more shares of Heartland common stock would be issued, to take into account the extent to which the decline in the average price of Heartland's common stock exceeded the decline in the average price of the common stock of the Index group.

Citywide may also terminate the merger agreement if the Citywide board of directors determines to enter into an agreement with a party other than Heartland if Citywide has received a "superior proposal" from the other party, and Citywide complies with applicable provisions of the merger agreement. If Citywide terminates the merger agreement because of a superior proposal, or Heartland terminates the merger agreement because Citywide materially breaches either (a) its obligation to call a meeting of shareholders and to recommend that Citywide shareholders adopt the merger agreement at such meeting or (b) restrictions on its solicitation of other offers to acquire Citywide, Citywide would be obligated to pay Heartland an $8.5 million termination fee.

You have Dissenter's Rights under the Colorado Corporation Law (Pages 44 to 45).

Pursuant to Article 113 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act, holders of Citywide common stock who determine to dissent from, and do not vote in favor of, the merger may elect to have the "fair value" of their shares of Citywide common stock paid to them if the merger is completed and if they comply with the requirements of Article 113 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B. See "The Merger-Notice of Dissenters' Rights."

Citywide Special Meeting (Pages 19 to 20).

The Citywide special meeting of shareholders will be held at Citywide's executive office located at 6500 East Hampden Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80224, at 4:00 p.m. local time, on June 28, 2017. At the Citywide special meeting, holders of Citywide common stock will be asked:

- to approve and adopt the merger agreement; and
- to approve the adjournment of the Citywide special meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

Record Date. Citywide shareholders may cast one vote at the Citywide special meeting for each share of Citywide common stock owned at the close of business on May 22, 2017. At that date, there were three shares of Series I Citywide common stock and 974,613 shares of Series II Citywide common stock entitled to be voted at the Citywide special meeting.

Required Vote. The holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of the Series I Citywide common stock and the Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class, must vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. A Citywide shareholder's failure to vote, a broker non-vote or an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement. As of the record date of the special meeting, Citywide directors, executive officers and their affiliates held 100.0% of the outstanding shares of Series I Citywide common stock and 62.4% of the outstanding shares of Series II Citywide common stock.

Shareholder Voting Agreement. Certain shareholders of Citywide have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger and the merger agreement. These shareholders have the right to vote all three shares of Series I Citywide common stock (100% of the shares of Series I Citywide common stock outstanding) and 713,574 shares of Series II Citywide common stock (73.2% of the shares of Series II Citywide common stock outstanding).

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (Pages 39 to 42).

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Code, and the obligations of Citywide to complete the merger are subject to the receipt of the opinion of Shapiro Biegling Barber Otteson LLP, tax counsel to Citywide, that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code. Citywide does not currently intend to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to complete the merger.

Assuming the merger is consummated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, without any waiver of those terms and conditions, and further assuming the accuracy at the effective time of certain assumptions and representations as to factual matters, the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368 of the Code. Accordingly,

U.S. Holders (as defined in the section titled “The Merger-Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 39) will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of their Citywide common stock for Heartland common stock. U.S. Holders will recognize gain, but not loss, with respect to cash received in the merger, including any cash received in lieu of fractional shares, and with respect to tax holdback payments.

Citywide shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the merger to them in light of their particular circumstances, including under state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

Comparative Per Share Data

The following table presents comparative historical per share data of Heartland and Citywide and unaudited pro forma per share data that reflect the combination of Heartland and Citywide using the purchase method of accounting.

The information listed as “equivalent pro forma” was obtained by multiplying the pro forma amounts by a fixed exchange ratio of 3.300, assuming no exercise by Heartland of its "top-up" option if Citywide notifies Heartland that Citywide is implementing its "walk-away" right.

We expect that we will incur merger and integration charges as a result of combining our companies. We also anticipate that the merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect these expenses or benefits and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have actually been had our companies been combined as of the dates or for the periods presented.

Market Price Information

Heartland common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “HTLF.” Citywide common stock is not publicly traded. The following table sets forth the closing sale prices per share of Heartland common stock on February 10, 2017, the last trading day before we executed the merger agreement, and on , 2017, the last practicable trading day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus.

	Closing Sale Price
	Heartland Common Stock	Citywide Common Stock	Equivalent Price per Share of Heartland Common Stock
February 10, 2017	$45.75	(1)	$150.98
, 2017	$	(1)	$

(1) There is no active trading market for Citywide common stock.

The “Equivalent Price per Share of Heartland Common Stock” at each specified date in the above table represents the product of the closing sales price of a share of Heartland common stock on that date multiplied by the fixed exchange ratio of 3.300, which is the number of shares of Heartland common stock that a Citywide shareholder would receive for each share of Citywide common stock assuming no exercise by Heartland of its "top-up" option if Citywide notifies Heartland that Citywide is implementing its "walk-away" right. Shareholders should obtain current market price quotations for shares of Heartland common stock prior to making any decisions with respect to the merger.

The market price of Heartland common stock will likely fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the date on which the merger is completed and after the merger. Because the market price of Heartland common stock is subject to fluctuations, the value of the shares of Heartland common stock Citywide shareholders will receive in the merger may increase or decrease prior to and after the merger.

By voting to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates, holders of Citywide common stock will be choosing to invest in Heartland because they will receive Heartland common stock in exchange for their shares of Citywide stock. An investment in Heartland's common stock involves significant risk. In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in "Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 18, Citywide shareholders should carefully consider the matters described below in "Risk Factors" beginning on page 15 when determining whether to approve the merger agreement and the transactions it contemplates.

(1) Excludes loans held for sale.

Computed on a fully taxable equivalent basis using an effective tax rate of 35%. Annualized net interest margin, fully tax-equivalent, is a non-GAAP measure, which adjusts net interest income for the tax-favored status of certain loans and securities. Management of Heartland believes this measure enhances the comparability of net interest income arising from taxable and tax-exempt sources. This measure should not be considered a substitute for operating results determined in accordance with GAAP. See Reconciliation of Annualized Net Interest Margin, Fully Tax-Equivalent (non-GAAP) on page 14.

(3) Prior to the adoption of Basel III requirements effective January 1, 2015, the common equity tier 1 capital ratio was not a capital standard required by bank regulatory agencies.

RISK FACTORS

By voting in favor of the merger, you will be choosing to invest in Heartland's common stock. In addition to the information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated in this proxy statement/prospectus by reference, as a shareholder of Citywide, you should carefully consider the following factors in making your decision as to how to vote on the merger.

Risks Relating to the Merger

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to changes in the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide and to a tax holdback.

The amount of cash that will be paid in the merger is dependent upon the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide as of the determination date and will be reduced to the extent that Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is less than $113.0 million. Changes in Adjusted Tangible Common Equity may result from higher loan loss provisions, ordinary business conditions that impact the net interest and non-interest income of Citywide, or more general market and economic conditions that impact Citywide operations. In addition, the cash component of the merger consideration is subject to a tax holdback of $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. The amount of the tax holdback may not be paid out, or only partially paid out, to Citywide shareholders if Heartland incurs a tax loss because Citywide or any of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) prior to Citywide's election to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014. A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock. Absent an exercise by Citywide of its "walk-away" right and a subsequent "top-up" election by Heartland, the exchange ratio used to determine the stock consideration in the merger will be 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock for each share of Citywide common stock, and the exchange ratio will not fluctuate due to changes in the market value of Heartland common stock before the completion of the merger, regardless of how significant such changes might be. Upon completion of the merger, each share of Citywide common stock will be converted into the right to receive, subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the merger agreement: (i) 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock, and (ii) $57.00 in cash. The exchange ratio used to determine the stock consideration will not increase based on fluctuations in the market price of Heartland common stock regardless of how far the price of Heartland common stock falls, except if the price of Heartland common stock falls below certain levels, and Citywide exercises its "walk away" right. Heartland may subsequently exercise its right to "top-up" the exchange ratio or the cash consideration to void the "walk away" right as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement-Termination." The market value of Heartland common stock has varied since Heartland and Citywide entered into the merger agreement and will continue to vary in the future due to changes in the business, operations or prospects of Heartland, market assessments of the merger, regulatory considerations, market and economic considerations, and other factors both within and beyond the control of Heartland. Therefore, at the time of the Citywide special meeting, Citywide's shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the market value of the Heartland common stock they will receive upon completion of the merger.

Because Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity and the market price of Heartland common stock may fluctuate, a Citywide shareholder cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration.

The cash component of the merger consideration may fluctuate depending upon Citywide's final Adjusted Tangible Common Equity. Though the exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration is fixed, changes in the trading price of Heartland common stock may impact the value of the merger consideration. Changes in the trading price of Heartland common stock result from a variety of factors, including, changes in Heartland's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. You will not know when you vote or decide whether to exercise dissenter's rights the exact value of the shares of Heartland common stock, or the amount of cash, that you will receive in the merger. You are urged to obtain current market quotations for Heartland common stock and to consult with your financial advisors before you vote or decide to exercise dissenters' rights.

The interests of certain officers and directors of Citywide may be different from those of other shareholders.

Kevin G. Quinn, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Citywide Banks, has an existing employment agreement providing him with the right to severance payments if he terminates his employment within two years of a change in control of Citywide. The amount of the severance payment is equal to twice Mr. Quinn's salary at the time of termination, a bonus payment equal to the average of his last three annual bonus payments and an amount equal to the cost of one year of health insurance. In connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, and in consideration for the termination of his existing employment agreement, Heartland negotiated a new employment agreement with Mr. Quinn which provides that he will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the surviving bank. He will receive a one-time $1,000,000 signing bonus and a retention bonus of $200,000 every 12 months for three years after the closing date of the merger, if he remains employed by Heartland during that period. The new employment agreement is for an initial term of three years, commencing on the effective date of the merger. Mr. Quinn will receive a base salary of $325,000 per year, a cash incentive bonus of up to 50% of his base salary and eligibility for equity awards, and participation in certain benefit plans and programs. The new employment agreement also includes a one-year non-competition covenant, which becomes effective, if Mr. Quinn's employment with the surviving bank is terminated during the initial term of the employment agreement, and certain employee and customer non-solicitation covenants. The new employment agreement also provides for continued payment of Mr. Quinn's salary during the term of the non-competition covenant if he is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason. The new employment agreement does not provide for additional severance payments.

In addition, Heartland has negotiated a two-year consulting agreement with Martin J. Schmitz, the current Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide, pursuant to which Mr. Schmitz will receive consulting fees equal to $15,500 per month and a one-time grant of Heartland's restricted stock units with a value of $30,000 on the closing date of the merger. Mr. Schmitz also signed a separate non-competition agreement under which he has agreed not to compete with the surviving bank and to refrain from soliciting surviving bank employees to leave their employment, or customers to cease doing business with the surviving bank, for two years following the date of the merger.

Heartland will nominate Mr. Schmitz for election to its board of directors at its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. From the effective time of the merger until his election to the board of directors, Mr. Schmitz will have the right to attend all Heartland board meetings as an observer. He will not have voting rights or fiduciary obligations to Heartland or its stockholders during this period, but he will be bound by the same confidentiality and insider trading obligations as board members. Heartland will reimburse Mr. Schmitz for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to his attendance at the board meetings, but he will receive no compensation other than the compensation provided to him pursuant to the consulting agreement described above.

These interests may cause Citywide's officers and directors to view the merger proposal differently than you may view it. The Board of Directors of Citywide was aware of these interests at the time it approved the merger. See "The Merger-Certain Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger."

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may cause the price of Heartland common stock and the value of Citywide common stock to decline.

Consummation of the merger is subject to customary conditions to closing in addition to the receipt of the required regulatory approvals, approval of Citywide shareholders of the merger agreement, and approval of the Heartland stockholders of an increase in authorized shares of Heartland common stock. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or waived, the merger will not be completed. In addition, Heartland and Citywide may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger agreement is approved by Citywide shareholders, including if the merger has not been completed on or before September 30, 2017. If the merger is not completed, the trading price of Heartland common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market may decline to the extent that the current price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed, and the continued operations of Citywide may be impaired because of costs, departure of employees and customers, or other dislocation caused by the terminated merger. In addition, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. For more information on closing conditions to the merger agreement, see "The Merger Agreement-Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 48.

The shares of Heartland common stock to be received by Citywide shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights than shares of Citywide.

Upon completion of the merger, Citywide shareholders will become Heartland stockholders, and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), the Heartland certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The rights associated with Citywide common stock are different from the rights associated with Heartland common stock. See "Comparison of Rights of Holders of Heartland Common Stock and Citywide Common Stock” beginning on page 57.

Post-Merger Risks

Difficulties in combining the operations of Citywide and Heartland may prevent the combined company from achieving the expected benefits from its acquisition.

The combination of Citywide with Heartland may cause Heartland difficulty achieving fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies it hopes to achieve in the merger. The success of the merger will depend on a number of factors, including Heartland's ability to:

- integrate the operations of Citywide Banks with the operations of Centennial;
- maintain existing relationships with depositors so as to minimize withdrawals of deposits after the merger;
- maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers;
- control the incremental non-interest expense so as to maintain overall operating efficiencies;
- retain and attract qualified personnel; and
- compete effectively in the communities served by Citywide and in nearby communities.

These factors could contribute to the combined company not achieving the expected benefits from the merger within the desired time frames, if at all.

Heartland, as the surviving company from the merger, and its stockholders, including the former shareholders of Citywide, will be subjected to special risks if Heartland effects future acquisitions.

Heartland intends to continue to investigate strategic acquisitions of other bank holding companies and banks after the merger. Acquiring other banks and businesses will involve risks commonly associated with acquisitions, including:

- potential exposure to liabilities of any banks or other businesses acquired;
- difficulty and expense of integrating the operations and personnel of any banks or other businesses acquired;
- possible increases in leverage resulting from borrowings needed to finance an acquisition or augment regulatory capital;
- potential disruption to Heartland's business;
- potential diversion of the time and attention of Heartland's management; and
- impairment of relationships with and the possible loss of key employees and customers of any banks or other businesses acquired by Heartland.

THE CITYWIDE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

The Citywide special meeting will be held at Citywide's executive office located at 6500 East Hampden Avenue, Denver, Colorado 80224, at 4:00 p.m. local time, on June 28, 2017.

Matters to be Considered

At the Citywide Special Meeting, holders of Citywide common stock will be asked to:

- approve and adopt the merger agreement; and
- approve the adjournment of the Citywide special meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

Proxies

You should complete and return the proxy form accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus to ensure that your vote is counted at the Citywide special meeting, regardless of whether you plan to attend the Citywide special meeting. If your shares of Citywide common stock are held in nominee or “street name” you will receive separate voting instructions from your broker or nominee with your proxy materials. You can revoke the proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the Citywide special meeting. Your presence at the meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the voting of such proxy on any matter (without, however, affecting any vote taken prior to such revocation) by (i) filing with the Secretary of Citywide a written notice of revocation, (ii) delivering to Citywide a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (iii) attending the meeting and providing written or oral notice of revocation with the presiding officer during the meeting (at which point you may vote in person). All written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to revocation of proxies in connection with the Citywide special meeting should be addressed as follows:

Martin J. Schmitz
Chairman of the Board and President
Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc.
6500 East Hampden Avenue
Denver, Colorado 80224

If your shares are held in street name, you should follow the instructions of your broker regarding the revocation of proxies.

All shares of Citywide common stock represented by valid proxies received through this solicitation, and that are not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy form. If you make no specification on your proxy form as to how you want your shares of Citywide common stock voted before signing and returning it, your proxy will be voted “FOR” approval and adoption of the merger agreement and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

Solicitation of Proxies

Citywide will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from you. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, Citywide will request that banks, brokers and other record holders send proxies and proxy material to the beneficial owners of Citywide common stock and secure their voting instructions, if necessary. Citywide will reimburse the record holders for their reasonable expenses in taking those actions. If necessary, Citywide may also use several of its regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from holders of Citywide common stock, either personally or by telephone, facsimile or letter.

Record Date

The Citywide board of directors has fixed the close of business on May 22, 2017 as the record date for determining the holders of Citywide common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Citywide special meeting. At that time, three shares of Series I Citywide common stock and 974,613 shares of Series II Citywide common stock were outstanding. As of such date, there were approximately 190 holders of record of Citywide common stock.

Quorum and Vote Required

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of Citywide entitled to vote at the meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Series I Citywide common stock and Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class. Approval of the proposal relating to the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, requires that the votes cast in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast in opposition. You are entitled to one vote for each share of Citywide common stock you held as of the record date. As of the record date of the special meeting, Citywide directors, executive officers and their affiliates held 100.0% of the shares of Series I Citywide common stock and 62.4% of Series II Citywide common stock.

Because the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Series I Citywide common stock and Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class, is required to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the failure to vote by proxy or in person will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement. Abstentions and broker non-votes also will have the same effect as a vote against the merger. Accordingly, the Citywide board of directors urges holders of Citywide common stock to complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy form and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

Shareholder Voting Agreement. Certain shareholders of Citywide have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger and the merger agreement. These shareholders have the right to vote all three shares of Series I Citywide common stock (100% of the shares of Series I Citywide common stock outstanding) and 713,574 shares of Series II Citywide common stock (73.2% of the shares of Series II Citywide common stock outstanding).

Other Business

Citywide is not currently aware of any business to be acted upon at the special meeting other than the matters discussed in this proxy statement/prospectus.

THE MERGER

The following discussion contains material information pertaining to the merger. This discussion is a summary only and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A and is incorporated into this section by reference. We encourage you to read and review the merger agreement in its entirety as well as the discussion in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Structure

The merger agreement provides that Citywide will be merged with and into Heartland. Each share of Citywide common stock outstanding prior to the merger will be converted, upon completion of the merger, into the right to receive a combination of cash and Heartland common stock. Shares of Citywide common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger will be canceled and represent only the right to receive this consideration after the merger is effective.

Background of the Merger

The following chronology summarizes certain key meetings and events that led to Citywide entering into the definitive merger agreement with Heartland. In this process, executives, board members and other representatives of Citywide held many conversations, both by telephone and in-person, about possible strategic alternatives, including continued independent operations, acquisition of another community bank or complementary business line and the potential sale or merger of Citywide. The chronology below covers certain key events leading up to the execution of the merger agreement but does not purport to catalog every conversation among representatives of Citywide or between Citywide and other parties.

The Citywide board of directors periodically discusses and reviews Citywide's and Citywide Banks' business, performance, prospects and strategic alternatives. Beginning in 2015, the Citywide board of directors began to more seriously discuss strategies for generating additional shareholder value. As part of this strategy, Citywide obtained financing through the sale of shares of Series II Citywide common stock and Citywide preferred stock. In addition to this review and an ongoing evaluation of Citywide's performance and prospects for future growth, the Citywide board of directors considered strategic alternatives, including potentially acquiring another bank. As part of its consideration of strategic alternatives, in the second half of 2015, with the assistance of representatives of Sandler and its legal advisors, Shapiro Bieging Barber Otteson LLP ("SBBO"), Citywide engaged in conversations with a Colorado commercial bank regarding a business combination pursuant to which Citywide would be the acquirer. Following preliminary due diligence and analysis of the opportunity, Citywide and the target were unable to reach mutually agreeable terms and the conversations ended in December 2015.

Early in 2016, as the Citywide board of directors continued its consideration of strategic alternatives, it focused on, among other things, Citywide's earnings composition and the future growth potential of its earnings, including the need to improve operating efficiency and implement additional fee-based services; the recent growth rates in Citywide Banks' loan portfolio and resulting loan concentrations; and the estimated current and projected value of the Citywide common stock. The Citywide board of directors also considered the impact of the regulatory climate on Citywide's future operating results as well as the impact of continued strong competition on Citywide's profitability and operating risk. The combined impact of these and other factors lead the Citywide board of directors to more carefully consider the potential merger or sale of Citywide and in the first half of 2016 the Citywide board of directors held a series of meetings and calls with representatives of Sandler and SBBO discussing a range of values Citywide common shareholders might receive in a merger or sale context, the landscape of Citywide's potential buyers and other legal and regulatory elements related to the merger or sale of Citywide.

On July 8, 2016, Citywide engaged Sandler to serve as its independent financial advisor and explore a potential merger or sale of Citywide. During July, Citywide provided representatives of Sandler with preliminary due diligence information and representatives of Sandler assisted Citywide in preparing a package of introductory information regarding Citywide. Citywide reviewed and considered the list of potential buyers and considered numerous factors including but not limited to integration risk, cultural fit, relative size, track record as an acquirer and capacity to effect the transaction using cash and/or stock which had a liquid trading market. Following its consideration, the Citywide board of directors instructed representatives of Sandler to begin having contact with potential buyers. Beginning in late July and throughout August, as directed by Citywide, representatives of Sandler had contact with a number of potential buyers, including Heartland.

One of Heartland's primary objectives is to increase profitability and diversify its market area and asset base by expanding existing subsidiaries. In the current environment, Heartland has been actively seeking opportunities for growth through acquisitions (particularly in its Western markets). In 2015, Heartland completed four bank acquisitions and announced a pending fifth acquisition (the acquisition of Centennial and its parent corporation, CIC Bancshares, Inc.), which closed in early 2016. In October 2016, Heartland also announced the pending acquisition of Founders Bancorp and its California bank subsidiary, Founders Community Bank, which was completed on February 28, 2017.

During August, Citywide entered into nine nondisclosure agreements with potential merger partners, including Heartland who entered into a nondisclosure agreement with Citywide on August 19, 2016. Parties who agreed to sign a nondisclosure agreement were provided with a package of introductory due diligence information and were invited to meet with Citywide management. Of the nine parties who entered into the nondisclosure agreement, four, including Heartland, held meetings with Citywide management in early September and engaged in preliminary due diligence. In late August, representatives of Sandler requested, on behalf of Citywide, that potential buyers submit their preliminary non-binding acquisition proposals by mid-September. Heartland and two other parties referred to as “Party A” and “Party B” submitted proposals.

On September 19, 2016, the Citywide board of directors held a special meeting to review the preliminary non-binding acquisition proposals received. Representatives from Citywide executive management, Sandler and SBBO participated in the meeting. The Citywide board of directors carefully considered each of the preliminary non-binding proposals. The value proposed by Party B was the lowest and the Citywide board of directors determined not to engage in further conversations with Party B. The value of the initial proposals from Heartland and Party A were comparable but inadequate. The Heartland proposal contained a range of values, a consideration mix of 50% stock and 50% cash and was contingent upon Heartland successfully completing a capital raise prior to signing of the definitive agreement. After careful consideration, the Citywide board of directors instructed representatives of Sandler to contact Heartland and Party A and inform them that the value of their respective proposals was inadequate, but that Citywide would provide them with additional due diligence information if that additional information might result in a higher valuation for Citywide common shareholders. Both Party A and Heartland agreed to conduct further due diligence.

In late September 2016, a virtual data room was established for due diligence and access was granted to Heartland and Party A.

Heartland and Party A conducted additional due diligence for approximately four weeks. This diligence included remote document review along with follow-up discussions. An in-person due diligence meeting involving Heartland and Citywide management occurred on October 6, 2016 in Denver, Colorado. In addition, Citywide management traveled to meet with Heartland management in Dubuque, Iowa on October 16 and 17, 2016. During this time, Citywide, representatives from Sandler and SBBO held regular conference calls to discuss the deal process and strategies for realizing a successful transaction.

On October 27, 2016, Citywide received an updated non-binding acquisition proposal from Heartland and an updated non-binding acquisition proposal from Party A. On October 28, 2016, the Citywide board of directors held a meeting to review the updated non-binding acquisition proposals. Representatives from Sandler and SBBO participated in the meeting. Both Heartland and Party A had improved the value of their non-binding acquisition proposals. Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal contemplated a value of $185 million consisting of 70% stock and 30% cash in exchange for all of Citywide's common stock with the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the consideration to be fixed based on the average price of Heartland's stock during a period prior to signing the definitive merger agreement. Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal reflected the expected completion by Heartland of a common equity raise prior to signing of a definitive agreement. In addition, Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal included several elements which expressed Heartland's desire to expand on Citywide's legacy in the greater Denver market area, including the possible retention of the Citywide Banks name, the retention of Kevin Quinn as leader for the combined Colorado operations of Citywide Banks and Centennial and the inclusion of a board member from Citywide on the Heartland board of directors. Party A's updated nonbinding acquisition proposal contemplated an aggregate value of $190 million consisting of 50% stock and 50% cash in exchange for all of Citywide's common stock. The Citywide board of directors discussed the two proposals, the risks and benefits to each proposal and the relative valuations of Heartland's and Party A's stock. It was determined that the strength of the strategic and cultural fit with Heartland along with their approach to integration, specifically the prospects for retaining key Citywide personnel along with the possibility for future Heartland stock price appreciation made the Heartland proposal more viable; however the Citywide board of directors also considered the possible impact of Heartland's anticipated common equity raise. The Citywide board of directors instructed representatives of Sandler to contact Heartland and attempt to improve the valuation and learn more about the planned common equity raise. Over the next two weeks, representatives from Citywide, Sandler and Heartland engaged in further negotiations.

On November 2, 2016, Heartland commenced a $50 million common stock offering at a price of $36.24 per share, which closed on November 8, 2016.

On November 7, 2016, Citywide provided Heartland with revisions to Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal. On November 9, 2016, Heartland presented Citywide with an updated non-binding acquisition proposal which contemplated a total potential value of $190 million in exchange for all of Citywide's common stock. The merger consideration consisted of $185 million in base consideration consisting of 70% stock and 30% cash plus up to $5 million in cash based on Citywide exceeding certain Adjusted Tangible Common Equity thresholds prior to closing. The exchange ratio for the stock portion of the consideration would be fixed based on the average price of Heartland's stock during a period prior to signing the definitive merger agreement. Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal also included a 60 day exclusivity provision. The Citywide board of directors considered Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal and elected to execute the proposal, subject to certain changes being accepted by Heartland, and proceed with completion of due diligence and negotiation of a definitive agreement. On November 10, 2016, Heartland's updated non-binding acquisition proposal was executed by both Citywide and Heartland.

Beginning in November 2016 and lasting until mid-December, Heartland conducted due diligence regarding Citywide, including a loan file review. During this time, following the conclusion of the United States' presidential election, there were significant increases in the stock prices of most community and regional banks, including Heartland's, which increased 33% during the period from November 8, 2016, to December 20, 2016. The dramatic increase in the value of most bank stocks, including Heartland's, had the effect to meaningfully reduce the implied exchange ratio to be received by Citywide shareholders under the terms of the executed non-binding acquisition proposal. In late November and early December, representatives of Sandler indicated to Heartland that if the Heartland stock price maintained its increased valuation that the terms of the executed non-binding acquisition proposal would need to be renegotiated. During this time, Citywide held regular meetings with representatives from Sandler and SBBO to discuss the status of the discussions, due diligence and negotiations with Heartland.

On December 16, 2016, Heartland retained Raymond James & Associates, Inc. ("Raymond James") to serve as Heartland's co-investment banking advisor and to issue to Heartland's board of directors a fairness opinion in connection with the merger.

During the week of December 20, 2016, Heartland informed Citywide that the majority of its due diligence was complete.

On December 21, 2016, representatives of Citywide held a conference call with representatives of Sandler and SBBO to discuss the structure of the proposed transaction, including the impact of Heartland's increased stock price on the implied exchange ratio.

In late December 2016 and January 2017, Citywide, along with Sandler and SBBO, conducted reverse due diligence on Heartland, including both document review and management interviews.

On December 27, 2016, representatives of Citywide, Sandler and Heartland had a conference call to discuss the impact of Heartland's increase stock price on the implied exchange ratio.

On December 29, 2016, Heartland provided Citywide with a draft amendment to the parties' previously executed non-binding acquisition proposal that, among other things, provided for a fixed exchange ratio reflecting changes in market conditions and the price of Heartland stock since the execution of the non-binding acquisition proposal. Citywide extensively discussed with Sandler and with SBBO the fixed exchange ratio and other deal terms over the coming days and determined that the fixed exchange ratio proposed by Heartland was inadequate.

On January 6, 2017, representatives of Citywide and Sandler met in-person with representatives of Heartland to negotiate a fixed exchange ratio as well as additional open deal terms. At that time the parties agreed to the terms that would form the basis for the final version of the amendment to the non-binding acquisition proposal. On January 9, 2017, Heartland provided Citywide with the final version of the amendment to the non-binding acquisition proposal. In addition to setting the exchange ratio to 3.30 shares of Heartland common stock for each share of Citywide common stock, the amendment, among other things, extended the period during which Citywide agreed to exclusively negotiate with Heartland until the earlier to occur of February 15, 2017, and the execution of a definitive agreement relating to the merger. The parties executed the amendment on January 9, 2017.

On January 12, 2017, Heartland's legal advisors provided SBBO with the initial draft of the definitive merger agreement. At that time, Heartland and Citywide, together with their respective legal advisors and Sandler, commenced the negotiation of the terms of the definitive merger agreement and related documents. These negotiations continued through the first three weeks of February 2017.

At a Heartland board meeting held on January 17, 2017, the directors received a detailed report from management regarding Citywide and Citywide Banks, including information about their businesses, operations, financial results and condition and the locations of the Citywide Banks banking centers. Management also reviewed the terms on which management proposed that Heartland acquire Citywide. After an in-depth discussion of Citywide and Citywide Banks and the proposed terms of the acquisition, the Heartland board concluded that the acquisition of Citywide would significantly augment Heartland's Colorado franchise and was in the best interest of Heartland and its stockholders. Accordingly, the board unanimously gave preliminary approval for Heartland's acquisition of Citywide, and authorized management to continue and complete negotiations regarding the definitive merger agreement with Citywide.

On February 13, 2017, Heartland's board of directors held a special meeting to consider approval of the merger in accordance with the definitive merger agreement and related documents negotiated by Heartland and Citywide and their respective legal advisors. Representatives of Raymond James reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger, and rendered Raymond James' opinion to the Heartland board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on February 13, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Raymond James as set forth in its opinion, the Heartland common stock consideration to be paid by Heartland in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Heartland.

Management and legal counsel provided a thorough review of the merger agreement and related documents to the Heartland board of directors. After careful and deliberate consideration of the presentations by management, legal counsel and Raymond James, and the terms of the merger agreement and related documents, the Heartland board of directors unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement.

On February 13, 2017, Citywide's board of directors held a special meeting to review the merger proposal as set forth in the definitive merger agreement and related documents negotiated by Heartland and Citywide and their respective legal advisors. Representatives of Sandler reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered Sandler's oral opinion to the Citywide board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on February 13, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler as set forth in such opinion, the merger consideration in the proposed transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Citywide common stock. SBBO led the Citywide board of directors through a thorough review of the merger agreement and related documents. After careful and deliberate consideration of these presentations and documents as well as of the interest of Citywide's shareholders, the Citywide board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the related documents.

The merger agreement in the form approved by boards of directors of Heartland and Citywide, along with the related documents, were executed on February 13, 2017. Also on February 13, 2017, after the closing of the stock market, Heartland and Citywide issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and the terms of the proposed transaction.

Citywide's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement and recommend approval of the merger agreement to holders of Citywide common stock, the Citywide board of directors consulted with senior management, as well as with its outside financial and legal advisors, and it evaluated the increasing difficulty Citywide faces, as an independent financial institution, in maintaining and improving performance and value for its shareholders. Economic and regulatory conditions in recent years have had significant negative effects on the profitability, credit quality and market prices of financial institutions of all sizes, but particularly so in the case of smaller community-oriented institutions, and the Citywide board believes that such conditions would continue to affect community banks, including Citywide Banks, for the foreseeable future. After considering Citywide's future prospects, the Citywide board of directors concluded that partnering with a larger, financially-sound financial institution would better maximize the long-term value of shareholders' investments than if Citywide remained independent, and it believes that the proposed merger is in the best interests of Citywide's shareholders.

Significant factors considered by the Citywide board of directors in deciding to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement and recommend approval of the merger agreement to Citywide's shareholders are listed below:

- the board's assessment of the business, earnings, operations, financial condition, asset quality, capital levels, regulatory status, strength and leadership of management and prospects of both Heartland and Citywide;
- the current and historical value of Citywide common stock;
- the board's expectation that, to the extent additional capital is needed in the future, Heartland would be better positioned to raise capital at a lower cost and with less dilution to stockholders than if Citywide sought to raise capital alone;
- the opinion of Sandler to the effect that, as of February 13, 2017 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the consideration being offered to the holders of Citywide common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Citywide common stock;
- the expectation that, following the merger of Citywide Banks and Centennial, the surviving bank will have a more diversified market and loan portfolio, which should decrease risk to shareholders relating to asset quality issues, particularly in connection with real estate lending;

• that the surviving bank would be better able to grow, gain market share and serve the public in Citywide's banking market than Citywide could alone;

that, as a result of the merger, Citywide's shareholders would have greater liquidity options through the receipt of shares of publicly traded Heartland stock and cash in exchange for their shares of Citywide common stock, which is not publicly traded;

• the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' respective representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements and conditions to closing; and

• that the merger would be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code with the result that the portion of Citywide stock exchanged for Heartland stock would generally be tax-free and the portion of the Citywide stock exchanged for cash would generally be taxable either as a dividend or capital gain depending on each Citywide shareholders' individual circumstances.

Other factors considered by Citywide's board of directors included:

The reports of Citywide's management concerning the operations, financial condition and prospects of Heartland and the expected financial impact of the merger on Heartland, including pro forma assets, earnings, deposits and capital ratios;

• The eventual appointment of Martin J. Schmitz to Heartland's board of directors;

• The likelihood of successful integration and the successful operation of the surviving bank;

• The likelihood that the regulatory approvals needed to complete the transaction will be obtained;

• The potential cost-saving opportunities;

• The effects of the merger on Citywide's employees, including the prospects for continued employment and other benefits agreed to be provided to Citywide's employees; and

• The review by the Citywide board of directors with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger, including the merger consideration.

The Citywide board of directors also considered the potential risks associated with the merger during its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including the challenges of integrating Citywide's businesses, operations and employees with those of Heartland, the need to obtain the requisite approvals from the shareholders of Citywide as well as regulatory approvals in order to complete the transaction, and the risks associated with the operations of the surviving bank, including the ability to achieve the anticipated cost savings.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Citywide board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all the material factors considered by the Citywide board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, the Citywide board of directors did not find it useful and did not attempt to quantify or assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement. In addition, individual members of the Citywide board of directors may have given differing weights to different factors. The Citywide board of directors conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Citywide management and outside advisors.

Opinion of Citywide's Financial Advisor

By letter dated July 8, 2016, Citywide retained Sandler to act as financial advisor to Citywide's board of directors in connection with Citywide's consideration of a possible business combination involving Citywide and a second party. Sandler is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler acted as financial advisor to Citywide in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the February 13, 2017 meeting at which Citywide's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler delivered to the board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on February 13, 2017, to the effect that, as of such date, the merger consideration provided for in the merger was fair to the holders of Citywide common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Citywide common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Citywide's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Citywide as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Citywide common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Citywide to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Citywide or the effect of any other transaction in which Citywide might engage. Sandler did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of Citywide or Heartland or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder. Sandler's fairness opinion was approved by Sandler's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler reviewed and considered, among other things:

- a draft of the merger agreement, dated February 13, 2017;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Citywide that Sandler deemed relevant;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Heartland that Sandler deemed relevant;
- certain internal financial projections for Citywide for the years ending December 31, 2017, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and asset growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Citywide;
- publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Heartland for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as estimated Heartland long-term earnings per share, asset and dividend growth rates for the years thereafter;
- the estimated pro forma financial impact of the merger on Heartland based on certain forward-looking assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses;
- the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Heartland common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Heartland common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded;
- a comparison of certain financial information for Citywide and Heartland with similar institutions for which information is publicly available;
- the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available;
- the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and
- such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler considered relevant.

Sandler also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Citywide the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Citywide and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Heartland regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Heartland.

In performing its review, Sandler relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler from public sources, that was provided to Sandler by Citywide or Heartland or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler, and Sandler assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Citywide and Heartland that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Citywide or Heartland or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Citywide or Heartland. Sandler did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Citywide or Heartland, or of the combined entity after the merger, and Sandler did not review any individual credit files relating to Citywide or Heartland. Sandler assumed, with Citywide's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Citywide and Heartland were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler used certain internal financial projections for Citywide for the year ending December 31, 2017, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and asset growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Citywide. In addition, Sandler used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Heartland for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share, assets and dividend growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Heartland. Sandler also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of Heartland. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Citywide and Heartland confirmed to Sandler that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Citywide and Heartland, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Citywide or Heartland since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler. Sandler assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Citywide and Heartland would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analysis.

Where assumptions, estimates, projections and forward-looking information were provided to Sandler by Heartland or Citywide, actual results may differ materially from the information provided, and important factors that may affect actual results and cause the information provided to be inaccurate include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties relating to Heartland's and Citywide's business, industry performance, general business and economic conditions, customer requirements, competition and adverse changes in applicable laws, regulations or rules. For other factors that could cause actual results to differ, please see the sections entitled "Risk Factors" and "Forward-Looking Statements."

Sandler also assumed, with Citywide's consent, that: (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Citywide, Heartland or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with Citywide's consent, Sandler relied upon the advice that Citywide received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler as of, the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler's opinion. Sandler has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler expressed no opinion as to the trading value of Heartland common stock at any time or what the value of Heartland common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Citywide common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler to Citywide's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description.

Also, no company included in Sandler's comparative analyses described below is identical to Citywide or Heartland and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Citywide and Heartland and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Citywide,

Heartland and Sandler. The analyses performed by Sandler are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to the Citywide board of directors at its February 13, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Citywide common stock or the prices at which Citywide common stock or Heartland common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Citywide's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decisions of Citywide's board of directors or management with respect to the merger agreement or the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Citywide and Heartland.

Summary of Proposed Per Share Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics

Sandler reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. As described in the merger agreement, each share of Citywide common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, except for certain shares of Citywide common stock as set forth in the merger agreement, will be converted into the right to receive, subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the merger agreement: (i) 3.300 shares of common stock of Heartland, and (ii) $57.00 in cash. Using the closing price of Heartland common stock as of February 10, 2017, or $45.75 and 974,616 Citywide common shares outstanding, Sandler calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $203 million, or an implied transaction price per Citywide common share of $207.98. Based upon historical financial information for Citywide as of or for the 12 months ended December 31, 2016, Sandler calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Transaction Price / Last 12 Months EPS of Citywide	18.9x
Transaction Price / Last 12 Months Core EPS of Citywide ⁽¹⁾	20.8x
Transaction Price / Book Value per Share of Citywide	181 %
Transaction Price / Tangible Book Value per Share of Citywide	182 %
Tangible Book Premium / Core Deposits ⁽²⁾	8.2 %

(1) LTM Core Earnings Per Share excludes the effects of negative loan loss provision ($1.8 million), OREO valuation adjustment ($905,000), and gain on sale of OREO and securities ($84,000).

(2) Represents tangible book premium to core deposits calculated as (deal value - tangible common equity) / (core deposits); core deposits are defined as deposits, less time deposit accounts with balances over $100,000.

Net Present Value Analyses

Sandler performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Citywide common stock assuming Citywide performed in accordance with internal projections for the year ending December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated earnings and asset growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Citywide. To approximate the terminal value of Citywide common stock at December 31, 2021, Sandler applied price to 2021 earnings multiples ranging from 14.0x to 24.0x and multiples of December 31, 2021 tangible book value ranging from 125% to 200%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 15.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Citywide common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Citywide common stock of $130.20 to $274.43 when applying earnings multiples and $120.69 to $237.44 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

Sandler also considered and discussed with the Citywide board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to forecast net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler performed a similar analysis, assuming Citywide's forecast net income varied from 20% above projections to 20% below the baseline projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for Citywide common stock, applying the price to 2021 earnings multiples range of 14.0x to 24.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 12.70%.

Sandler noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis

Sandler analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming that the merger closes on June 30, 2017. In performing this analysis, Sandler utilized the following information: (a) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Heartland for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as an estimated Heartland long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, (b) financial projections for Citywide for the year ending December 31, 2017, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share and asset growth rate for the years thereafter, and (c) estimated transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and a core deposit intangible asset. The analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to Heartland's estimated earnings per share (excluding one-time estimated transaction costs and expenses) in 2017 and dilutive to Heartland's estimated tangible book value per share as of the closing date of the merger.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler considered and discussed with the Citywide board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler's Relationship

Sandler acted as financial advisor to the Citywide board of directors in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee for its services estimated to be approximately $2.0 million based on the market value of Heartland common stock at the time the merger was announced. Sandler's transaction fee is equal to 1.00% of the aggregate purchase price, will vary based on the market value of Heartland common stock at the time of closing and is contingent upon the closing of the merger. Sandler also received a fee in an amount equal to $250,000 upon rendering its fairness opinion to the Citywide board of directors, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become due and payable to Sandler upon the closing of the merger. Citywide has also agreed to indemnify Sandler against certain claims and liabilities arising out of its engagement and to reimburse Sandler for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement.

Sandler has not provided any other investment banking services to Citywide in the two years preceding the date of its opinion. Sandler did not provide any investment banking services to Heartland in the two years preceding the date of its opinion. In the ordinary course of business as a broker-dealer, Sandler may purchase securities from and sell securities to Heartland or its affiliates. Sandler may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Heartland or its affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Certain Citywide Adjusted Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Citywide does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance, revenues, earnings or other financial results because of, among other reasons, the inherent uncertainty of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, Citywide is including in this proxy statement/prospectus certain unaudited prospective financial information that Citywide senior management made available to Sandler, in its capacity as Citywide's financial advisor in connection with the merger. Heartland did not participate in the preparation or presentation of this information to Sandler. Furthermore, this information does not take into account the possible financial and other effects on Citywide as a result of the merger and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results of the combined company. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that any of Citywide, Heartland, Sandler, their respective representatives or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, it to be necessarily predictive of actual future results, or that it should be construed as financial guidance, and it should not be relied on as such.

This information was prepared solely for internal use and is subjective in many respects. Neither Citywide's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information contained herein, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability.

Furthermore, the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date on which it was prepared. Neither Heartland nor Citywide can give any assurance that, had the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information been prepared as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, similar estimates and assumptions would be used. prospective financial information to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, or to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

The adjusted unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account the possible financial and other effects on Citywide as a result of the merger and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results of the combined company. The adjusted unaudited prospective financial information does not give effect to the merger, including the impact of negotiating or executing the merger agreement, the expenses that may be incurred in connection with consummating the merger, the potential synergies that may be achieved by the combined company as a result of the merger, the effect on Citywide of any business or strategic decision or action that has been or will be taken as a result of the merger agreement having been executed, or the effect of any business or strategic decisions or actions which would likely have been taken if the merger agreement had not been executed, but which were instead altered, accelerated, postponed or not taken in anticipation of the merger. Further, the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information does not take into account the effect on Citywide of any possible failure of the merger to occur. None of Citywide, Heartland, Sandler or their respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives has made, makes or is authorized in the future to make any representation to any shareholder of Citywide or other person regarding Citywide's ultimate performance compared to the information contained in the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information or that the forecasted results will be achieved. The summary of the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information included below is being provided because it was made available to Sandler to be used and relied upon for purposes of certain of the financial analyses performed in connection with its opinion to the Citywide board of directors.

In light of the foregoing, and considering that the Citywide special meeting and the Heartland special meeting will each be held several months after the adjusted unaudited prospective financial information was prepared, as well as the uncertainties inherent in any forecasted information, Citywide shareholders and Heartland stockholders are cautioned not to place unwarranted reliance on such information.

The following table presents selected Citywide unaudited prospective financial information for the years ending December 31, 2017 through 2021 used by Sandler, in its capacity as Citywide's financial advisor in connection with the merger:

Heartland's Reasons for the Merger

As part of Heartland's business strategy, it evaluates opportunities to acquire bank holding companies, banks and other financial institutions. In reaching its conclusion to adopt and approve the merger agreement, Heartland's board of directors evaluated the merger in consultation with Heartland's financial and legal advisors.

Heartland's board of directors approved the merger because:

- the merger will expand Heartland's existing franchise in Colorado, and establish a stronger presence in the Denver market;
- the merger will more than double Heartland's assets in Colorado, with resulting economies of scale;
- Citywide's and Centennial's community banking business model, customer focus, and compatibility of management and operating styles, complement each other;
- the merger offers the potential for Heartland to increase the services enjoyed by Centennial customers by growing its commercial and industrial lending function and developing wealth management and mortgage banking services;
- the merger adds seasoned management to Heartland's existing Colorado management team, in order to serve and increase Heartland's customer base and expand Heartland's capacity for additional acquisitions;
- the acquisition adds an attractive deposit mix and low-cost funding opportunities;
- the merger is consistent with Heartland's objective of balancing its exposure to economic downturns in the Midwest with economic upswings in the West, creating better geographic diversity;
- the acquisition is expected to be accretive to Heartland's GAAP earnings per share in the first full year, exclusive of merger-related charges; and
- the acquisition is expected to enhance Heartland's long-term stockholder value.

Certain Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of Citywide's board of directors with respect to the merger agreement, you should be aware that Citywide's executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Citywide shareholders generally. Citywide's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decisions to approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Citywide shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement.

Kevin G. Quinn, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Citywide Banks, has an existing employment agreement providing him with the right to severance payments if he terminates his employment within two years of a change in control of Citywide. The amount of the severance payment is equal to twice Mr. Quinn's salary at the time of termination, a bonus payment equal to the average of his last three annual bonus payments and an amount equal to the cost of one year of health insurance. In connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, and in consideration for the termination of his existing employment agreement, Heartland negotiated a new employment agreement with Mr. Quinn which provides that he will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the surviving bank. He will receive a one-time $1,000,000 signing bonus and a retention bonus of $200,000 every 12 months for three years after the closing date of the merger, if he remains employed by Heartland during that period. The new employment agreement is for an initial term of three years, commencing on the effective date of the merger. Mr. Quinn will receive a base salary of $325,000 per year, a cash incentive bonus of up to 50% of his base salary and eligibility for equity awards, and participation in certain benefit plans and programs. The new employment agreement also includes a one-year non-competition covenant, which becomes effective, if Mr. Quinn's employment with the surviving bank is terminated during the initial term of the employment agreement, and certain employee and customer non-solicitation covenants. The new employment agreement also provides for continued payment of Mr. Quinn's salary during the term of the non-competition covenant if he is terminated without cause or he terminates his employment for good reason. The new employment agreement does not provide for additional severance payments.

In addition, Heartland has negotiated a two-year consulting agreement with Martin J. Schmitz, the current Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide, pursuant to which Mr. Schmitz will receive consulting fees equal to $15,500 per month and a one-time grant of Heartland's restricted stock units with a value of $30,000 on the closing date of the merger. Mr. Schmitz also signed a separate noncompetition agreement under which he has agreed not to compete with the surviving bank and to refrain from soliciting surviving bank employees, or customers to cease doing business with the surviving bank, to leave their employment for two years following the date of the merger.

Heartland will nominate Mr. Schmitz for election to its board of directors at its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. From the effective time of the merger until his election to the board of directors, Mr. Schmitz will have the right to attend all Heartland board meetings as an observer. He will not have voting rights or fiduciary obligations to Heartland or its stockholders during this period, but he will be bound by the same confidentiality and insider trading obligations as board members. Heartland will reimburse Mr. Schmitz for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to his attendance at the board meetings, but he will receive no compensation other than the compensation provided to him pursuant to the consulting agreement described above.

Regulatory Matters

Heartland and Citywide have agreed to use all reasonable efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals require applications with the FDIC for the bank merger under the Bank Merger Act and applications with the CDB under the Colorado Banking Code. Heartland and Citywide have completed, or will complete, the filing of applications and notifications to obtain the required regulatory approvals from the FDIC and the CDB.

Under Section 225.12(d)(2) of the Federal Reserve Board's regulations (12 C.F.R. 225.12(d)(2)), the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act is not required in connection with the acquisition by a bank holding company of another bank holding company if the subsidiary banks of both bank holding companies are merged with each other simultaneously with the holding company acquisition. In addition, the bank to be acquired may not be operated by the acquiring bank holding company as a separate entity. The transaction must also satisfy certain other requirements, including that the bank merger require the prior approval of a federal supervisory agency under the Bank Merger Act. We believe that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement satisfy the requirements of Section 225.12(d)(2), and have filed a required notification with the Federal Reserve Board seeking the waiver contemplated by Section 225.12(d)(2) from an application under the Bank Holding Company Act.

Citywide is obligated under the merger agreement to redeem all issued and outstanding shares of its 7.5% Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (the "Citywide preferred stock") in connection with the merger. There are currently 5,050 shares of Citywide preferred stock issued and outstanding. The redemption of the Citywide preferred stock is subject to the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Accordingly, Citywide cannot complete the redemption of the Citywide preferred stock unless it files an application with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and it is approved. Furthermore, in order to obtain the necessary funds to redeem the Citywide preferred stock, Citywide must receive a dividend from Citywide Banks. The payment of a dividend from Citywide Banks to Citywide is subject to the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the CDB, and Citywide must first obtain such approvals prior to receiving any dividend payment from Citywide Banks.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional government approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought.

Timing. A transaction approved pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act or the Bank Merger Act may not be completed until 30 days after approval is received, during which time the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge the merger. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. With the consent of the Antitrust Division, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days.

Heartland and Citywide believe that neither the merger, nor the merger of their bank subsidiaries, raises significant regulatory concerns and that they will be able to obtain all requisite regulatory approvals on a timely basis without the imposition of any condition that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Citywide or Heartland. However, we cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained, and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the date of any approvals or the absence of any litigation challenging such approvals. Likewise, we cannot assure you that the Antitrust Division or any state attorney general will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, and, if such a challenge is made, we cannot assure you as to its result.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following describes the material anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder (as defined below) of Citywide common stock with respect to the exchange of Citywide common stock for Heartland common stock, cash and contingent rights to the tax holdback payments pursuant to the merger.

This discussion assumes that U.S. Holders hold their Citywide common stock as capital assets within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. This discussion is based on the Code, administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions and Treasury Regulations, each as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. All of the foregoing are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect, and all are subject to differing interpretations. No advance ruling has been or will be sought or obtained from the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. As a result, no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below.

This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under U.S. federal tax laws other than U.S. federal income tax laws, nor does it address the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction. In addition, this discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may apply to U.S. Holders of Citywide common stock in light of their particular circumstances or U.S. Holders that are subject to special rules under the Code, such as holders of Citywide common stock that are not U.S. Holders, holders that are partnerships or other pass-through entities (and persons holding their Citywide common stock through a partnership or other pass-through entity), persons who acquired shares of Citywide common stock as a result of the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, tax-exempt organizations, expatriates and former long-term residents of the United States, financial institutions, broker-dealers, traders in securities that have elected to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, insurance companies, persons having a “functional currency” other than the U.S. dollar and persons holding their Citywide common stock as part of a straddle, hedging, constructive sale or conversion transaction.

For purposes of this summary, a “U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of Citywide common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a United States citizen or resident alien;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if (1) it is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) the trust has made a valid election to be treated as a United States person for United States federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership (including any other entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Citywide common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Any such partnership or partner should consult its own tax advisor.

You should consult with your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to you of the merger in light of your own particular circumstances, including the tax consequences under state, local, foreign and other tax laws and the possible effects of changes in the United States federal or other tax laws.

Tax Classification of the Merger. The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Code, and the obligations of Citywide to complete the merger are subject to the receipt of the opinion of Shapiro Biegging Barber Otteson LLP, tax counsel to Citywide, that the merger will qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code. Citywide does not currently intend to waive this opinion condition to its obligation to complete the merger.

The following discussion, subject to the limitations and qualifications described herein, constitutes the opinion of Shapiro Biegging Barber Otteson LLP regarding the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to a U.S. Holder of Citywide common stock that exchanges Citywide common stock in the merger, to the extent the following discussion sets forth statements of U.S. federal income tax law or legal conclusions with respect thereto. The opinion of counsel relies on assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and law and the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement, and the accuracy of representations and covenants made by Citywide and Heartland, including those contained in representation letters of officers of Citywide and Heartland. If any of the representations or assumptions upon which the opinion is based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. An opinion of counsel represents counsel's best legal judgment and is not binding on the IRS or any court, nor does it preclude the IRS from adopting a contrary position.

For the merger to qualify as tax-free reorganization, numerous requirements, including the "continuity of interest" requirement as described in Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-1(e), must be satisfied. Under the applicable Treasury Regulations, the "continuity of interest" requirement is satisfied if a proprietary interest in Citywide is preserved, which will be the case if Heartland stock constitutes at least 40% of the value of the aggregate consideration Citywide shareholders receive in the merger. In determining whether this requirement is satisfied, cash merger consideration paid at closing, cash paid as tax holdback payments, cash paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of Heartland and cash paid to dissenting shareholders will be considered consideration other than Heartland stock that is received by Citywide shareholders in the merger. Furthermore, under the terms of the merger agreement, cash consideration will be reduced or increased for changes in the adjusted tangible equity of Citywide on the last day of the month preceding the merger. In addition, although the matter is not entirely clear under current law, cash paid prior to the effective date of the merger to redeem the Citywide preferred stock may also be treated as consideration other than Heartland stock that is received by Citywide shareholders in connection with the merger.

Based on the terms of the merger agreement and the applicable federal income tax law, whether the merger satisfies the continuity of interest requirement will be determined based on the market price of the Heartland common stock at the effective time of the merger and the amount of all cash consideration described above, among other factors. A steep decline in the market price of the Heartland common stock could, in an extreme situation, cause the merger to fail the continuity of interest test. The merger agreement provides that Citywide has a right to terminate the merger agreement in the event of a decline in the market price of the Heartland stock that meets certain requirements, subject to the right of Heartland to provide additional cash consideration or alter the exchange ratio.

Heartland and Citywide have represented to counsel that if the continuity of interest test will not be met based on the facts in existence at the effective time, they would jointly terminate the merger agreement. Based on this representation and subject to the limitations and qualifications described above, Shapiro Biegling Barber Otteson LLP, tax counsel to Citywide, has rendered its opinion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code, and that the following discussion constitutes its opinion regarding the material U.S. Federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. Holders of Citywide common stock.

Exchange of Citywide Common Stock for Heartland Common Stock, Cash and Tax Holdback Payment Rights. Based on and subject to the foregoing, the merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Subject to the discussion below regarding the tax treatment of the contingent rights to the tax holdback payments, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. Holders of Citywide common stock will be as follows:

Capital gain will be recognized by a U.S. Holder in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash received by the U.S. Holder in the merger (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Citywide common stock) plus, if the installment method of reporting does not apply, as described in the section of the section below titled "Tax Treatment of Tax Holdback Payments," the value of the U.S. Holder's contingent rights to receive tax holdback payments and (2) the gain realized. The gain realized is the sum of the cash received by the U.S. Holder in the merger (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Citywide common stock), the fair market value of the Heartland common stock received and, if the installment method of reporting does not apply, the value of the U.S. Holder's contingent right to receive tax holdback payments, over the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Citywide common stock exchanged in the merger.

No losses will be recognized other than losses, if any, realized in connection with the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share interest, as described below.

The gain recognized by a Citywide shareholder in the merger generally will constitute capital gain, unless the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend under the provisions of the Code, as discussed below, in which case such gain will be treated as dividend income rather than as capital gain.

Any capital gain recognized by a Citywide shareholder generally will constitute long-term capital gain if the shareholder's holding period for the Citywide common stock exchanged in the merger is more than one year as of the date of the merger, and otherwise will constitute short-term capital gain.

The aggregate tax basis of the shares of Heartland common stock received by a Citywide shareholder (including, for this purpose, any fractional share of Heartland common stock for which cash is received) in exchange for Citywide common stock in the merger will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shareholder's Citywide common stock exchanged therefor, decreased by the amount of cash received by the shareholder in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share) plus, if the installment method of reporting does not apply, the fair market value of the contingent rights to receive the tax holdback payments, and increased by the amount of gain recognized by the shareholder in the merger. The tax basis of the shares of Heartland common stock received will be reduced by the portion, if any, of the tax basis of the Citywide common stock exchanged therefore that is required to be allocated to the tax holdback payments in the event the installment method applies, as discussed below in the section titled “Tax Treatment of Tax Holdback Payments.”

- The holding period of the shares of Heartland common stock received by a Citywide shareholder in the merger will include the holding period of the shareholder’s Citywide common stock exchanged in the merger.

If a U.S. Holder exchanges more than one “block” of shares of Citywide common stock (that is, groups of shares that the holder acquired at different times or at different prices), the holder must calculate gain separately as to each block, and the results for each block may not be netted in determining the holder’s overall gain. Instead, the U.S. Holder would generally recognize gain on those shares on which gain is realized, but, as described above, losses may not be recognized.

As discussed further below in the section titled “Tax Treatment of Tax Holdback Payments,” if a U.S. Holder accounts for the merger using the installment method, recognition of a portion of gain realized in the merger will be deferred until the holder receives payments pursuant to the tax holdback payment rights.

Potential Treatment of Cash as a Dividend. In general, the determination of whether gain recognized by a Citywide shareholder will be treated as capital gain or a dividend distribution will depend upon whether, and to what extent, the merger reduces the Citywide shareholder’s deemed percentage stock ownership interest in Heartland. For purposes of this determination, a Citywide shareholder will be treated as if the shareholder first exchanged all of its Citywide common stock solely for Heartland common stock (instead of a combination of Heartland common stock and cash as will actually be received) and then Heartland immediately redeemed a portion of that Heartland common stock in exchange for the cash the shareholder received in the merger.

Cash In Lieu of Fractional Shares. To the extent that a Citywide shareholder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of common stock of Heartland, the shareholder will be deemed to have received that fractional share in the merger and then to have received the cash in redemption of that fractional share. The shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash received and the portion of the shareholder’s tax basis in the shares of Citywide common stock surrendered allocable to that fractional share. This gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for those shares of Citywide common stock is more than one year as of the date of the merger.

Tax Treatment of Tax Holdback Payments. Because some of the tax holdback payments are expected to be received after the close of the taxable year in which the merger is expected to occur, the installment method will generally apply to those payments, unless the receipt of those payments has the effect of the payment of a dividend, as discussed above, or the U.S. Holder elects out of the installment method. Under the installment method, a U.S. Holder would defer the recognition of a portion of any gain realized in the merger until the taxable year in which the U.S. Holder actually or constructively receives the tax holdback payments. The U.S. Holder would, in general, be required to allocate a portion of the U.S. Holder’s aggregate adjusted tax basis in the Citywide common stock exchanged in the merger to the potential future tax holdback payments. However, in accordance with qualification of the merger as a reorganization, a U.S. holder may be required to allocate basis first to the Heartland common stock received, up to the fair market value of that Heartland stock. Depending on the circumstances, a holder could be required to allocate 100% of the adjusted tax basis in the Citywide common stock exchanged to the Heartland common stock received in the merger. The rules governing deferrals of gain recognition under the installment method and allocation of basis are complex and their applicability to the tax holdback payments unclear.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, the tax holdback amounts will accrue interest at a rate of 3% to the time of payment. A U.S. Holder will be subject to tax at ordinary income rates on this interest at the time such interest is received in connection with payment of the tax holdback amounts, regardless of whether the U.S. Holder reports under the installment method.

In addition, if a U.S. holder has installment obligations arising during the year and outstanding at the close of the year exceeding $5.0 million in total, an interest charge is imposed on the deferred tax liability.

A U.S. holder may elect out of the installment method by timely filing the appropriate form with its tax return for the tax year in which the merger occurs. If the U.S. Holder elects out, or the installment method does not apply because the tax holdback payments are treated as dividends or for some other reason, the U.S. Holder would generally recognize gain at the time of the merger based on the fair market value of the contingent rights to tax holdback payments at that time.

There is no legal authority directly addressing the U.S. federal income tax treatment of payments received pursuant to the tax holdback payment rights if the holder elects out of the installment method or the installment method otherwise does not apply. Accordingly, the amount, timing and character of any gain, income or loss with respect to the tax holdback payment rights are uncertain. For example, payments with respect to a tax holdback payment right may be treated, in whole or in part, as a non-taxable return of a tax holdback payment right holder's adjusted tax basis in the tax holdback payment right. To the extent payments received are not treated as a return of basis or exceed such basis, payments received with respect to a tax holdback payment right may be treated as (i) capital gains, (ii) ordinary income (including interest income), or (iii) dividends.

Each U.S. holder should consult with its own tax advisor regarding the availability and advisability of reporting gain from the merger under the installment method, as well as what alternative treatment may apply absent application of the installment method. The installment method rules are complex. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors about the application of the installment method to the tax holdback payments.

Backup Withholding. Backup withholding at the applicable rate may apply with respect to certain payments, including cash received in the merger and tax holdback payments, unless a Citywide shareholder (1) is a corporation or is within certain other exempt categories and, when required, demonstrates this fact, or (2) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A Citywide shareholder who does not provide its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the shareholder furnishes certain required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. A Citywide shareholder will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file with such Citywide shareholder's U.S. federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. In addition, each holder of Citywide common stock who is a "significant holder" that receives Heartland common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with his, her or its federal income tax return setting forth his, her or its basis in the Citywide common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Heartland common stock and cash, if any, received in the merger. A "significant holder" is a holder of Citywide common stock who, immediately before the merger, owned at least one percent (by vote or value) of the outstanding stock of Citywide or owned Citywide securities with an adjusted tax basis of $1,000,000 or more.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a "purchase" by Heartland of Citywide, as that term is used under GAAP, for accounting and financial reporting purposes. As a result, the historical financial statements of Heartland will continue to be the historical financial statements of Heartland following the completion of the merger. The assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of Citywide as of the effective time of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to the assets and liabilities of Heartland. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair values of Citywide assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill (excess purchase price). Financial statements of Heartland issued after the merger will reflect such fair values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Citywide. The results of operations of Citywide will be included in the results of operations of Heartland beginning on the effective date of the merger.

Board of Directors and Management of Heartland Following Completion of the Merger

Heartland will nominate Martin J. Schmitz for election to its board of directors at its 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. From the effective time of the merger until his election to the board of directors, Mr. Schmitz will have the right to attend all Heartland board meetings as an observer. He will not have voting rights or fiduciary obligations to Heartland or its stockholders during this period, but he will be bound by the same confidentiality and insider trading obligations as board members.

Mr. Schmitz, age 59, is Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide. He has served as Chairman of the Board since 2011 and as President since 1997. In addition, Mr. Schmitz serves as Chairman of the Board of Citywide Banks, a position that he has held since 2010. As Chairman of Citywide Banks, he oversees business development and the bank's commercial banking operations. In addition, he is very involved in the administration of credit management and the audit and regulatory compliance functions. Mr. Schmitz represents the second generation of family leadership for Citywide, its 12 branch locations and businesses including Citywide Banks' mortgage and commercial real estate services.

Prior to joining Citywide, Mr. Schmitz spent 18 years in the Denver commercial real estate business as the vice president of a commercial real estate group specializing in investment and acquisition. Mr. Schmitz holds bachelors degrees in accounting, economics and business administration.

He is currently a trustee on the Regis University Board of Directors. Additionally, he currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Metro Denver. Mr. Schmitz previously served as Chairman of the Bankers' Bank of the West and as Chairman of the Colorado Bankers Association.

Mr. Schmitz brings to the Heartland board of directors the valuable perspective of a long-time executive in the greater Denver banking market.

Other than Mr. Schmitz's consulting agreement and non-competition agreement, there are no transactions, since the beginning of 2016, or any currently proposed transaction, in which Heartland was or is to be a participant and the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which Mr. Schmitz had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. At the time of his proposed election, Mr. Schmitz will not be considered an independent director under NASDAQ listing standards, because of the consulting arrangement and Mr. Schmitz's prior employment by Citywide. Otherwise, the composition of Heartland's board of directors and its senior management will not be changed as a result of the merger. Information about the current Heartland directors and executive officers can be found in Heartland's proxy statement dated April 17, 2017 for its 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 66.

Exchange of Certificates in the Merger

Please do not send us your certificates at this time.

Promptly after the completion of the merger, Heartland or its transfer agent will send transmittal materials to each holder of a Citywide stock certificate (whom has not previously surrendered his, her or its shares) for use in exchanging Citywide stock certificates for certificates representing shares of Heartland common stock or for such certificates and cash. Heartland will deliver certificates or a book entry notification for Heartland common stock and a check to the holder of Citywide common stock once Heartland receives the properly completed transmittal materials and certificates representing such holder's shares of Citywide common stock.

Citywide stock certificates may be exchanged for Heartland stock certificates and cash until such time that the stock certificates and cash would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any governmental unit or agency. At the end of that period, all unclaimed Heartland stock certificates and cash will become (to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable law) the property of Heartland.

If your Citywide stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed you may receive a Heartland stock certificate and cash upon the making of an affidavit of that fact. Heartland's transfer agent may require you to post a bond in a reasonable amount as an indemnity against any claim that may be made against the transfer agent or Heartland with respect to the lost, stolen or destroyed Citywide stock certificate.

Neither Heartland, Heartland's transfer agent, nor Citywide, nor any other person, will be liable to any former holder of Citywide stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

Fractional Shares

Heartland will not issue any fractional shares of Heartland common stock. Instead, a Citywide shareholder who would otherwise have received a fraction of a share of Heartland common stock will receive an amount of cash equal to the fraction of

a share of Heartland common stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled multiplied by the closing price of Heartland common stock on the last trading day immediately preceding the closing date.

Public Trading Markets

Heartland common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "HTLF." The shares of Heartland common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be freely transferable under the applicable securities laws, except for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Heartland.

Notice of Dissenters' Rights

Article 113 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA") provides that any Citywide shareholder may dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the "fair value" of his, her or its shares as determined in accordance with Article 113 of the CBCA, provided that such shareholder complies with all of the provisions of Article 113.

The following is a brief summary of Article 113 of the CBCA which sets forth the procedures for demanding statutory dissenters' rights. The full text of Article 113 is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C, and we incorporate that text into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference.

To be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights, a Citywide shareholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must deliver written notice to Citywide prior to the special meeting of Citywide shareholders to vote on the merger agreement of such shareholder's intent to demand payment for his, her or its shares if the merger is effectuated.

If the merger is approved by holders of Citywide common stock, then, within 10 days after the effective date of the merger, Citywide is obligated to deliver to those shareholders who have not voted in favor of the merger agreement and have notified Citywide of their intent to demand payment a written dissenters' notice. The notice will state that the merger was approved and state the effective date or proposed effective date of the merger; state an address at which Citywide will receive payment demands and the address of a place where stock certificates must be deposited; inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received; supply a form for demanding payment, which form shall request a dissenter to state an address to which payment is to be made; set the date by which Citywide must receive the payment demand and the certificates for the shares, which date shall not be less than 30 days after the written dissenters' notice is given; state the requirement contemplated in section 7-113-103(3) of the CBCA, if such a requirement is imposed; and be accompanied by a copy of Article 113 of the CBCA. A dissenting shareholder must, by the date set forth in the dissenters' notice, demand payment and send his, her or its stock certificates to the address provided in the dissenters' notice. The dissenting shareholders' payment demand must certify in writing whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares of common stock before the date such shareholder was informed of the merger.

A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his, her or its certificates by the time specified in the dissenters' notice will not be entitled to payment for his, her or its shares under the dissenters' rights sections of the CBCA and will instead be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

Upon the later of completion of the merger or receipt of the payment demand, Citywide will pay each dissenting shareholder who has complied with procedures described in Article 113 of the CBCA the amount that Citywide estimates to be the "fair value" of the dissenting shareholder's shares of stock, plus accrued interest. The payment must be accompanied by the latest audited annual financial statements of Citywide, any interim financial statements of Citywide, a statement of Citywide's estimate of the "fair value" of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, a statement of the dissenting shareholder's right to demand payment if the dissenting shareholder is dissatisfied with the payment and a copy of Article 113 of the CBCA.

If: (i) the dissenting shareholder believes that the amount paid by Citywide is less than the "fair value" of his, her or its shares or that the interest due was incorrectly calculated, (ii) Citywide fails to make payment within 60 days after the date set in the dissenters' notice for demanding payment, or (iii) the merger is not completed and Citywide does not return the deposited certificates within 60 days after the date set in the dissenters' notice for demanding payment, the dissenting shareholder may notify Citywide of his, her or its estimate of the “fair value” of his, her or its shares and the amount of interest due and demand payment of his, her or its estimate, less any payment previously received. The dissenting shareholder must notify Citywide of his, her or its demand in writing within 30 days after Citywide made or offered payment for the dissenting shareholder’s shares.

If within 60 days after receipt by Citywide of a demand described in the preceding paragraph, the demand remains unsettled, Citywide may bring a special proceeding in Colorado state court and petition the court to determine the “fair value” of the shares and accrued interest. Citywide is required to make all dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled parties to the special proceeding. Each party to the special proceeding will be served a copy of the petition filed with the court. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of the “fair value” of the shares. Each dissenting shareholder will be entitled to judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his, her or its shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by Citywide. If Citywide does not bring the special proceeding within such 60-day period, Citywide will pay each dissenting shareholder whose claim remains unsettled the amount demanded.

Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in Article 113 of the CBCA will result in the loss of a shareholder’s dissenters’ rights. Consequently, any shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters’ rights is urged to consult legal counsel before attempting to exercise such rights.

Shareholders considering the exercise of dissenters’ rights should be aware that the “fair value” of their shares as determined under Article 113 of the CBCA could be more than, the same as or less than the merger consideration they would receive under the merger agreement if they did not dissent.

One condition to Heartland’s obligation to complete the merger is that the total number of dissenting shares cannot be more than 6.5% of the number of outstanding shares of Citywide common stock.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes material provisions of the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms and conditions of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

The Merger

Pursuant to the merger agreement, and upon filing of a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of Delaware and a statement of merger with the Colorado Secretary of State, Citywide will merge with and into Heartland with Heartland as the surviving corporation. Upon the completion of the merger, each share of Citywide common stock, other than shares held by either Heartland or Citywide and shares held by Citywide shareholders who properly assert their dissenters' rights, will be automatically converted into the right to receive Heartland common stock and cash.

Consideration per share of Citywide common stock

Holders of Series I and Series II Citywide common stock will receive merger consideration of approximately $57.00 in cash and 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock per share, subject to certain adjustments described below, with cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Heartland common stock.

The exchange ratio for the stock component of the merger consideration is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect changes in the price of Heartland common stock occurring prior to the completion of the merger, but if the price of Heartland common stock drops below certain levels, as described under "The Merger Agreement - Termination," Citywide may exercise a "walk-away" right to terminate the merger agreement unless Heartland increases the exchange ratio or cash component of the merger consideration by exercising its "top-up" option.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to the following adjustments:

If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity (as defined below) is less than $113.0 million on the determination date, then the cash component of the merger consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to (a) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is below $113.0 million divided by (b) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock. If Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is greater than $114.8 million on the determination date, the cash component of the merger consideration will be increased by an amount equal to (x) the lesser of (A) $5.0 million and (B) the amount by which Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is above $114.8 million, divided by (y) the outstanding shares of Citywide common stock.

"Adjusted Tangible Common Equity" means an amount equal to (a) (i) the total stockholders' common equity of Citywide (excluding accumulated other comprehensive income (loss)), determined in accordance with GAAP as of the close of business on the determination date as adjusted to reflect a reasonable projection of the operations of Citywide through the effective time of the merger, plus (ii) the determination date transaction expenses, less (b) the sum of (i) the value of the intangible assets determined as of the close of business on the determination date as adjusted to reflect a reasonable projection of the operations of Citywide through the effective time of the merger, and (ii) the tax-effected amount (determined at a marginal tax rate of 34.0%), if any, by which the transaction expenses exceed $11.0 million; provided, however, that for the purpose of determining such excess, all transaction expenses will be treated as if they were paid prior to the closing date of the merger. For purposes of the foregoing definition, "a reasonable projection of operations" will be based on the average monthly operations of Citywide during the then-current year-to-date period for 2017, ending on the determination date.

The cash component of the merger consideration is subject to a tax holdback of $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock, or an aggregate of $4.1 million. The amount of the tax holdback may not be paid out, or only partially paid out, to Citywide shareholders if Heartland incurs a tax loss because Citywide or any of its subsidiaries failed to qualify as an "S corporation" or a "qualified subchapter S subsidiary" (within the meaning of the Code or comparable provisions of state, local or other tax law) prior to Citywide's election to become a "C corporation" on April 1, 2014. A claim against the tax holdback and related tax proceedings may reduce the cash that will be paid in the merger by up to $4.17 per share of Citywide common stock.

Martin J. Schmitz will act as representative of the holders of Citywide common stock in connection with the tax holdback. The tax holdback amount will be deposited into a separate account at Heartland, bearing interest at the rate of 3.00% per annum. To the extent that Heartland incurs a tax loss based on the circumstances described in this paragraph, Heartland will be indemnified solely from the tax holdback. Mr. Schmitz will also be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable third party expenses incurred from his participation in any tax proceedings. As described below, any remainder of the tax holdback, plus accrued interest, will be distributed pro rata to holders of Citywide common stock on the applicable release dates, or upon the resolution of pending tax claims, whichever comes later.

Within 10 business days of the first release date, September 10, 2017, Heartland or its paying agent will distribute $3.15, plus interest, to former holders of Citywide common stock for each Citywide share converted into Heartland shares, as reduced for pending tax claims and third-party expenses incurred by the shareholder representative.

Within 10 business days of the second release date, March 15, 2018, Heartland or its paying agent will distribute $0.58, plus interest, to former holders of Citywide common stock for each Citywide share converted into Heartland shares, as reduced for pending tax claims and third-party expenses incurred by the shareholder representative.

Within 10 business days of the third release date, September 10, 2018, Heartland or its paying agent will distribute $0.44, plus interest, to former holders of Citywide common stock for each Citywide share converted into Heartland shares, as reduced for pending tax claims and third-party expenses incurred by the shareholder representative.

Based on the closing price of a share of Heartland common stock as of February 10, 2017 of $45.75, the last trading date before the merger agreement was executed, and assuming no adjustments as described above, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $203.0 million or $207.98 per share of Citywide common stock.

Based on the price of a share of Heartland common stock as of _____, 2017 of $ _____, the last practicable trading date before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the aggregate merger consideration is valued at approximately $ _____ million or $ _____ per share of Citywide common stock. These valuations assume no adjustments based on the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity and no claims against the tax holdback.

Because the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity of Citywide and the market price for Heartland common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger, the value of the actual consideration you will receive may be different from the amounts described above.

The following table presents the value of the cash component of the merger consideration for each share of Citywide common stock, based upon various levels of Citywide's Adjusted Tangible Common Equity:

Adjusted Tangible Common Equity	Cash Adjustment	Cash Consideration per Share	Stock Consideration per Share ⁽¹⁾	Total Consideration per Share
$122.0 million	$ 5.13	$ 62.13	$ 150.98	$ 213.11

$108.0 million	(5.13)	51.87	150.98	202.85
$106.0 million	(7.18)	49.82	150.98	200.80

(1) Assumes the closing sales price of Heartland common stock as of the last trading day prior to execution of the merger agreement ($45.75) and the fixed exchange ratio of 3.300 shares of Heartland common stock issued for each share of Citywide common stock.

No fractional shares will be issued, but instead Heartland will pay to the holder of Citywide common stock otherwise entitled to a fractional share an amount of cash equal to the fractional share amount multiplied by the closing sale price of a share of Heartland common stock on the last trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Unless the parties agree otherwise, the completion of the merger will take place at a time and place to be agreed upon by the parties as soon as practicable after all closing conditions have been satisfied or waived.

The merger will be completed when Heartland files a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and statement of merger with the Colorado Secretary of State, unless Heartland and Citywide agree to a later time for the completion of the merger and specify that time in the articles of merger and statement of merger. We currently expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2017, subject to receipt of required shareholder and regulatory approvals.

Mutual Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Citywide's and Heartland's respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain mutual conditions, including:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Citywide shareholders;
- no prohibitive change in laws;
- the receipt of the required state and federal regulatory approvals;
- the absence of any injunction or order, or any law or regulation, that would impair the merger;
- the approval to increase the total number of authorized shares of Heartland common stock from 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 shares by Heartland's stockholders;
- the effectiveness of the registration statement for the issuance of Heartland common stock in exchange for Citywide common stock;
- the truth and correctness of the other party's representations and warranties, subject to the applicable standard of materiality in the merger agreement; and
- the other party's performance in all material respects of all the obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement.

Citywide Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Citywide's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

- no change of control of Heartland;
- the receipt by Citywide of a legal opinion from its counsel that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code; and
- the assumption of Heartland of Citywide's obligations under its statutory trust agreements.

Heartland Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Heartland's obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of certain conditions, including:

- the total number of dissenting shares cannot be more than 6.5% of the number of outstanding shares of Citywide common stock;
- the receipt of certain consents and waivers from third parties;
- the employment agreement dated February 13, 2017, among Heartland, Citywide, Centennial and Kevin G. Quinn, President and Chief Executive Officer of Citywide Banks, will be in full force and effect;
- the consulting agreement and the noncompetition agreement dated February 13, 2017, among Heartland, Centennial and Martin J. Schmitz, Chairman of the Board and President of Citywide, will be in full force and effect;
- the redemption of all issued and outstanding shares of Citywide preferred stock; and
- the acquisition by Heartland of Citywide's rights under its statutory trust agreements.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

No Solicitation

Citywide has agreed that it will not, and will cause Citywide Banks not to, and will use its best efforts to cause Citywide' and Citywide Banks' officers, directors, employees, agents and authorized representatives not to:

- solicit, initiate, encourage, induce or facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any inquiries or proposals with respect to any “acquisition proposal” (as defined below);
- furnish any information regarding Citywide or Citywide Banks to any person in connection with or in response to an acquisition proposal;
- engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal, enter into any agreement regarding an acquisition proposal or that could reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal or make any recommendation in support of any acquisition proposal;
- approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal; or
- enter into a letter of intent or contract contemplating any acquisition transaction

However, prior to approval of the merger agreement by holders of a majority of Citywide common stock, Citywide may consider and participate in discussions and negotiations with respect to an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal, and furnish information regarding Citywide or Citywide Banks to a person proposing an acquisition proposal, but only if: (1) the Citywide board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is required in order to comply with its fiduciary obligations to Citywide' shareholders under applicable law; (2) the acquisition proposal did not result from any breach by Citywide of its obligations under the merger agreement relating to non-solicitation; (3) Citywide first enters into a confidentiality agreement with the party proposing the acquisition proposal and notifies Heartland at least two business days before furnishing any information; and (4) Citywide also provides to Heartland any information it provides to the party proposing the acquisition proposal.

Citywide has also agreed:

- to notify Heartland promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) of any request for information relating to an acquisition proposal and to provide Heartland with relevant information regarding the acquisition proposal or request;
- to keep Heartland fully informed of the status of any such acquisition proposal (including any modifications or proposed modifications); and
- to cease immediately and cause to be terminated any existing discussions with any persons regarding an acquisition proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, “acquisition proposal” means any offer, proposal, inquiry or indication of interest contemplating or otherwise relating to (i) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, issuance of securities, acquisition of securities, tender offer, exchange offer or other similar transaction in which Citywide or a Citywide entity is involved, in which any person or group (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder) acquires beneficial or record ownership of 15% or more of any voting securities of Citywide or a Citywide entity, or in which Citywide or a Citywide entity sells more than 20% of its voting securities, or (ii) any sale, lease, exchange, transfer, license, acquisition or disposition of any business or businesses or assets that constitute or account for 20% or more of the consolidated net revenues, net income or assets of Citywide or a Citywide entity, except transactions in the ordinary course of business.

Termination

Citywide and Heartland may agree in writing to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Citywide shareholders, if a majority of the board of directors of each of Citywide and Heartland votes to do so.

In addition, either Heartland or Citywide may decide to terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including the following:

- if there is a law or governmental order that prohibits the merger;
- if a governmental entity has denied the approval of the merger on a final and non-appealable basis;

if holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of the Series I Citywide common stock and the Series II Citywide common stock, with each series voting separately as a class, fail to approve the merger at the special meeting;

if the holders of a majority of issued and outstanding shares of Heartland common stock fail to approve the increase in the number of authorized shares of Heartland common stock;

if the merger has not been completed by September 30, 2017, unless the party seeking to terminate the agreement has failed to comply fully with its obligations under the merger agreement;

if the other party has or will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement in any material respect and such breach cannot be or is not cured within 30 days after written notice of the breach is given; or if satisfaction of any closing condition by the other party is or becomes impossible.

Citywide may terminate the merger agreement pursuant to a "walk-away" right at any time within five business days after the determination date, if both of the following conditions are met:

the volume weighted average closing price of Heartland common stock during the 15 trading days ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the 10th day prior to the determination date (the "Heartland determination date stock price") is below $35.00 and the ratio of the Heartland determination date stock price to $45.75, the closing price of Heartland common stock on the trading day immediately prior to the date of the merger agreement, is less than the ratio of the average daily closing value of the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (^KRX) (the "Index"), during the same time period used to calculate the Heartland determination date stock price, to the closing value of the Index on the trading day immediately prior to the date of the merger agreement, after subtracting 0.175 from the second ratio.

However, Citywide's written notice to terminate the merger agreement will have no force and effect if Heartland exercises its "top-up" option and agrees in writing within five business days to increase the original exchange ratio to an amount equal to:

the original exchange ratio (3.300 shares of Heartland common stock for each share of Citywide common stock), multiplied by the quotient of the Heartland determination date stock price divided by $35.00.

Alternatively, Heartland may retain the original exchange ratio, and increase cash consideration so that Citywide shareholders are entitled to receive the same value for each share of Citywide common stock as the holder would have received had the original exchange ratio been increased, as described above. Because the "walk-away" formula is dependent on the future price of Heartland common stock and the Index, it is not possible to determine what the adjusted merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more cash or more shares of Heartland common stock would be issued, to take into account the extent to which the decline in the average price of Heartland's common stock exceeded the decline in the average price of the common stock of the Index group.

Citywide may also terminate the merger agreement if the Citywide board of directors determines to enter into an agreement with a party other than Heartland if Citywide has received a "superior proposal" from the other party, and Citywide complies with applicable provisions of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Payment of Expenses

If the merger agreement is terminated and abandoned for any reason other than fraud, willful misconduct or material breach, it will become void and there will be no liability on the part of Heartland, Citywide or their respective representatives, except that designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive the termination, including provisions relating to the payment of expenses and/or a termination fee in the circumstances described below.

Heartland must pay to Citywide all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Citywide in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of the merger agreement if the merger agreement is terminated because Heartland stockholders do not approve the increase in authorized shares of Heartland common stock, or because Citywide has breached a representation, warranty or agreement contained in the merger agreement in any material respect, and such breach cannot be cured in a thirty day period.

Citywide must pay to Heartland all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Heartland in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of the merger agreement if the merger agreement is terminated because the merger agreement has not been adopted by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Citywide at the special meeting, or because Citywide has breached a representation, warranty or agreement contained in the merger agreement in any material respect, and such breach cannot be cured in a thirty day period.

In any event, neither party's reimbursement obligation for out-of-pocket expenses will exceed $1.0 million in the aggregate.

Citywide must pay a termination fee of $8.5 million in cash if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Citywide because it has determined to enter into an agreement for a superior proposal;
by Heartland if Citywide has materially breached its obligation to call a meeting of shareholders and to recommend that its shareholders adopt the merger agreement at such meeting or the restrictions against solicitation of a superior proposal.

Other Covenants and Agreements

Citywide has undertaken customary covenants that place restrictions on it and Citywide Banks until the completion of the merger. In general, Citywide has agreed to, and has agreed to cause each of its subsidiaries to, conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, preserve intact in all material respects its business organization and the goodwill, use commercially reasonable efforts to keep available the services of its officers and employees, and maintain satisfactory relationships with vendors, customers and others having business relationships with it.

Citywide has further agreed that, except with Heartland's prior written consent, Citywide will not, and will cause Citywide Banks not to, among other things, undertake any of the following actions:

- amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws;
- issue any of its equity securities, securities convertible into or exchangeable for its equity securities, warrants, options or other rights to acquire its equity securities, or any bonds or other securities, except deposit and other bank obligations in the ordinary course of business;
- redeem, purchase, acquire or offer to acquire any of its capital stock or any other ownership interest;
- split, combine or reclassify any outstanding shares of capital stock, declare, set aside or pay any dividends or other distribution on any shares of its capital stock, except that Citywide Banks may pay dividends to Citywide;
- incur any material indebtedness, except in the ordinary course of business;
- discharge or satisfy any material encumbrance on its properties or assets or pay any material liability, except otherwise in the ordinary course of business;
- sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or subject to any lien or other encumbrance any of its assets, except in the ordinary course of business, for current property taxes not yet due and payable or non-material liens and encumbrances;
- cancel any material indebtedness or claims or waive any rights of material value, except in the ordinary course of business;
- acquire (by merger, exchange, consolidation, acquisition of stock or assets or otherwise) any corporation, partnership, joint venture or other business organization or division or material assets thereof, or assets or deposits that are material to Citywide, except in exchange for indebtedness previously contracted, including other real estate owned;
- except for certain limited exceptions, make any single or group of related capital expenditures or commitments therefor in excess of $50,000 or enter into any lease or group of related leases with the same party which involves aggregate lease payments payable of more than $75,000 for any individual lease or involves more than $100,000 for any group of related leases in the aggregate;
- change its accounting methods, other than changes required by GAAP or regulatory accounting principles generally applicable to depository institutions;
- allow its current insurance policies to be canceled or terminated or any of the coverage thereunder to lapse, unless simultaneously with such termination, cancellation or lapse, replacement policies providing coverage equal to or greater than the coverage under the canceled, terminated or lapsed policies are in full force and effect;

enter into or modify any employment, severance or similar agreements or arrangements with, or grant any compensation increases to, any director, officer or management, except in the ordinary course of business; enter into or modify any independent contractor or consultant contract that requires annual payments in excess of $100,000; terminate the employment of any Citywide employee, other than in the ordinary course of business amend any bonus, profit sharing, stock option, restricted stock, pension, retirement, deferred compensation, or other employee benefit plan, trust, fund, contract or arrangement for the benefit or welfare of any employees, except as and to the extent required by law or in the merger agreement; make, modify or revoke any election with respect to taxes, consent to any waiver or extension of time to assess or collect any taxes, file any amended returns or file any refund claim; or make any commitments to extend credit except in a manner consistent with past practice, and if for more than $1,000,000, after consultation with Heartland and as otherwise set forth in the merger agreement.

This description of the representations and warranties, and their reproduction in the copy of the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A, are included solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should only be read together with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the periodic and current reports and statements that Heartland files with the SEC. The following discussion summarizes the material differences between the rights of Citywide shareholders and the rights of Heartland stockholders. You should read Heartland's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, and Citywide's articles of incorporation and bylaws carefully and in their entirety.

Size of Board of Directors

Heartland

The DGCL provides that the board of directors of a business corporation shall consist of one or more members, each of whom shall be a natural person, and that the number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number of directors, in which case a change shall be made only by amendment. Heartland's certificate of incorporation provides that the number of directors shall not be less than three nor more than nine.

Citywide

The CBCA provides that the number of directors on the board of directors of a business corporation shall be specified or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. The CBCA, unlike the DGCL, also allows shareholders to amend a corporation's bylaws without the approval of the Board of Directors. Citywide's bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be not less than five nor more than 25 and shall be fixed by a resolution of the board of directors. from time to time.

Qualifications of Directors

Heartland

The DGCL provides that directors need not be stockholders unless otherwise required by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws, and that other qualifications of directors may be prescribed in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws.

The Heartland bylaws provide that directors need not be residents of Delaware or the United States or stockholders of the corporation. Heartland's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that a person shall not be eligible for election to the board of directors if such person is seventy (70) years of age or older on the date of such election, provided, however, that such restriction does not apply to any incumbent directors who attained the age of sixty-five (65) years prior to January 1, 1993.

Filling Vacancies on the Board

Heartland

The DGCL provides that, unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws state otherwise, a majority of the directors then in office (although less than a quorum) or the sole remaining director may fill any vacancy on the board of directors including newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors.

Heartland's bylaws provide that vacancies may be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office, although less than a quorum, by the nominating and compensation committee, or by the sole remaining director.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, a director is not required to be a resident of the state of Colorado or a shareholder of the corporation, unless otherwise required by the bylaws.

The Citywide bylaws similarly provide that directors need not be residents of Colorado or shareholders of Citywide.

Citywide

The CBCA provides that a vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by the board of directors or the shareholders, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum, the remaining directors then in office may still fill the vacancy by a majority vote.

Citywide's bylaws provide that a vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by the board of directors. If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum, the remaining directors then in office may still fill the vacancy by a majority vote.

Citywide's bylaws further provide that any directorship to be filled by reason of any increase in the number of directors will be filled by the board of directors or by an election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

Removal of Directors

Heartland

Under the DGCL, directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote on their election; however, in the case of a corporation whose board

Citywide

Under the CBCA, shareholders of a corporation may remove a director with or without cause, if removal is approved by a majority of the then outstanding shares. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting of directors is classified, stockholders may effect such removal only for cause unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides.

Heartland's certificate of incorporation provides that a director may only be removed for cause and by an affirmative vote of seventy percent (70%) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors at an annual meeting of stockholders or a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

group may participate in the vote to remove that director. No director may be removed when the votes cast against removal would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected. Removal by the shareholders may only be done at a shareholder meeting called for that purpose.

Citywide's bylaws do not specify procedures with respect to the removal of directors, so any such removal would be governed by the CBCA.

Nomination of Directors for Election

Heartland

If a stockholder wishes to nominate a person for election as director, the stockholder must give timely notice in proper written form to the Secretary of Heartland. To be timely, such stockholder notice must be received by the Secretary at Heartland's principal executive offices not later than the close of business on the thirtieth day nor earlier than the opening of business on the seventy-fifth day before the meeting; provided, however, that in the event the notice of the meeting is given less than forty (40) days before the meeting, notice must be received not later than ten (10) days after the date that notice of the meeting was given. To be in proper written form, such stockholder's notice must be in writing and contain information regarding the nominee to the board of directors and the stockholder bringing the nomination and other information specified in Heartland's bylaws.

Citywide

Citywide's bylaws do not specify procedures with respect to the nomination of directors.

Fiduciary Duty of Directors

Heartland

Directors of Delaware have fiduciary obligations to act in accordance with the so-called duties of "due care" and "loyalty." The duty of care requires that the directors act in an informed and deliberative manner and to inform themselves, prior to making a business decision, of all material information reasonably available to them. The duty of loyalty requires the directors to act in good faith, not out of self-interest and in a manner that the directors reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the corporation.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, directors owe a duty of care to the corporation and its shareholders. This standard requires reasonably inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. Directors also have a duty of loyalty to the corporation and its shareholders, requiring the director to act in the best interest of the corporation.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

Heartland

The DGCL generally prohibits certain Delaware corporations from engaging in any "business combination" with any "interested stockholder" for a period of three years following the time that the stockholder became an interested stockholder unless:

- the board of directors approves either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder prior to the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;
- the interested stockholder acquires at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the voting stock (excluding shares held by officers, directors and certain employee stock plans) of the corporation in the transaction that causes the stockholder to become an interested stockholder; or
- the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of stockholders by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock (excluding stock owned by the interested stockholder).

Citywide

The CBCA has no express anti-takeover provisions.

The DGCL generally defines "business combination" to include merger; sale or other disposition to the interested stockholder of ten percent (10%) or more of the assets of the corporation; subject to specified exceptions, a transaction by the corporation that results in an increase in the stock of the corporation owned by the interested stockholder; and other financial benefits provided to the interested stockholder by or through the corporation.

59

Generally, the DGCL defines an “interested stockholder” as (i) any person owning fifteen percent (15%) or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation, or (i) any affiliate or associate of the corporation that owned fifteen percent (15%) or more of the voting stock of the corporation during the past three years.

Shareholder Meeting Heartland

Annual Meetings. Under Heartland’s bylaws an annual meeting of the stockholders must be held on the Wednesday following the third Tuesday of May each year or on such other date as the board of directors may determine.

Special Meetings. Under the DGCL, a special meeting may be called by the board of directors or by other persons authorized by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. Heartland’s bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the chairman of the board, the vice chairman of the board, the president, the board, or at the written request of stockholders representing a majority of outstanding voting shares.

Submission of Shareholder Proposals Heartland

Heartland’s bylaws provide that a stockholder must give notice to the secretary of Heartland not less than thirty (30) days nor more than seventy-five (75) days prior to the date of the originally scheduled meeting in order to bring business before an annual meeting. The notice must set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting: (i) a description of the proposal and the reasons for the proposal; (ii) the name and address of the proposing stockholder; (iii) the number of shares of Heartland’s common stock beneficially owned by the stockholder; and (iv) any interest of the stockholder in the proposal.

Notice of Shareholder Meetings Heartland

Heartland’s bylaws provide that it shall notify stockholders of the place, date, and time of a meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting or in the case of a merger or consolidation of Heartland requiring stockholder approval or a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of Heartland’s property and assets, not less than twenty (20) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of meeting. If the notice is for a meeting other than the annual meeting, the notice shall also specify the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

Citywide

Annual Meetings. Under Citywide’s bylaws, an annual meeting of shareholders must be held each year at a date and time fixed by the board of directors, the chairman of the board or the president.

Special Meeting. Under the CBCA, the board of directors, persons authorized by the bylaws and holders of at least ten percent (10%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting, may call a special meeting of shareholders. Citywide’s bylaws are consistent with the CBCA and also allow for the chairman of the board and the president to call such meetings.

Citywide

Citywide’s bylaws do not specify procedures with respect to business that may be brought by a shareholder at a meeting of shareholders.

Citywide

Citywide’s bylaws provide that the corporation shall notify those shareholders entitled to vote of the date, time and place of each shareholders meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60), days before the meeting date. Notice of special shareholders’ meeting need not include the purpose or purposes of the meeting except as may otherwise be required by the CBCA.

Shareholder Vote Required for Mergers and Sales

Heartland

The DGCL generally requires that a merger or consolidation or sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of a corporation's property and assets be approved by the directors and by a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon. Under the DGCL, a surviving corporation need not obtain stockholder approval for a merger if: (i) the merger agreement does not amend the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation; (ii) each share of the surviving corporation's stock outstanding prior to the merger remains outstanding in identical form after the merger; or (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation are to be issued in the merger, or, if common stock will be issued, it will not increase the number of shares of common stock outstanding prior to the merger by more than twenty percent (20%).

In addition, the DGCL permits the merger of one corporation, of which at least ninety percent (90%) of the outstanding shares of each class is owned by another corporation, with or into the other corporation, without shareholder approval of either corporation.

Heartland's certificate of incorporation provides that a merger or consolidation or a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of Heartland's property and assets requires the affirmative vote of seventy percent (70%) of Heartland's voting shares unless such transaction (i) is approved by resolution adopted by not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of Heartland's board of directors, (ii) is with a corporation of which the majority of the outstanding shares are owned by Heartland, or (iii) does not require stockholder approval pursuant to the DGCL.

Distributions

Heartland

The DGCL allows the board of directors to declare and pay dividends and other distributions to stockholders either out of surplus, or out of net profits for the current or preceding fiscal year in which the dividend is declared. A distribution out of net profits is not permitted if a corporation's capital is less than the accumulated preference of preference shares, until the deficiency has been repaired.

In addition to the restrictions discussed above, Heartland's ability to pay dividends to its stockholders may be affected by rules, regulations and policies of the Federal Reserve applicable to bank holding companies.

Under the Certificate of Designations of its Series D Preferred Stock, Heartland is prohibited from paying dividends on any shares of parity stock or junior stock (other than a dividend payable solely in shares of junior stock) or redeeming shares of parity stock or junior stock if it has failed to pay dividends on such Series D Preferred Stock.

Citywide

The CBCA requires that, with respect to a corporation that was in existence in Colorado on June 30, 1994, an agreement of merger to be approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class entitled to vote. Neither Citywide's articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for any special voting requirements for mergers or sales.

Under the certificate of designation of the Citywide preferred stock, the holders of preferred stock have no voting rights except as required by the CBCA.

Citywide

The CBCA allows the board of directors to declare and pay dividends on the shares of its capital stock. Such distributions may not be made, however, if, as a result of such distribution, the corporation would be able to unable to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business, the corporation's total assets would be less than its total liabilities or, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount needed to satisfy the preferential rights on dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

Citywide's bylaws provide that Citywide's board of directors may from time to time declare, and Citywide may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by the CBCA.

The holders of Citywide preferred stock shall be entitled to receive, as set forth in the certificate of designation of the Citywide preferred stock, non-cumulative cash-dividends with respect to each dividend period.

Under the certificate of designation of the Citywide preferred stock, no dividend or distribution shall be declared and paid or set aside for payment on any shares of any parity stock or junior stock (other than a dividend payable solely in shares of junior stock), and no shares of the same shall be purchased, redeemed or otherwise acquired, unless the full dividends for the most recent dividend payment date on all outstanding shares of Citywide preferred stock have been paid or declared and a sum for the payment has been set aside; provided, however, that if Citywide pays a dividend to preferred stock holders representing a portion of the dividend for the applicable dividend payment date, it may pay a dividend equal to that same portion of the dividend payable on shares of parity stock on the next succeeding dividend payment date for such parity stock.

In addition to the restrictions discussed above, Citywide's ability to pay dividends to its stockholders may be affected by rules, regulations and policies of the Federal Reserve applicable to bank holding companies.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

Heartland

Under the DGCL, stockholders have appraisal rights in connection with mergers and consolidations, provided the stockholder complies with certain procedural requirements of the DGCL. However, this right to demand appraisal does not apply to shares of any class or series of stock if, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote:

Citywide

Heartland

The DGCL provides that unless otherwise provided in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of capital stock held by such stockholder.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, except as may be otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of shareholders. All shares of any one class have the same voting rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions, unless the class is divided into series. If a class is divided into series, all the shares of any one series shall have the same voting rights and other rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions.

The Series D Preferred Stock shall have the right to vote with the common stock on a converted basis and as a single class upon any amendment to the certificate of incorporation that would adversely affect their powers, preferences or special rights.

Indemnification

Heartland

A Delaware corporation is required to indemnify a present or former director or officer against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in an action that such person successfully defends on the merits or otherwise.

A corporation may indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent who is or is threatened to be made a party to a non-derivative proceeding against expenses, judgments and settlements incurred in connection with the proceeding, provided the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. A director, officer, employee or agent made or threatened to be made a party to a derivative action can be indemnified to the same extent, except that indemnification is not permitted with respect to claims in which the person has been adjudged liable to the corporation unless the court determines to allow indemnity for expenses.

Any permissive indemnification of a present or former director, officer, employee or agent, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation upon a determination by: (i) a majority vote of the disinterested directors even though less than a quorum; (ii) a committee of disinterested directors, designated by a majority vote of such directors even though less than a quorum; (iii) independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or (iv) the stockholders. The statutory rights regarding indemnification are not exclusive.

Heartland's bylaws provide that Heartland shall indemnify a director or officer made party to a proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses, judgments, fines and settlements in the circumstances that the Delaware statute

Under the certificate of designation of the Citywide preferred stock, the holders of preferred stock have no voting rights except as required by the CBCA. Under the CBCA, the right to vote as a separate class includes the right to vote to authorize parity or senior stock and to amend the rights of the holders of preferred stock.

Citywide

The CBCA allows a corporation to indemnify any director of the corporation against liability incurred in a proceeding if the director acted in good faith and in a manner the agent reasonably, in his or her official capacity with the corporation, believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, or in all other cases, that the conduct was not opposed to the corporation's best interests and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of the person was unlawful, provided that indemnification may not can be made (i) in a derivative claim against the director in which he or she is found liable to the corporation, or (ii) in connection with a proceeding in which the director is charged with, and found liable for, deriving an improper benefit. Indemnification for a derivative claim in which the director is not found liable is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding. Unless limited by the articles, a corporation must indemnify a director, when successful in the defense of a proceeding, against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of: (i) an affirmation of director's good faith that he or she meets the indemnification standards described above and (ii) an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay that amount if it shall be determined ultimately that the agent is not entitled to be indemnified. Before it can occur, indemnification must be authorized through one of the following mechanisms: (i) a majority vote of disinterested directors (provided they constitute a quorum); (ii) majority vote of a committee, designated by the directors and consisting of two or more directors that are not parties to the proceeding (only if a quorum cannot be obtained); (iii) the written opinion of independent legal counsel; or (iv) by a majority vote of the shareholders.

The Citywide's articles of incorporation provide for indemnity of persons to the extent and in the manner permitted by the CBCA. This includes circumstances in which indemnification would be discretionary under the CBCA or subject to particular standards of conduct under the CBCA. The articles of incorporation further provide that Citywide shall indemnify an agent in connection with an administrative proceeding that results in a final order assessing civil money penalties or requiring affirmative action by the agent in the form of payments to the corporation. Citywide may not advance expenses to the agent in such instances.

Limitations on Directors' Liability

Heartland

Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation may eliminate director liability for all acts except: (i) an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law; (ii) a breach of the duty of loyalty; (iii) improper personal benefits; or (iv) certain unlawful distributions. Heartland's certificate of incorporation contains such an exculpatory provision.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, director liability for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duties may be eliminated or limited in the articles of incorporation, except for certain enumerated actions such as actions and omissions that a director believes to be contrary to the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders, actions taken in the absence of good faith, or actions from which the director derives an improper benefit. Citywide's articles of incorporation contain the above exculpatory provision.

Furthermore, under the CBCA, no director or officer shall be personally liable for any injury to person or property arising out of a tort committed by an employee unless such director or officer was personally involved in the situation giving rise to the litigation or unless such director or officer committed a criminal offense in connection with such situation.

Amendment of Certificate or Articles of Incorporation

Heartland

Under the DGCL and unless the certificate requires a greater value, an amendment to the certificate of incorporation may be adopted by holders of a majority of the voting shares at a meeting at which a quorum is present, provided that, a class of stockholders has the right to vote separately on an amendment if it would: (i) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class; (ii) increase or decrease the par value of the shares of the class; or (iii) adversely change the powers, preferences, or special rights of the shares of the class.

The Heartland certificate of incorporation provides that the provisions regarding (i) amendment to bylaws and certificate of incorporation, (ii) the size, qualifications and classes of the board of directors, (iii) additional voting requirements, (iv) business combinations with interested stockholders, and (v) stockholder action by written consent, shall not be amended, changed or repealed unless approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares having at least 70% of the voting power of all outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon, unless such amendment, change or repeal was approved by at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the directors.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, and unless otherwise provided in the articles, the board of directors may adopt, without shareholder action, amendments to do any of the following: (a) delete names and addresses of incorporators or the initial directors; (b) delete registered agent name and address of the initial registered agent; or (c) add an abbreviation in the domestic entity name.

Under the CBCA, and unless the articles of incorporation require a greater value, amendments to the articles may be adopted by holders of a majority of the voting shares at a meeting at which a quorum is present, provided, however, that a class of shareholders has the right to vote separately on an amendment if it would: (i) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class; (ii) effect an exchange or reclassification of the shares of one class into shares of the class (or vice versa); (iii) change the rights of the shares of the class; (iv) create a new class of shares having rights that are superior, prior or substantially equal to the shares of the class; (v) increase the rights or number of authorized shares of any class that has rights that are superior, prior or substantially equal to the shares of the class; (vi) limit or deny preemptive rights of shares of the class; or (vii) cancel distributions that have accumulated but have not yet been declared on shares of the class.

Citywide's articles of incorporation do not provide for any special requirements for amendment of the articles of incorporation. Under the certificate of designation of the Citywide preferred stock, holders of preferred stock do not have any voting rights except as required by the CBCA. Such voting rights include the requirement of a vote of a majority of the holders of preferred stock to amend the articles of incorporation in order to create or increase any shares of preferred stock senior to the rights of the preferred stock then outstanding.

Amendment of Bylaws

Heartland

Under the DGCL, stockholders entitled to vote have the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws. In addition, a corporation may, in its certificate of incorporation, confer such power upon the board of directors. However, the stockholders always retain the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws, even though the board of directors may also be delegated such power.

Heartland's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that the bylaws also may be amended, altered or repealed by (i) the stockholders, provided such amendment, alteration or repeal is approved by the affirmative vote of holders of not less than seventy (70%) of the outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote at an election of directors, or (ii) the affirmative vote of not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the directors.

Shareholder Inspection Rights

Heartland

Under the DGCL, every stockholder of record has the right to inspect, upon written demand under oath stating the stockholder's purpose for inspection, in person or by agent or attorney, the corporation's stock ledger, stockholder list, its other books and records and, subject to certain restrictions, the books and records of a subsidiary of the corporation.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, bylaws may be amended by approval of the outstanding shares or by the approval of the board. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may restrict or eliminate the power of the board to amend the bylaws. If authorized by the articles of incorporation, the shareholders may amend the bylaws to fix a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders, or voting groups of shareholders. A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders shall not be amended by the board of directors. A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended (i) if adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders or (ii) if adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of directors.

Citywide's bylaws provide that the board of directors may amend or repeal the bylaws unless the CBCA provides otherwise.

Citywide

Under the CBCA, a shareholder is entitled to inspect and copy the following records of the corporation, if the shareholder gives the corporation written demand at least five business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy the following records: (i) articles of incorporation, (ii) bylaws, (iii) minutes of shareholders meetings from the last three years, (iv) written shareholder communications from the last three years, (v) names and business addresses of the current directors and officers, (vi) most recent periodic report and (vii) all financial statements that may be requested by shareholders. Furthermore, a shareholder (a) holding at least five percent (5%) in the aggregate of the outstanding voting shares of a corporation, or who has been a shareholder for at least three months immediately preceding their demand to inspect, (b) who makes a demand to inspect in good faith and for a proper purpose, (c) that describes that purpose with reasonable particularity, and (d) whose request is linked to records directly connected with the described proper purpose, shall have the right to inspect and copy the meeting minutes of the board and the committees, the accounting records of the corporation, and the record of shareholders' names and addresses and shareholdings.

Citywide's bylaws provide that any shareholder may inspect the shareholders' list at the earlier of ten (10) days before the shareholders' meeting for which the list was prepared or two business days after notice of the meeting is given. This right continues through the meeting and any adjournment of the meeting.

ARTICLE 2
MERGER

2.1 The Merger. Under the terms of this Agreement and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article 7, at the Effective Time, Citywide will be merged with and into Heartland. Heartland, in its capacity as the corporation surviving the Merger, is sometimes referred to herein as the “Surviving Corporation.” The Merger will be effected pursuant to the provisions of, and with the effect provided in, Section 252 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”) and Section 7-111-106.5 of the Colorado Business Corporation Act (the “CBCA”).

2.2 Effect of Merger.

(a)At the Effective Time, Citywide will be merged with and into Heartland, and the separate existence of Citywide will cease. The Charter and the Bylaws of Heartland, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, will be the Charter and the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until the same may be amended as provided therein and in accordance with applicable Law. The directors and officers of Heartland immediately prior to the Effective Time will be the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and shall qualify; provided, however, that Schmitz will be nominated by Heartland and recommended to its shareholders for election to its Board of Directors in accordance with Section 6.13.

(b)At the Effective Time and thereafter, the Surviving Corporation will be responsible and liable for all the Liabilities, Indebtedness and penalties of each of Heartland and Citywide.

(c)At the Effective Time and thereafter, the Surviving Corporation will possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises, of a public as well as of a private nature, of each of Heartland and Citywide; all property, real, personal and mixed, and all Indebtedness due on whatever account, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of Heartland and Citywide, will be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate or any interest therein, vested in Heartland or Citywide, will not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger.

(d)To effect the Merger, the parties hereto will cause a Certificate of Merger substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Delaware Certificate of Merger”) and a Statement of Merger substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the “Colorado Statement of Merger”) relating to the Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware and the Secretary of State of Colorado, respectively. The Merger will become effective upon the filing of the Delaware Certificate of Merger and the Colorado Statement of Merger. As used herein, the term “Effective Date” will mean the date on which the Merger will become effective as provided in the preceding sentence, and the term “Effective Time” will mean the time on the Effective Date when the Merger will become effective. The Effective Date and the Effective Time will take place on the Closing Date.

2.3 Conversion of Citywide Common Stock.

(a) To effectuate the Merger, at the Effective Time, and without any further action of Heartland, Citywide or any holder of Citywide Common Stock, each issued and outstanding share of Citywide Common Stock (other than shares to be canceled pursuant to Section 2.3(c) and Dissenting Shares) will be canceled and extinguished and be converted into and become a right to receive (i) subject to Sections 2.4 and 6.15, $57.00 in cash (the "Cash Consideration”), and (ii) subject to Section 2.5, 3.300 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of Heartland Common Stock (the “Stock Consideration,” and, together with the Actual Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”).

(b) No fractional shares of Heartland Common Stock will be issued for Citywide Converted Common Shares, and in lieu of any fractional share, Heartland will pay to each holder of Citywide Converted Common Shares who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of Heartland Common Stock an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of (i) the Heartland Closing Date Stock Price multiplied by (ii) the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled (the “Fractional Share Amount”).

(c) Each share of Citywide Common Stock held as treasury stock of Citywide or held directly or indirectly by Heartland, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of Indebtedness previously contracted, will be canceled, retired and cease to exist, and no exchange or payment will be made with respect thereto.

2.4 Adjustment to Cash Consideration for Changes in Adjusted Tangible Common Equity. If the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is less than $113,000,000, the Cash Consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to (a) the amount by which the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is below $113,000,000, divided by (b) the Citywide Shares Outstanding (the “Downwardly Adjusted Cash Consideration”). If the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is greater than $114,800,000, the Cash Consideration will be increased by an amount equal to (x) the lesser of (A) $5,000,000 and (B) the amount by which the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is above $114,800,000, divided by (y) the Citywide Shares Outstanding (the “Upwardly Adjusted Cash Consideration”).

2.5 Adjustments to Heartland Common Stock. In the event Heartland changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of shares of Heartland Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Date as a result of any stock split, recapitalization, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Heartland Common Stock, or Heartland declares a stock dividend or extraordinary cash dividend, and the record date therefor will be prior to the Effective Date, the Exchange Ratio will be proportionately adjusted.

2.6 Rights of Holders of Citywide Common Stock; Capital Stock of Heartland.

(a) At and after the Effective Time and until surrendered for exchange, each outstanding stock certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented the Citywide Converted Common Shares will be deemed for all purposes to evidence the right to receive the Stock Consideration and the Actual Cash Consideration for each Citywide Converted Common Share, and the record holder of such outstanding stock certificate will, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote the shares of Heartland Common Stock into which such shares of Citywide Common Stock will have been converted on any matters on which the holders of record of Heartland Common Stock, as of any date subsequent to the Effective Time, will be entitled to vote. In any matters relating to such stock certificates, Heartland may rely conclusively upon the record of shareholders maintained by Citywide containing the names and addresses of the holders of record of Citywide Common Stock at the Effective Time.

(b) At and after the Effective Time, each share of capital stock of Heartland issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain an issued and existing share of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation and will not be affected by the Merger.

2.7 Payment and Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Payment of Merger Consideration; Exchange of Certificates. Within five (5) Business Days after the Closing, Heartland will cause to be distributed to each holder of shares of Citywide Common Stock a letter of transmittal or other appropriate materials to facilitate the surrender of certificates representing such shares in exchange for the Stock Consideration and the Actual Cash Consideration for each Citywide Converted Common Share (a “Letter of Transmittal"). Within five (5) Business Days after surrender to Heartland or to a paying agent appointed by Heartland of any certificate which prior to the Effective Date represented a share of Citywide Common Stock, Heartland or such paying agent will distribute to the Person in whose name such certificate is registered, the Stock Consideration and the Actual Cash Consideration, and, if applicable, cash in the amount of any Fractional Share Amount.

(b)Failure to Surrender Certificates. If outstanding certificates formerly representing Citywide Converted Common Shares are not surrendered prior to the date on which the Merger Consideration to which any holder of such shares is entitled as a result of the Merger would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity, the unclaimed Merger Consideration will, to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable Law, become the property of Heartland (and, to the extent not in Heartland's possession, will be paid over to Heartland), free and clear of any and all claims or interest of any Person except the holder of the Citywide Converted Shares that have not been surrendered. Any former shareholder of Citywide who has not theretofore complied with this Article 2 will thereafter look only to Heartland with respect to the payment of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Heartland Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of Citywide Common Stock such shareholder holds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Heartland nor any other Person will be liable to any former holder of Citywide Common Stock for any amount delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws.

(c)Lost Certificates. In the event that any certificate representing Citywide Converted Common Shares will have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Heartland will issue and pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof in form reasonably satisfactory to Heartland's paying agent, the Merger Consideration for each Citywide Converted Common Share; provided, however, that Heartland or Heartland's paying agent may, as a condition precedent to the issuance and payment of the Merger Consideration to which the holder of such certificate is entitled as a result of the Merger, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate to provide an indemnity against any claim that may be made against Heartland, Citywide or any other party with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed. Heartland or Heartland's paying agent will not require such holder to deliver a bond or other security or collateral with respect to such indemnity obligation.

(d)Dividends. Until outstanding certificates formerly representing Citywide Converted Common Shares are surrendered as provided in Section 2.7(a) and (c), no dividend or distribution payable to holders of record of shares of Heartland Common Stock will be paid to any holder of such outstanding certificates, but upon surrender of such outstanding certificates by such holder, there will be paid to such holder the amount of any dividends or distributions (without interest) theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Heartland Common Stock, but not paid to such holder, and which dividends or distributions had a record date occurring on or subsequent to the Effective Time.

(e)Full Satisfaction. The Merger Consideration issued and paid upon the surrender for exchange of each Citywide Converted Common Share in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement will be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Citywide Converted Common Share.

2.8 Dissenting Shares.

(a)Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any shares of Citywide Common Stock held by a Person (a "Dissenting Shareholder") who has demanded and perfected a demand for payment of the fair value of his, her or its shares of Citywide Common Stock in accordance with Section 7-113-101, et seq., of the CBCA and, as of the Effective Time, has neither effectively withdrawn nor lost his, her or its right to such demand will not represent a right to receive Merger Consideration for any share of Citywide Common Stock pursuant to Sections 2.3(a), 2.4 and 2.5, but in lieu thereof the holder thereof will be entitled to only such rights as are granted by the CBCA.

(b)Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.8(a), if any Dissenting Shareholder demanding payment of fair value of such Dissenting Shareholder's shares of Citywide Common Stock ("Dissenting Shares") under CBCA will effectively withdraw or lose (through failure to perfect or otherwise) such Dissenting Shareholder's right to demand such payment, then, as of the Effective Time or the time of such withdrawal or loss, whichever occurs later, each Dissenting Share will automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Sections 2.3(a), 2.4 and 2.5 upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such Dissenting Shares.

(c)Citywide will give Heartland prompt notice of any demands by a Dissenting Shareholder for payment of fair value of his, her or its shares of Citywide Common Stock, or notices of intent to demand such payment received by Citywide pursuant to Section 7-113-101, et seq. of the CBCA, and Heartland will have the right, at its expense, to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Citywide will not, except with the prior written consent of Heartland (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) or as otherwise required by Law, make any payment with respect to, settle, or offer to settle, any such demands. Heartland will make any payments, settlement and offers of settlements to Dissenting Shareholders with respect to demands made pursuant to Section 7-113-101, et seq. of the CBCA.

2.9 The Closing. The closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the “Closing”) will take place at the offices of Heartland located at 1398 Central Avenue, Dubuque, Iowa, or at a location otherwise agreed upon by Citywide and Heartland. The Closing will take place as soon as practicable once the conditions in Article 7 have been satisfied or waived but in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date on which all such conditions have been satisfied or waived, unless the parties otherwise agree (the “Closing Date”). The failure of the Closing will not ipso facto result in termination of this Agreement and will not relieve any party of any obligation under this Agreement.

(a) Subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, on the Closing Date, Citywide will deliver or make available to Heartland:

(i) the certificate of Citywide, dated the Closing Date, required by Section 7.3(c);

(ii) the certificate of Citywide, dated the Closing Date, required by Section 7.3(d);

(iii) a certificate of Citywide dated the Closing Date (A) stating the number of shares of Citywide Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, (B) stating that there are no other shares of capital stock of Citywide or options, warrants, rights to acquire, or securities convertible into capital stock of Citywide, outstanding as of the Closing Date, and (C) the number and the series of the Dissenting Shares;

(iv) duly executed copies of all Required Consents;

(v) a copy of the text of the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of Citywide Banks, and by Citywide as the sole shareholder of Citywide Banks, authorizing the Bank Merger;

(vi) certificates representing all outstanding shares of Citywide Banks Common Stock, which will be free of any Encumbrance;

(vii) the minute books, stock transfer records, corporate seal and other materials related to the corporate administration of Citywide and Citywide Banks;

(viii) releases of all Encumbrances on the Operating Real Property, other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(ix) certificates executed by appropriate officials of the State of Colorado as to (A) the good standing of Citywide and Citywide Banks, which will be dated as of a date not earlier than the third Business Day prior to the Closing, and (B) the payment of all applicable state Taxes by Citywide and Citywide Banks, which will be dated as of a date not earlier than 30 days prior to the Closing;

(x) a duly executed FIRPTA statement for purposes of satisfying Heartland’s obligations under Section 1.1445-2(c) of the Treasury Regulations; and

(xi) such other certificates, documents and instruments that Heartland reasonably requests for the purpose of (1) evidencing the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Citywide, (2) evidencing the performance and compliance by Citywide with agreements contained in this Agreement, (3) evidencing the satisfaction of any condition referred to in Section 7.3 or (4) otherwise facilitating the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) Subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, on the Closing Date, Heartland will deliver or make available to Citywide:

(i) the certificate of Heartland, dated the Closing Date, required by Section 7.2(c);

(ii) the certificate of Heartland, dated the Closing Date, required by Section 7.2(d); and

A-17

Citywide will keep Heartland reasonably advised of the status of obtaining the Required Consents, and Heartland will reasonably cooperate with Citywide to obtain the Required Consents, which will include providing financial or other information about Heartland or Centennial and executing and delivering any consent, assignment or other instrument reasonably requested by any Person providing a Required Consent.

5.7 Tax Matters.

(a) Each of the Citywide Entities, at their own expense, will prepare and timely file (or cause to be prepared and timely filed) all Returns required to be filed by the relevant Citywide Entity on or before the Effective Date, and timely pay all Taxes reflected thereon. All such Returns will be correct and complete in all material respects, and will be prepared in accordance with past practice of Citywide to the extent such past practice complies with applicable Law. No later than 30 days prior to the due date (including extensions) for filing any income or franchise Tax Returns referred to in the first sentence of this Section 5.7(a), the relevant Citywide Entity will deliver such Returns to Heartland for its review and comment. With respect to any Returns referred to in the first sentence of this Section 5.7(a) other than income and franchise Tax Returns, the relevant Citywide Entity will deliver such other Returns to Heartland no later than five days prior to the due date (including extensions) for filing such Returns, and Heartland will have the right to review and comment on such other Returns. Citywide and the relevant Citywide Entity will consider the comments of Heartland in good faith and will incorporate Heartland’s comments in each such Return prior to filing thereof to the extent Citywide deems necessary; provided, however, that Citywide will make any changes to such Returns that are required to correct obvious errors or to ensure that each Return complies with applicable Law.

(b) Heartland, at its own expense, will prepare and timely file (or cause to be prepared and timely filed) all Returns of the Citywide Entities required to be filed after the Effective Date. Heartland will prepare and file all such Returns in respect of a taxable period which ends on or prior to the Effective Date that are not required to be filed on or before the Effective Date, and all such Tax Returns in respect of a taxable period which begins before and ends after the Effective Date, consistent with past practices of the relevant Citywide Entities, to the extent such practices comply with applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Heartland will not amend any income Tax Return filed by or on behalf of any Citywide Entity for any Tax period during which Citywide had in effect an election to be an “S corporation” within the meaning of Sections 1361 and 1362 of the Code if such amendment would result in additional Tax Liability being imposed on any Person that was a shareholder of Citywide during the relevant Tax period, unless Heartland obtains such Person’s prior written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, however, that no such written consent will be required if the amendment of such Return is required by a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313 of the Code or is otherwise required by Law.

(c) Citywide will be liable for any transfer, value added, excise, stock transfer, stamp, recording, registration and any similar Taxes that become payable in connection with the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby (“Transfer Taxes”). The applicable parties will cooperate in preparing and filing such forms and documents as may be necessary to permit any such Transfer Tax to be assessed and paid on or prior to the Effective Date in accordance with any available pre-sale filing procedure, and to obtain any exemption from or refund of any such Transfer Tax.

(d) Each of the Citywide Entities and Heartland will cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other party, in connection with the filing of Returns pursuant to this Section 5.7 and in connection with any audit, litigation or other proceeding with respect to Taxes. Such cooperation will include the retention and (upon the other party’s reasonable request) the provision of records and information (including making such records and information available for copying) which are reasonably relevant to any such audit, litigation or other proceeding, the timely provision to the other party of powers of attorney or similar authorizations necessary to carry out the purposes of this Section 5.7, and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. Heartland and each of the Citywide Entities agrees to retain all books and records with respect to Tax matters pertinent to any of the Citywide Entities relating to any taxable period which ends on or prior to the Effective Date until the expiration of the statute of limitations (and, to the extent notified by Heartland or its Affiliate, any extensions thereof) of the respective taxable periods, and to abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any Governmental Entity.

5.8 No Solicitation.

(a) Neither Citywide nor any other Citywide Entity will, and they will each use their best efforts to cause their officers, directors, employees agents and authorized representatives (“Representatives”) not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage, induce or facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal or take any action that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) furnish any information regarding any Citywide Entity to any Person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry or indication of interest that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or (v) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any Contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction; provided, however, that prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote, this Section 5.8(a) will not prohibit Citywide from furnishing nonpublic information regarding the Citywide Entities to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any Person in response to a Superior Proposal that is submitted to Citywide by such Person (and not withdrawn) if (1) neither Citywide nor any other Citywide Entity nor any of their respective Representatives have violated any of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.8(a), (2) the Board of Directors of Citywide concludes in good faith, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside counsel to Citywide, that such action is required in order for the Board of Directors of Citywide to comply with its fiduciary obligations to Citywide’s shareholders under applicable Law, (3) at least two business days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions with, such Person, Citywide gives Heartland written notice of the identity of such Person and of Citywide’s intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into discussions with, such Person, and Citywide receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement containing customary limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information furnished to such Person by or on behalf of Citywide and (4) at least two business days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to such Person, Citywide furnishes such nonpublic information to Heartland (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously furnished by the Citywide to Heartland). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Citywide acknowledges and agrees that any violation of or the taking of any action inconsistent with any of the restrictions set forth in the preceding sentence by Citywide, another Citywide Entity or any Representative will be deemed to constitute a breach of this Section 5.8(a) by Citywide.

(b) Citywide will promptly (and in no event later than 24 hours after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, any inquiry or indication of interest that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information) advise Heartland orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal, any inquiry or indication of interest that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information relating to Citywide or any other Citywide Entity (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest or request, and the terms thereof) that is made or submitted by any Person prior to the Closing Date. Citywide will keep Heartland fully informed with respect to the status of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest or request and any modification or proposed modification thereto.

(c) Citywide and any other Citywide Entity will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions with any Person that relate to any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) Citywide will not release or permit the release of any Person from, or waive or permit the waiver of any provision of, any confidentiality, “standstill” or similar agreement to which Citywide is a party, and will enforce or cause to be enforced each such agreement at the request of Heartland.

5.9 Heartland Forbearances. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Citywide (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), during the period from the date of this Agreement to the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 8,

Heartland will not, and will not permit Centennial or any of its other Subsidiaries to, except as may be required by applicable Law, any Governmental Order or policies imposed by any Governmental Entity, (a) take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (b) take, or omit to take, any action that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article 7 not being or becoming not being capable of being satisfied.

5.10 Citywide Forbearances. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Heartland (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), during the period from the date of this Agreement to the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 8, Citywide will not, and will not permit any other Citywide Entity, except as may be required by applicable Law, any Governmental Order or policies imposed by any Governmental Entity, (a) take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or (b) take, or omit to take, any action that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article 7 not being or becoming not being capable of being satisfied.

ARTICLE 6

ADDITIONAL COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS

6.1 The Bank Merger. To the extent not previously approved, Citywide will cause the Board of Directors of Citywide Banks to approve the Bank Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger within three business days of execution of this Agreement, and will vote all of the shares of Citywide Banks Common Stock held by Citywide Banks in favor of approval of the Bank Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger. For the avoidance of doubt, the Bank Merger will occur immediately after the Merger, and will be conditioned upon regulatory approval and upon the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote. Heartland will take, and will cause Centennial to take, all actions necessary to cause Centennial to change its name at the time of the consummation of the Bank Merger to “Citywide Banks” or a derivative thereof that includes the word “Citywide.”

6.2 Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Heartland and Citywide will use all commercially reasonable efforts and will cooperate with each other in the preparation and filing of, and Heartland will file promptly (and in any event will use commercially reasonable efforts to file within 30 Business Days) after the date of this Agreement all applications or other documents required to obtain Regulatory Approvals and consents from the FDIC and the CDB for the Bank Merger under the Bank Merger Act, and waiver or approval, if required, of the FRB of the Merger under the Bank Holding Company Act, and any other applicable Governmental Entities, and Heartland will provide copies of the non-confidential portions of such applications, filings and related correspondence to Citywide. At least five (5) Business Days prior to filing each application, registration statement or other document with the applicable Governmental Entity, each party will provide the other party with an opportunity to review and comment on the non-confidential portions of each such application, registration statement or other document and will discuss with the other party which portions of this Agreement will be designated as confidential portions of such applications. Each party will use all commercially reasonable efforts and will cooperate with the other party in taking any other actions necessary to obtain such regulatory or other approvals and consents, including participating in any required hearings or proceedings. Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, each party will use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective as promptly as practicable the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Heartland will pay, or will cause to be paid, any applicable fees and expenses in connection with the preparation and filing of such regulatory filings necessary to obtain the Regulatory Approvals.

6.3 Shareholder Meetings; Registration Statement.

(a) Citywide will call a special meeting of its shareholders (the “Citywide Shareholder Meeting”) for the purpose of voting upon this Agreement and the Merger, and will schedule such meeting based on consultation with Heartland as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. The Board of Directors of Citywide will recommend that the shareholders approve this Agreement and the Merger (the “Citywide Board Recommendation”), and Citywide will use its best efforts (including soliciting proxies for such approval) to obtain the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote. The Citywide Board Recommendation may not be withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Heartland, and no resolution by the Board of Directors of Citywide or any committee thereof to withdraw or modify the Citywide Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to Citywide may be adopted; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote, the Board of Directors of Citywide may withdraw, qualify or modify the Citywide Board Recommendation or approve, adopt, recommend or otherwise declare advisable any Superior Proposal made after the date hereof and not solicited, initiated or encouraged in breach of Section 5.8 if the Board of Directors of Citywide determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to do so would be likely to result in a breach of fiduciary duties under applicable law (a “Change of Citywide Board Recommendation”). In determining whether to make a Change of Citywide Board Recommendation in response to a Superior Proposal or otherwise, the Board of Directors of Citywide will take into account any changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Heartland or any other information provided by Heartland in response to such notice.

(b)Heartland will call its annual meeting of shareholders which will be held on or prior to May 31, 2017 (the “Heartland Shareholder Meeting”), for the purpose of voting, among other things, upon the Heartland Charter Amendment. The Board of Directors of Heartland will recommend that the shareholders approve Heartland Charter Amendment (the “Heartland Board Recommendation”), and Heartland will use its best efforts (including soliciting proxies for such approval) to obtain approval of the Heartland Charter Amendment. The Heartland Board Recommendation may not be withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Citywide, and no resolution by the Board of Directors of Heartland or any committee thereof to withdraw or modify the Heartland Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to Citywide may be adopted.

(c) For the purposes of holding the Citywide Shareholder Meeting and registering Heartland Common Stock to be issued to shareholders of Citywide in connection with the Merger with the SEC and with applicable state securities authorities, Heartland will prepare, with the cooperation of Citywide (which will, for the avoidance of doubt, be given the opportunity to participate in the preparation of the Registration Statement and will have the right to approve the content of the Registration Statement relating to Citywide and the other Citywide Entities), a registration statement on Form S-4 (such registration statement, together with all and any amendments and supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Registration Statement”), which will include a proxy statement/prospectus satisfying all applicable requirements of the Exchange Act, Securities Act, and applicable Blue Sky Laws (such proxy statement/prospectus, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”).

(d) Heartland will furnish such information concerning Heartland and its Subsidiaries as is necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement, insofar as they relate to Heartland and its Subsidiaries, to be prepared in accordance with Section 6.3(c). Heartland agrees promptly to notify Citywide if at any time prior to the Citywide Shareholder Meeting any information provided by Heartland in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus becomes incorrect or incomplete in any material respect, and to provide the information needed to correct such inaccuracy or omission.

(e) Citywide will promptly furnish Heartland with such information concerning Citywide and the other Citywide Entities as is necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement, insofar as they relate to Citywide and the other Citywide Entities, to be prepared in accordance with Section 6.3(c), including the opinion of counsel as to Tax matters required to be filed as an exhibit thereto. Citywide agrees promptly to notify Heartland if at any time prior to the Heartland Shareholder Meeting any information provided by Citywide in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus becomes incorrect or incomplete in any material respect, and to provide Heartland with the information needed to correct such inaccuracy or omission.

(f) Heartland will promptly file the Registration Statement with the SEC and applicable state securities agencies. Heartland will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause (i) the Registration Statement to become effective under the Securities Act and applicable Blue Sky Laws at the earliest practicable date; and (ii) the shares of Heartland Common Stock issuable to the shareholders of Citywide to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or other national securities exchange. At the time the Registration Statement becomes effective, Heartland will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Registration Statement complies in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities Act and applicable Blue Sky Laws. Citywide hereby authorizes Heartland to utilize in the Registration Statement the information concerning Citywide and any other Citywide Entities provided to Heartland for the purpose of inclusion in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Heartland will advise Citywide promptly when the Registration Statement has become effective and of any supplements or amendments thereto, and Heartland will furnish Citywide with copies of all such documents. Prior to the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, each party will consult with the other with respect to any material (other than the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) that might constitute a “prospectus” relating to the Merger within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(g) For a period of not less than two years after the date hereof (or such shorter period of time as may be applicable for Affiliates of Citywide to sell shares of Heartland Common Stock in accordance with Rule 145 of the Securities Act), Heartland will use commercially reasonable efforts to file in a timely manner all reports with the SEC required to be filed by it pursuant to Section 13 and Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (other than Current Reports on Form 8-K) and submit electronically and post on its corporate website, every Interactive Data File required to be submitted and posted pursuant to Rule 405 of Regulation S T.

(h)None of the information relating to Heartland and its Subsidiaries that is provided by Heartland for inclusion in:
(i) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any filings or approvals under applicable federal or state banking Laws or regulations or state securities Laws, or any filing pursuant to the Securities Act will, at the time of mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to Citywide's or Heartland's shareholders, at the time of the Citywide Shareholder Meeting or the Heartland Shareholder Meeting and at the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; and (ii) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(i)None of the information relating to Citywide and the other Citywide Entities that is provided by Citywide for inclusion in: (i) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any approvals under applicable federal or state banking Laws or regulations or state securities Laws, or any filing pursuant to the Securities Act will, at the time of mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to Citywide's or Heartland's shareholders, at the time of the Citywide Shareholder Meeting or the Heartland Shareholder Meeting and at the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading; and (ii) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(j)Heartland will bear the costs of all SEC filing fees with respect to the Registration Statement and the costs of qualifying the shares of Heartland Common Stock under the Blue Sky Laws, to the extent necessary. Heartland will also bear the costs of all NASDAQ listing fees with respect to listing the shares of Heartland Common Stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market or other national securities exchange pursuant to this Agreement. Heartland will bear all printing and mailing costs in connection with the preparation and mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to Citywide and Heartland shareholders. Heartland and Citywide will each bear their own legal and accounting expenses in connection with the preparation of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement.

6.4 Establishment of Accruals. If requested by Heartland, on the Business Day immediately prior to the Closing Date, Citywide Banks will, consistent with GAAP, establish such additional accruals and reserves as Heartland indicates are necessary to conform Citywide Banks's accounting and credit loss reserve practices and methods to those of Heartland (as such practices and methods are to be applied to Citywide Banks from and after the Effective Time) and reflect Heartland's plans with respect to the conduct of the business of Citywide Banks following the Merger and to provide for the costs and expenses relating to the consummation by Citywide Banks of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, however, that any such accruals and reserves will not affect the determination of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity. No such accruals or reserves will of itself constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, condition or other provision or constitute grounds for termination of this Agreement or be an acknowledgment by Citywide (a) of any adverse circumstances for purposes of determining whether the conditions to Heartland's obligations under this Agreement have been satisfied or (b) that such adjustment has any bearing on the Aggregate Merger Consideration. In no event will any accrual, reserve or other adjustment required or permitted by this Section 6.4 require any prior filing with any Governmental Entity or violate any Law, rule or order applicable to Citywide or Citywide Banks.

6.5 Employee Matters.

(a)General. At the request of Heartland, Citywide agrees to terminate any Plans as of the Effective Time on terms reasonably acceptable to Heartland. If any Plans are not so terminated, after the Effective Time, Heartland will have the right to continue, amend, merge or terminate any of such Plans in accordance with the terms thereof and subject to any limitation arising under applicable Law, including Tax qualification requirements. Citywide agrees that, at the request of Heartland, Citywide, Citywide Banks and any Commonly Controlled Entity will cease to be a participating employer of, and will cease making contributions to or otherwise providing benefits under, any Plan, as of the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, there are any Plans for which the Surviving Company or any of its Subsidiaries continues to be a participating employer, Heartland will have the right to discontinue such participation in any of such Plans in accordance with the terms thereof and subject to any limitation arising under applicable Law. Until Heartland will take such action, however, such Plans will continue in force for the benefit of present and former employees of any Citywide Entity who have any present or future entitlement to benefits under any of the Plans (“Citywide Employees”).

(b)Limitation on Enforcement. This Agreement is an agreement solely between Citywide and Heartland. Except for the indemnification rights provided in Section 6.8, nothing in this Agreement, including this Section 6.5, whether express or implied, confers upon any Citywide Employees, employees of Heartland and its Subsidiaries or any other Person, any rights or remedies, including: (i) any right to employment or recall, (ii) any right to continued employment for any specified period, or (iii) any right to any particular compensation, benefit or aggregate of benefits, or any other term or condition of employment, of any kind or nature whatsoever. After the Closing Date, each Citywide Employee will be eligible to participate in the health, vacation and other non-equity based employee benefit plans of Heartland or its Subsidiaries (the “Heartland Plans”) to the same extent as similarly situated employees of Heartland and to the extent permitted by the applicable Heartland Plan or applicable Law; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 6.5(b) or elsewhere in this Agreement will limit the right of Heartland or any of its Subsidiaries to amend or terminate a Heartland Plan at any time. With respect to the Heartland Plans, Heartland will, or will cause the Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries to: (A) with respect to each Heartland Plan that is a medical/prescription, dental or vision plan, (x) waive any exclusions for pre-existing conditions under such Heartland Plan that would result in a lack of coverage for any condition for which the applicable Citywide Employee would have been entitled to coverage under the corresponding Plan in which such Citywide Employee was an active participant immediately prior to his or her transfer to Heartland Plan, (y) waive any waiting period under such Heartland Plan, to the extent that such period exceeds the corresponding waiting period under the corresponding Plan in which such Citywide Employee was an active participant immediately prior to his or her transfer to Heartland Plan (after taking into account the service credit provided for herein for purposes of satisfying such waiting period), and (z) provided the insurance company of any Citywide Entity provides information related to the amount of such credit that is available to Heartland, provide each Citywide Employee with credit for deductibles paid by such Citywide Employee prior to his or her transfer to Heartland Plan (to the same extent such credit was given under the analogous Plan prior to such transfer) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under such Heartland Plan for the plan year that includes such transfer and (B) fully recognize service of the Citywide Employees with any Citywide Entity for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting credit, and, solely with respect to vacation and severance benefits, benefit accrual in any Heartland Plan in which the Citywide Employees are eligible to participate after the Closing Date, to the extent that such service was recognized for that purpose under the analogous Plan prior to such transfer. Heartland will extend coverage to Citywide Employees for health care, dependent care and limited purpose health care flexible spending accounts established under Section 125 of the Code to the same extent as available to similarly situated employees of Heartland to the extent permitted by such Heartland Plans and applicable Law. Heartland will give effect to any elections made by Citywide Employees with respect to such accounts under any flexible benefits cafeteria plan of any Citywide Entity to the extent permitted by such Heartland Plan and applicable Law. Citywide Employees will be credited with amounts available for reimbursement equal to such amounts as were credited under any flexible benefits cafeteria plan of any Citywide Entity to the extent permitted by such Heartland Plan and applicable Law. The foregoing will not apply to the extent it would result in duplication of benefits.

(c)Terminated Citywide Employees. To the extent that Heartland terminates the employment of any Citywide Employee without “cause” (as such term is reasonably defined by Heartland) at, or within six months after, the Effective Time, Heartland will offer such Citywide Employee severance benefits approximately equivalent to one week of base compensation for each full year of service to such Citywide Entity, with a minimum of two and a maximum of 12 weeks of severance pay on terms and conditions to be established in the reasonable discretion of Heartland consistent with past practices.

(d)Employee Retention Program. Prior to the Effective Time, Citywide and Heartland will mutually agree on and establish an employee retention bonus program and will allocate pursuant to such program cash awards to certain Citywide Banks employees, as mutually determined by Citywide and Heartland, in order to incent such employees to remain in the employ of Citywide and its Affiliates through the Closing Date. Any amounts allocated to or paid pursuant to such program will constitute Transaction Expenses.

(e)Accrued Employee Bonuses. If, prior to the Effective Time, any Citywide Entity has accrued amounts to be paid after the Effective Time as a bonus to an employee of such Citywide Entity, Heartland will allocate and pay such bonuses to the designated employees upon the earlier of (i) the applicable time for the payment of bonuses for the 2017 performance period, or (ii) such employee’s termination as an employee of the Surviving Corporation or its Affiliates.

(f)Affordable Care Act Reporting. As of the earlier of the Closing Date or the applicable reporting deadline under the Affordable Care Act, Citywide, Citywide Banks and each Commonly Controlled Entity will accurately complete and timely file with the Internal Revenue service, and timely send to all covered individuals, as applicable, any required IRS Forms 1094-B, 1095-B, 1094-C and 1095-C for the 2016 calendar year with respect to each Benefit Plan that is subject to the Affordable Care Act.

6.6 Tax Treatment. None of any Citywide Entities or Heartland will take any action which would disqualify the Merger as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

6.7 Updated Schedules. On a date 15 Business Days prior to the Effective Date and on the Effective Date, Citywide will modify any Schedule to this Agreement or add any Schedule or Schedules for the purpose of making the representations and warranties to which any such Schedule relates true and correct in all material respects as of such date, or with respect to any Schedule dated as of a specific date, as of such specific date, whether to correct any misstatement or omission in any Schedule or to reflect any additional information obtained by Citywide subsequent to the date any Schedule was previously delivered by Citywide to Heartland. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any updated Schedule will not have the effect of making any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement true and correct in all material respects for purposes of Section 7.3(a).

6.8 Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance.

(a)Heartland agrees that all rights of the present and former directors, officers and managers of any of the Citywide Entities to indemnification provided for in the Charter or Bylaws or other governing documents of such Citywide Entity, as applicable, as in effect on the date hereof, or required under any applicable Law (including rights to advancement of expenses and exculpation), will survive the Merger and continue in full force and effect until expiration of the applicable statute of limitations (each such director and officer being sometimes hereinafter be referred to as an "Indemnified Party"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Heartland agrees that, following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will indemnify any person made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such person was a director, officer, member or employee of any of the Citywide Entities at or prior to the Effective Time to the fullest extent provided in, and will advance expenses in accordance with, the Charter, Bylaws and other governing documents of the Citywide Entities, as applicable, in the form previously provided to Heartland and effective as of the date of this Agreement, in each case subject to all the limitations set forth in such Charter, Bylaws or other governing documents and applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.8, nothing contained in this Agreement will require Heartland to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party to a greater extent than any Citywide Entity may, as of the date of this Agreement, indemnify, defend and hold harmless such Indemnified Party, and any such indemnification provided pursuant to this Section 6.8 will be provided only to the extent that such indemnification is permitted by any applicable federal or state Laws.

(b)Prior to the Effective Time, Citywide will or, if Citywide is unable to, Heartland as of the Effective Time will, obtain a "tail" insurance policy with a claims period of at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance (collectively, "D&O Insurance") with benefits and levels of coverage at least as favorable to the Indemnified Parties as the existing policies of the Citywide Entities with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby). Heartland will pay the premium for such D&O Insurance tail policy; provided, however, that in no event will Heartland be required to expend more than 200% of the current amount expended on an annual basis by the Citywide Entities to procure their existing D&O Insurance policies. If Citywide or Heartland for any reason is unable to obtain such tail D&O Insurance policy on or prior to the Effective Time, Heartland will obtain as much as comparable D&O Insurance as is available at a cost in the aggregate for such six-year period up to 200% of the current annual premiums expended by the Citywide Entities for their existing D&O Insurance policies. Any insurance premium payments made by Heartland pursuant to this Section 6.8(b) will be considered Transaction Expenses in accordance with the definition of "Transaction Expenses" set forth in Article 1.

(c)The provisions of this Section 6.8 are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party as if he or she were a party to this Agreement. The indemnification rights provided to each Indemnified Party pursuant hereto will be in addition to all other indemnification rights provided to such Indemnified Party under any Charter or any Contract between any of the Citywide Entities and such Indemnified Party.

6.9 Notice of Developments by Heartland. Heartland will promptly notify Citywide in writing if Heartland should discover that any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement was when made, has subsequently become or will be on the Closing Date untrue in any respect. No disclosure pursuant to this Section 6.9 will be deemed to prevent or cure any inaccuracy, misrepresentation, breach of warranty or breach of agreement.

6.10 Redemption of Citywide Series A Preferred Stock. Subject to receipt of any approvals required from any Governmental Entities to either provide the necessary funding or effect the redemption, Citywide will redeem all issued and outstanding shares of Citywide Series A Preferred Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time.

6.11 Statutory Trusts. Citywide, as the owner of the Statutory Trust Securities that are common securities, will cause each of the Statutory Trusts (a) to remain a statutory trust, (b) to otherwise continue to be classified as a grantor trust for federal income Tax purposes, and (c) to cause each holder of Statutory Trust Securities that are preferred securities to be treated as owning an undivided beneficial interest in the Statutory Trust Debentures. Upon the Effective Time, Heartland will assume Citywide's obligations and acquire its rights relating to the Statutory Trusts, including Citywide's obligations and rights under the Statutory Trust Debentures, Statutory Trust Securities and the other Statutory Trust Agreements. In connection therewith, Citywide will assist Heartland in assuming Citywide's obligations and acquiring its rights under the Statutory Trusts, and will provide the documentation required to make such assumption of obligations and acquisition of rights effective (other than opinions of counsel, which Citywide will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain), including any supplemental indentures or certificates that may be required under the Statutory Trust Agreements. Subject to the terms of the Statutory Trust Securities, immediately prior to the Closing, Citywide will pay, or cause to be paid, to the proper Persons all deferred and accrued but unpaid interest and any outstanding fees relating to the Statutory Trust Debentures and the Statutory Trusts.

6.12 Determination of Adjusted Tangible Common Equity. As soon as practicable after the Determination Date, Citywide will prepare the Citywide Determination Date Balance Sheet. Within five (5) Business Days following the Determination Date, Citywide will prepare and deliver to Heartland its good faith determination of (a) the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, together with reasonable support therefor (including the Citywide Determination Date Balance Sheet), and (b) the Citywide Determination Date Transaction Expenses, together with reasonable support therefor. If Citywide and Heartland agree on the amount of the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity, such amount will be final and conclusive. If Heartland and Citywide disagree as to such calculations and are unable to reconcile their differences in writing within five (5) Business Days, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, the items in dispute will be submitted to a mutually acceptable independent national accounting firm in the United States for final determination, and the calculations will be deemed adjusted in accordance with the determination of the independent accounting firm and will become binding, final and conclusive upon all of the parties hereto. The independent accounting firm will consider only the items in dispute and will be instructed to act within five (5) Business Days (or such longer period as Citywide and Heartland may agree) to resolve all items in dispute. Citywide and Heartland will share equally the payment of reasonable fees and expenses of the independent accounting firm.

6.13 Heartland Board of Director Appointment and Board Observer Rights. Heartland agrees to nominate Schmitz for election to its Board of Directors at the Heartland 2018 annual meeting of shareholders. From the Effective Time until Schmitz's election to the Board of Directors of Heartland, Schmitz will have the right to attend all Heartland Board of Director meetings as an observer (Schmitz, in his capacity as a Heartland Board of Directors' meeting observer, is referred to herein as the "Board Observer"). The Board Observer will not have voting rights or fiduciary obligations to Heartland or its shareholders, but will be bound by the same confidentiality and insider trading obligations as members of the Heartland Board of Directors. Heartland will provide the Board Observer with notice of all regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors of Heartland in the same manner as provided to directors, and will provide to the Board Observer a copy of all materials and information distributed at or prior to such meetings to the directors of Heartland. Heartland will reimburse the Board Observer for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to his attendance at Heartland Board of Directors meetings. Other compensation will be provided to the Board Observer pursuant to the Schmitz Consulting Agreement.

6.14 Heartland Confidential Information. Any confidential information or trade secrets of each of Heartland and its Subsidiaries received by any Citywide Entity, its employees or agents in the course of the negotiation and consummation of the Merger or Bank Merger will be treated confidentially and held in confidence pursuant to the Heartland NDA, and any correspondence, memoranda, records, copies, documents and electronic or other media of any kind containing either such confidential information or trade secrets or both will be destroyed by the Citywide Entities or, at Heartland's request, returned to Heartland if this Agreement is terminated as provided in Article 8. Such information will not be used by any Citywide Entity or its employees or agents to the detriment of Heartland and its Subsidiaries, and will at all times be maintained and held in compliance with the Heartland NDA.

6.15 Special Tax Holdback.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Per Share Holdback Amount will be held back from the Actual Cash Consideration that any holder of Citywide Common Stock is entitled to receive for each Citywide Converted Share pursuant to Sections 2.3(a), 2.4 and 2.7 of this Agreement. The Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount will be deposited into a separate account at Heartland, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 6.15. The Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount (or remaining portion thereof) will bear interest at the rate of 3.00% per annum from the date such amount is deposited until the date on which the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount (or remaining portion thereof) is distributed pursuant to Sections 6.15(f), (g) or (h).

(b) From and after the Closing Date, Heartland and its Affiliates (the “Tax Indemnified Parties”) will be indemnified and held harmless from and against any Special Tax Losses incurred by them. Claims by the Tax Indemnified Parties for indemnification of Special Tax Losses will be recovered solely from, and be limited to, the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount that, at the time of such claim, has not been released pursuant to the terms hereof, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 6.15.

(c) After the Closing Date, Heartland will promptly notify Schmitz in writing of any Tax assessment, demand, claim, or notice of the commencement of an audit received from any Governmental Entity (collectively, a “Tax Claim”) with respect to Taxes that could result in Special Tax Losses, but in any event within 10 days following receipt thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a failure to give timely notice will not affect a Tax Indemnified Party’s rights to indemnification under this Section 6.15, except to the extent that the rights of the former holders of Citywide Common Stock are prejudiced thereby. Such notice will contain factual information (to the extent known) describing the Tax Claim and will include copies of the relevant portion of any notices or other documents received from any Governmental Entity with respect to any such Tax Claim, and will be updated to include notices or other documents subsequently received relating to such Tax Claim.

(d) Heartland will control any Tax Proceeding with respect to any Tax Claim that could result in an indemnification claim payable from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount for Special Tax Losses pursuant to this Section 6.15. Schmitz will be entitled to employ counsel and Tax advisors with respect thereto at his own expense; provided, however, that Schmitz will be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable third party costs, after the payment of any Special Tax Losses and prior to the distribution of any portion of the Aggregate Tax Holdback to the former holders of Citywide Common Stock pursuant to Sections 6.15(f), (g), (h) and (i); further provided, however, that Schmitz will be entitled to reimbursement of his reasonable third party costs only upon written request and presentation to Heartland of invoices and other written documentation supporting such third party costs incurred by Schmitz. Schmitz and his counsel and Tax advisors will be permitted to participate in all Tax Proceedings at their own expense. Heartland will provide to Schmitz and his counsel and Tax advisors all information reasonably requested with respect to any Tax Proceeding. Heartland and its Affiliates, on the one hand, and Schmitz, on the other hand, will cooperate, to the extent reasonably requested by each other, in connection with any Tax Claim or Tax Proceeding, including by the retention and (upon the reasonable request of Heartland and its Affiliates or Schmitz, as the case may be) the provision of records, documents and information reasonably relevant to such Tax Claim or Tax Proceeding, and by making employees and other Persons available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information. Heartland, its Affiliates and Schmitz will act in good faith to resolve any such Tax Claim or Tax Proceeding. Neither Heartland nor any of its Affiliates will enter into any settlement or compromise of any Tax Proceeding that could result in an indemnification claim for Special Tax Losses payable from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount without the prior written consent of Schmitz (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(e) If any of the Tax Indemnified Parties incurs any Special Tax Loss, it will satisfy any indemnification rights with respect to such Special Tax Loss solely from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount. The Tax Indemnified Parties will be deemed to incur a Special Tax Loss (including reasonable out-of-pocket costs related thereto) at the time such party pays any Special Tax Losses to a Governmental Entity following the closing of a Tax Proceeding or a “determination” of a Tax Claim within the meaning of Section 1313 of the Code, or at the time such party pays an applicable third party for out-of-pocket costs related to the Tax Claim or Tax Proceeding. The Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount (or the applicable portion thereof) will be retained by Heartland from the Closing Date until the First Release Date, the Second Release Date or the Third Release Date, as the case may be. Heartland will provide to Schmitz an accounting of the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount remaining, plus any accrued interest thereon, on a monthly basis and at the time any Special Tax Loss is paid out of the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount.

(f) Within 10 Business Days after the First Release Date, Heartland or a paying agent appointed by Heartland will distribute (the “First Tax Holdback Distribution”) to the former holders of Citywide Common Stock $3.15 for each Citywide Converted Share; provided, however, that such amount will be adjusted upward or downward for

(i) decreases attributable to all amounts paid or to be paid by Heartland from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount in satisfaction of any Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2013 U.S. Federal income Tax Liability and Tax year, (ii) decreases for all pending Tax Claims that could reasonably result in a Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2013 U.S. Federal income Tax Liability and Tax year that would be paid from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount, (iii) decreases for any reimbursement to Schmitz pursuant to Section 6.15(d) for third-party expenses incurred by Schmitz in connection with a Tax Proceeding related to Special Tax Losses described in (i) or (ii) of this subsection 6.15(f), and (iv) increases for interest accrued on the amount of the First Tax Holdback Distribution from the Closing Date up to and including the date of distribution of the First Tax Holdback Distribution.

(g) Within 10 Business Days after the Second Release Date, Heartland or a paying agent appointed by Heartland will distribute (the "Second Tax Holdback Distribution") to the former holders of Citywide Common Stock $0.58 for each Citywide Converted Share; provided, however, that such amount will be adjusted upward or downward for (i) decreases attributable to all amounts paid or to be paid by Heartland from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount in satisfaction of any Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2014 U.S. Federal or Colorado state income Tax Liability and Tax year, (ii) decreases for all pending Tax Claims that could reasonably result in a Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2014 U.S. Federal or Colorado state income Tax Liability and Tax year that would be paid from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount, (iii) decreases for any reimbursement to Schmitz pursuant to Section 6.15(d) for third-party expenses incurred by Schmitz in connection with a Tax Proceeding related to Special Tax Losses described in (i) or (ii) of this subsection 6.15(g), and (iv) increases for interest accrued on the amount of the Second Tax Holdback Distribution from the Closing Date up to and including the date of distribution of the Second Tax Holdback Distribution.

(h) Within 10 Business Days after the Third Release Date, Heartland or a paying agent appointed by Heartland will distribute (the "Third Tax Holdback Distribution") to the former holders of Citywide Common Stock $0.44 for each Citywide Converted Share; provided, however, that such amount will be adjusted upward or downward for (i) decreases attributable to all amounts paid or to be paid by Heartland from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount in satisfaction of any Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2013 Colorado state income Tax Liability and Tax year, (ii) decreases for all pending Tax Claims that could reasonably result in a Special Tax Loss relating to Citywide's 2013 Colorado state income Tax Liability and Tax year that would be paid from the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount, (iii) decreases for any reimbursement to Schmitz pursuant to Section 6.15(d) for third-party expenses incurred by Schmitz in connection with a Tax Proceeding related to Special Tax Losses described in (i) or (ii) of this subsection 6.15(h), and (iv) increases for interest accrued on the amount of the Third Tax Holdback Distribution from the Closing Date up to and including the date of distribution of the Third Tax Holdback Distribution.

(i) Any amounts of the Aggregate Tax Holdback Amount that are retained by Heartland pursuant to Section 6.15(f)(ii), (g)(ii) or (h)(ii) due to a pending Tax Claim, decreased by the amount of any reimbursement to Schmitz pursuant to Section 6.15(d) for third-party expenses incurred by Schmitz in connection with a Tax Proceeding related to Special Tax Losses described in Section 6.15(f)(ii), (g)(ii) or (h)(ii), will be promptly distributed to the former holders of Citywide Common Stock pro rata in accordance with their holdings of each Citywide Converted Share after the final resolution of such pending Tax Claim and the payment of any Special Tax Losses attributable thereto, but in any event within 10 Business Days following the final resolution of such pending Tax Claim and the payment of any applicable Special Tax Losses attributable thereto.

(j) By approving this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby or by executing a Letter of Transmittal, each holder of Citywide Common Stock will have irrevocably (i) authorized and appointed Schmitz as such holder's representative to act on behalf of the holder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 6.15, (ii) ratified and approved the reimbursement of expenses incurred by Schmitz in the manner set forth in Section 6.15(d), and (iii) agreed that Schmitz will not be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the holders of Citywide Common Stock for any Liabilities incurred by reason of any error in judgment or any act or failure to act arising out of the activities of Schmitz on behalf or in respect of the holders of Citywide Common Stock, including (A) the failure to perform any acts he is not expressly obligated to perform under this Agreement, (B) any acts or failures to act made in good faith or on the advice of legal counsel, accountants or other consultants to Schmitz, or (C) any other matter beyond the control of Schmitz.

ARTICLE 8

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

8.1 Reasons for Termination. This Agreement, by prompt written notice given to the other parties prior to or at the Closing, may be terminated:

(a)by mutual consent of the Boards of Directors of Heartland and Citywide;

(b)by either party in the event a Law or Governmental Order will have been enacted, entered, enforced, promulgated, issued or deemed applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by any Governmental Entity that prohibits the Closing;

(c)by either party in the event any approval, consent or waiver of any Governmental Entity required to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will have been denied and such denial has become final and non-appealable (unless such denial arises out of, or results from, a material breach by the party seeking to terminate this Agreement of any representation, warranty or covenant of such party);

(d)by Citywide if:

(i)the Closing has not occurred by September 30, 2017 (the "Termination Date"); provided that Citywide will not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (d)(i) if (x) Citywide's failure to comply in all material respects with its obligations under this Agreement has prevented the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (y) Citywide has refused, after satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 and 7.2, to close in accordance with Section 2.9 or (z) the circumstances or events underlying the termination rights set forth in clauses (d)(iii) or (d)(iv) of this Section 8.1 will have occurred;

(ii)Heartland will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement of Heartland in this Agreement in any material respect and such breach cannot be or is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach is given by Citywide to Heartland;

(iii)at the Citywide Shareholder Meeting, this Agreement will not have been duly adopted by the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote;

(iv)(A) Citywide will have delivered to Heartland a written notice of the intent of Citywide to enter into a merger, acquisition or other agreement (including an agreement in principle) to effect a Superior Proposal based on an Acquisition Proposal received by it, (B) five business days have elapsed following delivery to Heartland of such written notice by Citywide, (C) during such five Business Day period Citywide has fully complied with the terms of Section 5.8, including informing Heartland of the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal and the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal, with the intent of enabling Heartland to agree to a modification of the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be effected, (D) at the end of such five business-day period the Board of Directors of the Citywide will have continued reasonably to believe that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, (E) Citywide pays to Heartland the termination fee in accordance with Section 8.4, and (F) Citywide will have entered into a merger, acquisition or other agreement (including an agreement in principle) to effect a Superior Proposal or the Board of Directors of Citywide will have resolved to do so;

(v) at the Heartland Shareholder Meeting, the Heartland Charter Amendment will not have been duly adopted by the requisite shareholder vote necessary to approve such amendment;

(vi) at any time within five Business Days after the Determination Date, but only if:

(x) the Heartland Determination Date Stock Price (as defined below) is less than $35.00 per share; and

(y) the number obtained by dividing the Heartland Determination Date Stock Price by the Initial Heartland Stock Price (as defined below) is less than the number obtained by dividing (A) the Final Index Price (as defined below) by (B) the Initial Index Price (as defined below) and subtracting 0.175 from such quotient; provided, however, that a termination by Citywide pursuant to this Section 8.1(d)(vi) will have no force and effect if Heartland agrees in writing (within five Business Days after receipt of Citywide's written notice of such termination) to increase the Exchange Ratio to an amount equal to (i) (X) the Exchange Ratio, multiplied by (Y) the Heartland Determination Date Stock Price, divided by (ii) $35.00. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary above, Heartland, at its option, may elect to retain the original Exchange Ratio, and, in lieu of altering such Exchange Ratio, increase the Actual Cash Consideration so that each holder of Citywide Common Stock is entitled to receive the same value as of the Effective Time for each share of Citywide Common Stock as such holder would have received had the original Exchange Ratio been altered in accordance with the preceding sentence. If within such five-Business Day period, Heartland delivers written notice to Citywide that Heartland intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, and notifies Citywide in writing of the revised Exchange Ratio or the revised Actual Cash Consideration, then no termination will occur pursuant to this Section 8.1(d)(vi), and this Agreement will remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange or the Actual Cash Consideration will be modified in accordance with this Section 8.1(d)(vi)).

For purposes of this Section 8.1(d)(vi), the following terms will have the meanings indicated below:

“Final Index Price” means the average of the daily closing value of the Index for the 15 consecutive trading days ending on and including the trading day immediately preceding the 10th day prior to the Determination Date.

“Heartland Determination Date Stock Price” means (a) the sum, for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending on and including the trading day immediately preceding the 10th day prior to the Determination Date, of the product of (i) the closing price of Heartland Common Stock as quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for such trading day, multiplied by, (ii) the trading volume of Heartland Common Stock reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for such trading day, divided by (b) the aggregate trading volume over such 15-day period.

“Index” means the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (^KRX) or, if such index is not available, such substitute or similar index as substantially replicates the KBW Nasdaq Regional Banking Index (^KRX).

“Initial Heartland Stock Price” means $45.75.

A-61

“Initial Index Price” means the closing value of the Index on the date immediately prior to the date of this Agreement.

If Heartland or any company belonging to the Index declares or effects a stock dividend, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company will be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 8.1(d)(vi).

(vii) any of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 or 7.2 will have become impossible to satisfy (other than through a failure of Citywide to comply with its obligations under this Agreement).

(e) by Heartland if:

(i) the Closing has not occurred by the Termination Date; provided that Heartland will not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (e)(i) if (x) Heartland’s failure to comply fully with its obligations under this Agreement has prevented the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or (y) Heartland has refused, after satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 or 7.3, to close in accordance with Section 2.9;

(ii) Citywide will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement in this Agreement in any material respect and such breach cannot be or is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach is given by Heartland to Citywide;

(iii) at the Citywide Shareholder Meeting, this Agreement will not have been duly adopted by the Required Citywide Shareholder Vote;

(iv) at the Heartland Shareholder Meeting, the Heartland Charter Amendment will not have been duly adopted by the requisite shareholder vote necessary to approve such amendment; or

(v) any of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 or 7.2 will have become impossible to satisfy (other than through a failure of Heartland to comply with its obligations under this Agreement).

8.2 Effect of Termination. Except as provided in Sections 5.2(b) and (c), 6.14, 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4 and Article 9, which also survive the termination of this Agreement, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.1, this Agreement will forthwith become void, there will be no Liability under this Agreement on the part of Heartland, Citywide or any of their respective Representatives or Subsidiaries, and all rights and obligations of each party hereto will cease; provided, however, that, subject to Sections 8.3, and 8.4, nothing herein will relieve any party from Liability arising out of its own fraud, willful misconduct or material breach of this Agreement.

8.3 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be paid by the party incurring such Expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 8.1(d)(iii), 8.1(e)(ii) or 8.1(e)(iii), then Citywide will pay to Heartland, within five Business Days of presentation by Heartland of reasonably detailed invoices for the same, all Expenses reasonably incurred by Heartland, and, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 8.1(d)(ii), 8.1(d)(v) or 8.1(e)(iv), then Heartland will pay to Citywide, within five Business Days of presentation by Citywide of reasonably detailed invoices for the same, all Expenses reasonably incurred by Citywide; provided, however, in either event, neither party’s reimbursement obligation hereunder will exceed $1,000,000 in the aggregate. As used in this Agreement, “Expenses” will consist of all out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants to a party hereto and its Affiliates) incurred by a party in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement, the solicitation of the approval of the Merger by holders of Citywide Common Stock and all other matters related to the consummation of the Merger.

8.4 Termination Fee. If this Agreement is terminated by Citywide pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(iv), or by Heartland pursuant to Section 8.1(e)(ii) because of a breach of any portion of Section 5.8 or Section 6.3(a), then Citywide will pay to Heartland (in lieu of any payment that may be due under Section 8.3), a termination fee of $8,500,000 as the sole and exclusive remedy of Heartland (including any remedy for specific performance), as agreed-upon liquidated damages.

8.5 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing approved by the parties to this Agreement and signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

8.6 Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto or (b) waive compliance with any of the agreements of any other parties or with any conditions to its own obligations, in each case only to the extent such obligations, agreements and conditions are intended for its benefit.

ARTICLE 9 GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.3 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement may be assigned by any party to this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other parties to this Agreement, except that Heartland may assign any of its rights under this Agreement to one or more Subsidiaries of Heartland, so long as Heartland remains responsible for the performance of all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement and all of the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.4 No Third Party Beneficiaries. Except for Section 6.8, which is intended to benefit each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement confers any rights or remedies upon any Person that is not a party or permitted assign of a party to this Agreement.

9.5 Schedules.

(a) Prior to or simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, Citywide delivered to Heartland the Disclosure Schedules, which set forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations or warranties contained in Article 4 or to one or more covenants contained herein (whether or not such section of this Agreement expressly references a schedule thereto). Except as set forth in the Disclosure Schedules, the information contained therein is dated as of the date of this Agreement or, if delivered pursuant to Section 6.7, as of such date delivered. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the mere inclusion of an item as an exception to a representation or warranty will not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b)For purposes of this Agreement, a Schedule relating to a certain section may incorporate by reference disclosures made in other Schedules; provided, however, that any disclosure with respect to a particular Schedule will be deemed adequately disclosed in other Schedules to the extent it is readily apparent from the nature of the disclosure that such disclosure also applies to such other Schedules. Nothing in a Schedule is deemed adequate to disclose an exception to a representation or warranty made in this Agreement unless the Schedule identifies the exception with reasonable particularity.

9.6 Interpretation. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and will not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. References to Sections and Articles refer to Sections and Articles of this Agreement unless otherwise stated. Words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereto,” “hereby” and “hereunder,” and words of like import, unless the context requires otherwise, refer to this Agreement (including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto). As used in this Agreement, the masculine, feminine and neuter genders will be deemed to include the others if the context requires. Any singular term in this Agreement will be deemed to include the plural, and any plural term the singular if the context requires. Whenever the words “include”, “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they will be deemed to be followed by the words “but not limited to,” whether or not they are in fact followed by those words or words of like import. “Writing”, “written” and comparable terms refer to printing, typing and other means of reproducing words (including electronic media) in a visible form. Any reference to any money or currency or use of “$” will be in U.S. dollars. Except as the context may otherwise require, references to any Contract are to that Contract as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof and thereof; provided that with respect to any Contract listed on any Schedules hereto, all such amendments, modifications or supplements must also be listed in the appropriate Schedule. References to a statute will be to such statute, as amended from time to time, and to the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. References to any Person include the successors and permitted assigns of that Person. References from or through any date mean, unless otherwise specified, from and including or through and including, respectively.

9.7 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and the parties will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement and to preserve each party’s anticipated benefits under this Agreement.

9.8 Complete Agreement. This Agreement, together with the NDA, contains the complete agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or between the parties, written or oral. Citywide acknowledges that Heartland has made no representations, warranties, agreements, undertakings or promises except for those expressly set forth in this Agreement or in agreements referred to herein that survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

9.9 Governing Law. THE DOMESTIC LAW, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES, OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE WILL GOVERN ALL QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE PERFORMANCE OF THE OBLIGATIONS IMPOSED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

9.10 Specific Performance. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the subject matter of this Agreement, including the business, assets and properties of each of the Citywide Entities, is unique, that the other party would be damaged irreparably in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or otherwise are breached, and that the remedies at Law would not be adequate to compensate such other parties not in default or in breach. Accordingly, each of the parties agrees that the other party will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically this Agreement and the terms and provisions of this Agreement in addition to any other remedy to which they may be entitled, at Law or in equity (without any requirement that Heartland provide any bond or other security). The parties waive any defense that a remedy at Law is adequate and any requirement to post bond or provide similar security in connection with actions instituted for injunctive relief or specific performance of this Agreement.

9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE IT IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) IT UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH WAIVER, (C) IT MAKES SUCH WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (IV) IT HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.11.

9.12 Investigation of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. No investigation made by or on behalf of the parties hereto or the results of any such investigation will constitute a waiver of any representation, warranty or covenant of any other party.

9.13 No Survival of Representations. The representations, warranties and covenants made by Citywide and Heartland in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement will terminate on, and will have no further force or effect after, the first to occur of (a) the Effective Time or (b) the date on which this Agreement is terminated as set forth herein, except for Sections 5.7, 6.1, 6.5, 6.8, and 6.13 and Article 9, each of which apply in whole or in part after the Effective Time, or Sections 5.2(b) and (c), 6.14, 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4, and Article 9, each of which survive the termination of this Agreement.

APPENDIX B

COLORADO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS STATUTE

7-113-101. Definitions

For purposes of this article:

- (1) "Beneficial shareholder" means the beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (2) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring domestic or foreign corporation, by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (3) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under section 7-113-102 and who exercises that right at the time and in the manner required by part 2 of this article.
- (4) "Fair value", with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action except to the extent that exclusion would be inequitable.
- (5) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at the legal rate as specified in section 5-12-101, C.R.S.
- (6) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee to the extent such owner is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder as provided in section 7-107-204.
- (7) "Shareholder" means either a record shareholder or a beneficial shareholder.

7-113-102. Right to dissent

- (1) A shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, is entitled to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:
 - (a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:
 - (I) Approval by the shareholders of that corporation is required for the merger by section 7-111-103 or 7-111-104 or by the articles of incorporation; or
 - (II) The corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent corporation under section 7-111-104;
 - (b) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired;
 - (c) Consummation of a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation for which a shareholder vote is required under section 7-112-102 (1);

(d) Consummation of a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, of the property of an entity controlled by the corporation if the shareholders of the corporation were entitled to vote upon the consent of the corporation to the disposition pursuant to section 7-112-102 (2);

(c) Consummation of a conversion in which the corporation is the converting entity as provided in section 7-90-206 (2);

(f) An amendment, conversion, or merger described in section 7-101-504 (3); and

B-1

(g) Consummation of a plan by which a public benefit corporation terminates public benefit corporation status by merger or conversion into a corporation that has not elected public benefit corporation status as provided in section 7-101-504 (4) or by amendment of its articles of incorporation.

(1.3) A shareholder is not entitled to dissent and obtain payment, under subsection (1) of this section, of the fair value of the shares of any class or series of shares that either were listed on a national securities exchange registered under the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended, or were held of record by more than two thousand shareholders, at the time of:

- (a) The record date fixed under section 7-107-107 to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the shareholders' meeting at which the corporate action is submitted to a vote;
- (b) The record date fixed under section 7-107-104 to determine shareholders entitled to sign writings consenting to the corporate action; or
- (c) The effective date of the corporate action if the corporate action is authorized other than by a vote of shareholders.

(1.8) The limitation set forth in subsection (1.3) of this section shall not apply if the shareholder will receive for the shareholder's shares, pursuant to the corporate action, anything except:

- (a) Shares of the corporation surviving the consummation of the plan of merger or share exchange;
- (b) Shares of any other corporation which, at the effective date of the plan of merger or share exchange, either will be listed on a national securities exchange registered under the federal "Securities Exchange Act of 1934", as amended, or will be held of record by more than two thousand shareholders;
- (c) Cash in lieu of fractional shares; or
- (d) Any combination of the foregoing described shares or cash in lieu of fractional shares.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 1321, § 30, effective June 1, 1996.)

(2.5) A shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, is entitled to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of a reverse split that reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share or to scrip if the fractional share or scrip so created is to be acquired for cash or the scrip is to be voided under section 7-106-104.

(3) A shareholder is entitled to dissent and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of any corporate action to the extent provided by the bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors.

(4) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this article may not challenge the corporate action creating such entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

7-113-103. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name only if the record shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and causes the corporation to receive written notice which states such dissent and the name, address, and federal taxpayer identification number, if any, of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a record shareholder under this subsection (1) are determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder dissents and the other shares of the record shareholder were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to the shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:

(a) The beneficial shareholder causes the corporation to receive the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

- (b) The beneficial shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.
- (3) The corporation may require that, when a record shareholder dissents with respect to the shares held by any one or more beneficial shareholders, each such beneficial shareholder must certify to the corporation that the beneficial shareholder and the record shareholder or record shareholders of all shares owned beneficially by the beneficial shareholder have asserted, or will timely assert, dissenters' rights as to all such shares as to which there is no limitation on the ability to exercise dissenters' rights. Any such requirement shall be stated in the dissenters' notice given pursuant to section 7-113-203.

7-113-201. Notice of dissenters' rights

(1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the notice of the meeting shall be given to all shareholders, whether or not entitled to vote. The notice shall state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this article and shall be accompanied by a copy of this article and the materials, if any, that, under articles 101 to 117 of this title, are required to be given to shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed action at the meeting. Failure to give notice as provided by this subsection (1) shall not affect any action taken at the shareholders' meeting for which the notice was to have been given, but any shareholder who was entitled to dissent but who was not given such notice shall not be precluded from demanding payment for the shareholder's shares under this article by reason of the shareholder's failure to comply with the provisions of section 7-113-202 (1).

(2) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 is authorized without a meeting of shareholders pursuant to section 7-107-104, any written or oral solicitation of a shareholder to execute a writing consenting to such action contemplated in section 7-107-104 shall be accompanied or preceded by a written notice stating that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this article, by a copy of this article, and by the materials, if any, that, under articles 101 to 117 of this title, would have been required to be given to shareholders entitled to vote on the proposed action if the proposed action were submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting. Failure to give notice as provided by this subsection (2) shall not affect any action taken pursuant to section 7-107-104 for which the notice was to have been given, but any shareholder who was entitled to dissent but who was not given such notice shall not be precluded from demanding payment for the shareholder's shares under this article by reason of the shareholder's failure to comply with the provisions of section 7-113-202 (2).

7-113-202. Notice of intent to demand payment

(1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting and if notice of dissenters' rights has been given to such shareholder in connection with the action pursuant to section 7-113-201 (1), a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights shall:

(a) Cause the corporation to receive, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intention to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed corporate action is effectuated; and

(b) Not vote the shares in favor of the proposed corporate action.

(2) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 is authorized without a meeting of shareholders pursuant to section 7-107-104 and if notice of dissenters' rights has been given to such shareholder in connection with the action pursuant to section 7-113-201 (2), a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights shall not execute a writing consenting to the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) or (2) of this section is not entitled to demand payment for the shareholder's shares under this article.

7-113-203. Dissenters' notice

(1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 is authorized, the corporation shall give a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who are entitled to demand payment for their shares under this article.

B-3

(2) The dissenters' notice required by subsection (1) of this section shall be given no later than ten days after the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 and shall:

- (a) State that the corporate action was authorized and state the effective date or proposed effective date of the corporate action;
- (b) State an address at which the corporation will receive payment demands and the address of a place where certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
- (c) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- (d) Supply a form for demanding payment, which form shall request a dissenter to state an address to which payment is to be made;
- (e) Set the date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand and certificates for certificated shares, which date shall not be less than thirty days after the date the notice required by subsection (1) of this section is given;
- (f) State the requirement contemplated in section 7-113-103 (3), if such requirement is imposed; and
- (g) Be accompanied by a copy of this article.

7-113-204. Procedure to demand payment

(1) A shareholder who is given a dissenters' notice pursuant to section 7-113-203 and who wishes to assert dissenters' rights shall, in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice:

- (a) Cause the corporation to receive a payment demand, which may be the payment demand form contemplated in section 7-113-203 (2) (d), duly completed, or may be stated in another writing; and
- (b) Deposit the shareholder's certificates for certificated shares.

(2) A shareholder who demands payment in accordance with subsection (1) of this section retains all rights of a shareholder, except the right to transfer the shares, until the effective date of the proposed corporate action giving rise to the shareholder's exercise of dissenters' rights and has only the right to receive payment for the shares after the effective date of such corporate action.

(3) Except as provided in section 7-113-207 or 7-113-209 (1) (b), the demand for payment and deposit of certificates are irrevocable.

(4) A shareholder who does not demand payment and deposit the shareholder's share certificates as required by the date or dates set in the dissenters' notice is not entitled to payment for the shares under this article.

7-113-205. Uncertificated shares

(1) Upon receipt of a demand for payment under section 7-113-204 from a shareholder holding uncertificated shares, and in lieu of the deposit of certificates representing the shares, the corporation may restrict the transfer thereof.

(2) In all other respects, the provisions of section 7-113-204 shall be applicable to shareholders who own uncertificated shares.

7-113-206. Payment

(1) Except as provided in section 7-113-208, upon the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 or upon receipt of a payment demand pursuant to section 7-113-204, whichever is later, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with section 7-113-204, at the address stated in the payment demand, or if no such address is stated in the payment demand, at the address shown on the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares, the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be accompanied by:

B-4

- (a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of its most recent fiscal year or, if that is not available, the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, and, if the corporation customarily provides such statements to shareholders, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year and a statement of cash flow for that year, which balance sheet and statements shall have been audited if the corporation customarily provides audited financial statements to shareholders, as well as the latest available financial statements, if any, for the interim or full-year period, which financial statements need not be audited;
- (b) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;
- (c) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- (d) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under section 7-113-209; and
- (e) A copy of this article.

7-113-207. Failure to take action

(1) If the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 does not occur within sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand as provided in section 7-113-203, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If the effective date of the corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 occurs more than sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand as provided in section 7-113-203, then the corporation shall send a new dissenters' notice, as provided in section 7-113-203, and the provisions of sections 7-113-204 to 7-113-209 shall again be applicable.

7-113-208. Special provisions relating to shares acquired after announcement of proposed corporate action

(1) The corporation may, in or with the dissenters' notice given pursuant to section 7-113-203, state the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 7-113-102 and state that the dissenter shall certify in writing, in or with the dissenter's payment demand under section 7-113-204, whether or not the dissenter (or the person on whose behalf dissenters' rights are asserted) acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date. With respect to any dissenter who does not so certify in writing, in or with the payment demand, that the dissenter or the person on whose behalf the dissenter asserts dissenters' rights acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before such date, the corporation may, in lieu of making the payment provided in section 7-113-206, offer to make such payment if the dissenter agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the demand.

(2) An offer to make payment under subsection (1) of this section shall include or be accompanied by the information required by section 7-113-206 (2).

7-113-209. Procedure if dissenter is dissatisfied with payment or offer

(1) A dissenter may give notice to the corporation in writing of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and of the amount of interest due and may demand payment of such estimate, less any payment made under section 7-113-206, or reject the corporation's offer under section 7-113-208 and demand payment of the fair value of the shares and interest due, if:

- (a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 7-113-206 or offered under section 7-113-208 is less than the fair value of the shares or that the interest due was incorrectly calculated;
- (b) The corporation fails to make payment under section 7-113-206 within sixty days after the date set by the corporation by which the corporation must receive the payment demand; or
- (c) The corporation does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares as required by section 7-113-207 (1).

B-5

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter causes the corporation to receive the notice required by subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

7-113-301. Court action

(1) If a demand for payment under section 7-113-209 remains unresolved, the corporation may, within sixty days after receiving the payment demand, commence a proceeding and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay to each dissenter whose demand remains unresolved the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding described in subsection (1) of this section in the district court for the county in this state in which the street address of the corporation's principal office is located, or, if the corporation has no principal office in this state, in the district court for the county in which the street address of its registered agent is located, or, if the corporation has no registered agent, in the district court for the city and county of Denver. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered agent, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in which the domestic corporation merged into, or whose shares were acquired by, the foreign corporation would have commenced the action if that corporation were subject to the first sentence of this subsection (2).

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unresolved parties to the proceeding commenced under subsection (2) of this section as in an action against their shares, and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Service on each dissenter shall be by registered or certified mail, to the address stated in such dissenter's payment demand, or if no such address is stated in the payment demand, at the address shown on the corporation's current record of shareholders for the record shareholder holding the dissenter's shares, or as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to such order. The parties to the proceeding are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding commenced under subsection (2) of this section is entitled to judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or for the fair value, plus interest, of the dissenter's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 7-113-208.

7-113-302. Court costs and counsel fees

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 7-113-301 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation; except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 7-113-209.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with part 2 of this article; or

(b) Against either the corporation or one or more dissenters, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to said counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the dissenters who were benefited.

APPENDIX C

February 13, 2017

Board of Directors
Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc.
6500 East Hampden Avenue, Suite 203
Denver, CO 80224

Gentlemen:

Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc. (“Citywide”) and Heartland Financial USA, Inc. (“Heartland”) are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which Citywide will merge with and into Heartland with Heartland being the surviving corporation (the “Merger”). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of Class A Common Stock, Series I, no par value, of Citywide (“Citywide Series I Common Stock”) and Class A Common Stock, Series II, no par value, of Citywide (“Citywide Series II Common Stock” and together with the Citywide Series I Common Stock, the “Citywide Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of Citywide Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive, subject to certain adjustments as set forth in the Agreement (i) $57.00 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”), and (ii) 3.300 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Heartland (“Heartland Common Stock” and such consideration, the “Stock Consideration”). The Agreement provides, generally, that if Citywide’s Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is less than $113,000,000, the Cash Consideration will be reduced by an amount equal to (a) the amount by which the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is below $113,000,000, divided by (b) the Citywide Shares Outstanding, and if the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is greater than $114,800,000, the Cash Consideration will be increased by an amount equal to (x) the lesser of (A) $5,000,000 and (B) the amount by which the Adjusted Tangible Common Equity is above $114,800,000, divided by (y) the Citywide Shares Outstanding. The Cash Consideration and the Stock Consideration are collectively referred to herein as the “Merger Consideration.” Capitalized terms used herein without definition have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Citywide Common Stock.

Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”, “we” or “our”), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated February 13, 2017; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Citywide and its subsidiary, Citywide Banks, that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Heartland that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for Citywide for the year ending December 31, 2017, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and asset growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Citywide; (v) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Heartland for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share, asset and dividend growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Heartland; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Heartland based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of Heartland; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Heartland Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Heartland Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Citywide and Heartland with similar institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the senior management of Citywide the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Citywide and held similar discussions with certain members of the senior management of Heartland regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Heartland.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by Citywide or Heartland or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Citywide and Heartland that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Citywide or Heartland or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Citywide or Heartland. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Citywide or Heartland, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Citywide or Heartland. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Citywide and Heartland are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Citywide for the year ending December 31, 2017, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share and asset growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Citywide. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Heartland for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as well as estimated long-term earnings per share, asset and dividend growth rates for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Heartland. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as provided by the senior management of Heartland. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Citywide and Heartland confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements as to the future financial performance of Citywide and Heartland, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Citywide or Heartland since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Citywide and Heartland will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Citywide, Heartland or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Citywide has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of Heartland Common Stock at any time or what the value of Heartland Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Citywide Common Stock.

We have acted as Citywide's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which fee is contingent upon the closing of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Citywide has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. We have not provided any other investment banking services to Citywide in the two years preceding the date of this opinion, nor have we provided any investment banking services to Heartland in the two years preceding the date of this opinion. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Heartland and its affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Heartland and its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Citywide in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Citywide as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Citywide Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Citywide to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Citywide or the effect of any other transaction in which Citywide might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of Citywide or Heartland, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to holders of Citywide Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Heartland is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or DGCL, empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any persons who are, or are threatened to be made, parties to any threatened, pending or completed legal action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation), by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer or director of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided that such officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and, for criminal proceedings, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was illegal. A Delaware corporation may indemnify officers and directors against expenses (including attorneys' fees) in connection with the defense or settlement of an action by or in the right of the corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him or her against the expenses which such officer or director actually and reasonably incurred.

As permitted by Delaware law, Heartland has included in its certificate of incorporation a provision to eliminate the personal liability of our directors for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties as directors, subject to certain limitations. In addition, Heartland's certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that it is required to indemnify its officers and directors under certain circumstances, including those circumstances in which indemnification would otherwise be discretionary and Heartland may advance expenses to its officers and directors as incurred in connection with proceedings against them for which they may be indemnified.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and
 - (ii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of this registration statement.
 - (iii) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (2) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (3) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
 - (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), 424(b)(5), or 424(b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), 415(a)(1)(vii), or
 - (ii) 415(a)(1)(x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of the securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Dubuque, State of Iowa, on March 23, 2017.
