ICAHN QUESTIONS ANTIOCO'S THREAT TO RESIGN FROM BLOCKBUSTER

April 28, 2005, New York, NY. -- Carl Icahn announced today that he is sending the following letter to stockholders of Blockbuster concerning Mr. Antioco's threat to resign from Blockbuster if he is not elected as a director:

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DFAN14A

Dear Fellow Blockbuster Stockholder:

We are engaging in a proxy contest with Blockbuster management and are attempting to elect Edward Bleier, Strauss Zelnick and me to the Blockbuster Board of Directors at the upcoming annual meeting of Blockbuster stockholders scheduled for May 11, 2005.

WHY IS MR. ANTIOCO SO AFRAID THAT WE WILL GET ELECTED THAT HE IS BLACKMAILING YOU TO VOTE FOR HIM?

Mr. Antioco announced yesterday that if he is not reelected to the Board he will quit the Company and the Company indicated that he would then be entitled to receive his full compensation package which is reported to be worth over $50 MILLION. WHY WOULD THE COMPANY CONCEDE THAT ISSUE? We have been advised by counsel that if he uses the fact that he is not on the Board as an excuse to resign, the Board would have 10 business days to cure the default. During those 10 business days, the Board could create a new Board seat and elect him a director, a move we would support and would prevent him from having an excuse to resign and thereby get his egregious compensation package. WE DON'T THINK MR. ANTIOCO WILL LEAVE WITHOUT HIS OUTRAGEOUSLY LARGE COMPENSATION PACKAGE.

WHY IS MR. ANTIOCO AFRAID THAT OUR THREE NOMINEES WILL BE ELECTED?

Because, if we elect all three of our nominees, then Mr. Antioco becomes much more accountable for his performance. If stockholders are dissatisfied with Mr. Antioco's performance during the next year, they will have the ability to nominate enough directors who, combined with our three directors, will constitute a majority of the Board in 2006. That Board will have the right to hire new management.

WHY SHOULD STOCKHOLDERS SUPPORT MY FULL SLATE?

If my slate is elected the nominees will comprise a minority of the Board. As a result, we understand that we will not be operating the Company. Indeed, Mr. Antioco has spoken about his plan for the Company. We have no preconceived opinion regarding his plan. We are not seeking to micromanage or even manage the Company, but only to be strong advocates for the stockholders on the Board of Directors. We are obligated to act as fiduciaries for all the stockholders. AS FIDUCIARIES, WE WILL ATTEMPT TO CURB ANY EXCESSIVE EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION SCHEMES AND TO COUNSEL MANAGEMENT AGAINST WHAT WE MAY DEEM TO BE ILL-CONCEIVED BUSINESS PLANS THAT WASTE THE COMPANY'S ASSETS. We will use our best judgment about what is in the best interest of stockholders. However, we will not be the rubber-stamp directors that it is obvious Mr. Antioco desires.

WHO ARE OUR NOMINEES?

I chose Mr. Bleier and Mr. Zelnick as my co-nominees because they are well-respected entertainment industry veterans, who, if elected, will bring their life long industry experience to bear on the issues facing Blockbuster. Mr. Bleier recently retired, after 34 years of service, from Warner Bros Entertainment Inc., where he had been president of the division responsible for marketing of movies, animation and TV programs. Prior to that he was a senior executive of ABC-TV. He is presently a director of Real Networks Inc., a leading company in Internet streaming of audio and visual media. Mr. Zelnick is founder of Zelnick Media LLC, an investment and advisory firm specializing in media and entertainment. He was President and Chief Executive Officer of BMG Entertainment, at that time a $4.7 billion music and entertainment unit of

Edgar Filing: BLOCKBUSTER INC - Form DFAN14A

Bertelsmann A.G., where he managed one of the world's largest music and entertainment companies, one of the leading music publishing companies and the world's largest record club. Previously, Mr. Zelnick was President and Chief Operating Officer of 20th Century Fox that was engaged in the production and distribution of feature films and television programming.

IS IT IMPORTANT TO ELECT ALL THREE OF THE NOMINEES ON OUR SLATE, RATHER THAN JUST TWO?

Election of three stockholder nominated directors at this time will help to insure that management is held accountable to its business plan. If they fail, stockholders will have the opportunity next year to nominate and elect more directors and if they do so there would be a majority of directors who are stockholder nominees. If you only elect two of our nominees, it will not be possible to ensure a majority of stockholder nominees after next year's election of directors. THE POSSIBILITY OF A STOCKHOLDER NOMINATED MAJORITY OF DIRECTORS IN 2006 IS WHAT WILL FURTHER INCENTIVIZE MANAGEMENT TO DO ITS BEST FOR STOCKHOLDERS.

I believe that true stockholder democracy involves stockholders expressing their rights and that elections of corporate boards should be more than a coronation process for board members' self perpetuation through self-nomination. I URGE STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE FOR EACH OF THE THREE MEMBERS OF MY SLATE.

Very truly yours,

Carl C. Icahn
