Tri-Continental Corporation

February 18, 2004

To the Stockholders:

Your annual Stockholder report for Tri-Continental Corporation follows this letter. This report contains a discussion of Tri-Continental's investment results, performance information, and audited financial statements, including a portfolio of investments.

For the year ended December 31, 2003, Tri-Continental posted a total return of 25.84% based on net asset value and 25.24% based on market price. During the same time period, the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index (S&P 500) returned 28.67% and the Lipper Closed-End Growth & Income Funds Average returned 28.40%.

We would again like to thank those Stockholders who participated in Tri-Continental's 2003 Mid-Year Survey. We appreciate the opportunity to hear your opinions and concerns. Survey results can be found on pages 9 and 10 of this report.

As you are probably aware, the mutual fund industry has been dealing with the issue of market timing and other disruptive or illegal trading practices in mutual fund shares. Tri-Continental, as a listed closed-end fund, does not have such issues. However, your manager, J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated, also manages a family of mutual funds. In this regard, Seligman has conducted an extensive internal review, the results of which have been previously reported to Stockholders of Tri-Continental. For more information, please visit www.seligman.com.*

We thank you for your continued support of Tri-Continental Corporation and look forward to serving your investment needs for many years to come.

By order of the Board of Directors,

William C. Morris
Chairman

Brian T. Zino
President

Tri-Continental Corporation

Interview With Your Portfolio Team

What were Tri-Continental's investment results in 2003?

For the year ended December 31, 2003, Tri-Continental Corporation posted a total return of 25.84% based on net asset value and 25.24% based on market price. During the same time period, the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index (S&P 500) returned 28.67%, and the Corporation's peers, as measured by the Lipper Closed-End Growth & Income Funds Average, returned 28.40%.

What market conditions and events materially affected Tri-Continental's performance during the period?

In 2003, the stock market seemed at long last to benefit from the accommodative fiscal and monetary policy of recent years. All sectors of the market posted positive gains for the year. Geopolitical tensions in the first quarter of the year weighed heavily on the market initially, but beginning in mid-March, the market began to see substantial upward momentum, which lasted throughout the remainder of the year. The combination of income tax reductions, the decrease in the dividend tax, historically low interest rates, and the Federal Reserve Board's expansion of the money supply was also positive for equities. Gross domestic product (GDP) growth improved markedly, particularly in the third quarter of 2003. Moving into the fourth quarter of 2003, leading economic indicators appeared to be heading upward, as did industrial production, suggesting further growth.

With this stimulative backdrop, consumer spending continued strong in 2003, despite the downward trend of consumer sentiment prior to the Iraq war. Furthermore, with the relatively quick end to major hostilities in Iraq, consumer sentiment rose even higher. Meanwhile, lower interest rates were also a big factor working in the consumer's favor, as home mortgage refinancings continued to surge, enhancing liquidity and spending.

What investment strategies or techniques materially affected Tri-Continental's performance during the period?

The Corporation's performance was helped both on an absolute and relative basis by its holdings in the consumer discretionary sector. We liked this sector from a fundamental standpoint and thought the market had not yet appreciated what we saw as underlying strength. We took advantage of attractive valuations and overweighted the sector. This overweighting, coupled with sound stock selection, produced strong returns for the portfolio as the consumer discretionary sector outperformed other areas of the market.

Tri-Continental's investments in the information technology sector also contributed significantly to performance on an absolute basis, as this was the best-performing sector in the S&P 500 Index.

A Team Approach

Tri-Continental Corporation is managed by the Seligman Core Investment Team, headed by Richard R. Schmaltz. He is assisted by a group of seasoned professionals who are responsible for research and trading consistent with Tri-Continental's investment objective. Team members include Eric Almeraz, Claudia Francois, David Levy (trader), Michael McGarry, Edward Mehalick, Brian Turner, and Nancy Wu.

However, many of the more speculative technology companies led the sector's performance in 2003. Since Tri-Continental does not typically invest in these types of companies, our relative performance lagged that of the benchmark.

The Corporation's performance was hurt by the consumer staples sector; Tri-Continental underperformed the benchmark in this sector based on stock selection. The telecommunications services sector, while representing only a small portion of Tri-Continental's portfolio, was a negative in terms of absolute and relative performance. Early in the year, our overweighting proved premature. When sector performance finally improved, our portfolio position had been pared so that the overall results proved negative.

Finally, financial stocks were a strong positive in the portfolio for the year, as this sector performed well. Tri-Continental's portfolio was overweighted in financials, which led to outperformance relative to the benchmark S&P 500 in this area. Furthermore, we were opportunistic and took advantage during periods of price weakness due to concerns about restructuring in the industry and increasing commitments in certain large financial companies. When these stocks rebounded, Tri-Continental benefited from these enlarged commitments, significantly aiding overall investment results.

Tri-Continental Corporation

Highlights of the Year

Net asset value of each share of Common Stock was $19.55 at December 31, compared to $15.72 at the start of the year. Assuming the reinvestment of dividends in additional shares, the total return was 25.84%.

Operating expenses for the year were $14,319,200. The ratio of expenses to average net investment assets was 0.68%, up slightly from 2002's expense ratio of 0.67%.

Common Stock dividends, paid quarterly, totaled $0.17 per share on an average of 120,561,000 shares, compared to $0.26 in 2002 when, on average, there were approximately 7,434,000 more shares outstanding.

Preferred Stock dividends, paid each quarter, completed 74 years of uninterrupted payments. Total net investment income available to cover the $2.50 Preferred Stock dividend was equivalent to $28.66 per Preferred share.

Stock Repurchase Program

For the period from November 21, 2002, through November 20, 2003, the Corporation repurchased 7,729,824 shares, representing 6.2% of outstanding shares at the beginning of the period. This compares to 9,503,046 shares repurchased in the year ended November 20, 2002, representing 7.4% of shares outstanding.

Tri-Continental Corporation

Stockholder Services

Tri-Continental provides a number of services to make maintaining an investment in its Common Stock more convenient.

Purchases of Common Stock. Under the Automatic Dividend Investment and Cash Purchase Plan, and other Stockholder plans, purchases of Common Stock are made by the Corporation in the open market and from Stockholders participating in withdrawal plans to satisfy Plan requirements. Those shares are then sold to Stockholders using the Plan. During 2003, 2,610,104 shares were purchased by Stockholders through the Plan.

The Corporation may make additional purchases of its Common Stock in the open market at such prices and in such amounts as the Board of Directors may deem advisable. As discussed further under Stock Repurchase Program on page 12, during 2003 the Corporation purchased 4,758,500 additional shares.

Traditional Individual Retirement Account (IRA). You may contribute up to $3,000 per year to a Traditional IRA provided you have earned income and are under age 70½. A working or non-working spouse may also contribute up to $3,000 to a separate Traditional IRA. Individuals age 50 and over may contribute up to $500 extra as catch-up contributions. Contributions to a Traditional IRA may be deductible or non-deductible. If you are single and are not covered by an employer's retirement plan, your contribution will always be deductible. For individuals who are covered by a plan, contributions will be fully deductible if your modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) in 2003 is less than $40,000. For spouses who are both covered by a plan, contributions will be fully deductible if your MAGI is less than $60,000. If one spouse does not work or is not covered by a retirement plan, that spouse's contribution will be fully deductible provided your household MAGI does not exceed $150,000. If your contribution is not deductible, you may still take advantage of the tax-deferred accumulation of earnings in your Traditional IRA.

Rollover IRA. You may be eligible to roll over a distribution of assets received from another IRA, a qualified employee benefit plan, or tax-deferred annuity into a Rollover IRA with Tri-Continental. To avoid a tax penalty, the transfer to a Rollover IRA generally must occur within 60 days of receipt of the qualifying distribution. If you do not make a direct transfer of a distribution from a qualified employee benefit plan or a tax-deferred annuity to a Rollover IRA, the payor of the distribution must withhold 20% of the distribution.

Roth IRA. You (and a working or non-working spouse) may each make an after-tax contribution of up to $3,000 per year to a Roth IRA provided you have earned income and meet the eligibility requirements. Your modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) must be less than $95,000 (individuals) or $150,000 (married couples) to be eligible to make a full contribution to a Roth IRA. You are eligible to make a partial Roth IRA contribution if your MAGI is below $110,000 (individuals) or $160,000 (married couples). Total contributions to a Roth IRA and a Traditional IRA cannot exceed $3,000 in any year. Individuals age 50 and over may contribute up to $500 extra as catch-up contributions. Earnings grow tax-free and will be distributed to you tax-free and penalty-free provided that you hold your account for at least five years and you take the distribution either after age 59½, for disability, upon death, or to make a first-time home purchase (up to $10,000). Unlike a Traditional IRA, you may contribute to a Roth IRA even if you are over age 70½ (if you have earned income), and you are not required to take minimum distributions at age 70½. You may convert an existing Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA to take advantage of tax-free distributions. You must pay taxes on any earnings and deductible contributions in your Traditional IRA before converting it to a Roth IRA. Talk to your financial advisor for more details on converting your Traditional IRA.

Retirement Planning - Qualified Plans Unincorporated businesses and the self-employed may take advantage of the same benefits in their retirement plans that are available to corporations. Contribution levels can go as high as 100% of earned income, to a maximum of $41,000 per participant. For retirement plan purposes, no more than $205,000 may be taken into account as earned income under the plan in 2004 and future years (subject to adjustments to reflect cost of living increases). Social Security integration and employee vesting schedules are also available as options in the Tri-Continental prototype retirement plans. Although you already may be participating in an employer's retirement plan, you may be eligible to establish another plan based upon income from other sources, such as director's fees.

Retirement Plan Services provides information about our prototype retirement plans. The toll-free telephone number is (800) 445-1777 in the Continental US and (212) 682-7600 outside the US.

Gifts Free of Federal Tax are often made using Tri-Continental Common Stock. You may give as much as $11,000 a year to as many individuals as desired free of federal gift tax, and a married couple may give up to $22,000 a year.

The Automatic Cash Withdrawal Plan enables owners of Common shares with a market value of $5,000 or more to receive a fixed amount from their investment at regular intervals. Investors use the plan to supplement current or retirement income, for educational expenses, or for other purposes.

Federal Taxes

Quarterly dividends paid on both the Preferred and Common Stocks for 2003 are subject to federal income tax as ordinary income. Under the Internal Revenue Code, 100% of the 2003 quarterly dividends paid to Common and Preferred Stockholders qualifies for the dividends received deduction available to corporate Stockholders. In order to claim the dividends received deduction for these distributions, corporate Stockholders must have held their shares for 46 days or more during the 90-day period beginning 45 days before each ex-dividend date.

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, the Corporation designates 100%, or the maximum allowable, of its dividend distributions paid to Common and Preferred Stockholders as qualified dividend income. In order for an individual to claim dividends received as qualified dividends, individual Common Stockholders must have held their shares for more than 60 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before each ex-dividend date, while Preferred Stockholders must have held their shares for more than 90 days during the 181-day period before each ex-dividend date.

Tri-Continental Corporation

A History of Building Long-Term Wealth and Income

Tri-Continental invests primarily to produce long-term growth of both capital and income, while providing reasonable current income. The chart below shows the growth of Tri-Continental Stockholders' capital over the past 20 years. The total cost of 1,000 shares of Tri-Continental purchased on December 31, 1983, was $29,375. Stockholders who took capital gain distributions in shares would have realized more than a three and a half-fold increase in the market value of these 1,000 shares to $113,372 by year-end 2003. For those who chose to take their dividends as well as capital gains in additional shares, the value of their investment in Tri-Continental Corporation would have grown to a market value of $197,150 at the end of 2003.

 Assumes the Stockholder did not exercise or sell the transferable rights distributed in connection with the 1993 rights offering. Either the exercise or sale of the rights would improve the above results.*

For the 20-year period ended December 31, 2003. The information provided above is based on past performance, which is no guarantee of future results, and excludes any commissions or sales charges associated with the purchase of Tri-Continental shares. The rate of return will vary, and the principal value of an investment will fluctuate. Shares, if sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. If commissions or sales charges had been included, performance would have been lower. In addition, capital gain and dividend distributions taken in additional shares are subject to personal income tax in the year earned. The examples shown do not reflect the effect of such taxes.

The chart above illustrates that Tri-Continental's performance cannot be judged based upon stock-price appreciation/depreciation alone. Indeed, stock-price appreciation/depreciation is a small component of Tri-Continental's total return. For Stockholders who take their capital gains in additional shares, and particularly for Stockholders who are able to take both their capital gains and their dividends in additional shares, the value of an investment in Tri-Continental has appreciated steadily over the years. This is because, while Tri-Continental's stock price may not increase significantly, investors who take their distributions in additional shares may benefit from an increasing number of shares owned.

Tri-Continental Corporation

Stock Repurchase Program

In November 2003, the Board of Directors authorized the renewal of Tri-Continental's ongoing share repurchase program, which began in November 1998. The program authorizes the Corporation to repurchase up to 5.0% of the Corporation's shares over a 12-month period, provided that the discount remains wider than 10%. The Board's decision benefits all Stockholders, allowing them to continue to enjoy the advantages of Tri-Continental's closed-end structure, while seeking to increase the NAV of the Corporation's outstanding shares.

For the 12 months ended November 20, 2003, the Corporation repurchased 7.7 million shares, 6.2% of stock outstanding November 20, 2002. The Corporation bought back 4.4% of stock outstanding in both the first and second years the program was in place, 6.2% in the third year and 7.4% in the fourth year.

Introduce Tri-Continental to a Friend

Introduce Tri-Continental to a Friend is a program designed to help encourage potential investors to consider investing in Tri-Continental. The initiative targets the more than 44,000 current Stockholders of record, individual investors, Wall Street analysts, and financial consultants through a comprehensive effort including advertising, direct mail, and one-on-one meetings. Tri-Continental has also published a brochure that traces its history since its launch in 1929.

Reply cards allowing Stockholders to request The Story of Tri-Continental brochure and the Introduce Tri-Continental to a Friend investor package have been inserted in the Mid-Year and Annual Reports since the program's inception. Response has been excellent, with several thousand copies of the brochure and the investor package distributed to date. A new reply card is inserted in this Annual Report.

Stockholders are invited to request that an investor package be sent to one or more family members, friends, or associates. This package includes a letter from Mr. William C. Morris, Tri-Continental's Chairman, a copy of the most recent Stockholder Report, a Prospectus, The Story of Tri-Continental brochure, and a pamphlet explaining the attributes of closed-end funds.

Tri-Continental Corporation

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Significant Accounting Policies The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require management to make certain estimates and assumptions at the date of the financial statements. The following summarizes the significant accounting policies of the Corporation:

- a. Security Valuation Investments in stocks, limited partnership interests, and short-term holdings maturing in more than 60 days are valued at current market values or, in their absence, fair value determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board of Directors. Securities traded on an exchange are valued at last sales prices or, in their absence and in the case of over-the-counter securities, at the mean of bid and asked prices. Short-term holdings maturing in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost.
- b. Federal Taxes There is no provision for federal income tax. The Corporation has elected to be taxed as a regulated investment company and intends to distribute substantially all taxable net income and net realized gain.
- c. Security Transactions and Related Investment Income Investment transactions are recorded on trade dates. Identified cost of investments sold is used for both financial statements and federal income tax purposes. Dividends receivable and payable are recorded on ex-dividend dates. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis.
- d. Distributions to Stockholders The treatment for financial statement purposes of distributions made during the year from net investment income or net realized gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expense or capital gain, and the recharacterization of foreign exchange gains or losses to either ordinary income or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of net investment assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassification will have no effect on net assets, results of operations, or net asset value per share of the Corporation.

2. Capital Stock Transactions Under the Corporation's Charter, dividends on the Common Stock cannot be declared unless net assets, after such dividends and dividends on Preferred Stock, equal at least $100 per share of Preferred Stock outstanding. The Preferred Stock is subject to redemption at the Corporation's option at any time on 30 days' notice at $55 per share (or a total of $41,400,700 for the shares outstanding) plus accrued dividends, and entitled in liquidation to $50 per share plus accrued dividends.

The Corporation, in connection with its Automatic Dividend Investment and Cash Purchase Plan and other Stockholder plans, acquires and issues shares of its own Common Stock, as needed, to satisfy Plan requirements. For the year ended December 31, 2003, 2,610,104 shares were purchased from Plan participants at a cost of $37,992,282, which represented a weighted average discount of 14.69% from the net asset value of those acquired shares. A total of 991,007 shares were issued to Plan participants during the year for proceeds of $14,170,343, at a discount of 15.15% from the net asset value of those shares.

For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Corporation purchased 4,758,500 shares of its Common Stock in the open market at an aggregate cost of $68,463,994, which represented a weighted average discount of 13.94% from the net asset value of those acquired shares.

At December 31, 2003, 290,340 shares of Common Stock were reserved for issuance upon exercise of 12,904 Warrants, each of which entitled the holder to purchase 22.50 shares of Common Stock at $1.00 per share. Assuming the exercise of all Warrants outstanding at December 31, 2003, net investment assets would have increased by $290,340 and the net asset value of the Common Stock would have been $19.51 per share. The number of Warrants exercised during the years 2003 and 2002 was 66 and 381, respectively.

3. Purchases and Sales of Securities Purchases and sales of portfolio securities, excluding short-term investments, amounted to $2,807,411,518 and $2,949,423,794, respectively. At December 31, 2003, the cost of investments for federal income tax purposes was $2,127,148,377. The tax basis cost was greater than the cost for financial reporting purposes due to the tax deferral of losses on wash sales in the amount of $1,426,254. The tax basis gross unrealized appreciation and depreciation of portfolio securities amounted to $264,130,636 and $43,049,686, respectively.

4. Repurchase Agreements The Corporation may enter into repurchase agreements with commercial banks and with broker/dealers deemed to be creditworthy by J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated (the "Manager"). Securities received as collateral subject to repurchase agreements are deposited with the Corporation's custodian and, pursuant to the terms of the repurchase agreements, must have an aggregate market value greater than or equal to the repurchase price plus accrued interest at all times. Procedures have been established to monitor, on a daily basis, the market value of repurchase agreements' underlying securities to ensure the existence of the proper level of collateral.

5. Management Fee, Administrative Services, and Other Transactions The Manager manages the affairs of the Corporation and provides for the necessary personnel and facilities. Compensation of all officers of the Corporation, all directors of the Corporation who are employees of the Manager, and all personnel of the Corporation and the Manager is paid by the Manager. The Manager receives a fee, calculated daily and payable monthly, equal to a percentage of the Corporation's daily net assets at the close of business on the previous business day. The management fee rate is calculated on a sliding scale of 0.45% to 0.375%, based on average daily net assets of all the investment companies managed by the Manager. The management fee for the year ended December 31, 2003, was equivalent to an annual rate of 0.41% of the average daily net assets of the Corporation.

Seligman Data Corp., which is owned by the Corporation and certain associated investment companies, charged the Corporation at cost $3,539,305 for stockholder account services in accordance with a methodology approved by the Corporation's directors. Costs of Seligman Data Corp. directly attributable to the Corporation were charged to the Corporation. The remaining charges were allocated to the Corporation by Seligman Data Corp. pursuant to a formula based on the Corporation's net assets, stockholder transaction volume and number of stockholder accounts. The Corporation's investment in Seligman Data Corp. is recorded at a cost of $43,681.

The Corporation and certain other associated investment companies (together, the Guarantors) have severally but not jointly guaranteed the performance and observance of all the terms and conditions of two leases entered into by Seligman Data Corp., including the payment of rent by Seligman Data Corp. (the Guaranties). The leases and the Guaranties expire in September 2008 and January 2009. The obligation of the Corporation to pay any amount due under either Guaranty is limited to a specified percentage of the full amount, which generally is based on the Corporation's percentage of the expenses billed by Seligman Data Corp. to all Guarantors in the preceding calendar quarter. As of December 31, 2003, the Corporation's potential obligation under the Guaranties is $812,000. As of December 31, 2003, no event has occurred which would result in the Corporation becoming liable to make any payment under a Guaranty. A portion of rent paid by Seligman Data Corp. is charged to the Corporation as part of Seligman Data Corp.'s shareholder account services cost.

Certain officers and directors of the Corporation are officers or directors of the Manager and/or Seligman Data Corp.

The Corporation has a compensation arrangement under which directors who receive fees may elect to defer receiving such fees. Directors may elect to have their deferred fees accrue interest or earn a return based on the performance of the Corporation or other funds in the Seligman Group of Investment Companies. The cost of such fees and earnings/loss accrued thereon is included in directors' fees and expenses, and the accumulated balance thereof at December 31, 2003, of $258,079 is included in other liabilities. Deferred fees and related accrued earnings are not deductible for federal income tax purposes until such amounts are paid.

6. Capital Loss Carryforward and Other Tax Adjustments At December 31, 2003, the Corporation had a net capital loss carryforward for federal income tax purposes of $730,079,728, which is available for offset against future taxable net capital gains, with $693,816,914 expiring in 2010 and $36,262,814 expiring in 2011. The amount was determined after adjustments for certain differences between financial reporting and tax purposes, such as wash sale losses. Accordingly, no capital gain distributions are expected to be paid to stockholders until net capital gains have been realized in excess of available capital loss carryforwards.

7. Restricted Securities At December 31, 2003, the Tri-Continental Financial Division of the Corporation comprised two investments that were purchased through private offerings and cannot be sold without prior registration under the Securities Act of 1933 or pursuant to an exemption therefrom. These investments are valued at fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. The acquisition dates of investments in the limited partnerships, along with their cost and values at December 31, 2003, were as follows:

Investments	Acquisition Date(s)	Cost	Value
WCAS Capital Partners II, L.P.	12/11/90 to 3/24/98	$4,727,686	$2,396,937
Whitney Subordinated Debt Fund, L.P.	7/12/89 to 11/10/98	2,464,665	1,193,390
Total		$7,192,351	$3,590,327

8. Other Matters The Manager has been conducting an extensive internal review in response to recent developments regarding disruptive or illegal trading practices within the mutual fund industry. The Manager's review noted one market timing relationship that was in the process of being closed down by the Manager before the first proceedings relating to trading practices within the mutual fund industry were publicly announced in September 2003. Additionally, the Manager identified three other market timing arrangements, all of which had been terminated, the most recent in September 2002. The Manager is confident that any financial impact of these arrangements on any Seligman Fund was minimal, and the Corporation, as a publicly-traded, closed-end investment company, had no market timing arrangements. The Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) and the Attorney General of the State of New York also are reviewing these matters.

In connection with the Manager's internal review, the Manager has also reviewed its practice of placing some of the Seligman Equity Funds orders to buy and sell portfolio securities with brokerage firms in recognition of their sales of Seligman Funds. This is a common practice and permissible when done properly. Although the Manager believes that the execution of all such orders was consistent with its best execution obligations, the Manager may have violated applicable requirements for certain of such orders as a result of compensation arrangements that Seligman Advisors, Inc., an affiliate of the Manager, had with certain brokerage firms. The Manager is confident that the Seligman Equity Funds did not pay higher brokerage commissions than they would otherwise have paid for comparable transactions.

The Manager is also responding to information requests from the SEC relating to the Manager's use of revenue sharing and fund portfolio brokerage commissions. The Independent Directors of the Board of the Corporation have been reviewing, and will continue to review, the foregoing matters. If the Corporation has incurred financial harm as a result of violations of law or internal policies by the Manager or its personnel, the Manager will make restitution to the Corporation.

Financial Highlights

The Corporation's financial highlights are presented below. Per share operating performance data is designed to allow investors to trace the operating performance, on a per Common share basis, from the beginning net asset value to the ending net asset value, so that investors can understand what effect the individual items have on their investment, assuming it was held throughout the period. Generally, the per share amounts are derived by converting the actual dollar amounts incurred for each item, as disclosed in the financial statements, to their equivalent per Common share amounts, using average shares outstanding.

Total investment return measures the Corporation's performance assuming that investors purchased shares of the Corporation at the market value or net asset value as of the beginning of the period, invested dividends and capital gains paid, as provided for in the Corporation's Prospectus and Automatic Dividend Investment and Cash Purchase Plan, and then sold their shares at the closing market value or net asset value per share on the last day of the period. The computations do not reflect taxes or any sales commissions investors may incur in purchasing or selling shares of the Corporation.

The ratios of expenses and net investment income to average net investment assets and to average net assets for Common Stock for the periods presented do not reflect the effect of dividends paid to Preferred Stockholders.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors and Security Holders,

Tri-Continental Corporation:

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities and the statement of capital stock and surplus of Tri-Continental Corporation (the Corporation), including the portfolio of investments, as of December 31, 2003, and the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net investment assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial highlights based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial highlights are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2003, by correspondence with the Corporation's custodian. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial highlights referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Tri-Continental Corporation as of December 31, 2003, the results of its operations, the changes in its net investment assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

This report is intended only for the information of stockholders shares of Common Stock of Tri-Continental Corporation, or those who have received the current prospectus covering which contains information about management fees and other costs.

FORM N-CSR

- ITEM 2. CODE OF ETHICS.
As of December 31, 2003, the registrant has adopted a code of ethics that applies to its principal executive and principal financial officers.
- ITEM 3. AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT.
The registrant's board of directors has determined that Mr. James N. Whitson, a member of its audit committee, is an audit committee financial expert. Mr. Whitson is "independent" as such term is defined in Form N-CSR.
- ITEM 4. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES.
(a) - (d) Aggregate fees billed to the registrant for the last two fiscal years for professional services rendered by the registrant's principal accountant were as follows:

	2003	2002
	-----	-----
Audit Fees	$56,336	$54,850
Audit-Related Fees	-	-
Tax Fees	2,100	2,000
All Other Fees	1,897	2,609

Audit fees include amounts related to the audit of the registrant's annual financial statements and services normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings. Tax fees include amounts related to tax compliance, tax planning, and tax advice. Other fees include the registrant's pro-rata share of amounts for services related to documentation of certain internal control procedures for the registrant and certain other associated investment companies.

Aggregate fees billed by the registrant's principal accountant for the last two fiscal years for non-audit services provided to the registrant's investment adviser (not including a sub-adviser whose role is primarily portfolio management and is sub-contracted or overseen by another investment adviser) and any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the investment adviser that provides ongoing services to the registered investment company, where the engagement relates directly to the operations and financial reporting of the registrant, were as follows:

	-----	-----
Audit-Related Fees	$89,130	$105,355
Tax Fees	7,500	18,450

Audit-related fees include amounts for (i) attestation services for the registrant's stockholder service agent; (ii) review of certain internal controls of such stockholder service agent's sub-agent; and (iii) actuarial services provided prior to May 6, 2003 to the registrant's investment adviser and stockholder service agent (such services were no longer permitted to be performed for the stockholder service agent after May 5, 2003). Tax fees include amounts related to tax compliance, tax planning, and tax advice for and an evaluation of certain tax reporting procedures of the registrant's stockholder service agent.

(e) (1) The Audit Committee is required to preapprove audit and non-audit services performed for the registrant by the principal accountant in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the principal accountant's independence. The Audit Committee also is required to preapprove certain non-audit services performed by the registrant's principal accountant for the registrant's investment adviser (not including any sub-adviser whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment adviser) and certain of the adviser's affiliates that provide services directly related to the operations and financial reporting of the registrant. Unless a type of service to be provided by the principal accountant has received preapproval, it will require specific preapproval by the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee may delegate preapproval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated shall report any preapproval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, under certain circumstances, preapproval of non-audit services of a de minimis amount is not required.

(2) No services included in (b) - (d) above were approved pursuant to the waiver provisions of paragraphs (c) (7) (i) (C) or (c) (7) (ii) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X.

(f) Not applicable.

(g) The aggregate fees billed for the most recent fiscal year and the preceding fiscal year by the registrant's principal accountant for non-audit services rendered to the registrant, its investment adviser (not including any sub-adviser whose role is primarily portfolio management and is subcontracted with or overseen by another investment adviser), and any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the investment adviser that provides ongoing services to the registrant were $100,627 and $128,414, respectively.

(h) All non-audit services rendered in (g) above were pre-approved by the registrant's audit committee. Accordingly, the audit committee considered whether these services were compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

ITEM 5. AUDIT COMMITTEE OF LISTED REGISTRANTS.

James N. Whitson, Chairman
John R. Galvin Betsy S. Michel
John E. Merow Leroy C. Richie

ITEM 6. [RESERVED]

ITEM 7. DISCLOSURE OF PROXY VOTING POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CLOSED-END MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES.

J. & W. Seligman & Co. Incorporated ("Seligman"), as the registrant's (the "Fund") investment manager, will vote the proxies relating to the Fund's portfolio holdings.

INTRODUCTION. On behalf of the Fund, Seligman votes the proxies of the securities held in the Fund's portfolio in accordance with Seligman's determination of what is in the best interests of the Fund's stockholders.

The financial interest of the stockholders of the Fund is the primary consideration in determining how proxies should be voted. Seligman has a responsibility to analyze proxy issues and vote in a way consistent with those financial interests. In the case of social and political responsibility issues which do not involve financial considerations, it is not possible to fairly represent the diverse views of the Fund's stockholders, and thus, Seligman abstains from voting on these issues. Notwithstanding the above, proposals seeking disclosure of certain matters relating to social and political issues may be supported if such disclosure is not deemed to be unduly burdensome.

THE PROXY VOTING PROCESS. Proxies for securities held in the portfolios of the Fund will be received, processed and voted by Seligman pursuant to the guidelines (the "Guidelines") established by Seligman's Proxy Voting Committee (the "Committee").

The Committee has been established to set policy and guidelines, to review on a periodic basis new corporate governance issues as they arise, to assist in determining how Seligman will respond to such issues and to provide oversight of the proxy voting process. The Committee is chaired by Seligman's Chief Investment Officer and includes Seligman's Vice Chairman and Seligman's General Counsel.

Seligman subscribes to a service offered by an independent third party which provides a summary and analysis of the proposals to be acted upon at stockholder meetings of most of companies for which securities are held. Seligman also subscribes to a separate service to assist in the tracking and recordkeeping of proxies. Neither service offers voting recommendations.

CONFLICTS OF INTERESTS. Seligman's Director of Compliance maintains a Proxy Watch List, which contains the names of those companies that may present the potential for conflict in the voting process with Seligman, Seligman Advisors, Inc. or any affiliate thereof. For example, the Proxy Watch List will include those portfolio companies for which Seligman separately manages assets in private accounts or which are significant distributors of Seligman's products and services. As described below, proxy voting for these companies will be subject to a higher level of consideration.

DEVIATIONS FROM GUIDELINES AND SPECIAL SITUATIONS. Seligman recognizes that it may not always be in the best interest of the stockholders of the Fund to vote in accordance with the Guidelines on a particular issue and in such circumstances may deviate from the Guidelines. Any deviation from the Guidelines must be approved by a member of the Committee. Furthermore, any deviation of the Guidelines for a company which is included on the Proxy Watch List must be approved by a majority of the Committee's members.

Similarly, for those proposals which are of a unique nature that they must be analyzed on a case-by-case basis, one member of the Committee must approve the voting decision. Where such a proposal is for a company included on the Proxy Watch List, the voting decision must be approved by a majority of the Committee's members. In analyzing potential deviations from the Guidelines and proposals evaluated on a case-by-case basis, Seligman may consider the views of the management of a portfolio company, as well as the view of Seligman's investment professionals.

GUIDELINES SUMMARY. The Guidelines are briefly described as follows:

1. Seligman votes with the recommendations of a company's board of directors on general corporate governance issues such as changing the company's name, ratifying the appointment of auditors and procedural matters relating to stockholder meetings.
2. Seligman opposes, and supports the elimination of, anti-takeover proposals, including those relating to classified Boards, supermajority votes, poison pills, issuance of blank check preferred and establishment of classes with disparate voting rights.
3. Seligman abstains from voting on issues relating to social and/or political responsibility, except for matters relating to disclosure issues if not deemed unduly burdensome for the company (e.g., political contributions).
4. Seligman votes for stock option plans or to increase the number of shares under existing stock option plans provided that the overall dilution of all active stock option plans and stock purchase plans does not exceed 10% on a fully diluted basis and are otherwise considered to align the interest of the company with those of stockholders, e.g., all such plans must specifically prohibit repricing.
5. Seligman generally votes with the recommendations of a company's board of directors on other matters relating to executive compensation, unless considered excessive.
6. Seligman will withhold voting for the entire board of directors if: (a) less than 75% of the board is independent; (b) the board has a nominating or compensation committee of which less than 75% of its members are independent; (c) the board has recommended stockholders vote for an anti-takeover device which Seligman votes against; or (d) the board has recommended a matter relating to a stock option plan or stock purchase plan which Seligman votes against.
7. Seligman will vote for proposals relating to the authorization of additional common stock up to 5 times that currently outstanding.
8. Seligman will vote for proposals to effect stock splits.
9. Seligman will vote for proposals authorizing stock repurchase programs.
10. Seligman will vote against authorization to transact unidentified business at the meeting.
11. Acquisitions, mergers, reorganizations, reincorporations and other similar transactions will be voted on a case-by-case basis.
12. Proposals to amend a company's charter or by-laws (other than as identified above) will be voted on a case-by-case basis.
13. Seligman will vote against all proposals where the company did not provide adequate information to make a decision.
14. Seligman abstains from voting shares which have recently been sold or for which information was not received on a timely basis.
