turnaround services. Pursuant to the agreement, TRA will provide a situational assessment of the Registrant's financial condition with particular reference to assessment of immediate and short term cash needs and securing of bridge financing, control of immediate and pending expenditures, and reduction of the Registrant's cash burn while preserving corporate assets. Under the terms of the agreement, TRA will act as Chief Restructuring Officer to take responsibility for the Registrant's turnaround, commencing with the joint management of day to day operations. TRA will produce a detailed restructuring plan for presenting to the Registrant's Board of Directors, to satisfy both turnaround and growth objectives of the Registrant including capitalization alternatives and assessment of terminal value.

ITEM 4.01 CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On November 2, 2006, upon the authorization and approval of the audit committee of its board of directors, the Registrant engaged Peterson & Co. LLP ("Peterson") as its independent registered public accounting firm. No consultations occurred between the Registrant and Peterson during the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 and through November 2, 2006 regarding either (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction, the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Registrant's financial statements, or other information provided that was an important factor considered by the Registrant in reaching a decision as to an accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue, or (ii) any matter that was the subject of disagreement under Item 304(a)(1)(iv), or a reportable event requiring disclosure under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
