What are Shareholders being asked to vote on?

Shareholders are being asked to approve an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (a “Plan”) providing for the reorganization of each Fund listed below into the respective Acquiring Fund (each, a “Reorganization”).

Acquired Fund	Acquiring Fund	Board of Trustees Recommendation
Eaton Vance Ohio Municipal Income Trust	Eaton Vance Municipal Income Trust	“FOR”
Eaton Vance Pennsylvania Municipal Income Trust	Eaton Vance Municipal Income Trust	“FOR”
Eaton Vance Massachusetts Municipal Income Trust	Eaton Vance Municipal Income Trust	“FOR”

Eaton Vance Ohio Municipal Bond Fund	Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund	“FOR”
Eaton Vance New Jersey Municipal Bond Fund	Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund	“FOR”
Eaton Vance Pennsylvania Municipal Bond Fund	Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund	“FOR”
Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund II	Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund	“FOR”

What is happening?

Each Fund’s shareholders are being asked to consider a proposed Reorganization and approve a related Plan at a special meeting of shareholders scheduled to be held on December 20, 2018. The Board of Trustees of each Fund has approved the Plan. Under the terms of each Plan, common shares of the Funds will, in effect, be exchanged for new common shares of the relevant Acquiring Fund with an equal aggregate net asset value.

How will a Reorganization affect shareholders?

If the proposed Reorganizations are approved and completed, you will become a shareholder of the relevant Acquiring Fund, and the number of shares you receive will be based on the pre-Reorganization net asset value of your Fund shares.

How will a Reorganization affect the value of my shares?

The aggregate net asset value of each shareholder’s shares of an Acquiring Fund immediately after the Reorganization will be the same as the aggregate net asset value of such shareholder’s Fund shares immediately prior to the Reorganization. See below for information regarding potential benefits of the Reorganizations to Fund shareholders.

How do the investment objectives, policies and risks of the Funds compare?

Each Acquired Fund and its Acquiring Fund have similar investment objectives, policies, restrictions and risk profiles.

Each Fund invests primarily in municipal obligations the interest from which is exempt from federal income taxes, including the alternative minimum tax, although the Funds listed below (unlike their Acquiring Funds) also invest in municipal obligations the interest from which is exempt from applicable state taxes. Following a Reorganization, former shareholders of such Funds will lose favorable tax treatment in the particular state in which they reside.

Fund	Applicable State Taxes
Eaton Vance Ohio Municipal Bond Fund and Eaton Vance Ohio Municipal Income Trust	Ohio personal income tax
Eaton Vance New Jersey Municipal Bond Fund	New Jersey personal income tax
Eaton Vance Pennsylvania Municipal Bond Fund and Eaton Vance Pennsylvania Municipal Income Trust	Pennsylvania personal property taxes
Eaton Vance Massachusetts Municipal Bond Fund	Massachusetts state personal income tax

How will the Reorganizations benefit shareholders?

It is expected that common shareholders of each Fund would benefit from the Reorganizations because they would become common shareholders of a larger fund that has similar investment objectives and policies.

Following each Reorganization, the relevant Acquiring Fund would be expected to have a lower total expense ratio and higher net income per common share than the Fund currently (inclusive of the costs of IMTP (Institutional MuniFund Term Preferred Shares)), although the advisory fee rate currently paid by each Acquiring Fund is higher than that of the relevant Acquired Fund.

Fund shareholders are also expected to benefit from substantial continuity in management and administration following each proposed Reorganization. The proposed Reorganizations are intended to be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

How will the Reorganizations affect fees and expenses?

Following the Reorganizations, each Acquiring Fund is expected to have a lower total expense ratio and higher net income per common share than the relevant Fund currently (inclusive of the costs of IMTP *Institutional MuniFund Term Preferred Shares), although the annual advisory fee rate currently paid by each Acquiring Fund is higher than that of the relevant Acquired Fund.

Once the Reorganizations are completed, who will be the investment adviser of the Acquiring Funds?

Eaton Vance Management (“Eaton Vance”) is the investment adviser of each Fund and Acquiring Fund. Eaton Vance intends to manage each Acquiring Fund after the Reorganization in substantially the same manner as the relevant Fund and Acquiring Fund prior to the Reorganization, subject to any differences in strategies.

If shareholders approve the Plan, when will the Reorganizations take place?

If approved, the proposed Reorganizations would be expected to be completed as soon as practicable following the December 20, 2018 shareholder vote or later if the meeting is adjourned or postponed.

What happens if a Reorganization is not approved?

If the required approval of shareholders is not obtained, the Fund(s) will continue to engage in business and the Board of Trustees of such Fund(s) will consider what further action may be appropriate.

What are the federal income tax consequences of the Reorganizations?

The proposed Reorganizations are intended to be tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Who is paying for the costs of the Reorganizations?

The costs associated with the proposed Reorganizations are to be borne by the relevant Acquired Fund’s common shareholders. The costs associated with the proposed Reorganizations of the Eaton Vance Ohio Municipal Bond Fund, Eaton Vance New Jersey Municipal Bond Fund, Eaton Vance Pennsylvania Municipal Bond Fund and Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund II into Eaton Vance Municipal Bond Fund are also to be borne in part by Eaton Vance.
