Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

Effective as of June 8, 2010, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Century Aluminum Company (the “Company”) amended the Company’s Bylaws to, among other things:

- Update the advance-notice bylaw to provide that notices of stockholder-proposed business and director nominations for an annual meeting must be submitted at least 60 days but not more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary date of the prior year’s annual meeting, with certain limited exceptions. Notices of stockholder-proposed business and director nominations had previously been required to be submitted no less than 45 days prior to the date on which the Company first mailed its proxy materials for the previous year’s annual meeting.
- Provide that notices of stockholder-proposed director nominations for a special meeting called for the purpose of electing one or more directors must be submitted at least 60 days but not more than 90 days prior to the date of such special meeting, with certain limited exceptions.
- Require that a stockholder proponent fully disclose all ownership interests in the Company, including derivatives, voting arrangements, stock borrowing agreements, hedged positions and other economic and voting interests, as well as any other agreements and arrangements between the stockholder proponent and any other persons regarding the proposal.
- Require that director nominees for election or reelection make certain representations to the Company relating to voting commitments, compensation and other economic arrangements and future compliance with the Company’s corporate governance and other applicable policies and guidelines applicable to directors.
- Require that all information required to be provided in connection with a stockholder’s notice of proposed business and director nominations be updated so that it is accurate as of the record date and such date that is ten days prior to the date of the stockholder meeting.
  - Allow notice of the time and place of stockholder meetings to be given electronically.
- Provide the chairman of the board or the president with the express power to adjourn any meeting of the stockholders;
  - Provide for the appointment of inspectors of election at each stockholders' meeting; and
- Clarify the Company’s indemnification provisions, including that indemnification vests as of the date of commencement of service.

The foregoing summary of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the 2010 Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1, and is incorporated by reference.
