Articles of Incorporation Syngenta AG

1. Corporate Name, Registered Office, Purpose and Duration

Corporate name

Article 1

A company limited by shares is formed under the corporate name:

Registered office      Syngenta AG

Syngenta SA

Syngenta Ltd.

with its registered office in Basel.

---

Purpose

Article 2

1
Purpose of the Company is to hold interests in enterprises, particularly in the areas of agribusiness; in special circumstances the Company may directly operate such businesses.

The Company may acquire, mortgage, liquidate or sell real estate and intellectual property rights in Switzerland or abroad.

---

Duration

Article 3

The duration of the Company is unlimited.

---

2. Share Capital

Share capital

Article 4

1

The share capital of the Company is CHF 9,691,485.70, fully paid-in and divided into 96,914,857 registered shares. Each share has a par value of CHF 0.10.

Upon resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders registered shares may be converted into bearer shares and bearer shares may be converted into registered shares.

---

Shareholders' register and restrictions of registration, nominees

Article 5

1
The Company shall maintain a shareholders' register showing the name(s), first name(s), domicile, address and nationality (in the case of legal entities the registered office) of the holders or usufructuaries of registered shares. Holders who may exercise the voting rights of shares which they do not own will be mentioned upon request in the notes of the shareholders' register in case their entitlement is based on law (legal usufructuary, mandatory legal representative of a minor and so forth).

Upon request acquirers of registered shares are registered in the shareholders' register as shareholders with the right to vote, provided that they declare explicitly to have acquired the registered shares in their own name and for their own account.

After hearing the registered shareholder or nominee, the Board of Directors may cancel, with retroactive effect as of the date of registration, the registration of shareholders or nominees if the registration was effected based on false information. The respective shareholder or nominee shall be informed immediately of such cancellation.

The Board of Directors shall specify the details of registration in specific rules which take into account market practice in all of those markets where shares of the Company are listed. In particular, irrespective of the restriction set forth in Article 5 paragraph 2 above, the Board of Directors may, based on separate regulations or individual agreements, allow the entry into the shareholders' register as shareholders with voting rights of nominees that are subject to a recognized banking or financial market supervision.

---

-----
Dematerialized shares

Article 6

1
Each shareholder may at any time request the Company to confirm the number of registered shares owned by the respective shareholder. The shareholders are not entitled, however, to demand the printing and delivery of certificates representing shares.

By contrast, the Company may at any time print and deliver certificates representing shares and, with the consent of the owner of issued certificates, cancel issued share certificates upon their return to the Company. Certificates for multiple shares may be exchanged at any time for smaller portions or individual share certificates.

Registered shares not represented by a certificate may only be transferred by way of assignment including all rights connected with the transferred shares. To be valid, the assignment must be notified to the Company. Registered shares not represented by a certificate which a bank has been instructed by the shareholder to hold may only be transferred with the cooperation of that bank.

Registered shares not represented by a certificate may only be pledged to the bank which handles the book entries of such shares for the shareholder, and only based on a written pledge agreement. A notification of the Company is not necessary.

---

Exercise of rights

Article 7

1
The shares are not divisible. The Company accepts only one representative per share.

The right to vote and the other rights associated with a share may only be exercised by a shareholder, a usufructuary or a nominee who is registered as a shareholder with the right to vote in the shareholders' register.

---

3. Corporate Bodies

A. General Meeting of Shareholders

Competence

Article 8

The General Meeting of Shareholders is the supreme body of the Company.

---

Ordinary General Meeting

Article 9

The Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held each year within six months after the close of the fiscal year of the Company; at the latest twenty days before the meeting the business report, the report of the auditors and the report of the group auditors shall be made available for inspection by the shareholders at the registered office of the Company or be sent to all registered shareholders.

---

Extraordinary General Meeting

Article 10

1
Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders shall take place upon request of the Board of Directors or the Auditors.

Furthermore, Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders shall be convened upon resolution of a General Meeting of Shareholders or if it is requested by one or more shareholders who are representing in the aggregate not less than one tenth of the share capital and submit a petition signed by such shareholder or shareholders specifying the items for the agenda and the proposals.

---

Convening of General Meetings

Article 11

1

General Meetings of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors, or, if necessary, by the Auditors, at the latest twenty days before the date of the meeting. The meeting shall be convened by way of a notice appearing once in the official publication organs of the Company. Registered shareholders may also be informed by mail.

The notice of a meeting shall state the items on the agenda and the proposals of the Board of Directors, and as the case may be of the shareholders who demanded that a General Meeting of Shareholders be convened or that a certain item be included in the agenda and, in case of elections, the names of the nominated candidates.

---

Agenda

Article 12

1
One or more shareholders whose combined shareholdings represent an aggregate nominal value of at least CHF 10,000.– may demand that an item be included in the agenda of a General Meeting of Shareholders. Such a demand must be made in writing at the latest sixty days before the meeting and shall specify the items and the proposals of such shareholder.

No resolution shall be passed at a General Meeting of Shareholders on matters for which no proper notice was given. This provision shall not apply to proposals to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or to initiate a special audit.

---

Presiding officer, minutes, vote counters

Article 13

1
The General Meeting of Shareholders shall take place at the registered office of the Company, unless the Board of Directors decides otherwise. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or in his absence the Vice-Chairman or any other Member of the Board of Directors designated by the Board of Directors shall take the chair.

The presiding officer shall appoint a secretary and the vote counters. The presiding officer and the secretary shall sign the minutes.

---

Proxies

Article 14

1
The Board of Directors shall provide for the rules regarding the participation and the representation at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

A shareholder may only be represented by his legal representative, another shareholder with the right to vote, proxies designated in agreements with or regulations relating to nominees, corporate bodies (Organvertreter), independent proxies (unabhängige Stimmrechtsvertreter) or by a bank or a broker (Depotvertreter).

The Chairman of the General Meeting decides whether a proxy will be accepted.

---

Voting rights

Article 15

Each share entitles the holder to one vote.

---

Resolutions, election

Article 16

1

Unless the law requires otherwise, the General Meeting passes resolutions and elections with the absolute majority of the votes represented.

2

Resolutions and elections shall be taken either on a show of hands or by electronic voting, unless the General Meeting of Shareholders decides for, or the presiding officer orders, a ballot.

The presiding officer may at any time have an election or resolution taken on a show of hands or electronically repeated by a ballot, if the results of the first vote appear unclear. In such case, the preceding election or resolution taken on a show of hands or electronically is deemed not to have taken place.

In case of elections, if no valid election has been made in the first vote and if there is more than one candidate, the presiding officer shall order a second vote in which the relative majority shall be decisive.

---

Powers of the General Meeting

Article 17

The following powers shall be vested exclusively in the General Meeting:

- a) to adopt and amend the Articles of Incorporation;
  - b) to elect the members of the Board of Directors, the Auditors and the Group Auditors;
  - c) to approve the annual report and the consolidated financial statements;
  - d) to approve the annual financial statements and to decide on the allocation of profits shown on the balance sheet, in particular with regard to dividends;
  - e) to discharge the members of the Board of Directors and the senior management;
  - f) to pass resolutions concerning all matters which by law or the Articles of Incorporation are reserved to the authority of the General Meeting.

Special quorum

Article 18

The approval of the least two thirds of the votes represented is required for resolutions of the General Meeting of

Shareholders on:

- a) an alteration of the purpose of the Company;
  - b) the creation of shares with increased voting powers;
  - c) an implementation of restrictions on the transfer of registered shares and the removal of such restrictions;
  - d) an authorized or conditional increase of the share capital;

- e) an increase of the share capital made through a transformation of reserves, by contribution in kind, for the purpose of an acquisition of property and the grant of special rights;
  - f) a restriction or suspension of preemptive rights;
  - g) a change of location of the registered office of the Company;
  - h) the dissolution of the Company without liquidation.

B. Board of Directors

Number of Directors

Article 19

The Board of Directors shall consist of a maximum of twelve members who shall be shareholders.

---

Term of office

Article 20

1

The term of office for each member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed three years. A year within the meaning of this provision is the interval between two Ordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The term of office shall be determined for each member at the occasion of its election. The several terms of office shall be co-ordinated so that in each year approximately one third of all members of the Board of Directors shall be subject to re-election or election.

In the case of replacement elections that occur during a term of office of a director, the successor shall assume the term of office of his predecessor. Members of the Board of Directors whose term of office has expired shall be re-eligible, subject to paragraph 3 hereinafter.

The members of the Board of Directors shall automatically retire after the lapse of the twelfth year of office or, if earlier, after the expiry of the seventieth year of age, provided that the retirement shall become effective on the date of the next Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders following such event.

---

Organization of the Board, remuneration

Article 21

1

The Board of Directors shall elect its Chairman and one Vice-Chairman from among its members. It shall appoint a secretary who need not be a member of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall determine the remuneration of its members.

---

Convening of meetings

Article 22

The Chairman shall convene meetings of the Board of Directors if and when the need arises or if a member so requires in writing.

---

Resolutions

Article 23

The Board of Directors may lay down rules on its decision-making mechanism in the rules governing its organization.

---

Power of the Board of Directors

Article 24

1
The Board of Directors has in particular the following nontransferable and inalienable duties:

- a) the ultimate direction of the business of the Company and the giving of the necessary directives;
- b) the determination of the organization of the Company;
- c) the administration of accounting, financial control and financial planning;
- d) the appointment and removal of the persons entrusted with the management and representation of the Company;
- e) the ultimate supervision of the persons entrusted with the management of the Company, specifically in view of their compliance with the law, the Articles of Incorporation, regulations and directives;
- f) the preparation of business reports and the General Meetings of Shareholders and the carrying out of the resolutions adopted by the General Meetings of Shareholders;
- g) the notification of the court if liabilities exceed assets;
- h) the adoption of resolutions concerning the increase of the share capital to the extent that such power is vested in the Board of Directors (Article 651 paragraph 4 of the Code of Obligations), as well as resolutions concerning the confirmation of capital increases and respective amendments to the Articles of Incorporation;
- i) the examination of the professional qualifications of qualified auditors.

2 In addition the Board of Directors may pass resolutions with respect to all matters which are not reserved to the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders by law or by these Articles of Incorporation.

---

Delegation of powers, organizational rules

Article 25

1
The Board of Directors may, subject to Article 24 hereof, delegate the management of the Company in whole or in part to individual or several directors or to third persons (senior management) in accordance with rules governing the internal organization.

The rules governing the internal organization shall be enacted by the Board of Directors and shall determine the powers and organization of the Board of Directors and the competencies and duties of the senior management.

---

Signature power

Article 26

The Board of Directors determines those of its members as well as those third persons who shall have signatory power for the Company and shall further determine the manner in which such persons may sign on behalf of the Company.

C. Auditors and Group Auditors

Term, powers and duties

Article 27

The Auditors and the Group Auditors, both of which shall be elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders each year, shall have the powers and duties vested in them by law.

---

Special auditor

Article 28

The General Meeting of Shareholders may elect for a term of up to three years a special auditor to perform the special audits required (according to Articles 652f, 653f, and 653i of the Code of Obligations) in connection with capital increases.

---

4. Annual Financial Statements, Consolidated Financial Statements and Profit Allocation

Fiscal year

Article 29

The Board of Directors determines the fiscal year.

---

Business report

Article 30

The Board of Directors shall prepare for each fiscal year a business report consisting of the annual financial statements for the Company and on a consolidated level (including profit and loss statements, balance sheet and notes to the financial statements) and the annual report. The Board of Directors shall determine the currency in which the consolidated financial statements are reported.

---

Allocation of profit shown on the balance sheet, reserves

Article 31

1

The General Meeting of Shareholders subject to the legal provisions shall determine the allocation of profit shown on the balance sheet. The Board of Directors shall submit its proposals to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

In addition to statutory reserves, additional reserves may be accrued.

3

Dividends not claimed within five years after the due date shall remain with the Company and be allocated to the general reserves.

---

5 Publications and Place of Jurisdiction

Publications

Article 32

Shareholder communications of the Company shall be made in the Swiss Commercial Gazette. The Board of Directors may designate additional forms of publication and shall assure that shareholders in all jurisdictions where the shares of the Company are listed are treated equally.

---

Place of jurisdiction

Article 33

The place of jurisdiction for any disputes arising from or in connection with the shareholdership in the Company shall be at the registered office of the Company.

---
