Ivanhoe Mines amends shareholders' rights plan

VANCOUVER, CANADA – The Board of Directors of Ivanhoe Mines Ltd. announced today that it has amended the shareholders' rights plan previously adopted on April 5, 2010. The amendments to the plan can be summarized as follows:

the definition of "Acquiring Person" has been revised to enable a person who becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the common shares through a combination of listed provisions to acquire an additional 1% of Ivanhoe's shares without triggering the plan;

the definition of "Beneficial Ownership" has been revised to delete the reference to ownership by way of "Derivative Contracts";

the definition of "Exempt Acquisition" has been revised to cap the exemption for issuances under incentive plans and to modify the provision related to permitted treasury issuances; and the shareholder approval provision has been revised to clarify that separate shareholder approvals of the plan will exclude both "Acquiring Persons" and "Grandfathered Persons".

The amended plan currently is in effect, subject to confirmation through a vote of shareholders at Ivanhoe Mines annual general and special meeting to be held in Vancouver May 7, 2010.

The Toronto Stock Exchange has accepted notice of the amended plan, subject to, among other conditions, confirmation by Ivanhoe's shareholders.

The complete text of the amended plan will be available for public viewing at the System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (SEDAR) via the Internet at www.sedar.com, or upon request from Ivanhoe Mines.
