Proposed Merger Goes To Washington
George Paz Testifies Before House Judiciary Committee

The following is a message from George Paz, chairman & CEO posted on the Express Scripts, Inc. employee website.

As we move forward with our merger with Medco, we will have a number of opportunities to explain why combining our companies will benefit our country and our clients. One of those took place Tuesday as I testified before the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Intellectual Property, Competition and the Internet.

It was an exceptional opportunity for me to tell a story that you all know well: how Express Scripts is improving the health of Americans by making the use of prescription drugs safe, affordable and accessible.

Our merger with Medco, if ultimately approved, would accelerate our ability to do what we've always done, but importantly, it also would provide us new ways to bring innovative solutions to clients and patients.

Taking our combined capabilities and applying it to America's biggest issue—the rising cost of healthcare—is a noble cause that we are all proud to pursue. It was an honor to represent each of you and what your work represents in our never-ending commitment to serving patients.

We know that Congress wants to understand how combining two leading pharmacy benefit managers is in the public's best interest. On Tuesday, Medco CEO David Snow and I explained in great detail the important role of PBMs, the possibilities inherent in bringing our companies together and outlined specifics on the ways we can drive out waste, bring down costs and improve outcomes.

We will create more efficiency in the supply chain and achieve greater adherence to medical therapies through combining our behavioral and clinical approaches. In addition, we can use our collective expertise to better manage the cost and care associated with specialty medications, enhance our mail pharmacy technology, and accelerate the research, development and deployment of trend-management solutions to address inefficiencies in the marketplace. The bottom line is this: Clients and patients benefit from mergers that provide enhanced efficiencies and capabilities. Bringing Express Scripts and Medco together will achieve this in a very competitive marketplace. We look forward to moving ahead as a combined organization to provide our invaluable services to the nation.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This material may include forward-looking statements, both with respect to us and our industry, that reflect our current views with respect to future events and financial performance. Statements that include the words expect, intend, plan, believe, project, anticipate, will, may, would and similar statements of a future or forward may be used to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements address matters that involve risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in such statements and, therefore, you should not place undue reliance on any such statements. We believe that these factors include, but are not limited to, the following:

STANDARD OPERATING FACTORS

Our ability to remain profitable in a very competitive marketplace is dependent upon our ability to attract and retain clients while maintaining our margins, to differentiate our products and services from others in the marketplace, and to develop and cross sell new products and services to our existing clients;

Our failure to anticipate and appropriately adapt to changes in the rapidly changing health care industry;

Changes in applicable laws or regulations, or their interpretation or enforcement, or the enactment of new laws or regulations, which apply to our business practices (past, present or future) or require us to spend significant resources in order to comply;

Changes to the healthcare industry designed to manage healthcare costs or alter healthcare financing practices;

Changes relating to our participation in Medicare Part D, the loss of Medicare Part D eligible members, or our failure to otherwise execute on our strategies related to Medicare Part D;

A failure in the security or stability of our technology infrastructure, or the infrastructure of one or more of our key vendors, or a significant failure or disruption in service within our operations or the operations of such vendors;

Our failure to effectively execute on strategic transactions, or to integrate or achieve anticipated benefits from any acquired businesses;

The termination, or an unfavorable modification, of our relationship with one or more key pharmacy providers, or significant changes within the pharmacy provider marketplace;

The termination, or an unfavorable modification, of our relationship with one or more key pharmaceutical manufacturers, or the significant reduction in payments made or discounts provided by pharmaceutical manufacturers;

Changes in industry pricing benchmarks;

Results in pending and future litigation or other proceedings which would subject us to significant monetary damages or penalties and/or require us to change our business practices, or the costs incurred in connection with such proceedings;

Our failure to execute on, or other issues arising under, certain key client contracts;

The impact of our debt service obligations on the availability of funds for other business purposes, and the terms and our required compliance with covenants relating to our indebtedness; our failure to attract and retain talented employees, or to manage succession and retention for our Chief Executive Officer or other key executives;

TRANSACTION-RELATED FACTORS

Uncertainty as to whether Express Scripts, Inc. (Express Scripts) will be able to consummate the mergers with Medco Health Solutions, Inc. (Medco) on the terms set forth in the merger agreement;

The ability to obtain governmental approvals of the mergers;

Uncertainty as to the market value of Express Scripts merger consideration to be paid and the stock component of the Medco merger consideration;

Failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the mergers, including as a result of a delay in completing the mergers or a delay or difficulty in integrating the businesses of Express Scripts and Medco;

Uncertainty as to the long-term value of Express Scripts Holding Company (currently known as Aristotle Holding, Inc.) common shares;

Limitation on the ability of Express Scripts and Express Scripts Holding Company to incur new debt in connection with the transaction;

The expected amount and timing of cost savings and operating synergies; and

Failure to receive the approval of the stockholders of either Express Scripts or Medco for the mergers.

The foregoing review of important factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included herein and elsewhere, including the risk factors included in Express Scripts' most recent reports on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q and the risk factors included in Medco's most recent reports on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q and other documents of Express Scripts, Express Scripts Holding Company and Medco on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Any forward-looking statements made in this material are qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements, and there can be no assurance that the actual results or developments anticipated by us will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to, or effects on, us or our business or operations. Except to the extent required by applicable law, we undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
