Re: Carl Icahn

Yesterday we received notice from a company owned by Carl Icahn of his intention to initiate a proxy contest and to nominate three candidates in opposition to CMC's slate of candidates for election to our company's Board of Directors at the 2012 Annual Meeting of Stockholders in January. Mr. Icahn owns shares representing beneficial ownership of 9.98% of our outstanding shares.

We were not surprised by Mr. Icahn's announcement, and, should he remain true to past practices in similar situations, we can expect additional actions from Mr. Icahn aimed at furthering his agenda. We do not find his actions to be alarming, but, rather, normal-course, and we are prepared to both consider any recommendations provided by Mr. Icahn that are in the best interests all of our stockholders, as well as prevail against those that are not.

We will keep you apprised as of Mr. Icahn's actions and CMC's responses, but, regardless of these events, we should all maintain our focus on our customers and running the business. Events surrounding a proxy contest can cause distractions to the business; therefore it is vitally important that we not let them distract us from our individual and group business challenges and goals. Our continued focus on profitability and achieving our business plan presents the best benefit to our stockholders and employees.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe Alvarado
