Item 8.01 Other Events.

As announced on November 1, 2011, Legacy Reserves Operating, LP, the wholly owned operating subsidiary of Legacy Reserves LP (Legacy), entered into an agreement to purchase natural gas properties located in Fremont County, Wyoming for $45 million in cash. The closing of the acquisition is currently anticipated to occur on or about December 1, 2011 and is subject to customary closing conditions, including title and environmental due diligence, and purchase price adjustments.

On November 9, 2011, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) released new data in its ongoing investigation of the groundwater in Pavillion, Fremont County, Wyoming from domestic and monitoring wells installed in 2010. The EPA anticipates releasing a draft research report in late November, with the goal of releasing a final report in early spring.

Legacy is currently evaluating the impact of the EPA s recent findings on its proposed acquisition of the natural gas properties in Fremont County, Wyoming, including any environmental indemnities available under the purchase agreement. There is no assurance that this pending acquisition will be consummated.
