Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

XP-II and XP-I expended approximately $393,439.84 and $320,937.36, respectively, of their own investment capital to acquire the 2,100,000 and 1,885,229 shares of Common Stock held by them, respectively.

XP-II and XP-I effect purchases of securities primarily through margin accounts maintained for them with Bear, Stearns Securities Corp., which may extend margin credit to them as and when required to open or carry positions in the margin accounts, subject to applicable Federal margin regulations, stock exchange rules and the firm's credit policies. In such instances, the positions held in the margin accounts are pledged as collateral security for the repayment of debit balances in the accounts.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

XP-II and XP-I are engaged in the investment business, and the purpose of the acquisition of the shares of Common Stock by XP-II and XP-I is for investment. XCP and Mr. Arbess, as the investment managers of XP-II and XP-I, will analyze the operations, capital structure, financial performance and markets of companies, including the Issuer, on a continuous basis through analysis of documentation and discussions with knowledgeable industry and market participants, observers and analysts and with representatives of such companies (often at the invitation of management). From time to time, one or more of such Reporting Persons may hold discussions with third parties or with management of such companies or participate in committees of stakeholders in such companies in which the Reporting Persons may suggest or take a position with respect to potential changes in the operations, management or capital structure of such companies as a means of enhancing the value of the investments of their managed entities. Such suggestions or positions may relate to one or more of the transactions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, including, without limitation, such matters as disposing of or selling all or a portion of the company or acquiring another company or business, changing operating or marketing strategies, adopting or not adopting certain types of anti-takeover measures and restructuring the company's capitalization or dividend policy.

Without limiting the foregoing, XCP may seek representation on the Official Committee of Equity Security Holders that Judge Allan J. Gropper directed the United States Trustee to appoint on May 4, 2006 in the Issuer's chapter 11 cases (In re Oneida Ltd., et al., Ch. 11 Case No. 06-10489-alg (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.)) pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 1102(a)(1). XCP intends to seek to ensure fair treatment of the Issuer's minority shareholders and that the Issuer's estate value is maximized for the benefit of all stakeholders, not just existing creditors and the majority shareholders. XCP intends to continue to advocate for a fair opportunity to investigate whether the Issuer's pre-negotiated plan of reorganization with certain of its creditors reflects fair valuation and treatment of minority shareholders, and if not may present an alternative valuation case.

On July 11, 2006, XCP and Laminar entered into a Letter of Intent with the Issuer (the Agreement) with respect to the potential acquisition by a company controlled by XCP and its affiliates, and/or Laminar and certain of its affiliates or designees of 100% of the equity interests of the Issuer as reorganized under a confirmed plan of reorganization under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. The Agreement is subject to the terms and conditions contained therein. Solely as a result of the Agreement, XCP and Laminar may be deemed to be a group for the reporting purposes of this Schedule 13D. The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit C hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

Except as set forth herein, the Reporting Persons do not have any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to formulate plans or make proposals, and take such actions with respect to their investments in the Issuer, including any or all of the actions specified in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

We hereby request that the Company confirm its undertaking to pursue such a transaction substantially on the terms described in Annex A and below (the Proposed Transaction ) by signing and returning a copy of this letter to the senders at the address noted above by 11:59 p.m. EST on July 13, 2006. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein (or in Annex A) shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Current Plan (defined in Annex A hereto)

Please be advised that we already have conducted due diligence on the Company's business (the Business ) based on publicly available information and are otherwise accordingly relatively familiar with the business, operations and management of the Business. We believe that our follow-up due diligence could be swiftly completed and that we can immediately commence the negotiation of the definitive purchase or funding agreement and other related and ancillary documents with respect to the Proposed Transaction (collectively, the Definitive Agreement ). We also note that we have the requisite funding to consummate the Proposed Transaction and that our proposal is not subject to any financing conditions.

Based upon the publicly available information concerning the Business, we believe that the Proposed Transaction could be consummated on the terms set forth in Annex A hereto and substantially as follows:

1. Limitations on Binding Obligations; No Prejudice. Other than as described in Sections 1 through 11 hereof and in the Access and Conduct of Business provisions of Annex A, this letter does not create any binding obligations and no binding commitment of the Company or Buyer to carry out the Proposed Transaction will be deemed to exist until and unless the Definitive Agreement described in Annex A has been duly executed and delivered, following which any commitment shall thereafter be subject to all conditions of the Definitive Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this proposal remains entirely subject to follow-up due diligence as determined by Buyer in its sole and absolute discretion, which due diligence Buyer expects to conduct during the period commencing on the date this letter is duly executed through and until the commencement of the proposed status conference, in the administratively consolidated chapter 11 bankruptcy cases of the Company and certain of its domestic subsidiaries (the Chapter 11 Cases ), with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the Bankruptcy Court ), on July 21, 2006, or as may otherwise be extended in writing by the parties hereto (the Due Diligence Period ).
2. Non-Disclosure. We and the Company shall as promptly as practicable enter into a confidentiality agreement containing customary terms and conditions reasonably acceptable to Buyer (the Confidentiality Agreement ).
3. Timing. We are prepared to move forward promptly and to devote the necessary resources toward a swift completion of our necessary due diligence and the execution of the Definitive Agreement. The Company shall provide access for such due diligence, as described under Access in Annex A during the Due Diligence Period.
4. Pre-Definitive Agreement Expense Reimbursement. If the Company receives any Competing Proposal (defined below) during the Due Diligence Period, and the Definitive Agreement is not entered into, upon the consummation of a Competing Proposal, the Company agrees that it shall reimburse as an administrative expense all of our reasonable, documented fees and expenses (including the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with our due diligence and negotiations incurred from and after July 11, 2006 through the date this letter is terminated up to a maximum of $250,000 (the Due Diligence Expenses ). If deemed necessary, the Company shall expeditiously seek an order of the Bankruptcy Court, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to us and Buyer, approving this letter, including the provisions above that such Due Diligence Expenses will be allowed administrative expense claims in the Chapter 11 Cases. The term Competing Proposal means a sale or disposition of all or any significant part of the Business, the Company's assets, or any equity or other securities or of any similar interest in the Company, whether through purchase, merger, consolidation, reorganization, rights offering, plan of reorganization or in any other manner other than pursuant to the Current Plan (as defined in Annex A).

5. Absolute Priority Rule. The Definitive Agreement will result in a plan of reorganization that, to the complete satisfaction of the Company, is confirmable under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, including under the absolute priority rule.
6. Expiration. This letter will expire at the conclusion of the Due Diligence Period if the Definitive Agreement is not executed by Buyer and the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company will be not be deemed to be in violation of this agreement or otherwise have acted in bad faith if, in its sole and absolute discretion, the Company elects not to enter into the Definitive Agreement because (i) in the good faith judgment of the Company's board of directors, the Definitive Agreement will not result in a plan of reorganization that is confirmable under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code (including under the absolute priority rule) or (ii) the official committee of equity security holders appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases has not given the Company and Buyer reasonable assurance that it will support the Proposed Plan.
7. Withdrawal of Objection to Plan Exclusivity. During the Due Diligence Period and, if the Definitive Agreement is entered into, during the time that such agreement is in effect, Laminar and Xerion will withdraw, without prejudice, their objections to the Company maintaining or extending the exclusive period during which the Company may file a chapter 11 plan pursuant to section 1121(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.
8. Transaction Fees and Expenses. Except as provided herein, we and the Company will each be responsible for our respective legal and due diligence expenses, financial advisory fees and other costs and expenses associated with performing under this letter.

9. Entire Agreement. This letter and Annex A (including Exhibit 1 thereto) constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede all prior oral or written agreements or understanding, if any, with respect hereto.
10. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This letter will be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of New York, without regard to conflict of law principles. The parties agree to submit to the initial jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court concerning any disputes arising hereunder.
11. Counterparts. This letter of intent may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original copy and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement.

We are very enthusiastic about this opportunity and look forward to a successful conclusion of the Proposed Transaction. We would like to note that we recognize and appreciate the efforts of management and the board of directors in achieving their success with the Business to date and look forward to working with management into the future.

Annex A

SUMMARY OF TERMS OF THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION

Form of Proposed Transaction:

The Proposed Transaction will result in the issuance by the Company to Buyer of 100% of the equity interest of Reorganized Oneida in consideration of the Purchase Price (defined below). Such transaction would occur through a plan funding agreement providing for substantially similar treatment as outlined in the Company's current plan of reorganization (the Current Plan), except that all claims, including the Secured Tranche B Claims, will be assumed or paid in full unless otherwise agreed to with a particular claimholder;<sup>11</sup> provided, however, that holders of the Secured PBGC Claim and the Unsecured PBGC Claims will receive substantially similar treatment as set forth in the Current Plan, unless otherwise agreed to or as determined by the Bankruptcy Court.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the letter agreement to the contrary, if the parties believe that the Proposed Transaction could be structured in manner consistent with the recovery set forth in the preceding paragraph, the parties will work together to structure the Proposed Transaction as a sale pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Consistent with the foregoing, Buyer reserves the right to structure the Proposed Transaction in a tax-effective manner, so as to preserve to the extent feasible the Company's current tax net operating losses (if not currently subject to restrictions on use due to a change of control or otherwise) or, in lieu thereof, to achieve a step-up in basis of the assets of the Business being acquired.

Buyer:

It is currently anticipated that during the period prior to the closing, Laminar and its affiliates will beneficially own more than 50% of Buyer's outstanding equity interests and Xerion will own up to the balance of the Buyer's outstanding equity interests.

<sup>11</sup> The Secured Tranche B Claims (plus all accrued and unpaid interest) will be paid in full, in cash.

Purchase Price:

Buyer will fund at least $222.5 million (the Purchase Price ) or otherwise an amount sufficient to pay in full, in cash, the Secured Tranche A Claims and the Secured Tranche B Claims, including any accrued and unpaid interest (including postpetition interest, fees, expenses and charges) not included in the foregoing plus the payment or assumption by Buyer of each of the following claims (as described and defined in the Current Plan):

1. Secured PBGC Claims (as set forth in the Current Plan, unless otherwise agreed or ordered by the Bankruptcy Court),
2. Administrative Claims (including, without limitation any fees or expenses in connection with the Exit Facility, which Buyer may keep, reject or replace in its sole and absolute discretion),
3. Priority Tax Claims,
4. Professional Fees,
5. all Obligations under the DIP Credit Agreement,
6. Other Secured Claims,
7. Other Priority Claims,
8. Specified Unsecured Claims, unless each holder of such claims agrees to a lesser or different treatment (with respect to the Unsecured PBGC Claims, as set forth in the Current Plan, unless otherwise agreed, or as ordered by the Bankruptcy Court),
9. General Unsecured Claims, and
10. amounts owed on account of the Company's preferred Equity Interests.

The Purchase Price assumes that, unless the parties otherwise agree, the Oneida Plan will be terminated and the Buffalo China Pension Plans will be retained.

Attached as Exhibit 1 hereto is the Company's estimate of the outstanding claims against the Company as of a proposed effective date (under the Current Plan) of July 29, 2006. Subject to Buyer's right to protest or challenge any claim not listed under the heading "Stipulated Amount" on Exhibit 1, Buyer shall assume or satisfy in full each claim, in its finally determined amount (except with respect to the PBGC Claim, which will be treated as set forth in the Current Plan, unless otherwise agreed or ordered by the Bankruptcy Court), including any claim that Buyer protests or otherwise challenges but is finally judicially determined by the Bankruptcy Court or finally determined by another court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the Current Plan (or as may otherwise be proposed by Buyer in the Proposed Plan to the extent the Company so agrees) to be a valid claim, unless the holder of such claim agrees to a different treatment or the Bankruptcy Court or other applicable court orders otherwise.

In addition, the parties contemplate that the Proposed Plan will include an element of consideration for the Company's common equity holders in connection with securing their approval of the Proposed Transaction and their withdrawal of any objections to the Plan as modified and consummated in accordance with this letter.

Upon signing of the Definitive Agreement, Buyer would provide a good faith deposit in an amount to be mutually agreed; provided such amount shall not be less than 5% of the cash component of the Purchase Price.

Working Capital Facility

Buyer shall ensure that the Company will have reasonably sufficient working capital following consummation of the Proposed Transaction (after assumption/satisfaction of all claims against the Company and payment of the cash portion of the Purchase Price).

Management Terms

Buyer currently contemplates working with management to finalize the terms of employment and the management incentive plan, in each case mutually agreeable to the parties.

Superior Proposals:

3. No later than the second business day following the execution of the Definitive Agreement, the Company will file with the Bankruptcy Court a motion seeking approval of the Definitive Agreement pursuant to an order reasonably acceptable to Buyer, which agreement and order will provide for customary auction procedures to consider superior proposals, including (x) customary bidding increments, reasonable break-up fee and expense reimbursement and good faith deposits and (y) the right to counter-bid and tender such fees and expense reimbursements.

4. The Company will obtain approval of the bid procedures order by the Bankruptcy Court as promptly as reasonably practicable.

Confirmation/Sale Order:

5. Confirmation of the Proposed Plan or, if applicable, sale order approved by the Bankruptcy Court (the Confirmation/ Sale Order ) will be in a form reasonably acceptable to the parties to the Definitive Agreement. The Company will obtain approval of such order as promptly as practicable following execution of the Definitive Agreement.

A-4

Conditions:

The Proposed Transaction will be conditioned upon:

- (a) the parties having negotiated, executed and delivered the Definitive Agreement on mutually acceptable terms;
- (b) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition, assets, business, or properties of the Company and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, subject to customary carve-outs related to the announcement of the Proposed Transaction and the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases;
- (c) customary releases and indemnification and exculpation provisions (including those contained in the Current Plan) in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code;
- (d) approvals or waivers from governmental authorities, including expiry of any waiting period under Hart-Scott-Rodino and the Confirmation/Sale Order being a final order; and
- (e) other reasonable customary closing conditions, including without limitation, the representations and warranties being true in all material respects and pre-closing covenants having been performed in all material respects.

Access:

The Company will permit Buyer and its agents and representatives reasonable access to its personnel, including all senior management personnel, properties, contracts, books and records, suppliers, customers and all other documents and data.

All information obtained by Buyer pursuant to such access shall be subject to the Confidentiality Agreement.

Conduct of Business:

The Company will conduct itself in a reasonable manner consistent in nature, scope and magnitude with its past practice and will only take actions usually taken in the ordinary course, including taking into account the Chapter 11 Cases.

Representations and Warranties; Covenants:

In the Definitive Agreement, the Company and Buyer will make customary representations and warranties and will provide customary covenants and other protections.

Buyer does not anticipate any material issues on the representations, warranties and covenants and would assume that, subject to due diligence, those contained in the proposed exit financing under the Current Plan would serve as a reasonable basis for those to be included in the Definitive Agreement.

Closing:

The closing and effectiveness will occur as soon as possible after receipt of any and all consents required in connection with the Proposed Transaction and the satisfaction of the other reasonable customary conditions to closing contained in the Definitive Agreement; provided, however, that the Definitive Agreement may be terminated and the Proposed Transaction may be abandoned if closing does not occur by the earlier of: (i) 90 days after the entry of the Confirmation/Sale Order; or (ii) December 31, 2006.
