3COM TO PROCEED WITH SHAREHOLDER MEETING ON MARCH 21, 2008
TO VOTE ON EXISTING MERGER AGREEMENT WITH BAIN CAPITAL PARTNERS

MARLBOROUGH, MASS. March 19, 2008 3Com Corporation (NASDAQ: COMS) today announced that it intends to proceed with its currently scheduled shareholder meeting on Friday, March 21, 2008, at 8 a.m. EDT at the company's headquarters located at 350 Campus Drive, Marlborough, Massachusetts 01752-3064, to enable 3Com shareholders to vote on the company's existing merger agreement with affiliates of Bain Capital Partners, LLC. The sole purpose of the special meeting is to conduct the shareholder vote. 3Com does not intend to hold a question-and-answer session in conjunction with the meeting.

The company intends to convene the shareholders' meeting in order to fulfill its commitments under the merger agreement, which include holding a shareholders' meeting, and to preserve its rights under the merger agreement, including its right to pursue a break-up fee under certain circumstances. The 3Com Board of Directors continues to recommend that 3Com shareholders vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Under the terms of the company's existing merger agreement with affiliates of Bain Capital Partners, 3Com shareholders would receive $5.30 in cash per share and 3Com would become a private company, wholly owned by affiliates of Bain Capital Partners. As part of the merger transaction, affiliates of Huawei Technologies would also acquire a minority interest in 3Com and become a commercial and strategic partner of the company.

3Com and affiliates of Bain Capital and Huawei Technologies made a joint voluntary filing with the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) in connection with the proposed merger transaction. The parties withdrew their joint filing after they were unable to reach a mitigation agreement with CFIUS to address concerns raised by CFIUS, and no application has been re-submitted to date.

Since the withdrawal, 3Com, Bain Capital Partners and Huawei Technologies have been working to construct alternatives that would address CFIUS' concerns. To date, the parties have been unable to agree upon an alternative transaction that addresses CFIUS' concerns and is acceptable to 3Com's Board of Directors.

While we remain committed to exploring alternatives that would enable us to complete the merger transaction contemplated by our existing merger agreement, we also remain confident in our long-term prospects said 3Com President and Chief Executive Officer, Edgar Masri. The company and our strategy, which attracted Bain Capital to 3Com in the first place, have not changed.

At the time they withdrew their joint application, the parties notified CFIUS that they would not go forward with the proposed transaction in the form presented to CFIUS, which included a minority investment by affiliates of Huawei Technologies in 3Com. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the parties will be able to close the merger transaction contemplated by the existing merger agreement, even if the merger agreement is approved by 3Com's shareholders. Additionally, there can be no assurance that the parties will reach agreement on an alternative transaction that both addresses concerns raised by CFIUS and is acceptable to 3Com.
