Upon such event, Nortel Networks may elect to receive Arris Group Common Stock, preferred stock (which may be convertible) or notes (which may be convertible), with an exchange of the New Membership Interest for Arris Group Common Stock determined at the then prevailing market value of the Arris Group Common Stock. Investor Nominee, and (b) less than 10% of the outstanding shares of Arris Group Common Stock, Nortel Networks will no longer be entitled to an Investor Nominee;

- o Nortel Networks will vote its shares of Arris Group Common Stock for the election of the slate of nominees proposed by the board of directors of Arris Group, provided that the Investor Nominees are included in such slate;
- o at least 60% of the members of the board of directors of Arris Group are to be unaffiliated with either Arris Group or Nortel Networks; and
- o the size of Arris Group's board of directors is currently 13 and without Nortel Networks' consent will not exceed 15 members.

The initial Investor Nominees of Nortel Networks are Vickie L. Yohe, President of the Established Carriers Business at Nortel Networks, and Craig A. Johnson, Vice President and Department Head, Global Mergers and Acquisitions for Nortel Networks.

Acquisition of Arris Group Securities.

The Investor Rights Agreement sets forth the following limitations on transactions related to the acquisition of securities of Arris Group: Nortel Networks will not (a) with limited exceptions, acquire or propose to acquire greater than 49.9% of the outstanding shares of Arris Group Common Stock; (b) propose or seek to effect any merger, business combination, restructuring, recapitalization or similar transaction involving Arris Group or any of its subsidiaries or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Arris Group or any of its subsidiaries; (c) deposit Arris Group voting securities into a voting trust, unless such voting trust provides that such shares will be voted consistent with the provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement; (d) except for the exercise by the Investor Nominees of their fiduciary duties, seek election to, seek to place a representative on, or seek the removal of any member of, the Arris Group board of directors; (e) engage in a proxy contest or solicitation; or (f) call a meeting of stockholders or seek stockholder approval of any action or participate in a group with other holders of Arris Group voting securities.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, Nortel Networks is authorized to participate in discussions or negotiations regarding the acquisition of Arris Group by an unaffiliated third party provided that such third-party's offer is for at least 90% of the outstanding shares of Arris Group Common Stock held by stockholders other than Nortel Networks, its affiliates or the third party (the "Unaffiliated Stockholders"). In addition, at least a majority of the shares of Arris Group Common Stock held by the Unaffiliated Stockholders must be tendered in the third-party offer.

In the event that Nortel Networks acquires more than 49.9% of the outstanding Arris Group Common Stock as a result of an acquisition of an unaffiliated business entity, Arris Group may require Nortel Networks to dispose of shares held by it or its affiliates in excess of 49.9%. Such disposition must be completed within 12 months after Arris Group issues a request. The Investor Rights Agreement allows Nortel Networks to acquire greater than 49.9% of the Arris Group Common Stock provided that it makes an offer to acquire at least 90% of the outstanding Arris Group Common Stock. In the event that Arris Group does not accept Nortel Networks' offer, Arris Group is required to initiate an auction process for the sale of Arris Group. If Nortel Networks is not the successful bidder in the auction or does not elect to participate in the auction and Arris Group has received a fairness opinion from a nationally recognized investment banking firm that the successful bidder's transaction provides the highest value to Arris Group or its stockholders of all of the bids in the auction, then Nortel Networks is obligated to vote in favor of the winning transaction in the auction and to tender its shares of Arris Group Common Stock. Except in conjunction with a permitted offer, Nortel Networks may not become a participant in the solicitation of proxies concerning any transaction relating to the voting securities of Arris Group. Nortel Networks has no current intention to acquire additional shares of Arris Group Common Stock. During the twelve month period ending in June 2002, Nortel Networks may, among other things sell a substantial percentage of the Arris Group Common Stock and to facilitate such sale, may exercise the demand registration rights described in this Item 6.

Disposition of Arris Group Common Stock.

The Investor Rights Agreement sets forth limitations on Nortel Networks' ability to sell or transfer any shares of Arris Group Common Stock, except a transfer to an affiliate of Nortel Networks. Nortel Networks may sell or transfer shares of Arris Group Common Stock only in the following transactions: (a) in a bona fide public offering effected in accordance with the Registration Rights Agreement (as defined below); (b) in a bona fide open market transaction as permitted by the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended; or (c) in a privately-negotiated transaction to either an institutional investor or any other person, provided that (i) Nortel Networks may not sell or transfer shares to any institutional investor if, after giving effect to the sale or transfer, such investor would own shares representing more than 10% of the outstanding voting power of Arris Group, and (ii) Nortel Networks may not sell or transfer shares to any other person, other than an institutional investor, unless such person agrees to be bound by the provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement which limit transactions and dispositions of Arris Group capital stock.

Right of Participation in the Sale of Arris Group.

Edgar Filing: ARRIS GROUP INC - Form SC 13D

The Investor Rights Agreement provides that as long as Nortel Networks beneficially owns Arris Group Common Stock representing at least 20% of the total voting power of Arris Group, Arris Group may not enter into, and the Arris Group board of directors shall not publicly recommend to its stockholders or approve, a definitive agreement providing for a change in control of Arris Group, unless prior thereto Nortel Networks is provided with notice of the proposed transaction and the opportunity to participate in the bidding process.

Termination.

The Investor Rights Agreement may be terminated by either Arris Group or Nortel Networks if:

- o a transaction as a result of a third-party offer is consummated;
- o the parties mutually agree in writing; or
- o at any time after Nortel Networks and its affiliates cease to own shares representing at least 10% of the total voting power of Arris Group.

Arris LLC Operating Agreement. Pursuant to the Arris LLC Operating Agreement, Nortel Networks Corporation may be required to, or under some circumstances may elect to, exchange its New Membership Interest for common stock, preferred stock (which may be convertible) or notes (which may be convertible) of Arris Group under limited circumstances. Shares of Arris Group Common Stock received by Nortel Networks Corporation upon the exchange of the New Membership Interest will be excluded from the provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement triggered upon Nortel Networks' ownership of more than 49.9% of the outstanding of Arris Group Common Stock. All other provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement will apply to any shares of Arris Group Common Stock received by Nortel Networks upon the exchange of the New Membership Interest.
