PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Company is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended October 30, 2004 on a timely basis because on December 8, 2004, the day prior to the required filing date, after consultation with its independent public accountants, the Company determined that it was required to change the presentation of its financial statements for the quarter to modify the method by which the Company accounts for tenant allowances received from landlords in connection with store construction.

The changes resulting from this determination are not expected to result in any modification to the net income, net sales or shareholders' equity numbers for the 13-week and 39-week periods ended October 30, 2004 previously released to the public on December 3, 2004. The sales and earnings guidance for the fourth quarter of 2004 that was issued on December 3, 2004 also remains unchanged. The Company anticipates filing the Form 10-Q no later than the expiration of the five-day extension period.

The Company will amend its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2004 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended May 1 and July 31, 2004 to restate the financial statements included in those reports as a result of the change in presentation to modify the method by which the Company accounts for tenant allowances received from landlords in connection with store construction.
