BIG LAKE FINANCIAL CORPORATION

PROPOSED MERGER YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida and Big Lake Financial Corporation have each unanimously agreed to the acquisition of Big Lake by Seacoast pursuant to the merger of Big Lake with and into Seacoast. Seacoast will be the surviving bank holding company following the merger.

If the merger is completed, each of your shares of Big Lake common stock (including the Big Lake Series A preferred stock which, according to its terms, will automatically convert on a one-for-one basis into Big Lake common stock upon a change in control) will be automatically converted into the right to receive an estimated 2.95427 shares of Seacoast common stock as described in this proxy statement-prospectus. Herein, shares of Big Lake common stock and Big Lake Series A preferred stock are collectively referred to as Big Lake Stock and shares of Seacoast common stock are referred to as Seacoast Stock. The closing price of Seacoast Stock on February 10, 2006, the last practicable trading date prior to mailing this proxy-statement prospectus, was $25.38. The implied value of the merger consideration is $74.98 per share of Big Lake Stock. The market price of Seacoast and Big Lake Stock will fluctuate. You should obtain current stock price quotations for common stock. Seacoast Stock is traded on The Nasdaq National Market under the symbol SBCF. Big Lake Stock is not traded on any organized market.

A special meeting of Big Lake shareholders will be held at 1409 S. Parrott Avenue, Okeechobee, Florida on March 16, 2006 at 4:15 P.M. Eastern Standard Time. At the meeting or any adjournments and postponements, you will be asked to approve the merger provided by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 22, 2005, by and between Seacoast and Big Lake, which we refer to in this proxy statement-prospectus as the merger agreement. Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Big Lake common stock and Big Lake Series A preferred stock, voting together as a single class, and approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Big Lake's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger and urges you to sign and date the enclosed proxy and return it promptly in the enclosed envelope to make sure that your vote is counted. If you attend the meeting, you may vote in person, even if you have already returned your proxy. Seacoast shareholders are not required to approve the merger.

You should read this entire proxy statement-prospectus carefully because it contains important information about the merger. In particular, you should read carefully the information under the section entitled Risk Factors, beginning on page 9.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulators have approved or disapproved of the securities to be issued in the merger or determined if this document is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The shares of Seacoast Stock to be issued in the merger are not deposits or savings accounts or other obligations of any bank or savings association, and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.

This proxy statement-prospectus is dated February 14, 2006, and is first being mailed to Big Lake shareholders on or about February 15, 2006.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to approve the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of Big Lake with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast as the surviving corporation in the merger. Subsequently, Big Lake Bank will be merged with and into First National.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The Big Lake special meeting will be held at 1409 S. Parrott Avenue, Okeechobee, Florida, on March 16, 2006 at 4:15 P.M. Eastern Standard Time.

Q: How does my board of directors recommend I vote on the merger?

A: The board of directors of Big Lake unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

Q: Why is my board of directors recommending that I vote for approval of the merger agreement?

A: Our board of directors believes the merger is a unique strategic opportunity to combine with Seacoast, which is expected to create greater value for our shareholders, expand the range of products and services available to our customers while maintaining our service culture, and expand the career opportunities for our employees. Our financial advisor also has opined that the consideration to be received by our shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view.

Q: Why is this proxy statement-prospectus being sent to Big Lake shareholders?

A: This document is being provided by Big Lake and Seacoast to provide you with information regarding the proposed merger, the Big Lake special meeting, the respective companies and the Seacoast Stock you will receive in the merger. The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the board of directors of Big Lake for use at the special meeting of Big Lake shareholders.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each share of Big Lake common stock issued and outstanding that you hold immediately prior to the merger's effective time (including the Big Lake Series A preferred stock which, according to its terms, will automatically convert to common stock on a one-for-one basis upon effectiveness of the merger), other than shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised, will be automatically converted, at the effective time, into the right to receive shares of Seacoast Stock at an exchange ratio of 2.95427 shares of Seacoast Stock for each share of Big Lake common stock. This exchange ratio assumes that all 3,832 outstanding Big Lake stock options are exercised at the closing of the merger. The total number of shares of Seacoast Stock issuable in the merger to all holders of Big Lake common stock is 1,775,000 shares.

You will not receive any fractional shares of Seacoast Stock that would be issuable as a result of the merger. Instead, you will be paid cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the fraction of a share of Seacoast Stock otherwise issuable upon conversion, multiplied by the closing price of Seacoast's common stock on The Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day preceding the effective time of the merger.

The holders of all outstanding options on Big Lake common stock have agreed to exercise such options prior to the closing of the merger.

Q: What if I own Big Lake preferred stock?

A: Pursuant to its terms, each share of Big Lake Series A preferred stock will automatically convert into one share of Big Lake common stock immediately prior to the merger. Such shares, other than shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised, will be automatically converted into shares of Seacoast Stock at the effective time, as described above.

Table of Contents

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the Big Lake special meeting?

A: Big Lake shareholders of record at the close of business on January 18, 2006, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and to vote on the approval of the merger agreement at the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. However, a Big Lake shareholder may only vote his or her shares if he or she is either present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: Each share of Big Lake Stock that you own as of the record date entitles you to one vote. On January 18, 2006, there were 576,709 outstanding shares of Big Lake common stock and 20,283 outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock.

Q: How many votes are needed to approve the merger?

A: A majority of the outstanding shares of Big Lake's common stock and preferred stock, voting together as a class, must vote in favor of the merger agreement in order for it to be approved.

Each of the directors and executive officers of Big Lake individually have entered into an agreement with Seacoast to vote their shares of Big Lake Stock in favor of the merger agreement and against any competing proposal. As of January 18, 2006, Big Lake directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned approximately 42% of the shares of Big Lake's outstanding common stock and none of the outstanding shares of Series A preferred stock, which constitutes approximately 41% of the aggregate number of shares of Big Lake Stock entitled to vote on the merger agreement.

Q: What should I do now?

A: After carefully reading and considering the information in this proxy statement-prospectus, including materials incorporated by reference, indicate on your proxy card how you want to vote, sign and date the card and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares will be represented at the special meeting and your election will be recorded.

If you sign and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement and otherwise in the discretion of the proxies.

Q: What if I do not vote?

A: If you do not vote, by either signing and sending in your proxy card or attending and voting your shares in person at the special meeting, your shares will not be voted at the special meeting. This will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger, although this will not perfect your appraisal rights.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker will vote your shares of stock on the merger agreement only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, and your broker submits an unvoted proxy, your shares will not be voted at the special meeting, which will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger, although this will not perfect your appraisal rights.

Q: Can I change my vote after I deliver my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in three ways:

you can revoke your proxy by giving written notice of revocation to Big Lake's secretary;

you can submit a new properly executed proxy with a later date to Big Lake's secretary at or before the special meeting; the latest proxy actually received before the special meeting will be counted, and any earlier votes will be revoked; or you can attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person in writing. Any earlier proxy will be thereby revoked; however, simply attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke your proxy.

Q: Should I send in my Big Lake stock certificates now?

A: No. Seacoast will cause the exchange agent to separately send to all Big Lake shareholders a letter of transmittal together with written instructions for exchanging Big Lake stock certificates for the merger consideration.

Q: When will I receive my Seacoast stock certificates and cash, in lieu of fractional shares?

A: Following the completion of the merger, Seacoast will cause the exchange agent to deliver a letter of transmittal to each Big Lake shareholder. You should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal. You will be asked to complete the letter of transmittal and return it, together with your Big Lake stock certificates (or properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery, which will be included as part of the letters of transmittal you will receive), to the exchange agent. The Seacoast Stock that you are to receive in connection with the merger will be mailed to you by the exchange agent promptly after the exchange agent receives your properly executed letter of transmittal and stock certificates.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. If you wish, you may exercise appraisal rights arising out of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and obtain a cash payment for the fair value of your shares as determined under the Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the Florida Business Corporation Act, which we refer to in this proxy statement-prospectus as the FBCA. To exercise appraisal rights, you must not vote any of your shares for approval of the merger and also must deliver written notice to Big Lake before the vote on the merger agreement that you are exercising your appraisal rights and intend to demand payment if the proposed merger is completed, and you must strictly comply with all of the applicable requirements provided under the Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA as described in this proxy statement-prospectus under the section entitled Appraisal Rights. The value of your shares may be more or less than the consideration to be paid in the merger. We have reproduced, in full, the applicable appraisal rights provisions of the FBCA as Appendix B to this proxy statement-prospectus.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: Assuming timely satisfaction of the necessary merger closing conditions, we currently expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you would like additional copies of this document, or if you would like to ask any questions about the merger and related matters, you should contact:

Table of Contents

What You Will Receive in the Merger (See page 29)

If the merger is completed, each share of Big Lake Stock issued and outstanding that you hold immediately prior to the merger's effective time, other than shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised, will be automatically converted, at the effective time, into the right to receive shares of Seacoast Stock at an exchange ratio of 2.95427 shares of Seacoast Stock for each share of Big Lake common stock. This exchange ratio assumes that all 3,832 outstanding Big Lake Stock options are exercised at the closing of the merger. The total number of shares of Seacoast Stock issuable in the merger to all holders of Big Lake Stock is 1,775,000 shares.

You will not receive any fractional shares of Seacoast Stock that would be issuable as a result of the merger. Instead, you will be paid cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the fraction of a share of Seacoast Stock otherwise issuable upon conversion, multiplied by the closing price of Seacoast's common stock on The Nasdaq National Market on the last trading day preceding the effective time of the merger.

Effect of the Merger on Big Lake Series A Preferred Stock

Pursuant to its terms, each share of Big Lake Series A preferred stock will automatically convert into one share of Big Lake common stock immediately prior to the closing of the merger. Such shares, other than shares with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised, will be automatically converted into shares of Seacoast Stock at the effective time of the merger, as described above.

Timing and Manner of Election; Surrender and Exchange of Stock Certificates (See page 26)

Holders of Big Lake Stock should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the proxy card. Seacoast will cause the exchange agent to deliver a letter of transmittal to each Big Lake shareholder. You should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal. You will be asked to complete the letter of transmittal and return it, together with your Big Lake stock certificates (or properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery, which will be included as part of the letter of transmittal you receive), to the exchange agent. The Seacoast Stock that you are to receive in connection with the merger will be mailed to you by the exchange agent promptly after the exchange agent receives your properly executed letter of transmittal and stock certificates.

Effect of the Merger on Big Lake Options

There are options outstanding to purchase 3,832 shares of Big Lake's common stock, with a weighted average exercise price of $36.52 per share. It is anticipated that all outstanding stock options will be exercised at the closing of the merger pursuant to agreements with the holders of these options. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, any option not so exercised will be cancelled and will have no further force and effect.

Your Expected Federal Income Tax Treatment as a Result of the Merger (See page 36)

The completion of the merger is conditioned on receipt of a federal tax opinion from Alston & Bird LLP, counsel to Seacoast, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, and that holders of Big Lake Stock will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of solely Seacoast Stock for their Big Lake Stock, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Seacoast Stock.

Tax laws are complex, and your individual circumstances may affect the tax consequences of the merger to you. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger in light of your individual circumstances, as well as the consequences of the merger to you under state, local and foreign tax laws. See Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger for a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the merger.

Your Appraisal Rights (See page 42)

If the merger is completed, those shareholders who do not vote for the approval of the merger agreement and who comply with the procedural requirements of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA will be entitled to receive payment of the fair value of their shares in cash in accordance with Florida law. If you assert and perfect your appraisal rights, you will not receive the merger consideration. For more information regarding the exercise of these rights, see Appraisal Rights.

Comparative Stock Prices

On November 22, 2005, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement, the last sales price of Seacoast Stock on The Nasdaq National Market was $24.25, and on February 10, 2006, the last practicable day before mailing this proxy statement-prospectus, the last sales price of Seacoast Stock was $25.38. Shares of Big Lake common stock are not listed or traded on any securities exchange or organized market. On September 19, 2005, the date of the last known sale of shares of Big Lake common stock, the last known sales price of Big Lake common stock was $50.00 per share. On December 5, 2005, the date of the last known sale of shares of Big Lake Series A preferred stock, the sales price was $60.00 per share.

Reasons for the Merger (See page 19)

Big Lake's board of directors considered a number of factors in approving the terms of the merger, including:

the value of the consideration to be received by Big Lake shareholders in the merger;

the fact that Seacoast Stock has a liquid trading market and that Seacoast has historically paid cash dividends on its shares; whereas, Big Lake Stock is not traded on any organized market or exchange and has not paid any cash dividends over the last five years;

financial and other information concerning Seacoast and its market area;

Opinion of Big Lake's Financial Advisor (See page 21)

The board of directors of Big Lake considered, among other things, the opinion of its financial advisor, Hovde, in determining whether to approve the merger. Hovde is an investment banking and financial advisory firm with experience in transactions between financial institutions similar to the merger. Big Lake's board of directors received a fairness opinion from Hovde indicating that the terms of the merger are fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Big Lake. The fairness opinion is based on and subject to the procedures, matters and limitations described in the opinion, and other matters that Hovde considered relevant. The fairness opinion is attached to this proxy statement-prospectus as Appendix C. We urge all Big Lake shareholders to read the entire fairness opinion, which describes the assumptions, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde in providing its opinion, as well as the information under The Merger Opinion of Hovde Financial LLC

Information About the Special Meeting (See page 16)

Big Lake will hold its special meeting of shareholders to consider and vote on the merger agreement on March 16, 2006, at 4:15 P.M. Eastern Standard Time. The meeting will be held at 1409 S. Parrott Avenue, Okeechobee, Florida. At the meeting, Big Lake shareholders will vote on the merger agreement described in this proxy statement-prospectus and attached as Appendix A. If the merger agreement is approved at the meeting, and the other conditions to completing the merger are satisfied, we expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006.

Quorum and Vote Required at the Meeting (See page 16)

At least a majority of the outstanding shares of Big Lake's Stock as of the record date for the meeting must be present in person or by proxy at the meeting, and must vote in favor of approving the merger agreement in order for the merger to be approved. Shareholders who own Big Lake Stock at the close of business on January 18, 2006 will be entitled to vote at the meeting.

Share Ownership of Management (See page 49)

As of the record date for the meeting, directors and executive officers of Big Lake have or share voting or dispositive power (beneficially own) over approximately 247,622 shares or 41% of the issued and outstanding shares of Big Lake Stock. These individuals have agreed with Seacoast that they will vote all the shares of Big Lake Stock over which they have voting power in favor of the merger agreement.

As of the record date for the meeting, Seacoast's directors and executive officers do not beneficially own any of the issued and outstanding Big Lake Stock.

Management and Operations After the Merger

Big Lake will cease to exist after the merger. Following the merger, Big Lake Bank will be merged with and into First National, which will be the resulting bank from the bank merger. First National will carry on the business of Big Lake Bank. First National may initially continue to use the Big Lake National Bank trade name in select markets following the completion of the bank merger. Two members of Big Lake's board of directors will be appointed as directors of First National following the bank merger and Mr. Joe G. Mullins will be appointed as an Executive Vice President and a regional president of First National.

Regulatory Approvals (See page 27)

The merger is subject to the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, (the Federal Reserve) and the subsequent bank merger is subject to the prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC). Seacoast has filed an application with the Federal Reserve to acquire Big Lake pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, or the BHC Act, and First National and has filed an application with the OCC to acquire Big Lake Bank pursuant to the federal Bank Merger Act. Although we do not know of any reason why we could not obtain these regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain them.

Several Conditions Must be Met to Complete the Merger

In addition to the required regulatory approvals, the merger will only be completed if certain conditions, including the following, are met:

approval of the merger agreement by Big Lake's shareholders;

the merger must qualify as a tax-free reorganization under the Code;

the merger cannot be a taxable event for either Seacoast or Big Lake;

approval by Nasdaq for the listing of the shares of Seacoast Stock issuable in the merger on The Nasdaq National Market;

Table of Contents

the representations and warranties of Seacoast and Big Lake in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the effective time of the merger, except as to any inaccuracies that would not, in the aggregate, be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect, and the other party to the merger agreement must have performed in all material respects all of its obligations under the merger agreement, subject in each case to the parties' rights to amend or waive any such conditions to the extent permitted by law;

holders of no more than 5% of Big Lake shares exercise appraisal rights; and the satisfaction of additional conditions customary in transactions of this type.

If the conditions to completion are satisfied or waived, Seacoast and Big Lake presently contemplate that they will complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006.

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement (See page 33)

Nearly all of the conditions to completing the merger may be waived at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by the party for whose benefit they were intended. Any condition, however, which, if waived and not satisfied, would result in the violation of any law or regulation may not be waived by either party. No waiver is effective unless it is in writing and signed by the waiving party.

In addition, the parties may amend or supplement the merger agreement at any time by written agreement signed by each party. No amendment that reduces or modifies in any material way the merger consideration to be received is permitted after the merger agreement is approved by Big Lake's shareholders. The merger agreement may only be amended to the extent permitted by law.

Termination and Termination Fee Under the Merger Agreement (See page 34)

The merger agreement may be terminated by either Seacoast or Big Lake, either before or after shareholder approval, under certain circumstances described in detail later in this proxy statement-prospectus under "The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee." Big Lake must pay Seacoast a termination fee of $2.15 million if:

Seacoast terminates the merger agreement because Big Lake's board of directors withdraws or changes its recommendation of the merger agreement;

Seacoast terminates the merger agreement because Big Lake's board of directors recommends or approves an acquisition transaction other than the Seacoast merger or negotiates or authorizes the negotiation with a third party of an acquisition proposal other than the Seacoast merger; or if Big Lake terminates the merger agreement because Big Lake's board of directors has withdrawn or modified its recommendation of the Seacoast merger in favor of another acquisition proposal, and within 12 months of the termination of the merger agreement the other acquisition agreement is entered into or another acquisition proposal is announced, provided in either case that the acquisition transaction is subsequently consummated.

Big Lake's Directors and Executive Officers Have Interests in the Merger that Differ from Your Interests (See page 26)

The executive officers and directors of Big Lake have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as shareholders of Big Lake. The members of Big Lake's board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they adopted the merger agreement. These interests include, among others:

the expected continued employment of Big Lake's officers and employees by Seacoast after the merger, including Mr. Joe G. Mullin's employment with First National, as described in the employment agreement between Mr. Mullins and First National;

the provision of employee benefits to Big Lake employees; and provisions in the merger agreement relating to director and officer liability insurance and the indemnification of officers and directors of Big Lake for certain liabilities.

These interests are more fully described in this proxy statement-prospectus under the heading Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

Employee Benefits of Big Lake Officers and Employees After the Merger

Seacoast has agreed to provide former Big Lake officers and employees with generally the same employee health and welfare benefits as those currently offered by Seacoast to its similarly situated officers and employees. With respect to benefit plans, Seacoast also will give Big Lake's officers and employees full credit for their years of service with Big Lake, for both eligibility and vesting, except that prior service credit will not be considered in determining future benefits under Seacoast's retirement plans. Seacoast also will honor certain other existing employment, severance, consulting or other compensation contracts and plans disclosed by Big Lake to Seacoast in connection with the merger agreement.

Differences in the Rights of Big Lake Shareholders After the Merger (See page 37)

Big Lake shareholders that receive Seacoast shares will become Seacoast shareholders, and their rights as shareholders after the merger will be governed by Florida law and by Seacoast's articles of incorporation and bylaws. The rights of Seacoast shareholders are different in certain respects from the rights of Big Lake shareholders. Some of the principal differences are described later in this proxy statement-prospectus under Certain Differences in Rights of Shareholders.

Accounting Treatment (See page 28)

Seacoast intends to account for the merger as a purchase transaction for accounting and financial reporting purposes under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement-prospectus, you should carefully consider the risks described below in determining whether to adopt and approve the merger agreement.

Risks Related to the Merger

Because the market price of Seacoast Stock may fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the market value of the Seacoast Stock that you will receive as stock consideration in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, the issued and outstanding shares of Big Lake common stock (including the Big Lake Series A preferred stock which automatically converts according to its terms on a one-for-one basis into Big Lake common stock upon a change in control) will be converted into the right to receive shares of Seacoast Stock pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. The value of Seacoast Stock that will be paid to Big Lake shareholders upon completion of the merger may differ from the price of Seacoast Stock on the date that this document is mailed to Big Lake shareholders and on the date of the meeting of Big Lake shareholders. Any change in the price of Seacoast Stock prior to completion of the merger may affect the value of the total consideration that a Big Lake shareholder will receive upon completion of the merger.

Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including, without limitation, general market and economic conditions, changes in the values and perceptions of financial services stocks generally, changes in Seacoast's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. The value of the shares of Seacoast Stock received by a Big Lake shareholder may decline immediately after, including as a result of, the completion of the merger.

We may not realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Combining our two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than we presently expect. Seacoast and Big Lake have operated, and, until completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently.

It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees or disruption of each company's ongoing business and inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies may adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with our clients and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any merger of banking institutions, there may be business disruptions that cause us to lose customers or employees. There can be no assurance that we will realize the anticipated benefits of the merger, or that our future combined operations will not be harmed as the result of the merger.

The loss of key personnel may adversely affect Seacoast.

After the closing of the merger, Seacoast expects to integrate Big Lake's business into its own. The integration process and Seacoast's ability to successfully conduct Big Lake's business after the merger will require the experience and expertise of key employees of Big Lake. Therefore the success of Big Lake's operations as well as the future success of the combined company's operations, will depend, in part, on Seacoast's ability to retain key employees of Big Lake following the merger. Although Seacoast has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Joe G. Mullins, President of Big Lake Bank, containing certain restrictive covenants, Seacoast may not be able to retain Mr. Mullins or other key employees for the time period necessary to complete the integration process or beyond. If any of these employees were to cease to be employed by Seacoast, Seacoast's ability to successfully conduct its business in the markets in which Big Lake now operates could be adversely affected, which could have an adverse effect on Seacoast's financial results.

Your tax consequences of the merger will be dependent on the type of merger consideration received.

Your tax consequences of the merger will be dependent on the type of merger consideration that you receive. You generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Big Lake Stock solely for shares of Seacoast Stock. However, you generally will be taxed to the extent you receive cash in exchange for any fractional share of Seacoast Stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive or as a result of exercising appraisal rights in the merger. See Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The market price of Seacoast Stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting Big Lake Stock or Seacoast Stock.

The businesses and market areas of Seacoast and Big Lake differ in various respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company following the merger, as well as the market price of the combined company's shares of common stock, may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Seacoast and Big Lake. For a discussion of the business of Seacoast, and of certain factors to consider in connection with Seacoast's business, see Information About Seacoast and the documents that Seacoast has filed with the SEC that are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement-prospectus and referred to under Where You Can Find More Information. For a discussion of the business of Big Lake, and of certain factors to consider in connection with Big Lake's business, see Information About Big Lake.

The merger agreement limits Big Lake's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger.

The merger agreement contains provisions that limit Big Lake from discussing competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of Big Lake and subject to their fiduciary duties, each Big Lake director and executive officer has agreed to vote his or her shares of Big Lake Stock in favor of the merger. In addition, Big Lake has agreed to pay Seacoast a termination fee of $2.15 million if the transaction is terminated because Big Lake decides to pursue another acquisition transaction, or as the result of certain other factors. These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of Big Lake from considering or proposing that acquisition to Big Lake, even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in this merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire Big Lake than it might otherwise have proposed to pay. See The Merger Agreement - General and The Merger Agreement - Termination of the Merger; Termination Fee.

Certain Big Lake directors and executive officers have interests in the merger other than their interests as shareholders.

Certain Big Lake directors and executive officers have interests in the merger other than their interests as shareholders. The board of directors of Big Lake was aware of these interests at the time it approved the merger. These interests may cause Big Lake's directors and executive officers to view the merger proposal differently than you may view it. You should consider these interests among the other information in this proxy statement-prospectus that you consider. See The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger.

Risks Related to Owning Seacoast Stock

Future acquisitions and expansion activities by Seacoast may disrupt Seacoast's business, dilute shareholder value and adversely affect its results of operations.

Seacoast regularly evaluates possible mergers, acquisitions and other expansion opportunities. To the extent that Seacoast grows through acquisitions, Seacoast cannot assure you that it will be able to adequately or profitably manage this growth. Acquiring other banks, branches or businesses, as well as other geographic and product expansion activities, involves various risks, including:

risks of unknown or contingent liabilities;

unanticipated costs and delays of integrating businesses;

risks that acquired new businesses do not perform consistent with Seacoast's growth and profitability expectations, including the risks of failure to achieve expected returns, loans and deposit growth, revenue growth and/or expense savings from such transactions;

Table of Contents

risks of entering new markets or product areas where Seacoast has limited experience;

risks that growth will strain Seacoast's infrastructure, staff, internal controls and management, which may require additional personnel, time and expenditures;

exposure to potential asset quality issues with acquired institutions;

difficulties, expenses and delays of integrating the operations and personnel of acquired institutions, and start-up delays and costs of other expansion activities;

potential disruptions to Seacoast's business;

possible loss of key employees and customers of acquired institutions;

potential short-term decreases in profitability; and diversion of Seacoast's management's time and attention from its existing operations and business.

Seacoast is required to maintain capital to meet regulatory requirements, and if it fails to maintain sufficient capital, its financial condition, liquidity and results of operations would be adversely affected.

Seacoast and its subsidiaries must meet regulatory capital requirements. If Seacoast fails to meet these capital and other regulatory requirements, Seacoast's financial condition, liquidity and results of operations would be materially and adversely affected. The failure of Seacoast to remain well capitalized for regulatory purposes and maintain its capital requirements could affect customer confidence, its growth, its costs of funds and FDIC insurance, and its ability to raise brokered deposits, to pay dividends on common stock and to make further acquisitions.

Attractive acquisition opportunities may not be available to Seacoast in the future.

Seacoast may continue to consider the acquisition of other businesses. However, it may not have the opportunity to make suitable acquisitions on favorable terms in the future, which could adversely affect Seacoast's growth. Seacoast expects that other banking and financial companies, some of which have significantly greater resources, will compete with Seacoast to acquire financial services businesses, increasing prices for potential acquisitions that Seacoast believes are attractive. Also, acquisitions are subject to various regulatory approvals. If Seacoast fails to receive the appropriate regulatory approvals, it will not be able to consummate an acquisition that it believes is in its best interests. Among other things, Seacoast's regulators consider its capital, liquidity, profitability, asset quality, management, regulatory compliance and levels of goodwill and intangibles when considering acquisition and expansion proposals.

Seacoast's profitability and liquidity may be affected by changes in interest rates and economic conditions.

Seacoast's profitability depends upon net interest income, which is the difference between interest earned on assets, and interest expense on interest-bearing liabilities, such as deposits and borrowings. Net interest income will be adversely affected if market interest rates change such that the interest Seacoast pays on deposits and borrowings increases faster than the interest earned on loans and investments. Interest rates, and consequently Seacoast's results of operations, are affected by general economic conditions (domestic and foreign) and fiscal and monetary policies. Monetary and fiscal policies may materially affect the level and direction of interest rates. Beginning in June 2004, the Federal Reserve has raised the federal funds rate 14 times from 1.0% to 4.50%. Increases in interest rates generally decrease the market values of fixed-rate, interest-bearing investments and loans held and the production of mortgage and other loans, and therefore may adversely affect Seacoast's liquidity and earnings.

Seacoast's future success is dependent on its ability to compete effectively in highly competitive markets.

Seacoast and its subsidiaries operate in the highly competitive markets of Martin, St. Lucie, Brevard, Indian River, and Palm Beach Counties, located in southeastern Florida. A bank subsidiary also operates three offices in Orange and Seminole Counties, in the Orlando, Florida metropolitan statistical area. Seacoast's future growth and success will depend on its ability to compete effectively in these markets, as well as the markets served by Big Lake. Seacoast competes for loans, deposits and other financial services in its geographic markets with other local, regional and national commercial banks, thrifts, credit unions, mortgage lenders, and securities and insurance brokerage firms. Many of Seacoast's competitors offer products and services different from Seacoast, and have substantially greater resources, name recognition and market presence than Seacoast does, which benefits them in attracting business. In addition, larger competitors may be able to price loans and deposits more aggressively than Seacoast and have broader customer and geographic bases to draw upon.

Seacoast operates in a heavily regulated environment.

Seacoast and its subsidiaries are regulated by several regulators, including the Federal Reserve, the OCC, the SEC and the FDIC. The success of Seacoast is affected by state and federal regulations affecting banks, bank holding companies and the securities markets. Banking regulations are primarily intended to protect depositors, not shareholders.

The financial services industry also is subject to frequent legislative and regulatory changes and proposed changes, the effects of which cannot be predicted.

Seacoast is subject to internal control reporting requirements that increase its compliance costs and failure to comply timely could adversely affect Seacoast's reputation and the value of its securities.

Seacoast is required to comply with various corporate governance and financial reporting requirements under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as rules and regulations adopted by the SEC, the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board and Nasdaq. In particular, Seacoast is required to include management and independent auditor reports on internal controls as part of its annual report on Form 10-K pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Seacoast has evaluated its controls, including compliance with the SEC rules on internal controls, and has and expects to continue to spend significant amounts of time and money on compliance with these rules. Seacoast's failure to comply with these internal control rules may materially adversely affect its reputation, ability to obtain the necessary certifications to financial statements, and the value of its securities. At December 31, 2004, Seacoast had identified one material weakness in its financial reporting controls related to the documentation of an interest rate swap as a hedge. Specifically, the deficiency resulted from the absence of controls designed to ensure that the documentation required by generally accepted accounting principles at the inception of a derivative transaction is properly maintained for the term of the respective derivative financial instrument. As a result of this deficiency and the resulting errors in accounting for derivative financial instruments, previously reported 2004 interim financial information was restated. These restatements were required to properly reflect changes in the estimated fair value of certain derivative financial instruments as a component of earnings in the period of change in estimated fair value.

Technological changes affect Seacoast's business, and Seacoast may have fewer resources than many competitors to invest in technological improvements.

The financial services industry is undergoing rapid technological changes with frequent introductions of new technology-driven products and services. In addition to serving clients better, the effective use of technology may increase efficiency and may enable financial institutions to reduce costs. Seacoast's future success will depend, in part, upon its ability to use technology to provide products and services that provide convenience to customers and to create additional efficiencies in operations. Seacoast may need to make significant additional capital investments in technology in the future, and it may not be able to effectively implement new technology-driven products and services. Many competitors have substantially greater resources to invest in technological improvements.

Table of Contents

Seacoast's ability to continue to pay dividends to shareholders in the future is subject to profitability, capital, liquidity and regulatory requirements.

Cash available to pay dividends to Seacoast's shareholders is derived primarily from dividends paid to Seacoast by its subsidiaries. The ability of Seacoast's subsidiaries to pay dividends, as well as Seacoast's ability to pay dividends to its shareholders, will continue to be subject to and limited by the results of operations of Seacoast's subsidiaries and its need to maintain appropriate liquidity and capital consistent with regulatory requirements and the needs of its businesses.

Seacoast may issue additional securities, which could affect the market price of its common stock and dilute your ownership.

Seacoast may issue additional securities to raise capital to support growth or make acquisitions. Seacoast has made and expects to continue to make grants of stock options and restricted stock to retain and motivate employees. As a result of securities sales and the exercise or conversion of outstanding options and the vesting of restricted stock, the ownership interests of existing Seacoast shareholders could be diluted. Sales of a substantial number of shares of Seacoast Stock after the merger, or the perception by the market that those sales could occur, could cause the market price of Seacoast Stock to decline or could make it more difficult for Seacoast to raise capital through the sale of common stock or to the use of common stock as currency in future acquisitions.

Future potential debt incurred by Seacoast or future debt or preferred stock issues by Seacoast may negatively affect holders of common stock.

Any existing or future debt or preferred securities of Seacoast will require payment of interest or dividends prior to the payment of dividends on Seacoast Stock. Debt and preferred securities also will have a senior claim on Seacoast's assets relative to its common shareholders. Therefore, in the event of Seacoast's bankruptcy, liquidation or dissolution, its assets must be used to pay off its debt and preferred obligations in full before making any distributions to its common shareholders.

The anti-takeover provisions in Seacoast's articles of incorporation and under Florida law may make it more difficult for takeover attempts that have not been approved by Seacoast's board of directors

Florida law and Seacoast's articles of incorporation include anti-takeover provisions, such as provisions that encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Seacoast to consult with its board, and which enable the board to negotiate and give consideration on behalf of Seacoast and its shareholders and other constituencies to the merits of any offer made. Such provisions, as well as supermajority voting and quorum requirements, may make any takeover attempts and other acquisitions of interests in Seacoast that have not been approved by Seacoast's board of directors more difficult and more expensive. These provisions may discourage possible business combinations that a majority of Seacoast's shareholders may believe to be desirable and beneficial. See Certain Differences in Rights of Shareholders.

Hurricanes or other adverse weather events would negatively affect Seacoast's local economies or disrupt Seacoast's operations, which would have an adverse effect on Seacoast's business or results of operations.

Seacoast's and Big Lake's market areas in Florida are susceptible to hurricanes and tropical storms. Such weather events can disrupt operations, result in damage to properties and negatively affect the local economies in the markets where they operate. Seacoast cannot predict whether or to what extent damage that may be caused by future hurricanes will affect its operations or the economies in Seacoast's current or future market areas, but such weather events could result in a decline in loan originations, a decline in the value or destruction of properties securing its loans and an increase in the delinquencies, foreclosures or loan losses. Seacoast's business or result of operations may be adversely affected by these and other negative effects of future hurricanes or tropical storms.

THE BIG LAKE FINANCIAL CORPORATION SPECIAL MEETING

Purpose of the Special Meeting

You have received this proxy statement-prospectus because the board of directors of Big Lake is soliciting your proxy for the special meeting of Big Lake shareholders to be held on March 16, 2006 at 1409 S. Parrott Avenue, Okeechobee, Florida at 4:15 P.M. Eastern Standard Time and at any adjournments or postponements thereof (the meeting). Each copy of this proxy statement-prospectus mailed to holders of Big Lake Stock is accompanied by a proxy card for use at the meeting.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider and vote upon:

the merger agreement; and any other matters that are properly brought before the meeting, or any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

If you have not already done so, please complete, date and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed, postage paid envelope. If you do not vote, by either signing and returning your proxy card or attending and voting at the meeting, your shares will not be voted at the meeting. This will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger, although this will not perfect your appraisal rights.

Record Date; Quorum and Vote Required

The record date for the meeting is January 18, 2006. Big Lake shareholders of record as of the close of business on that day will receive notice of, and are entitled to vote at, the meeting. As of January 18, 2006, there were 576,709 shares of Big Lake common stock and 20,283 shares of Big Lake Series A preferred stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Big Lake common stock was held on that date by 263 shareholders of record and Big Lake Series A preferred stock was held on that date by 234 shareholders of record.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority (298,497 shares) of the aggregate number of outstanding shares of Big Lake Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the meeting. For determining whether a quorum exists at the meeting, Big Lake will count as present at the meeting the shares of Big Lake Stock present in person but not voting, and the shares of Big Lake Stock for which Big Lake has received proxies, but with respect to which the holders of such shares have abstained from voting.

The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Big Lake common stock and Big Lake Series A preferred stock, voting together as a single class. Therefore, the favorable vote of at least 298,497 shares of Big Lake Stock is necessary to approve the merger agreement. Each individual share of Big Lake Stock outstanding on January 18, 2006 entitles its holder to one vote on the merger agreement and any other proposal that may properly come before the meeting.

As January 18, 2006, there were 247,622 shares of Big Lake Stock, or approximately 41% of the total shares of Big Lake Stock outstanding, beneficially owned by Big Lake's directors and executive officers. Big Lake's directors and executive officers have entered into shareholder agreements with Seacoast whereby they have agreed to vote in favor of the merger agreement, subject to the directors exercising their fiduciary duties.

Solicitation and Revocation of Proxies

If you have delivered a proxy for the meeting, you may revoke it any time before it is voted by:

providing Big Lake's secretary written notice revoking your proxy prior to the date of the meeting;

providing Big Lake's secretary, a signed proxy card dated later than your initial proxy; prior to the date of the meeting; or attending the meeting and voting in person.

Table of Contents

Attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

The proxy holders will vote as directed all proxy cards that are received at or prior to the meeting and that have not been effectively revoked. If you complete, date and sign your proxy card but do not provide instructions as to your vote, then the proxy holders will vote your shares FOR approval of the merger agreement. If any other matters are properly presented at the meeting for consideration, the persons named in the proxy card will have discretionary authority to vote on those matters. Big Lake's board of directors is not aware of any matter to be presented at the meeting other than the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

If a shareholder holds shares of Big Lake Stock in a broker's name (sometimes referred to as ownership in street name or nominee name), then the shareholder must provide voting instructions to the broker. If the shareholder does not provide instructions to his or her broker, then the shares will not be voted on any matter on which the broker does not have discretionary authority to vote, which includes the vote on the merger agreement. A vote that is not cast for this reason is called a broker non-vote. For purposes of the vote on the merger agreement, a broker non-vote is the same as a vote against the merger agreement, although this will not permit you to seek appraisal rights. For purposes of the vote on other matters properly brought at the meeting, broker non-votes will not be counted as votes for or against such matter, or as abstentions on such matters.

Big Lake will bear the cost of soliciting proxies from its shareholders, except that Big Lake and Seacoast will each bear and pay one-half of the filing fees and printing costs payable in connection with this proxy statement-prospectus. Big Lake will solicit shareholder votes by mail, and possibly by telephone or other means of telecommunication. Directors, officers and employees of Big Lake may also solicit shareholder votes in person. If these individuals solicit your vote in person, they will receive no additional compensation for doing so, but their reasonable expenses of solicitation may be reimbursed. Big Lake will reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation materials to those beneficial owners.

Big Lake shareholders should not send any stock certificates with their proxy cards. If the merger agreement is approved, Big Lake shareholders will receive instructions for exchanging their stock certificates after the merger has been completed.

Appraisal Rights

Holders of shares of Big Lake Stock who properly elect to exercise the appraisal rights provided for in Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA will not have their shares converted into the right to receive merger consideration. If a holder's appraisal rights are lost or withdrawn, such holder will receive the same consideration as all other holders of Big Lake Stock. For more information, see Appraisal Rights.

Recommendations of the Board of Directors of Big Lake

The Big Lake board of directors unanimously recommends that its shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

The Big Lake board of directors has unanimously adopted the merger agreement and believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Big Lake and its shareholders. In making their recommendation to shareholders, Big Lake's board of directors considered, among other things, (i) the value of the consideration to be received by Big Lake shareholders in the merger, (ii) that Seacoast Stock has a liquid trading market and that Seacoast historically has paid cash dividends on its shares, (iii) certain financial and other information concerning Seacoast and its market area, (iv) the financial terms of recent acquisitions in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed merger with Seacoast, and (v) Hovde's fairness opinion, which concludes that the consideration to be received by Big Lake shareholders in the merger is fair to Big Lake's shareholders from a financial point of view. See "The Merger - Background of the Merger" and "The Merger - Opinion of Hovde Financial LLC."

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement-prospectus summarizes certain aspects of the merger. The following description is not intended to include every aspect of the merger, but rather contains only what we presently believe to be the most significant terms of the merger. This discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement and the opinion of Hovde, Big Lake's financial advisor, which are attached as Appendices A and C to this proxy statement-prospectus, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference. We urge you to read these documents as well as the related discussions in this proxy statement-prospectus carefully.

General

If the shareholders of Big Lake approve the merger agreement and the other conditions to the consummation of the merger are satisfied, Seacoast will acquire Big Lake pursuant to the merger of Big Lake with and into Seacoast. Seacoast will exchange shares of Seacoast Stock, plus cash instead of any fractional Seacoast share issuable in the merger, for the outstanding shares of Big Lake Stock as to which appraisal rights have not been exercised and perfected (other than treasury shares and shares held by Seacoast and its subsidiaries or Big Lake, all of which shares will be cancelled in the merger). Each share of Seacoast Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will remain issued and outstanding and unchanged as a result of the merger.

Background of the Merger

From time to time over the past several years, the directors of Big Lake discussed the business and prospects of Big Lake, conditions in the business and community banking market in Florida, and the merger activity among financial institutions in the state. In addition, during this time, Big Lake was approached on an unsolicited basis by several parties who expressed moderate to serious interest in acquiring Big Lake. Big Lake did not enter into any agreements with the parties as it did not believe that the transactions would afford Big Lake shareholders the opportunity to receive publicly traded securities or receive any meaningful return on their investment.

In November 2004, representatives of the Big Lake board met with representatives of two investment banking firms. The meetings included a presentation and discussion of Big Lake's strategic options. In December 2004, the Big Lake board met for a general discussion of Big Lake's strategic alternatives, including whether to expand its operations or to explore a business combination transaction. A decision was made by the Big Lake board to authorize the executive committee to continue to interview two investment banking firms to assist the board in its decision-making process.

On January 14, 2005 the Big Lake board decided to retain Hovde to assist it in its process and on January 26, 2005, Hovde and Big Lake signed an engagement letter. As a part of its engagement, Hovde met with Big Lake's executive committee and discussed with it a process for the marketing of Big Lake and additional information regarding the banking industry and market conditions in general. Hovde also discussed bank holding companies that, in its opinion, could have an interest in acquiring Big Lake and had the necessary financial resources to carry out the transaction and to obtain regulatory approvals. While not making a final decision whether to pursue any business combination transaction, Big Lake did authorize Hovde to solicit indications of interest that might warrant serious consideration and potentially result in an agreement to merge or Big Lake otherwise being acquired. In the latter part of February and in March 2005, Hovde, with the assistance of Big Lake's management, completed its due diligence review of Big Lake. Based on Big Lake's increasing earnings run rate and certain discussions Hovde had with several parties that had approached Big Lake in the past, it was decided that any further discussions with interested parties be based on Big Lake's June 30, 2005 financials.

After a close review of potential buyers, Hovde and Big Lake decided to approach Seacoast in early August 2005. Due to Seacoast's excellent reputation and the strong relationship between principals of the two companies, Big Lake felt Seacoast would be the best fit for its shareholders, customers and employees. On August 12, 2005, Mr. Edwin E. Walpole, III, Big Lake's Chairman, contacted Mr. Doug Gilbert, Seacoast's

Vice Chairman, to discuss a potential merger. Seacoast subsequently entered into a confidentiality agreement with Big Lake on August 23, 2005. On August 26, 2005, Seacoast had certain members of Big Lake's board of directors and a Hovde representative to its headquarters for an introductory meeting regarding a potential merger. It was decided after this meeting that further information would be exchanged.

From September 2005 through October 2005, Big Lake representatives and Seacoast representatives had several meetings and telephone conversations to discuss the background, philosophies and corporate culture of the two companies, their strategic directions, their possible interest in pursuing a strategic combination of Seacoast and Big Lake, and other issues. The parties also discussed the parameters relating to a possible transaction between the two parties, including the form of consideration, the range of value, and the desire for a tax free transaction to the extent the merger consideration would consist of Seacoast stock.

On October 21, 2005, the Big Lake board received a non-binding letter of intent from Seacoast to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Big Lake Stock for $44 million, subject to completion of a due diligence review by Seacoast. The Big Lake board subsequently approved the letter of intent and authorized Seacoast to conduct a due diligence review of Big Lake. Seacoast conducted its due diligence review from November 11, 2005 to November 13, 2005 and, based on its assessments of risk at Big Lake, reduced the value of the offer by approximately 5% to $42 million. During the week of November 14, 2005 representatives of Big Lake and Seacoast negotiated the terms of a merger agreement.

On November 22, 2005, the Big Lake board met to consider the terms of the proposed transaction with Seacoast and the form of merger agreement. In addition, the board of directors of Big Lake heard a financial presentation from a representative of Hovde. Hovde advised the board that it was of the opinion, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of that date and based on and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on review described in its opinion, that the consideration to be received by Big Lake's shareholders under the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view. During this meeting, Big Lake's legal counsel, Smith Mackinnon, PA, reviewed generally for the Big Lake board of directors the fiduciary obligations of directors in sales of financial institutions and commented on the form of the merger agreement, the agreements to be entered into between the Big Lake directors and Seacoast, the employment agreement to be entered into between Mr. Joe Mullins and First National, and related issues. Following a thorough discussion and review by Big Lake's board of directors of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and related information and issues, the Big Lake board of directors unanimously determined that the proposed transaction was fair and in the best interest of Big Lake's shareholders, approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and resolved to recommend that the Big Lake shareholders vote for the approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement was signed by Big Lake and Seacoast on November 22, 2005.

Reasons for the Merger

General

The financial and other terms of the merger agreement resulted from arm's-length negotiations between Seacoast and Big Lake representatives. The Seacoast and Big Lake boards of directors considered many factors in determining the amount and form of consideration Big Lake shareholders would receive in the merger, as discussed below.

Seacoast's Reasons for the Merger

Seacoast's business strategy has focused for many years on building market share in the Treasure Coast region of Florida. The Treasure Coast includes Martin, St. Lucie and Indian River Counties, Florida and has a population of approximately 500,000 people, according to the U.S. Census Bureau. The region's population is growing at a rate faster than the population of Florida as a whole and includes some of Florida's wealthiest communities. Seacoast offers a full range of banking products, including brokerage and trust services to individuals and businesses in its markets and today has more offices than any other financial institution in the Treasure Coast and a deposit market share that ranks first among community banks and third among all other financial institutions doing business in the Treasure Coast according to the FDIC.

Table of Contents

In recent years, Seacoast has expanded into larger markets outside of the Treasure Coast in order to continue to produce superior growth and in particular, to diversify and improve its growth rates for commercial, professional and small business deposits and loans. Seacoast now operates offices in Palm Beach County, Florida, south of the Treasure Coast, Brevard, Orange and Seminole Counties, Florida, north of the Treasure Coast. Each of these market areas has a larger population than the Treasure Coast and is home to significant numbers of small- and medium-sized businesses. Seacoast has found that its relationship approach to building its commercial business and its lending capacity, which is greater than that found in most community banks, have been competitive advantages in these larger markets.

In deciding to pursue an acquisition of Big Lake, Seacoast's management and board of directors considered, among other things, the following:

Big Lake's deposit base and branch network;

Big Lake's asset quality and strong core deposit base;

the desirability of the merger over expansion through de novo branching;

Big Lake's success in building its business banking customer base in the Okeechobee market and its compatible relationship banking philosophy;

the potential for strategic synergies and additional growth given, among other things, the larger lending capacity when combined with Seacoast;

expanding into Big Lake's market further increases Seacoast's opportunity to capture business in the Central Florida market area where population growth is beginning to accelerate;

the acquisition will allow Seacoast to further its own lending capacity and continue to enlarge its relationships, as the acquisition of Big Lake will add approximately $200 million in loans, as well as nine offices in six Central Florida counties where it is the region's largest community bank; and Florida's coastal communities are rapidly growing, prompting business and industry to look inland for nearby manufacturing and distribution locations, as well as more affordable housing for their employees. The resulting increase in growth in population and business activity, as well as the proximity of Big Lake's markets to Seacoast's existing markets, make the merger a natural extension of Seacoast's existing operations in the Palm Beach, Treasure Coast and Orlando market areas.

Big Lake's Reasons for the Merger

On November 22, 2005, Big Lake's board of directors voted unanimously to approve and adopt the merger agreement. The Big Lake board believes that the merger and the terms of the merger agreement are fair and in the best interests of Big Lake and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that each shareholder vote to approve the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to adopt and recommend the approval of the merger agreement, Big Lake's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

the value of the consideration to be received by Big Lake shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of Big Lake common stock;

information concerning Seacoast's financial condition, results of operations and business prospects;

the financial terms of recent business combinations in the financial services industry and a comparison of the multiples of selected combinations with the terms of the proposed merger with Seacoast;

the opinion of Hovde that the consideration to be received by Big Lake shareholders in the merger is fair from a financial point of view;

the likelihood that the merger could be consummated, including the timing of and conditions to the merger;

Table of Contents

the fact that the merger will enable Big Lake shareholders to exchange their relatively illiquid shares of Big Lake Stock for the publicly traded stock of Seacoast, and the fact that the acquisition of Seacoast Stock will be tax-free to shareholders;

that Seacoast historically has paid cash dividends on its common stock;

the alternatives to the merger, including remaining an independent institution;

the strategic synergies of the merger, including expanded range of banking services that the merger will allow Big Lake to provide its customers; and the competitive and regulatory environment for financial institutions, generally.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes some of the most material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the transaction, the board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations. Individual directors may have given different weights to the specific factors considered in reaching the foregoing determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Each member of Big Lake's board of directors has agreed that he or she will vote his or her shares of Big Lake Stock in favor of the merger agreement.

Big Lake's board of directors unanimously recommends that Big Lake shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Opinion of Hovde Financial LLC

Hovde has delivered to the board of directors of Big Lake its opinion that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth in its written opinion dated November 22, 2005, the total transaction consideration to be paid to the shareholders of Big Lake is fair from a financial point of view as of such date. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Big Lake upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion. The full text of the opinion of Hovde, dated November 22, 2005, which describes the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached hereto as Appendix C. The shareholders of Big Lake should read this opinion in its entirety.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and valuations for other purposes. As a specialist in securities of financial institutions, Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies. The board of directors of Big Lake selected Hovde to act as its financial advisor in connection with the merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the merger.

Hovde is entitled to receive a fee from Big Lake for performing a financial analysis of the merger and rendering a written opinion to the board of directors of Big Lake as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger to the shareholders of Big Lake. Big Lake has also agreed to indemnify Hovde against any claims, losses and expenses arising out of the merger or Hovde's engagement that did not arise from Hovde's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Hovde's opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the total transaction consideration, and, as such, does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Big Lake as to how the shareholder should vote at the Big Lake shareholder meeting. The summary of the opinion of Hovde set forth in this joint statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. Certain of these analyses were confirmed in a presentation to the board of directors of Big Lake by Hovde.

Table of Contents

The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of either the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion or the presentation delivered by Hovde to the board of directors of Big Lake, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed and presented by Hovde.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses and the following summary must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses set forth in its report to the board of directors of Big Lake and its fairness opinion.

In performing its analyses, Hovde made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Big Lake and Seacoast. The analyses performed by Hovde are not necessarily indicative of actual value or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Such analyses were prepared solely as part of Hovde's analysis of the fairness of the transaction consideration, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Big Lake. The analyses do not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future. Hovde's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other business combination in which Big Lake might engage. In addition, as described above, Hovde's opinion to the board of directors of Big Lake was one of many factors taken into consideration by the board of directors of Big Lake in making its determination to approve the merger agreement.

During the course of its engagement, and as a basis for arriving at its opinion, Hovde reviewed and analyzed materials bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Big Lake and Seacoast and materials prepared in connection with the merger, including, among other things, the following:

the merger agreement;

certain historical publicly available information concerning Big Lake and Seacoast;

certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Big Lake and Seacoast;

certain financial projections prepared by the managements of Big Lake and Seacoast;

certain other information provided to Hovde by members of the senior management of Big Lake and Seacoast for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Big Lake and Seacoast, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings expected to be achieved as a result of the merger;

historical market prices and trading volumes for Seacoast Stock;

the nature and terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that Hovde considered relevant;

the pro forma percentage ownership of Seacoast's common stock by the shareholders of Big Lake relative to the pro forma contribution of Big Lake's total assets, total net loans, total deposits, total equity and earnings to the combined company;

the pro forma impact of the merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and such other information and factors as Hovde deemed appropriate.

Hovde also took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its knowledge of the commercial banking industry and its general experience in securities valuations, including Florida-based financial institutions.

In rendering its opinion, Hovde assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the publicly available and other non-public financial information provided to it by Big Lake and Seacoast, relied upon the representations and warranties of Big Lake and Seacoast made pursuant to the merger agreement, and did not independently attempt to verify any such information. Hovde also assumed that the financial forecasts furnished to or discussed with Hovde by Big Lake and Seacoast were reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of senior management of Big Lake and Seacoast as to the future financial performance of Big Lake, Seacoast, or the combined company, as the case may be. Hovde has not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of any properties, assets or liabilities of Big Lake or Seacoast.

Financial Impact Analysis. Hovde performed pro forma merger analyses that projected balance sheet and income statement information regarding the combination of Big Lake with Seacoast. Assumptions regarding cost savings and acquisition adjustments were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of the combined company. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to Seacoast's estimated 2006 and 2007 GAAP earnings per share and estimated 2006 and 2007 cash earnings per share. Big Lake's 2006 earnings projections were provided by Big Lake's management. Hovde assumed 7% earnings growth over Big Lake's 2005 projected income to estimate Big Lake's 2006 earnings. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by the pro forma company following the merger may vary from the projected results and the variations may be material.

Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor or comparison, Hovde determined that the transaction consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Big Lake.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Some of Big Lake's directors and executive officers have interests in the transaction in addition to their interests generally as shareholders of Big Lake. Big Lake's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, in addition to other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

Surrender and Exchange of Stock Certificates

If the merger agreement is approved by Big Lake's shareholders, at the effective time of the merger, Big Lake shareholders other than those exercising their appraisal rights will be entitled to receive shares of Seacoast Stock. However, the actual physical exchange of Big Lake stock certificates for certificates representing shares of Seacoast Stock (and cash in lieu of fractional shares) will occur after the merger. Each Big Lake stock certificate issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger that will be exchanged for shares of Seacoast Stock in the merger will be deemed for all purposes to evidence ownership of shares of Seacoast Stock, regardless of when they are actually exchanged.

Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company will serve as the exchange agent for the merger. Following the completion of the merger, Seacoast will cause the exchange agent to deliver a letter of transmittal to each Big Lake shareholder. You should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal. You will be asked to complete the letter of transmittal and return it, together with your Big Lake stock certificates (or properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery), to the exchange agent.

Big Lake shareholders should not send in their Big Lake stock certificates until they have received the transmittal materials and further written instructions after the effective date of the merger. Please do NOT send any stock certificates with your proxy.

When the exchange agent receives your certificates of Big Lake Stock, together with the properly completed transmittal materials, it will deliver to you the merger consideration, consisting of Seacoast stock certificates, together with all withheld dividends or other distributions, but without interest thereon, and any cash payment for a fractional share, without interest.

Seacoast will not pay former shareholders of Big Lake who become holders of Seacoast Stock pursuant to the merger any dividends or other distributions that may become payable to holders of record of Seacoast Stock following the effective time of the merger until they have surrendered their certificates evidencing their Big Lake Stock, at which time Seacoast will pay any cash owed in lieu of fractional shares issuable in the merger, and such dividends or other distributions, in all cases without interest.

Big Lake shareholders who cannot locate their stock certificates are urged to contact promptly:

Mr. Joe G. Mullins
Big Lake Financial Corporation
1409 S. Parrott Avenue
Okeechobee, FL 34974
(863) 467-4663

A new stock certificate will be issued to replace the lost certificate(s) only if the Big Lake shareholder signs an affidavit certifying that his or her certificate(s) cannot be located and containing an agreement to indemnify Seacoast and the exchange agent as they may reasonably require against any claim that may be made against them by the owner of the certificate(s) alleged to have been lost or destroyed. This affidavit should be sent to Mr. Joe G. Mullins at the above address. Seacoast, Big Lake or the exchange agent may also establish other reasonable and customary procedures in connection with its duties, including the delivery of an indemnity bond.

Resales of Seacoast Stock

Seacoast is registering under the Securities Act the issuance of the shares of its common stock that will be exchanged in the merger. The shares will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for any shares received by Big Lake shareholders who are affiliates of Big Lake at the time of the special meeting of

Table of Contents

Big Lake's shareholders, and except for affiliates of Seacoast following the merger. Affiliates generally include, without limitation, directors, certain executive officers and beneficial holders of 10% or more of Big Lake Stock. The Big Lake shareholders who are affiliates of Big Lake as of the date of the special meeting may only resell their shares pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the shares, or in compliance with Securities Act Rule 145 or under another exemption from the Securities Act's registration requirements. Shareholders who become affiliates of Seacoast following the merger may rely on the provisions of Rule 144 for the resale of their shares, or another exemption from the requirements of the Securities Act. This proxy statement-prospectus does not cover any resales of Seacoast's common stock by Seacoast or Big Lake affiliates.

If you are or may be an affiliate as identified above, you should carefully consider the resale restrictions imposed by Rules 144 and 145, as applicable, before you attempt to transfer any shares of Seacoast Stock after the merger. Persons known to be affiliates of Big Lake have entered into affiliate agreements with Seacoast where they have agreed not to sell shares of Seacoast Stock they receive in the merger in violation of the Securities Act or in any manner that would disqualify the merger from treatment as a tax-free reorganization.

Regulatory and Other Required Approvals

Federal Reserve and OCC Approvals

The Federal Reserve must approve the merger under the BHC Act before it can be completed. Seacoast and Big Lake must then wait at least 15 days after the Federal Reserve approval before they may complete the merger. During this waiting period, the United States Department of Justice may object to the merger on antitrust grounds. In reviewing the application, the Federal Reserve is required to consider the following:

competitive factors, such as whether the merger will result in a monopoly or whether the benefits of the merger to the public in meeting the needs of and convenience of the community clearly outweigh the merger's anticompetitive effects or restraints on trade; and banking and community factors, which includes an evaluation of:

the financial and managerial resources of Seacoast, including its subsidiaries, and of Big Lake, and the effect of the proposed transaction on these resources;

management expertise;

internal control and risk management systems;

the capital of Seacoast;

the convenience and needs of the communities to be served; and the effectiveness of Seacoast and Big Lake in combating money laundering activities.

Seacoast presently intends to merge Big Lake Bank into First National, and the merger, pursuant to the merger agreement, is conditioned upon OCC approval of the bank merger, unless Seacoast waives such condition in its sole discretion. The bank merger will require the approval of the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. The OCC considers many factors similar to those reviewed by the Federal Reserve under the BHC Act.

The application processes for the merger and the bank merger include newspaper publication and opportunity for public comment. The Federal Reserve may receive, and must consider, properly filed comments and protests from community groups and others regarding (among other issues) each institution's performance under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended. Big Lake Bank has a formal agreement with the OCC requiring Big Lake Bank to comply with various compliance rules, including the Bank Secrecy Act and the rules and regulations of the Office of Foreign Assets Control. Although Seacoast and Big Lake do not anticipate that the formal agreement will prevent the merger or the bank merger, it may extend the time needed to obtain approval from the Federal Reserve and the OCC.

Other Regulatory Approvals

In connection with or as a result of the merger, Seacoast or Big Lake may be required, pursuant to other laws and regulations, either to notify or obtain the consent of other regulatory authorities and organizations to which such companies or subsidiaries of either or both of them may be subject. The Seacoast Stock to be issued in exchange for Big Lake common stock in the merger has been registered with the SEC and will be listed on the Nasdaq National Market.

Status and Effect of Approvals

Seacoast has filed an application with the Federal Reserve to acquire Big Lake pursuant to Section 3 of the BHC Act and First National has filed an application with the OCC to acquire Big Lake Bank pursuant to the federal Bank Merger Act. As a result, Seacoast and Big Lake presently estimate that they will complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006. However, we cannot assure you that the merger will have been approved or closed by then.

We are not aware of any other regulatory approvals that would be required for completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Should any other approvals be required, those approvals will be sought, but we cannot assure you that they will be obtained.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

Seacoast will account for the merger as a purchase transaction under GAAP. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities (including executory contracts and other commitments) of Big Lake will be recorded, as of completion of the merger, at their respective fair values and added to those of Seacoast. Any excess of purchase price over the net fair value of Big Lake's assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill (excess purchase price). Financial statements and reported results of operations of Seacoast issued after completion of the merger will reflect these values, but will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Big Lake.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

General

In the event that Big Lake's shareholders approve the merger agreement and all of the other conditions to the merger are satisfied, then, at the effective time of the merger, Big Lake will merge into Seacoast and the separate existence of Big Lake will cease and Big Lake Bank will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Seacoast. Thereafter, Big Lake Bank will be merged with and into First National, and the separate existence of Big Lake Bank will cease. See Conditions to the Merger for a discussion of conditions to completing the merger.

What You Will Receive in the Merger

At the effective time of the merger, each share of Big Lake Stock, except for treasury shares, shares held by Seacoast or any of the subsidiaries of Seacoast (other than in a fiduciary capacity), and any shares as to which appraisal rights are asserted, automatically will be converted into the right to receive 2.95427 shares of Seacoast Stock. This ratio assumes that all 3,832 outstanding Big Lake stock options are exercised at the closing of the merger. In no event will Seacoast be required to issue more than 1,775,000 shares of Seacoast Stock to Big Lake shareholders in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding shares of Big Lake Stock at the effective time of the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised option for Big Lake common stock will be cancelled. Option holders have until the merger's effective time to exercise any options and have agreed to exercise all their options prior to the effective time. Options exercised prior to the effective time will receive the same merger consideration given in exchange for shares of Big Lake common stock.

Each share of Big Lake Stock held by Big Lake or Seacoast or any of their subsidiaries, other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted, will be cancelled and extinguished. No payment or other consideration will be made with respect to those shares.

Holders of shares of Big Lake Stock who elect to exercise the appraisal rights provided for by the FBCA by strictly complying with such provisions will not have their shares converted into the right to receive any Seacoast Stock as described above, but will be entitled to the fair value of their shares in cash as provided by such statute, which may be more or less than the merger consideration. If a holder's appraisal rights are lost or withdrawn, that holder will receive the same consideration as all other holders of Big Lake Stock. Seacoast will separately make any payments due to holders of shares that properly perfect their appraisal rights.

For information regarding restrictions on the transfer of Seacoast Stock applicable to certain Big Lake shareholders who are affiliates, see The Merger Resales of Seacoast Common Stock.

Treatment of Fractional Shares

Each Big Lake shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Seacoast Stock, after taking into account all Big Lake stock certificates delivered by such holder, shall receive, in lieu of fractional shares, cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the product of:

the fractional part of a share of Seacoast Stock otherwise due to that shareholder, multiplied by the last sale price of Seacoast Stock on The Nasdaq National Market at the close of regular trading on the last trading day preceding the effective time of the merger.

No Big Lake shareholder otherwise entitled to receive fractional shares of Seacoast Stock will be entitled to any dividends, voting rights, or any other rights as a shareholder in respect of those fractional shares, and no interest will be paid on cash payable by Seacoast instead of fractional shares.

receipt by Big Lake from its financial advisor of an opinion regarding the fairness of the consideration to be received by Big Lake's shareholders in the merger, from a financial point of view, which opinion shall not be withdrawn prior to Big Lake's meeting;

no additional regulatory enforcement actions or consents or additional compliance or reporting obligations shall have been imposed on either Seacoast or Big Lake that were not in effect as of the signing of the merger agreement; and Big Lake Bank shall, at the end of each fiscal year and fiscal quarter prior to the merger, have consolidated shareholders' equity of not less than $21,849,000 on a consolidated basis or Big Lake shall have a shareholders' equity of not less than $21,350,000; excluding the effects of any expenses of actions taken at Seacoast's written request (other than costs of compliance with Big Lake's formal agreement with the OCC), reasonable legal, accounting and investment banking and shareholder communication expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated herein, unrealized gains and losses on securities held by any seller entity, and any payments to be made to Mr. Joe G. Mullins pursuant to the merger agreement and his employment agreement.

The conditions to the merger are generally set forth in Article 9 of the merger agreement. The parties intend to complete the merger as soon as practicable after all conditions have been satisfied or waived; however, we cannot assure you that all conditions will be satisfied or waived.

Waiver and Amendment

Nearly all of the conditions to completing the merger may be waived at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by the party for whose benefit they were created. Furthermore, any extension in time for compliance of any term or obligation under the merger agreement, or any conditions precedent to obligations under the merger agreement, may be waived by the party for whose benefit they were intended. Any condition, however, which, if waived and not satisfied, would result in the violation of any law or regulation may not be waived by either party. No waiver is effective unless it is in writing signed by the waiving party.

In addition, the parties may amend or supplement at any time the merger agreement by written agreement signed by each party. No amendment that reduces or modifies in any material way the merger consideration to be received is permitted after the approval of the merger agreement by Big Lake's shareholders. The merger agreement may only be amended to the extent permitted by law.

Business of Big Lake Pending the Merger

Pending the merger, the merger agreement requires Big Lake to continue to operate its business only in the usual, regular and ordinary course. Big Lake agrees to preserve intact its business organization and assets and maintain its rights and franchises. Big Lake will also refrain from taking any action that would adversely affect the ability or timing of Big Lake, Seacoast or its subsidiaries from obtaining any required approvals or consents, including those from regulatory or governmental authorities, for the merger transaction without the imposition of any restriction that would materially and adversely effect the financial or economic benefits of the merger to Seacoast.

Furthermore, Big Lake may not, without Seacoast's prior written consent, take or agree to or commit to take any of the following actions:

amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws;

incur any additional debt or other borrowings in excess of an aggregate of $50,000, except in the ordinary course of its business;

impose, or suffer the imposition, of a lien or encumbrance on any Big Lake asset, with certain exceptions;

redeem, repurchase, or otherwise acquire or exchange shares of its capital stock, or declare or pay any dividend with respect to its capital stock;

issue or encumber, or contract to issue or encumber, any shares of its capital stock or issue any rights to purchase shares of its capital stock, except as permitted by the merger agreement;

adjust, split, combine or reclassify its capital stock, or authorize substitutions for its capital stock, or sell or mortgage any asset other than in the ordinary course of business for reasonable and adequate consideration;

make any material investments, other than for purchases of U.S. government and agency securities with maturities of one year or less;

make any new loans or extensions of credit or renew, extend or renegotiate any existing loans or extensions of credit that are located outside the counties where Big Lake has offices, or that exceed $250,000 unsecured or $500,000 secured, or that are classified on any watch list, among other things;

allow any increase in compensation or benefits to its employees or officers, make severance, termination or bonus payments or enter into or amend any severance agreement, allow any increase in fees to its directors, or accelerate the exercisability or amend the terms of any equity right or restricted stock, in each case except in accordance with past practice as previously disclosed or as required by law;

enter into or amend any employment or similar agreement that Big Lake does not have the unconditional right to terminate without liability; adopt any new employee benefit plans, or terminate or materially change any existing employee benefit plan, except as may be necessary to maintain the tax qualified status of such plan, or make any distributions from such plans except as required by law;

change any tax or accounting methods, except as may be necessary to conform to laws or accounting requirements;

commence any litigation other than in accordance with past practice or settle any litigation resulting in material damages or restrictions on operations; or enter into, amend or terminate any material contracts or waive or assign material rights or claims.

The restrictions on Big Lake's business activities are generally set forth in Article 7.2 of the merger agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee

The merger agreement specifies the circumstances under which the parties may terminate the agreement and abandon the merger. Those circumstances are:

1. by mutual written agreement of Seacoast and Big Lake;

Table of Contents

2. by either party if the other party breaches any representation or warranty in the merger agreement, the breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after written notice, and the breach is reasonably likely to permit the non-breaching party to refuse to consummate the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement;

3. by either party if the other party materially breaches any covenant or other agreement in the merger agreement, and the breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after written notice;

4. by either party if:

the consent of any regulatory authority required to complete the merger has been denied by final nonappealable action;

any law or order permanently restraining, enjoining or prohibiting the merger becomes final and nonappealable; or

Big Lake's shareholders fail to vote their approval of the merger at a meeting where such matters were presented and voted upon;

5. by either party in the event the merger is not consummated by June 30, 2006;

6. by Seacoast if:

Big Lake's board of directors fails to reaffirm its approval of the merger upon Seacoast's request for such reaffirmation;

Big Lake's board of directors withdraws, qualifies or modifies, or proposes publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, its recommendation that Big Lake's shareholders approve the merger; or

Big Lake's board of directors affirms, recommends or authorizes entering into any merger, sale of Big Lake stock or assets, or other business combination or substantial investment by a third party (other than the Seacoast merger), or negotiates or authorizes the negotiations with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal of Big Lake (other than the Seacoast merger); or

7. by Big Lake, if Big Lake's board of directors has withdrawn or modified or changed its recommendation or approval of the merger agreement in order to approve an acquisition proposal that Big Lake's board of directors determines in its good faith judgment to be more favorable to Big Lake's shareholders than the Seacoast merger, and following the determination, upon the advice of legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would result in a breach of Big Lake's board of directors' fiduciary duties, provided that at least two business days prior to the termination, Big Lake negotiates with Seacoast to make adjustments to the terms of the merger agreement to enable the transactions to proceed on adjusted terms.

If Seacoast terminates the merger agreement pursuant to paragraph number 6 immediately above, or if Big Lake terminates the merger agreement pursuant to paragraph number 7 immediately above, and within 12 months of the termination another acquisition proposal or business combination has been announced or entered into with respect to Big Lake (provided in either case that the acquisition transaction is subsequently consummated in the event of a termination by Big Lake), then Big Lake must pay Seacoast a termination fee of $2.15 million.

The rights of the parties to terminate the merger agreement and the results of such a termination are addressed in Article 10 of the merger agreement. Provisions of the merger agreement regarding certain employee contracts and agreements and indemnification of Big Lake and its controlling persons will survive any termination of the merger agreement.

Payment of Expenses Relating to the Merger

Each of Seacoast and Big Lake will bear and pay all direct costs and expenses incurred by it or on its behalf in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. However, each party will bear and pay one-half of the filing fees and printing costs incurred in connection with this proxy statement-prospectus.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger that are expected to apply generally to holders of Big Lake Stock upon an exchange of their Big Lake Stock for Seacoast Stock in the merger. This summary assumes that you hold your shares of Big Lake Stock as capital assets but does not attempt to comment on all U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to particular holders, including holders:

who are subject to special rules such as traders in securities who elect mark-to-market, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, foreign persons, persons who have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, financial institutions, mutual funds, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, insurance companies or tax-exempt entities;

who are subject to alternative minimum tax;

who acquired their shares in connection with stock option or stock purchase plans or in other compensatory transactions; or who hold their shares as part of a straddle, hedging, integrated, conversion or constructive sale transaction.

This summary is based upon current provisions of the Code, existing regulations under the Code and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of the merger under the laws of any state, locality or foreign jurisdiction.

Neither Seacoast nor Big Lake will be obligated to complete the merger unless it has received an opinion of Alston & Bird LLP, rendered on the basis of facts, representations of facts, covenants and assumptions set forth or referred to in the opinion, to the effect that:

the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

holders of Big Lake Stock will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of solely Seacoast Stock for their Big Lake Stock, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Seacoast Stock;

the aggregate tax basis of the Seacoast Stock received by a holder of Big Lake Stock in the merger (including any fractional share deemed received) will be the same as the aggregate basis of the shares of Big Lake Stock surrendered in exchange therefore;

the holding period of the shares of Seacoast Stock received by a holder of Big Lake Stock in the merger will include the holding period of the shares of Big Lake Stock surrendered in exchange therefore; and neither Big Lake nor Seacoast will recognize any gain or loss solely as a result of the Merger (except for amounts resulting from any required change in accounting methods and any income and deferred gain or loss recognized pursuant to Treasury regulations issued under Section 1502 of the Code).

Cash Received in Lieu of Fractional Shares. Cash payments received by holders of Big Lake Stock in lieu of fractional shares will be treated as if such fractional shares of Seacoast Stock were issued in the merger and then sold.

If you receive cash in lieu of a fractional share of Seacoast Stock, you will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive and the portion of your tax basis allocable to the fractional share. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period for your shares of Big Lake Stock is greater than one year.

Table of Contents

Reporting Requirements. If you receive Seacoast Stock in the merger, you will be required to attach to your U.S. federal income tax return for the year of the merger a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger, including your tax basis in your Big Lake Stock and a description of the Seacoast Stock received.

Tax Opinion. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. Neither Seacoast nor Big Lake has requested, nor do they intend to request, an advance ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the tax consequences of the merger. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not challenge the conclusions reflected in such opinion or that a court will not sustain such a challenge.

Tax laws are complex, and your individual circumstances may affect the tax consequences of the merger to you. We urge you to consult your own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger in light of your individual circumstances, as well as the consequences of the merger under state, local and foreign tax laws.

CERTAIN DIFFERENCES IN RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

As a result of the merger, holders of Big Lake Stock will be exchanging their shares of a Florida corporation governed by the FBCA and Big Lake's articles of incorporation, which we refer to as the Big Lake Articles, and bylaws, which we refer to as the Big Lake Bylaws, for shares of common stock of Seacoast, a Florida corporation governed by the FBCA and Seacoast's amended and restated articles of incorporation, which we refer to as the Seacoast Articles, and bylaws, which we refer to as the Seacoast Bylaws. Certain significant differences exist between the rights of Big Lake shareholders and the rights of Seacoast shareholders. The following discussion and comparison of these differences is necessarily general, and it is not intended to be a complete statement of all differences affecting the rights of shareholders, and their respective entities, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the FBCA as well as the Big Lake Articles, the Big Lake Bylaws, the Seacoast Articles and the Seacoast Bylaws.

Authorized Capital Stock

Seacoast. The Seacoast Articles authorize the issuance of 22,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.10 par value per share, and 4,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.10 par value per share. Shares of preferred stock may be issued in one or more series with rights, preferences, liquidation values, dividend rates, conversion rights and other terms to be designated by the Seacoast board of directors at the time of such issuance. As of December 31, 2005, there were 17,084,315 shares of Seacoast common stock issued and outstanding. No shares of Seacoast preferred stock are issued and outstanding. Dividends upon common and preferred stock shall be payable only when, as and if declared by Seacoast's board of directors from lawfully available funds.

Seacoast's board of directors may authorize the issuance of authorized but unissued shares of Seacoast Stock without further action by Seacoast's shareholders, unless such action is required in a particular case by applicable laws or regulations or by any stock exchange or automated quotation system upon which Seacoast's Stock may be listed. Seacoast's shareholders do not have the preemptive right to purchase or subscribe to any unissued authorized shares of Seacoast common stock or preferred stock or any option or warrant for the purchase of these shares. The authority to issue additional shares of Seacoast common or preferred stock provides Seacoast with the flexibility necessary to meet its needs without the delay resulting from needing to seek shareholder approval. The authorized but unissued shares of Seacoast common and preferred stock will be issuable from time to time for any corporate purpose, including, without limitation, stock splits, stock dividends, employee benefits and compensation plans, acquisitions, and public or private sales as a means of raising capital. Such shares could be used to dilute the stock ownership of, or otherwise impede, persons seeking to obtain control of Seacoast. In addition, the sale of a substantial number of shares of Seacoast common stock to persons who have an understanding with Seacoast concerning the voting of such shares, or the distribution or declaration of a dividend of shares of Seacoast common stock (or the right to receive shares of Seacoast common stock) to Seacoast shareholders may have the effect of discouraging or increasing the cost of unsolicited attempts to acquire control of Seacoast.

Table of Contents

Big Lake. The Big Lake Articles authorize Big Lake to issue up to 1,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share and up to 500,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share. As of January 18, 2006, there were 576,709 shares of Big Lake common stock and 20,283 shares of Big Lake Series A preferred stock issued and outstanding. Big Lake's shareholders do not have the preemptive right to purchase or subscribe to any unissued authorized shares of Big Lake common stock or any option or warrant for the purchase thereof.

Amendment to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Seacoast. The Seacoast Articles may be amended as provided by law. The FBCA generally provides that, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation specify a greater voting requirement, the articles of incorporation may not be amended unless (i) the board of directors recommends the amendment to the shareholders (unless the board of directors elects to make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its election to the shareholders), and (ii) the amendment is adopted by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by each voting group entitled to vote thereon. The Seacoast Articles also provide that the provisions of the articles related to the composition of the board of directors, business combinations, anti-takeover provisions and shareholder proposals may only be changed by the affirmative vote of holders of (i) at least two-thirds of all shares entitled to vote, and (ii) a majority of the outstanding shares that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a Related Person. A Related Person is any person which is the beneficial owner of 5% or more of Seacoast's voting shares or any person who is an affiliate of Seacoast and at any time within the five years preceding the board of director's determination of such person's status as a Related Person beneficially owned 5% or more of Seacoast's voting shares.

The Seacoast Articles and Seacoast Bylaws provide that the Seacoast Bylaws may be amended and new bylaws may be adopted by (i) the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire board of directors, and (ii) a majority of the members of the board of directors that are considered Continuing Directors. Continuing Directors are members of the board of directors who either (i) were first elected as a director of Seacoast prior to February 28, 2003, or (ii) prior to any person becoming a Related Person, was designated as a Continuing Director by a majority vote of the then Continuing Directors. Seacoast's shareholders may also amend the Seacoast Bylaws by the affirmative vote of holders of (i) two-thirds of all shares entitled to vote on such amendment, and (ii) a majority of the outstanding shares that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a Related Person.

Big Lake. The Big Lake Articles may be amended as provided by Florida law. The Big Lake Bylaws may be amended by the board of directors.

The effect of Seacoast's more stringent voting requirements with respect to amendments of articles compared to Big Lake's is that Seacoast shareholders possess less ability to amend Seacoast's Articles than do the shareholders of Big Lake, who, conversely, have greater legal flexibility to amend the Big Lake Articles.

Board of Directors

Seacoast. The Seacoast Articles provide for a board of directors consisting of not less than three nor more than 14 members divided into three classes. Each class of directors serves a three-year term. The effect of Seacoast having a classified board of directors is that only approximately one-third of the members of the board of directors are elected each year, which effectively requires two annual meetings for Seacoast's shareholders to change a majority of the members of the board of directors. Directors of each class are elected by plurality vote at successive annual meetings of shareholders. Seacoast shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors. Currently, there are 14 members of Seacoast's board of directors.

Big Lake. The Big Lake Bylaws provide that its board of directors shall consist of not less than six nor more than 35 members, each serving a three-year term. Like the Seacoast board of directors, the Big Lake board of directors is classified. The Big Lake Bylaws do not allow for cumulative voting for directors. Currently, there are 10 members of Big Lake s board of directors.

Table of Contents

Nomination of Directors

Seacoast. The Seacoast Articles permit shareholders to nominate directors for election at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, provided that such shareholder complies with certain requirements set forth in the Seacoast Articles. A shareholder wishing to recommend a candidate for consideration by the nominating committee of Seacoast's board must submit to Seacoast's corporate secretary a timely written notice including the candidate's name and address, along with adequate information as to the candidate's qualifications. To be considered timely, the notice must be received by Seacoast's corporate secretary by the date that is either (i) not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting if the elections are to be held at the annual meeting of shareholders, or (ii) not later than the close of the tenth day following the date in which notice of a meeting of shareholders was first mailed to shareholders if the elections are to be held at a meeting of shareholders.

Big Lake. The Big Lake Bylaws do not impose requirements similar to those of Seacoast Articles for shareholders wishing to nominate candidates for the Big Lake board of directors. Candidates for the board of directors may be nominated by the board of directors or by any shareholder of any outstanding class of capital stock entitled to vote for the election of directors. Big Lake's more permissive requirements for nominating candidates to the board of directors gives shareholders a greater potential opportunity to influence which individuals serve on Big Lake's board of directors.

Removal of Directors

Seacoast. A Seacoast director may be removed from office only for cause at a meeting duly called and held for that purpose upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice by the affirmative vote of the holders of (i) not less than two-thirds of Seacoast's shares entitled to vote, and (ii) a majority of the then outstanding shares entitled to vote that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a Related Person. Seacoast directors may not be removed without cause.

Big Lake. A Big Lake director may be removed from office for cause, by the affirmative vote at a meeting called as provided in the Big Lake Bylaws for the purpose of removal, of at least two-thirds of the holders of the issued and outstanding voting stock that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by an Interested Shareholder, as originally defined to include a beneficial owner of more than 15% of the shares entitled to vote. Big Lake directors may not be removed without cause.

Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Seacoast. Seacoast's board of directors may fill any vacancies on the board of directors by the affirmative vote of (i) two-thirds of the entire board of directors, and (ii) a majority of the Continuing Directors.

Big Lake. Any vacancy on Big Lake's board of directors may be filled by a majority vote of the board of directors remaining in office.

Seacoast's stricter standard for filling vacancies on the board of directors may prevent or delay one or more directors from filling a vacancy on the board of directors that is favored by the requisite votes of the other directors.

Meetings of Shareholders

Seacoast. Meetings of Seacoast shareholders may be called by:

the chairman of the board of directors;

the board of directors; or the president, either (i) on behalf of Seacoast or (ii) on behalf of the shareholders of Seacoast upon receipt of dated written demands from shareholders holding not less than 50% of the votes entitled to be cast on the proposed issue or issues set forth in the demand.

Table of Contents

Big Lake. Meetings of Big Lake shareholders may be called by:

the board of directors; or by written request of one or more shareholders owning, in the aggregate, not less than one-tenth of the outstanding shares of Big Lake entitled to vote.

The greater percentage of Seacoast shareholders required to demand a meeting of Seacoast shareholders reflects Seacoast's status as a public company, its greater number of shareholders, the greater cost of holding meetings, and a desire to eliminate frivolous requests for meetings except where favored by a meaningful number of shareholders.

Anti-takeover Provisions

Seacoast. The Seacoast Articles require the affirmative vote of the holders of (i) not less than two-thirds of all the shares of Seacoast stock outstanding and entitled to vote, and (ii) a majority of the shares of Seacoast stock outstanding and entitled to vote that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a Related Person, to approve: (a) any sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of Seacoast's assets, (b) any merger, consolidation or purchase and/or assumption of assets and/or liabilities, (c) any reclassification of securities, recapitalization or similar transaction, or (d) any acquisition by a person of 5% or more of the voting shares or securities convertible into voting shares of Seacoast. Any business combination described above may be approved only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting shares of Seacoast if such business combination is approved and recommended to the shareholders by (x) the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the board of directors of Seacoast, and (y) a majority of the Continuing Directors.

The Seacoast Articles also contain additional provisions that may make takeover attempts and other acquisitions of interests in Seacoast more difficult where the takeover attempt or other acquisition has not been approved by Seacoast's board of directors. These provisions include:

A requirement that any change to the Seacoast Articles relating to the structure of the board of directors, certain anti-takeover provisions and shareholder proposals must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of (i) two-thirds of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote, and (ii) a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote that are not beneficially owned by a Related Person.

A requirement that any change to the Seacoast Bylaws, including any change relating to the number of directors, must be approved by the affirmative vote of (i) two-thirds of Seacoast's board of directors or shareholders, and (ii) a majority of the continuing directors.

A requirement that shareholders may call a meeting of shareholders on a proposed issue or issues only upon the receipt by Seacoast from the holders of 50% of all shares entitled to vote on the proposed issue or issues of signed and dated written demands for the meeting describing the purpose for which it is to be held.

A requirement that a shareholder wishing to submit proposals for a shareholder vote comply with certain procedures, including advanced notice requirements, in order for the proposal to be submitted to shareholders for their consideration.

Seacoast also is subject to the Florida control share acquisitions statute. This statute is designed to afford shareholders of public corporations in Florida protection against acquisitions in which a person, entity or group seeks to gain voting control. With enumerated exceptions, the statute provides that shares acquired within certain specific acquisition ranges will not possess voting rights in the election of directors unless the voting rights are approved by a majority vote of the holders of the corporation's Disinterested Shares. Disinterested Shares are shares other than those owned by the acquiring person or by a member of a group with respect to a control share acquisition, or by any officer of the corporation or any employee of the corporation who is also a director. The specific acquisition ranges that trigger the statute are:

acquisitions of shares possessing one-fifth or more, but less than one-third, of all voting power;

Table of Contents

acquisitions of shares possessing one-third or more, but less than a majority, of all voting power; or acquisitions of shares possessing a majority or more of all voting power.

Under certain circumstances, the statute permits the acquiring person to call a special shareholders meeting for the purpose of considering the grant of voting rights to the holder of the control shares. The statute also enables a corporation to provide for the redemption of control shares with no voting rights under certain circumstances.

Big Lake. The Big Lake Articles and Bylaws do not contain any provisions, other than the provision providing for a staggered board of directors as described above, that may make takeover attempts and other acquisitions of interests in Big Lake more difficult where the takeover attempt or other acquisition has not been approved by Big Lake's board of directors. Business combinations, as with other actions requiring shareholder approval, must be approved by the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote, subject to any greater voting requirements required by law. The foregoing provision of Seacoast's Articles and Bylaws may make it more difficult for a third party opposed by the board of directors to effect a change in control of Seacoast.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Seacoast. The Seacoast Bylaws generally require that any director or officer elected by the board of directors be indemnified, and permit any employee or agent to be indemnified, against liability and other expenses incurred in a proceeding by reason of the fact he is a director, officer, employee or agent of Seacoast or is or was serving at the request of Seacoast as a director, officer, employee or agent of another business entity, provided that such individual acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of Seacoast and, with respect to any criminal proceedings, did not know the conduct was unlawful. The Seacoast Bylaws provide for the advancement of expenses to its directors or officers in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding, the purchase of insurance by Seacoast against any liability of directors, officers, employees or agents, and the survival of such indemnification to any indemnified person's heirs. The indemnification provisions are non-exclusive, and do not impair any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled.

Big Lake. The provisions in the Big Lake Bylaws related to indemnification are substantially similar to those contained in the Seacoast Bylaws. The Big Lake Bylaws permit Big Lake to indemnify and to reimburse reasonable expenses actually incurred by any director, officer, employee or agent of Big Lake against liabilities of such person arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Big Lake or is or was serving at the request of Big Lake as a director, officer, employee or agent of another business entity, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interest of Big Lake and, with respect to any criminal proceedings, did not know the conduct was unlawful. In the event that any such director, officer, employee or agent is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any proceeding to be indemnified, Big Lake is required to indemnify such person. The Big Lake Bylaws provide for the advancement of expenses to its directors or officers in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding and the survival of such indemnification to any indemnified person's heirs, and the Big Lake Bylaws allow the board of director to purchase insurance for the indemnification of its directors, officers, employees or agents for certain losses and expenses.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

The following discussion is a summary of the law relating to appraisal rights available under Florida law. This description is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the relevant provisions of the FBCA, which are reprinted in their entirety as Appendix B to this proxy statement-prospectus. If you desire to exercise appraisal rights, you should review carefully the FBCA and are urged to consult a legal advisor before electing or attempting to exercise these rights.

Under Florida law, each shareholder of Big Lake entitled to vote on the merger who strictly complies with the procedures set forth in Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA relating to appraisal rights is entitled to receive in cash the fair value of his or her shares of Big Lake Stock. Fair value means the value of the corporation's shares as determined immediately before the merger is effective, but excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger (unless such exclusion would be inequitable to Big Lake and its shareholders). To perfect appraisal rights, a shareholder of Big Lake must comply strictly with the procedures set forth in Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA. Failure to follow these procedures will result in a termination or waiver of the shareholder's appraisal rights.

To assert appraisal rights, a holder of record of Big Lake Stock must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must provide written notice to Big Lake before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting indicating that such shareholder intends to demand payment if the merger is effectuated. Simply not voting for the merger, abstaining, or voting against the merger agreement does not satisfy the requirement to give notice. Such written notification should be delivered either in person or by mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, being the recommended form of transmittal) to:

Big Lake Financial Corporation
1409 S. Parrott Avenue
Okeechobee, FL 34974
(863) 467-4663

All such notices must be signed in the same manner as the shares are registered on the books of Big Lake. If a shareholder has not provided written notice of intent to demand fair value before the vote is taken at the special meeting, the shareholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.

A shareholder must demand appraisal rights with respect to all of the shares registered in his or her name, except that a record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but that are owned by one or more beneficial shareholders, if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares owned by the beneficial shareholder. A record shareholder must notify Big Lake in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to any shares held on behalf of the shareholder only if the shareholder submits to Big Lake the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights before the date specified in the appraisal notice as the due date to execute and return the form, and does so with respect to all shares that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

Within 10 days after the merger's effective time, Seacoast, as successor to Big Lake in the merger, will provide each former shareholder of Big Lake who has voted against the merger and properly provided a notice of intent to demand payment of fair value a written appraisal notice and form, which will indicate Seacoast's estimate of the fair value of Big Lake common stock, contain an offer by Seacoast to pay the shareholder this estimate of fair value, and be accompanied by a copy of Big Lake's financial statements and a copy of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA. The appraisal notice will provide that a shareholder may obtain information on the number of shareholders who return the appraisal form and the number of shares owned by those shareholders. It will also indicate the date by which Seacoast must be notified if a shareholder wishes to withdraw from the appraisal process.

A shareholder asserting appraisal rights must execute and return the form to Seacoast, as successor to Big Lake, and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice, before the date specified in the appraisal notice, which will not be fewer than 40 or more than 60 days after the appraisal notice and form were sent to the shareholder. A shareholder who timely returns the form and deposits shares in accordance with the appraisal notice has no further rights as a shareholder, but only has the right to receive fair value for the shares in accordance with the appraisal procedures, unless the appraisal demand is withdrawn.

A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and deposit his or her certificates by the date set forth in the appraisal notice will no longer be entitled to appraisal rights, will be bound by the terms of the merger agreement, and will receive the merger consideration consisting of Seacoast Stock. A shareholder who complies with the terms of the notice but wishes to withdraw from the appraisal process may do so by notifying Seacoast in writing no more than 20 days after the date set forth in the appraisal notice as the due date to execute and return the form. A shareholder who fails to withdraw from the appraisal process in a timely manner may not thereafter withdraw without Seacoast's written consent.

If a shareholder timely accepts the offer to pay the fair value of the shares as set forth in the appraisal notice, payment will be made within 90 days after Seacoast receives the form from the shareholder. A shareholder who is dissatisfied with the offer must include in his or her returned form a demand for payment of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest; otherwise the shareholder will be entitled to payment of only the amount offered. Interest is to be calculated at the interest rate on judgments in Florida in effect at the merger's effective time. Once Seacoast has made payment of an agreed value as described above, the shareholder will cease to have any further appraisal rights in the shares.

If Seacoast and the shareholder asserting appraisal rights are unable to agree on the fair value of the shares, under Section 1330 of the FBCA, Seacoast will be required to file within 60 days after receipt of the shareholder's demand, an appraisal action in the appropriate court in Okeechobee County. The court would be required to determine the fair value of the shares of Big Lake common stock. If Seacoast fails to file such proceeding within 60 days, any shareholder asserting appraisal rights may do so in the name of Seacoast. All shareholders asserting appraisal rights, except for those that have agreed upon a value with Seacoast, are deemed to be parties to the proceeding. In such a proceeding, the court may, if it so elects, appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. Seacoast would be required to pay each shareholder asserting appraisal rights the amount found to be due within ten days after final determination of the proceedings. At the court's discretion, the judgment may include interest at a rate determined by the court. Upon payment of this judgment, the shareholder would cease to have any further appraisal rights with respect to his or her Big Lake shares.

The court in any appraisal proceeding will determine the costs and expenses (including attorneys' and experts' fees) of any appraisal proceeding and such costs and expenses will be assessed against Seacoast. However, all or any part of such costs and expenses (including attorneys' and experts' fees) may be apportioned and assessed against all or some of the shareholders that request an appraisal, in such amount as the court deems equitable, if the court determines that the shareholders acted arbitrarily or not in good faith with respect to the shareholders' appraisal rights. If the court finds that counsel for one shareholder substantially benefited other shareholders, and attorneys' fees should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award counsel fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to benefited shareholders.

You must do all of the things described in this section and as set forth in Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA in order to preserve your appraisal rights and to receive the fair value of your shares in cash (as determined in accordance with those provisions). If you do not follow each of the steps as described above, you will have no right to receive cash for your shares as provided for appraisal rights by the FBCA. In view of the complexity of these provisions of Florida law, shareholders of Big Lake who are considering exercising their appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

INFORMATION ABOUT BIG LAKE

Big Lake Bank is a national bank headquartered in Okeechobee, Florida. Big Lake Bank began operations on July 14, 1986 and conducts its operations through nine full service locations throughout central Florida.

Big Lake Bank provides a range of consumer and commercial banking services, including demand interest bearing and non-interest bearing accounts, money market deposit accounts, NOW accounts, time deposits, safe deposit services and cash management. Big Lake Bank also makes real estate, commercial and consumer loans to individuals and small businesses in the St. Lucie metropolitan statistical area.

As of September 30, 2005, Big Lake had total assets of $306.6 million, total deposits of $281.4 million, total net loans of $194.3 million and shareholders' equity of $21.4 million.

Business and Properties

Lending Activities. Big Lake Bank offers a range of lending services, including real estate, consumer and commercial loans to individuals and small businesses and other organizations that are located in, or conduct a substantial portion of their business in, Big Lake Bank's markets. The interest rates charged on loans vary with the degree of risk, maturity, and amount of the loan, and are further subject to competitive pressures, money-market rates, availability of funds, and government regulations. Big Lake Bank has no foreign loans or loans for highly leveraged transactions.

Big Lake Bank's loans are concentrated in three major areas: commercial loans, real estate loans and consumer loans. A majority of Big Lake Bank's loans are made on a secured basis. As of September 30, 2005, approximately 89.4% of Big Lake Bank's loan portfolio consisted of loans secured by mortgages on residential and commercial properties.

Big Lake Bank's commercial loan portfolio includes loans to individuals and small-to-medium-sized businesses located primarily in Okeechobee, Highlands, Hardee, DeSoto, Glades, Hendry and St. Lucie Counties for working capital, equipment purchases, and various other business purposes. A majority of commercial loans are secured by real estate, equipment, or similar assets, but these loans may also be made on an unsecured basis. Commercial loans may be made at variable or fixed rates of interest. Commercial lines of credit are typically granted for one year. Other commercial loans with terms or amortization schedules of longer than one year will normally carry interest rates which vary with the prime lending rate and will become payable in full and are generally refinanced in three to five years. Commercial and agricultural loans not secured by real estate amounted to approximately 5.3% of Big Lake Bank's total loan portfolio as of September 30, 2005.

Big Lake Bank's real estate loans are secured by mortgages and consist primarily of loans to individuals and businesses for the purchase, improvement of or investment in real estate and for the construction of single-family residential units or the development of single-family residential building lots. These real estate loans may be made at fixed or variable interest rates. Big Lake Bank's residential real estate loans generally are repayable in monthly payments based on up to a 30-year amortization schedule with variable interest rates.

Big Lake Bank's consumer loan portfolio consists primarily of loans to individuals for various consumer purposes, but includes some business purpose loans which are payable on an installment basis. The majority of these loans are for terms of less than five years and are secured by liens on various personal assets of the borrowers, but consumer loans may also be made on an unsecured basis. Consumer loans are made at fixed and variable interest rates, and are often based on up to a five-year amortization schedule.

Loan originations are derived from a number of sources. Loan originations can be attributed to direct solicitation by our loan officers, existing customers and borrowers, advertising, walk-in customers and, in some instances, referrals from brokers.

Table of Contents

Certain credit risks are inherent in making loans. These include prepayment risks, risks resulting from uncertainties in the future value of collateral, risks resulting from changes in economic and industry conditions, and risks inherent in dealing with individual borrowers. In particular, longer maturities increase the risk that economic conditions will change and adversely affect collectibility. Big Lake Bank attempts to reduce credit losses through various means. In particular, on larger credits, Big Lake Bank will generally rely on cash flow of a debtor as the source of repayment and secondarily on the value of the underlying collateral. In addition, Big Lake Bank attempts to utilize shorter loan terms in order to reduce the risk of a decline in the value of such collateral.

Investments.

Big Lake Bank invests a portion of its assets in U.S. Treasury and U.S. Government agency obligations and mortgage-backed securities (MBS) and federal funds sold. These investments are managed in relation to loan demand and deposit growth, and are generally used to provide for the investment of excess funds at low risk while providing liquidity to fund future increases in loan demand or to offset fluctuations in deposits.

With respect to the investment portfolio, Big Lake Bank's total portfolio may be invested in U.S. Treasury and general obligations of agencies, municipal securities and mutual funds because such securities generally represent a low investment risk. Occasionally, Big Lake Bank will purchase certificates of deposits of national and state banks. These investments may not exceed $100,000 in any single institution (the limit of FDIC insurance for deposit accounts). MBS are backed by U.S. Government agencies, such as Ginnie Mae, and U.S. Government sponsored enterprises, such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, and are secured by residential mortgage loans and generally have a shorter life than the stated maturity. Big Lake Bank will sell Federal funds to approved correspondent banks to the extent it has excess cash available over and above daily cash needs. This money is invested on an overnight basis.

Big Lake Bank's Asset Liability Committee monitors changes in financial markets. In addition to investments for the Bank's portfolio, the daily cash position is monitored in an effort to make all available funds earn interest at the earliest possible date. A portion of the investment account is designated as secondary reserves and invested in liquid securities that can be readily converted to cash with minimum risk of market loss. These investments usually consist of U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. Government agencies and federal funds sold. The remainder of the investment account may be placed in investment securities of different type and longer maturity. Investment maturities are staggered so as to produce a steady cash flow in the event cash is needed or economic conditions change to a more favorable rate environment.

Deposits.

Deposits are the major source of funds for lending and other investment activities. Big Lake Bank considers the majority of regular savings, demand, NOW and money market deposit accounts to be core deposits. At September 30, 2005, these core deposits comprised approximately 80.5% of consolidated total deposits, while certificates of deposits made up approximately 18% of deposit balances. Time deposits of $100,000 and more represented approximately 5.1% of the total deposit base at September 30, 2005. Geographically, the majority of the deposits are generated from Okeechobee, DeSoto, Glades, Hardee, Highlands, Hendry and St. Lucie Counties. Big Lake Bank does not accept brokered deposits.

Properties.

Big Lake Bank's corporate office is located at 1409 South Parrott Avenue, Okeechobee, Florida 34974. Business is conducted through nine banking offices and three support facilities located in Okeechobee, DeSoto, Glades, Hardee, Highlands, Hendry Counties and St. Lucie Counties. Competition

The banking industry in general, and the central Florida market in particular, is characterized by significant competition for both deposits and lending opportunities. In this market area, Big Lake Bank competes with other commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, mutual funds, insurance companies, brokerage and investment banking firms, and various other nonbank competitors. Competition for deposits may have the effect of increasing the rates of interest paid on deposits, which would increase the cost of money and possibly reduce net earnings. Competition for loans may have the effect of lowering the rate of interest that can be charged on new loans, which would lower the return on invested assets and possibly reduce net earnings.

Many of the competitors in Big Lake Bank's markets have been in existence for a significantly longer period of time, are larger and have greater financial and other resources and lending limits, and may offer certain services that Big Lake Bank does not provide at this time. However, the central Florida market presents an opportunity to provide tailor-made custom banking products and high-quality personal services through local offices which are not generally offered in Big Lake's market area by the money center, super-regional and regional bank competitors. Big Lake Bank has used this strategy to capture a significant share of the professional market, entrepreneurs, and small to medium size commercial businesses in its markets by continuing to provide exceptional banking services to all customers.

Employees

As of September 30, 2005, Big Lake Bank had 114 full-time employees (including executive officers) and 5 part-time employees. The employees are not represented by a collective bargaining unit.

Legal Proceedings

Big Lake is periodically a party to or otherwise involved in legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business, such as claims to enforce liens, claims involving the making and servicing of real property loans, and other issues incident to their respective businesses. Management does not believe that there is any pending or threatened proceeding against us which, if determined adversely, would have a material adverse effect on Big Lake's consolidated financial position.

As a result of this deficiency and the resulting errors in accounting for derivative financial instruments, previously reported 2004 interim financial information was restated. Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

Okeechobee, Florida:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Big Lake Financial Corporation and Subsidiary (the Company) at December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related consolidated statements of earnings, stockholders equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as established by the Auditing Standards Board (United States) and in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

BIG LAKE FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARY

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the Years Then Ended

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies

General. Big Lake Financial Corporation (the Holding Company) is a financial holding company which owns 100% of the outstanding stock of Big Lake Bank (the Bank), collectively the Company. The Holding Company's primary business activity is the operations of the Bank. The Bank is a nationally-chartered commercial bank. The Bank's deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The Bank, through nine banking offices, an operations center, and a human resources annex provides a variety of banking services to individuals and businesses located primarily in Okeechobee, Highlands, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, St. Lucie and DeSoto Counties, Florida. The Company operates in only one reportable industry segment: banking.

Basis of Presentation. The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Holding Company and the Bank. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The accounting and reporting practices of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and to general practice within the banking industry.

Estimates. The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term relate to the determination of the allowance for loan losses.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. For purposes of the consolidated statements of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash and due from banks and federal funds sold, all of which mature within ninety days.

The Company is required under Federal Reserve Board regulations to maintain reserves, generally consisting of cash or noninterest-earning accounts, against its transaction accounts. At December 31, 2004, balances maintained as reserves were approximately $472,000.

Securities. The Company may classify its securities as either trading, held to maturity or available for sale. Trading securities are held principally for resale and recorded at their fair values. Unrealized gains and losses on trading securities are included immediately in earnings. Held-to-maturity securities are those which the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity and are reported at amortized cost. Available-for-sale securities consist of securities not classified as trading securities nor as held-to-maturity securities. Unrealized holding gains and losses, net of tax, on available-for-sale securities are reported as a net amount in other comprehensive income. Gains and losses on the sale of available-for-sale securities are determined using the specific-identification method. Premiums and discounts on securities available for sale and held to maturity are recognized in interest income using the interest method over the period to maturity or the call date, as applicable.

Loans. Loans management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future or until maturity or pay-off are reported at their outstanding principal adjusted for any charge-offs, the allowance for loan losses, and any deferred fees or capitalized costs.

The accrual of interest on loans is discontinued at the time the loan is ninety days delinquent unless the loan is well collateralized and in process of collection. In all cases, loans are placed on nonaccrual or charged-off at an earlier date if collection of principal or interest is considered doubtful.

All interest accrued but not collected for loans placed on nonaccrual or charged-off is reversed against interest income. The interest on these loans is accounted for on the cash-basis or cost-recovery method, until qualifying for return to accrual. Loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured.

Allowance for Loan Losses. The allowance for loan losses is established as losses are estimated to have occurred through a provision for loan losses charged to earnings. Loan losses are charged against the allowance when management believes the uncollectibility of a loan balance is confirmed. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance.

The allowance for loan losses is evaluated on a regular basis by management and is based upon management's periodic review of the collectibility of the loans in light of historical experience, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, adverse situations that may affect the borrower's ability to repay, estimated value of any underlying collateral and prevailing economic conditions. This evaluation is inherently subjective as it requires estimates that are susceptible to significant revision as more information becomes available.

A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that the Company will be unable to collect the scheduled payments of principal or interest when due. Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Loans that experience insignificant payment delays and payment shortfalls generally are not classified as impaired. Management determines the significance of payment delays and payment shortfalls on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding the loan and the borrower, including the length of the delay, the reasons for the delay, the borrower's prior payment record, and the amount of the shortfall in relation to the principal and interest owed. Impairment is measured on a loan by loan basis for commercial loans by either the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the loan's effective interest rate, the loan's obtainable market price, or the fair value of the collateral if the loan is collateral dependent.

Large groups of smaller balance homogeneous loans are collectively evaluated for impairment. Accordingly, the Company does not separately identify individual consumer and residential loans for impairment disclosures.

Premises and Equipment. Land is stated at cost. Buildings and leasehold improvements and furniture, fixtures and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the related asset or remaining term of the lease, whichever is shorter.

Asset Category	Range of Depreciable Lives
Buildings	30 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3-7 years
Leasehold improvements	3-10 years

Foreclosed Assets. Foreclosed assets acquired through, or in lieu of, loan foreclosure are to be sold and are initially recorded at the lower of the related loan balance or the fair value at the date of foreclosure establishing a new cost basis. After foreclosure, valuations are periodically performed by management and the real estate is carried at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell. Revenue and expenses from operations are included in the consolidated statements of earnings.

Intangible Assets. Intangible assets consist of core deposit premium and goodwill. Goodwill resulted from the purchase of certain businesses and represents the excess of the acquisition cost over the fair value of the net assets acquired. Core deposit premium is amortized using the straight-line method over ten years.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require goodwill to be tested for impairment on an annual basis and between annual tests in certain circumstances, and written down when impaired. Furthermore, purchased intangible assets other than goodwill to be amortized over their useful lives unless these lives are determined to be indefinite. Core deposit intangibles are being amortized over ten years.

Based on the impairment tests performed, there was no impairment of goodwill in fiscal year 2004 and 2003. There can be no assurance that future goodwill impairment tests will not result in a charge to earnings.

Off-Balance-Sheet Financial Instruments. In the ordinary course of business, the Company has entered into off-balance-sheet financial instruments consisting of unfunded loan commitments, unused lines of credit and standby letters of credit. Such financial instruments are recorded in the consolidated financial statements when they are funded.

Transfers of Financial Assets. Transfers of financial assets are accounted for as sales, when control over the assets has been surrendered. Control over transferred assets is deemed to be surrendered when (1) the assets have been isolated from the Company, (2) the transferee obtains the right (free of conditions that constrain it from taking advantage of that right) to pledge or exchange the transferred assets, and (3) the Company does not maintain effective control over the transferred assets through an agreement to repurchase them before their maturity.

Income Taxes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are recorded to reflect the tax consequences on future years of temporary differences between revenues and expenses reported for financial statement and those reported for income tax purposes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be realized or settled. Valuation allowances are provided against assets which are not likely to be realized.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments. The fair value of a financial instrument is the current amount that would be exchanged between willing parties, other than in a forced liquidation. Fair value is best determined based upon quoted market prices. However, in many instances, there are no quoted market prices for the Company's various financial instruments. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. Those techniques are significantly affected by the assumptions used, including the discount rate and estimates of future cash flows. Accordingly, the aggregate fair value amounts presented may not necessarily represent the underlying fair value of the Company. The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating fair values of financial instruments:

Cash and Cash Equivalents. The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value.

Securities. Fair values for securities are based on quoted market prices, where available. If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on quoted market prices of comparable instruments.

Federal Home Loan Bank Stock and Federal Reserve Bank Stock. The carrying Federal Home Loan Bank and Federal Reserve Bank stock approximates their fair values.

Loans. For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and have no significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. Fair values for certain fixed-rate mortgage (e.g. one-to-four family residential), commercial real estate and commercial loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses, using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality.

Accrued Interest. The carrying amounts of accrued interest receivable approximate their fair value.

Deposits. The fair values disclosed for demand deposits, savings, money-market and NOW accounts are, by definition, equal to the amount payable on demand at the reporting date (that is, their carrying amounts). Fair values for time deposits are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered on time deposits to a schedule of aggregated expected monthly maturities of time deposits.

Borrowings. The carrying amount of customer repurchase agreements purchased approximates fair value.

Off-Balance-Sheet Financial Instruments. Fair values for off-balance-sheet lending commitments are based on fees currently charged to enter into similar agreements, taking into account the remaining terms of the agreements and the counterparties' credit standing.

Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share is computed on the basis of the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding. All per share amounts have been presented to reflect stock dividends declared on February 18, 2004 and February 19, 2003. At December 31, 2004 and 2003 and for the years then ended, there were no dilutive securities.

Advertising. The Company expenses advertising costs as incurred.

Comprehensive Income. Accounting principles generally require that recognized revenue, expenses, gains and losses be included in net earnings. Although certain changes in assets and liabilities, such as unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities, are reported as a separate component of the equity section of the consolidated balance sheet, such items, along with net earnings, are components of comprehensive income. The components of other comprehensive income and related tax effects are as follows (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31,
	2004	2003
Holding losses on available-for-sale securities	$ (259)	$ (296)
Gains realized in earnings	35
Net unrealized (loss) gain	(224)	(296)
Income taxes	(85)	(111)
Net amount	$ (139)	$ (185)

Reclassification of Accounts. Certain items in the financial statements for 2003 have been reclassified to conform to the classifications used for the current year.

Recent Pronouncements. In December 2003, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants issued Statement of Position 03-3, Accounting for Certain Loans and Debt Securities Acquired in a Transfer (SOP 03-3). SOP 03-3 addresses accounting for differences between contractual cash flows expected to be collected and an investor's initial investment in loans or debt securities acquired in a transfer if those differences are attributable, at least in part, to credit quality. SOP 03-3 also prohibits carrying over or creation of valuation allowances in the initial accounting of all loans acquired in a transfer that are within the scope of SOP 03-3. The prohibition of the valuation allowance carryover applies to the purchase of an individual loan, a pool of loans, a group of loans, and loans acquired in a purchase business combination. SOP 03-3 is effective for loans acquired in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2004. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of SOP 03-3 will have a material impact on its consolidated financial condition or result of operations.

In March 2004, the Emerging Issues Task Force reached a consensus on Issue 03-1, Meaning of Other Than Temporary Impairment (Issue 03-1). The Task Force reached a consensus on an other-than-temporary impairment model for debt and equity securities accounted for under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities and cost method investments, and required certain additional financial statement disclosures. The implementation of the Other Than-Temporary Impairment component of this consensus has been postponed. Management cannot determine the effect of the adoption of this guidance on the Company's consolidated financial condition or results of operations.

In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 153, Exchanges of Nonmonetary Assets-an Amendment to APB Opinion No. 29. This Statement addresses the measurement of exchanges of nonmonetary assets. The Statement is effective for fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2005. Management believes this Statement will not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share Based Payment. This Statement requires a nonpublic entity to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments, which includes stock options and warrants, based on the grant-date fair value of the award. That cost will be recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide service in exchange for the award. Nonpublic entities, such as the Company shall apply this Statement prospectively to new awards and to awards modified, repurchased or cancelled beginning the first interim or annual period after December 15, 2005. Management has not determined the effect this Statement will have on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

During the year ended December 31, 2003, no securities available for sale were sold. Sales of securities available for sale during the year ended December 31, 2004 is summarized as follows (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31, 2004
Gross proceeds	$ 2,035
Gross realized gains	35
Gross realized losses
Net realized gain	$ 35

Securities with gross unrealized losses at December 31, 2004, aggregated by investment category and length of time that individual securities have been in a continuous loss position, is as follows (in thousands):

	Less Than Twelve Months		Over Twelve Months
	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value
Securities available for sale:
U.S. Government agencies	$ (150)	$ 42,097	$ (14)	$ 986
Mortgage-backed securities	(22)	1,734	(15)	921
Mutual funds			(76)	3,924
Total	$ (172)	$ 43,831	$ (105)	$ 5,831

Management evaluates securities for other-than-temporary impairment at least on a quarterly basis, and more frequently when economic or market concerns warrant such evaluation. Consideration is given to (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and (3) the intent and ability of the Company to retain its investment in the issuer for a period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value.

The unrealized losses on investment securities were caused by interest rate changes. It is expected that the securities would not be settled at a price less than the par value of the investments. Because the decline in fair value is attributable to changes in interest rates and not credit quality, and because the Company has the ability and intent to hold these investments until a market price recovery or maturity, these investments are not considered other-than-temporarily impaired.

transactions with other customers, and did not, in the opinion of management, involve more than normal credit risk or present other unfavorable features. Following is a summary (in thousands):

(10) Contingencies

Various legal claims also arise from time to time in the normal course of business which, in the opinion of management, will have no material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

(11) Credit Risk

Substantially all of the Company's loans, commitments, and commercial and standby letters of credit have been granted to customers in its market area. Letters of credit were granted to commercial borrowers. The Bank does not have any significant concentrations to any one industry or customer.

(12) Regulatory Capital

The Company (on a consolidated basis) and the Bank are subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal and state banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective actions, the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of their assets, liabilities and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors. Prompt corrective action provisions are not applicable to bank holding companies.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Company and the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the following table) of total and Tier I capital (as defined in the regulations) to risk-weighted assets (as defined) and of Tier I capital (as defined) to average assets (as defined). Management believes, as of December 31, 2004, that the Company and the Bank met all capital adequacy requirements to which they are subject.

As of December 31, 2004, the most recent notification from the regulatory authorities categorized the Bank as well capitalized. An institution must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the following tables. There are no conditions or events since the notification that Company. This agreement is renewable annually. As of December 31, 2004, no stock options have been granted under the terms of this agreement.

(15) Preferred Stock

The Company's articles of incorporation authorize up to 500,000 shares of nonvoting preferred stock at $1 par value. The Board of Directors are further authorized to establish designations, powers, preferences, rights, and other terms for preferred stock by resolution. The Board of Directors, designated 2,000 shares as Redeemable Preferred Stock, Series 1 (Series 1). Series 1 shares have no voting or conversion rights and pay no dividends. However, Series 1 shares have preference on liquidation at the rate of $10 per share after January 1, 1987. No shares of preferred stock, including Series 1 shares, have been issued.

(16) Financial Instruments

The Company is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments are loan commitments, unused lines of credit and standby letters of credit and may involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest-rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the consolidated balance sheet. The contract amounts of these instruments reflect the extent of involvement the Company has in these financial instruments.

The Company's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for unfunded loan commitments, available lines of credit and standby letters of credit is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Company uses the same credit policies in making commitments as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments.

Standby letters-of-credit are conditional lending commitments issued by the Company to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party and to support private borrowings arrangements. Essentially all letters of credit issued have expiration dates within one year. The credit risk involved in issuing letters-of-credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending credit. The Company may hold collateral supporting those commitments.

Loan commitments, unused lines of credit and standby letters of credit typically result in loans with a market interest rate when funded. A summary of the amounts of the Company's financial instruments, with off-balance-sheet risk follows at December 31, 2004 (in thousands):

7.4 Adverse Changes in Condition.

Each Party agrees to give written notice promptly to the other Party upon becoming aware of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event or circumstance relating to it or any of its Subsidiaries which (i) is reasonably likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Seller Material Adverse Effect or a Buyer Material Adverse Effect, as applicable, or (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, or covenants contained herein, and to use its reasonable efforts to prevent or promptly to remedy the same.

7.5 Reports.

Each Party and its Subsidiaries shall file all reports required to be filed by it with Regulatory Authorities between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time and shall deliver to the other Party copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. As of their respective dates, such reports filed under the Exchange Act or with any other Regulatory Authority will comply in all material respects with the Securities Laws and will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Any financial statements contained in any other reports to another Regulatory Authority shall be prepared in accordance with the Laws applicable to such reports.

Additional Agreements

8.1 Registration Statement; Proxy Statement; Shareholder Approval.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable after execution of this Agreement, (i) Buyer shall prepare and file the Registration Statement with the Commission, and shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to become effective under the Securities Act and take any action required to be taken under the applicable state Blue Sky or securities Laws in connection with the issuance of the shares of Buyer Common Stock upon consummation of the Merger. Seller shall cooperate in the preparation and filing of the Registration Statement and shall furnish all information concerning it and the holders of its capital stock as Buyer may reasonably request in connection with such action. In connection with the Seller's Shareholders' Meeting, Seller and Buyer shall prepare and file with the Commission, a Proxy Statement and subject to the requirements of the applicable Regulatory Authorities, mail such Proxy Statement to Seller's shareholders, and (ii) the Parties shall furnish to each other all information concerning them that they may reasonably request in connection with such Proxy Statement. Buyer and Seller shall timely and properly make all necessary filings with respect to the Merger under the Securities Laws. Buyer will advise Seller, promptly after Buyer receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of

Buyer Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the Commission for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement, the Proxy Statement, or for additional information. Buyer and Seller shall provide each other promptly with copies of all filings and letters to and from the Commission and other Regulatory Authorities.

(b) Seller shall duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a Shareholders Meeting, to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective by the Commission on a date reasonably acceptable to Buyer, for the purpose of voting upon approval and adoption of this Agreement, the Merger, and the related transactions (Seller Shareholder Approval) and such other related matters as it deems appropriate and shall, subject to the provisions of Section 8.1(c), through its Board of Directors, recommend to its shareholders the approval and adoption of this Agreement and use its reasonable efforts to obtain the Seller Shareholder Approval.

(c) Neither the Board of Directors of Seller nor any committee thereof shall (i) except as expressly permitted by this Section 8.1(c), withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Buyer, the approval or recommendation of such Board of Directors or such committee of the Merger or this Agreement, (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) cause Seller to enter into any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement (each, an Alternative Acquisition Agreement) related to any Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that, prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the holders of Seller voting capital stock, the Board of Directors of Seller determines in good faith, after it has received a Superior Proposal and after receipt of advice from outside counsel, that the failure to do so would result in a reasonable possibility that the Board of Directors of Seller would breach its fiduciary duties to Seller shareholders under applicable Law, the Board of Directors of Seller may (subject to this and the following sentences) inform Seller shareholders that it no longer believes that the Merger is advisable and no longer recommends approval and may (subject to this Section 8.1(c)) approve or recommend a Superior Proposal (and in connection therewith withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of this Agreement and the Merger (a Subsequent Determination), but only at a time that is after the fifth business day following Buyer's receipt of written notice advising Buyer that the Board of Directors of Seller has received a Superior Proposal specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal (and including a copy thereof with all accompanying documentation, if in writing), identifying the person making such Superior Proposal and stating that it intends to make a Subsequent Determination. After providing such notice, Seller shall provide a reasonable opportunity to Buyer to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Seller to proceed with its recommendation to its shareholders without a Subsequent Determination; provided, however, that any such adjustment shall be at the discretion of the Parties at the time. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Seller shall submit this Agreement to its shareholders at its Shareholders Meeting even if the Board of Directors of Seller determines at any time after the date hereof that it is no longer advisable or recommends that Seller shareholders reject it, provided, however, that Seller shall not be required to submit this Agreement to its shareholders at its shareholder meeting if this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 10.1(f) or (g) and Buyer has been paid the Termination Fee.

8.2 Other Offers, Etc.

(a) No Seller Entity shall, nor shall it authorize or permit any of its Affiliates or Representatives to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or induce the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any Person or Group (as such term is defined in Section 13(d) under the Exchange Act) any nonpublic information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) subject to Section 8.2(c), approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or (iv) enter into any Acquisition Agreement contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction; provided however, that this Section 8.2(a) shall not prohibit a Seller Entity from furnishing nonpublic information regarding any Seller Entity to, or entering into a confidentiality agreement or discussions or negotiations with, any Person or Group in response to a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal submitted by such Person or Group (and not withdrawn) if (A) no Seller Entity or Representative or Affiliate thereof shall have violated any of the restrictions set forth in this

In addition to the foregoing, Seller shall provide Buyer with at least five business days' prior written notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors of Seller at which meeting the Board of Directors of Seller is reasonably expected to resolve to recommend a Superior Proposal to its shareholders and together with such notice a copy of the most recently proposed documentation relating to such Superior Proposal; provided further that Seller hereby agrees promptly to provide to Buyer any revised documentation and any Acquisition Agreement.

(b) In addition to the obligations of Seller set forth in Section 8.2(a), as promptly as practicable, after any of the executive officers of Seller become aware thereof, Seller shall advise Buyer of any request received by Seller for nonpublic information which Seller reasonably believes could lead to an Acquisition Proposal or of any Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal, and the identity of the Person or Group making any such request or Acquisition Proposal. Seller shall keep Buyer informed promptly of material amendments or modifications to any such request or Acquisition Proposal.

(c) Seller and its Subsidiaries shall immediately cease any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any Persons conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and will use their respective reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar or related agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent a Party or its board of directors from complying with Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2 under the Exchange Act with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, provided that such Rules will in no way eliminate or modify the effect that any action pursuant to such Rules would otherwise have under this Agreement.

8.3 Nasdaq Listing.

Buyer shall use its reasonable efforts to list, prior to the Effective Time, on the Nasdaq National Market, the shares of Buyer Common Stock to be issued to the holders of Seller Common Stock pursuant to the Merger, and Buyer shall give all notices and make all filings with Nasdaq required in connection with the transactions contemplated herein.

The Parties agree that they will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all Consents of all Regulatory Authorities and other Persons necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each Party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to contemplation of the transactions contemplated herein, and

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Party agrees to use, and to cause its Subsidiaries to use, its reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, or advisable under applicable Laws to consummate and make effective, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including using its reasonable efforts to lift or rescind any Order adversely affecting its ability to consummate the transactions contemplated herein and to cause to be satisfied the conditions referred to in Article 9; provided, that nothing herein shall preclude either Party from exercising its rights under this Agreement.

8.6 Investigation and Confidentiality.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall keep the other Party advised of all material developments relevant to its business and to consummation of the Merger and shall permit the other Party to make or cause to be made such investigation of its business and properties (including that of its Subsidiaries) and of their respective financial and legal conditions as the other Party reasonably requests, provided, that such investigation shall be reasonably related to the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not interfere unnecessarily with normal operations. No investigation by a Party shall affect the ability of such Party to rely on the representations and warranties of the other Party. Between the date hereof and the Effective Time, Seller shall permit Buyer's senior officers and independent auditors to meet with the senior officers of Seller, including officers responsible for the Seller Financial Statements, the internal controls of Seller and the disclosure controls and procedures of Seller and Seller's independent public accountants, to discuss such matters as Buyer may deem reasonably necessary or appropriate for Buyer to satisfy its obligations under Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

(b) In addition to the Parties' respective obligations under the Confidentiality Agreements, which are hereby reaffirmed and adopted, and incorporated by reference herein, each Party shall, and shall cause its advisers and agents to, maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information furnished to it by the other Party concerning its and its Subsidiaries' businesses, operations, and financial positions and shall not use such information for any purpose except in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall promptly return or certify the destruction of all documents and copies thereof, and all work papers containing confidential information received from the other Party.

(d) Each Party agrees to give the other Party notice as soon as practicable after any determination by it of any fact or occurrence relating to the other Party which it has discovered through the course of its investigation and which represents, or is reasonably likely to represent, either a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the other Party or which has had or is reasonably likely to have a Seller Material Adverse Effect or a Buyer Material Adverse Effect, as applicable.

8.9 Charter Provisions.

Each Seller Entity shall take all necessary action to ensure that the entering into of this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not result in the grant of any rights to any Person under the Articles of Association, Bylaws or other governing instruments of any Seller Entity or restrict or impair the ability of Buyer or any of its Subsidiaries to vote, or otherwise to exercise the rights of a shareholder with respect to, shares of any Seller Entity that may be directly or indirectly acquired or controlled by them.

(a) Following the Effective Time, Buyer shall provide generally to officers and employees of the Seller Entities employee benefits under employee benefit and welfare plans (other than stock option or other plans involving the potential issuance of Buyer Common Stock), on terms and conditions which when taken as a whole are substantially similar to those currently provided by the Buyer Entities to their similarly situated officers and employees. For purposes of participation, vesting and (except in the case of Buyer retirement plans) benefit accrual under Buyer's employee benefit plans, the service of the employees of the Seller Entities prior to the Effective Time shall be treated as service with a Buyer Entity participating in such employee benefit plans. Subject to Section 9.11(b), Buyer also shall cause the Surviving Bank to honor in accordance with their terms all employment, severance, consulting and other compensation Contracts disclosed in Section 8.11 of the Seller Disclosure Memorandum to Buyer between any Seller Entity and any current or former director, officer, or employee thereof, and all provisions for vested benefits or other vested amounts earned or accrued through the Effective Time under the Seller Benefit Plans.

(b) Simultaneously herewith, Mr. Joe G. Mullins shall have entered into an Employment Agreement with First National in the form of Exhibit 4, which shall become effective at the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, any

(a) For a period of six years after the Effective Time, Buyer shall, and shall cause the Surviving Bank to, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors, officers, employees and agents of the Seller Entities (each, an "Indemnified Party") against all Liabilities arising out of actions or omissions arising out of the Indemnified Party's service or services as directors, officers, employees or agents of Seller or, at Seller's request, of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) to the fullest extent permitted under the FBCA, Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and by Seller's Articles of Association and Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof, including provisions relating to advances of expenses incurred in the defense of any Litigation and whether or not any Buyer Entity is insured against any such matter. Without limiting the foregoing, in any case in which approval by the Surviving Bank is required to effectuate any indemnification, the Surviving Bank shall direct, at the election of the Indemnified Party, that the determination of any such approval shall be made by independent counsel mutually agreed upon between Buyer and the Indemnified Party.

(b) Buyer shall, or shall cause the Surviving Bank to, use its reasonable efforts (and Seller shall cooperate prior to the Effective Time in these efforts) to maintain in effect for a period of three years after the Effective Time Seller's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (provided that Buyer or the Surviving Bank may substitute therefore (i) policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous or (ii) with the consent of Seller given prior to the Effective Time, any other policy) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the Effective Time and covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance; provided, that neither Buyer nor the Surviving Bank shall be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such three-year period in respect of such policy (or coverage replacing such policy) which exceed, for the portion related to Seller's directors and officers, 150% of the annual premium payments on Seller's current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the "Maximum Amount"). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Buyer or the Surviving Bank shall use its reasonable efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount.

(c) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under paragraph (a) of this Section 8.12, upon learning of any such Liability or Litigation, shall promptly notify Buyer and the Surviving Bank thereof. In the event of any such Litigation (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Buyer or the Surviving Bank shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and neither Buyer nor the Surviving Bank shall be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Buyer or the Surviving Bank elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are substantive issues which raise conflicts of interest between Buyer or the Surviving Bank and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel satisfactory to them, and Buyer or the Surviving Bank shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified

Parties promptly as statements therefore are received; provided, that Buyer and the Surviving Bank shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (c) to pay for only one firm of counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction; (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such Litigation; and (iii) neither

Buyer nor the Surviving Bank shall be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent and which does not provide for a complete and irrevocable release of all Buyer's Entities and their respective directors, officers and controlling persons, employees, agents and Representatives; and provided further that neither Buyer nor the Surviving Bank shall have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine, and such determination shall have become final, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable Law.

(d) If Buyer or the Surviving Bank or any successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving Person of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any Person, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Buyer or the Surviving Bank shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 8.12.

(e) The provisions of this Section 8.12 are intended to be for the benefit of and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and their respective heirs and legal and personal representatives.

shall not be available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to any class or series of shares of the corporation that is not exchanged;

(c) Consummation of a disposition of assets pursuant to s. 607.1202 if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the disposition, including a sale in dissolution but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within 1 year after the date of sale;

(e) With regard to a class of shares prescribed in the articles of incorporation prior to October 1, 2003, including any shares within that class subsequently authorized by amendment, any amendment of the articles of incorporation if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the amendment and if such amendment would adversely affect such shareholder by:

1. Altering or abolishing any preemptive rights attached to any of his or her shares;
2. Altering or abolishing the voting rights pertaining to any of his or her shares, except as such rights may be affected by the voting rights of new shares then being authorized of any existing or new class or series of shares;
3. Effecting an exchange, cancellation, or reclassification of any of his or her shares, when such exchange, cancellation, or reclassification would alter or abolish the shareholder's voting rights or alter his or her percentage of equity in the corporation, or effecting a reduction or cancellation of accrued dividends or other arrearages in respect to such shares;
4. Reducing the stated redemption price of any of the shareholder's redeemable shares, altering or abolishing any provision relating to any sinking fund for the redemption or purchase of any of his or her shares, or making any of his or her shares subject to redemption when they are not otherwise redeemable;
5. Making noncumulative, in whole or in part, dividends of any of the shareholder's preferred shares which had theretofore been cumulative;
6. Reducing the stated dividend preference of any of the shareholder's preferred shares; or
7. Reducing any stated preferential amount payable on any of the shareholder's preferred shares upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the availability of appraisal rights under paragraphs (1)(a), (b), (c), and (d) shall be limited in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Appraisal rights shall not be available for the holders of shares of any class or series of shares which is:

(b) The applicability of paragraph (a) shall be determined as of:

(c) Paragraph (a) shall not be applicable and appraisal rights shall be available pursuant to subsection (1) for the holders of any class or series of shares who are required by the terms of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights to accept for such shares anything other than cash or shares of any class or any series of shares of any corporation, or any other proprietary interest of any other entity, that satisfies the standards set forth in paragraph (a) at the time the corporate action becomes effective.

(d) Paragraph (a) shall not be applicable and appraisal rights shall be available pursuant to subsection (1) for the holders of any class or series of shares if:

1. Any of the shares or assets of the corporation are being acquired or converted, whether by merger, share exchange, or otherwise, pursuant to the corporate action by a person, or by an affiliate of a person, who:

a. Is, or at any time in the 1-year period immediately preceding approval by the board of directors of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights was, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the voting power of the corporation, excluding any shares acquired pursuant to an offer for all shares having voting power if such offer was made within 1 year prior to the corporate action requiring appraisal rights for consideration of the same kind and of a value equal to or less than that paid in connection with the corporate action; or

b. Directly or indirectly has, or at any time in the 1-year period immediately preceding approval by the board of directors of the corporation of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights had, the power, contractually or otherwise, to cause the appointment or election of 25 percent or more of the directors to the board of directors of the corporation; or

2. b. Employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established in contemplation of, or as part of, the corporate action that are not more favorable than those existing before the corporate action or, if more favorable, that have been approved on behalf of the corporation in the same manner as is provided in s. 607.0832; or

c. In the case of a director of the corporation who will, in the corporate action, become a director of the acquiring entity in the corporate action or one of its affiliates, rights and benefits as a director that are provided on the same basis as those afforded by the acquiring entity generally to other directors of such entity or such affiliate.

(e) For the purposes of paragraph (d) only, the term beneficial owner means any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, or understanding, other than a revocable proxy, has or shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, shares, provided that a member of a national securities exchange shall not be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because such member is the recordholder of such securities if the member is precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without instruction on contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted. When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed thereby shall be deemed to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of such agreement, of all voting shares of the corporation beneficially owned by any member of the group.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment thereto may limit or eliminate appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, but any such limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates appraisal rights for any of such shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the effective date of such amendment shall not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within 1 year of that date if such action would otherwise afford appraisal rights.

(4) A shareholder entitled to appraisal rights under this chapter may not challenge a completed corporate action for which appraisal rights are available unless such corporate action:

(a) Was not effectuated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section or the corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, or board of directors' resolution authorizing the corporate action; or

(b) Was procured as a result of fraud or material misrepresentation.

607.1303. Assertion of rights by nominees and beneficial owners

(1) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if such shareholder:

(a) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights no later than the date referred to in s. 607.1322(2)(b)2.

(b) Does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

607.1320. Notice of appraisal rights

(1) If proposed corporate action described in s. 607.1302(1) is to be submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that the corporation has concluded that shareholders are, are not, or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights under this chapter. If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, a copy of ss. 607.1301-607.1333 must accompany the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

(2) In a merger pursuant to s. 607.1104, the parent corporation must notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice must be sent within 10 days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in s. 607.1322.

(3) If the proposed corporate action described in s. 607.1302(1) is to be approved other than by a shareholders meeting, the notice referred to in subsection (1) must be sent to all shareholders at the time that consents are first solicited pursuant to s. 607.0704, whether or not consents are solicited from all shareholders, and include the materials described in s. 607.1322.

607.1321. Notice of intent to demand payment

(1) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under s. 607.1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders meeting, or is submitted to a shareholder pursuant to a consent vote under s. 607.0704, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(a) Must deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken, or within 20 days after receiving the notice pursuant to s. 607.1320(3) if action is to be taken without a shareholder meeting, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated.

(b) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of such class or series in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) is not entitled to payment under this chapter.

607.1322. Appraisal notice and form

(1) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under s. 607.1302(1) becomes effective, the corporation must deliver a written appraisal notice and form required by paragraph (2)(a) to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of s. 607.1321. In the case of a merger under s. 607.1104, the parent must deliver a written appraisal notice and form to all record shareholders who may be entitled to assert appraisal rights.

(2) The appraisal notice must be sent no earlier than the date the corporate action became effective and no later than 10 days after such date and must:

(a) Supply a form that specifies the date that the corporate action became effective and that provides for the shareholder to state:

1. The shareholder's name and address.

2. The number, classes, and series of shares as to which the shareholder asserts appraisal rights.

3. That the shareholder did not vote for the transaction.

4. Whether the shareholder accepts the corporation's offer as stated in subparagraph (b)4.

5. If the offer is not accepted, the shareholder's estimated fair value of the shares and a demand for payment of the shareholder's estimated value plus interest.

(b) State:

1. Where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under subparagraph 2.

2. A date by which the corporation must receive the form, which date may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the date the subsection (1) appraisal notice and form are sent, and state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by such specified date.

3. The corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.
4. An offer to each shareholder who is entitled to appraisal rights to pay the corporation's estimate of fair value set forth in subparagraph 3.

B-5

Table of Contents

6. The date by which the notice to withdraw under s. 607.1323 must be received, which date must be within 20 days after the date specified in subparagraph 2.

(c) Be accompanied by:

1. Financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of the fiscal year ending not more than 15 months prior to the date of the corporation's appraisal notice, an income statement for that year, a cash flow statement for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any.

2. A copy of ss. 607.1301-607.1333.

607.1323. Perfection of rights; right to withdraw

(1) A shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must execute and return the form received pursuant to s. 607.1322(1) and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to s. 607.1322(2)(b)2. Once a shareholder deposits that shareholder's certificates or, in the case of uncertificated shares, returns the executed forms, that shareholder loses all rights as a shareholder, unless the shareholder withdraws pursuant to subsection (2).

(2) A shareholder who has complied with subsection (1) may nevertheless decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the corporation in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to s. 607.1322(2)(b)6. A shareholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the corporation's written consent.

(3) A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates if required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in subsection (2), shall not be entitled to payment under this chapter.

607.1324. Shareholder's acceptance of corporation's offer

(1) If the shareholder states on the form provided in s. 607.1322(1) that the shareholder accepts the offer of the corporation to pay the corporation's estimated fair value for the shares, the corporation shall make such payment to the shareholder within 90 days after the corporation's receipt of the form from the shareholder.

(2) Upon payment of the agreed value, the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in the shares.

607.1326. Procedure if shareholder is dissatisfied with offer

(1) A shareholder who is dissatisfied with the corporation's offer as set forth pursuant to s. 607.1322(2)(b)4. must notify the corporation on the form provided pursuant to s. 607.1322(1) of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest.

(2) A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under subsection (1) within the timeframe set forth in s. 607.1322(2)(b)2. waives the right to demand payment under this section and shall be entitled only to the payment offered by the corporation pursuant to s. 607.1322(2)(b)4.

607.1330. Court action

(1) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under s. 607.1326 which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, any shareholder who has made a demand pursuant to s. 607.1326 may commence the proceeding in the name of the corporation.

(2) The proceeding shall be commenced in the appropriate court of the county in which the corporation's principal office, or, if none, its registered office, in this state is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, the proceeding shall be commenced in the county in this state in which the principal office or registered office of the domestic corporation merged with the foreign corporation was located at the time of the transaction.

B-6

(3) All shareholders, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the initial pleading in such proceeding upon each shareholder party who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons and complaint and upon each nonresident shareholder party by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. If it so elects, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to the order. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There shall be no right to a jury trial.

(5) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount of the fair value of such shareholder's shares, plus interest, as found by the court.

(6) The corporation shall pay each such shareholder the amount found to be due within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings. Upon payment of the judgment, the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in the shares.

607.1331. Court costs and counsel fees

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(2) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with ss. 607.1320 and 607.1322; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(3) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

(4) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to s. 607.1324, the shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from the corporation all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

607.1332. Disposition of acquired shares

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value thereof or pursuant to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as provided in this chapter, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as authorized but unissued shares of the corporation, except that, in the case of a merger or share exchange, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or share exchange otherwise provides. The shares of the surviving corporation into which the shares of such shareholders demanding appraisal rights would have been converted had they assented to the merger shall have the status of authorized but unissued shares of the surviving corporation.

607.1333. Limitation on corporate payment

(1) No payment shall be made to a shareholder seeking appraisal rights if, at the time of payment, the corporation is unable to meet the distribution standards of s. 607.06401. In such event, the shareholder shall, at the shareholder's option:

(a) Withdraw his or her notice of intent to assert appraisal rights, which shall in such event be deemed withdrawn with the consent of the corporation; or

(b) Retain his or her status as a claimant against the corporation and, if it is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the shareholders not asserting appraisal rights, and if it is not liquidated, retain his or her right to be paid for the shares, which right the corporation shall be obliged to satisfy when the restrictions of this section do not apply.

(2) The shareholder shall exercise the option under paragraph (1)(a) or paragraph (b) by written notice filed with the corporation within 30 days after the corporation has given written notice that the payment for shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this section. If the shareholder fails to exercise the option, the shareholder shall be deemed to have withdrawn his or her notice of intent to assert appraisal rights.

Board of Directors
Big Lake Financial Corporation
1409 S. Parrott Avenue
Okeechobee, FL 34974

Dear Members of the Board:

We understand that Big Lake Financial Corporation (Seller), a Florida corporation, and Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida (Buyer), a Florida corporation, are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, to-be-dated November 22, 2005 (the Agreement), pursuant to which Seller will merge with and into Buyer (the Merger), with Buyer being the surviving corporation. As set forth in Section 3.1(b) of the Agreement and except as otherwise stated therein, by virtue of the Merger, each share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Seller (Seller Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement), including each share of the Series A non-cumulative preferred perpetual stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Seller (Seller Series A Preferred Stock), which shall be converted automatically pursuant to its terms on a one-for-one basis into a share of Seller Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be converted in accordance with the terms of the Agreement into the right to receive a number of shares of the common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of Buyer (Buyer Common Stock) equal to the quotient of (x) 1,775,000 less the number of shares issuable pursuant to the Option Settlement Payments (as defined in the Agreement), divided by (y) the number of shares of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding at the Effective Time (Purchase Consideration). Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meaning attributed to them in the Agreement. In connection with the Merger and the Agreement, you have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Purchase Consideration to be paid to the holders of the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Seller (Seller Stock).

Hovde Financial LLC (Hovde), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bidding, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. We are familiar with Seller, having acted as its financial advisor in connection with, and having participated in the negotiations leading to, the Agreement.

We were retained by Seller to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. We will receive compensation from Seller in connection with our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Seller has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed the Agreement and all attachments thereto;
- (ii) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning Seller and Buyer;
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning Seller;

- (iv) analyzed certain financial projections prepared by the managements of Seller and Buyer;
- (v) held discussions with members of the senior managements of Seller and Buyer for the purpose of reviewing the future prospects of Seller and Buyer, including financial forecasts related to the respective businesses, earnings, assets, liabilities and the amount and timing of cost savings (the Synergies) expected to be achieved as a result of the Merger;
- (vi) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes for the common stock of Buyer;
- (vii) reviewed the terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving banks, thrifts and bank and thrift holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (viii) evaluated the pro forma ownership of the common stock of Buyer by the holders of Seller Stock relative to the pro forma contribution of Seller's assets, liabilities, equity and earnings to the combined company;
- (ix) analyzed the pro forma impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings per share, consolidated capitalization and financial ratios; and
- (x) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

We also took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions as well as our knowledge of the banking industry and our general experience in securities valuations.

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and representations contained in the materials provided to us by Seller and Buyer and in the discussions with the managements of Seller and Buyer. In that regard, we have assumed that the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies and projections regarding under-performing and nonperforming assets and net charge-offs have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and judgments and estimates of Seller and Buyer and that such forecasts will be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby. We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto and have assumed that such allowances for Seller and Buyer are in the aggregate adequate to cover such losses. We were not retained to and did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of Seller, Buyer or their respective subsidiaries. In addition, we have not reviewed individual credit files nor have we made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of Seller, Buyer or any of their respective subsidiaries and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals.

We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement. We have further assumed that the Merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles and that the Merger, for federal income tax purposes, shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. We have assumed that the Merger is, and will be, in compliance with all laws and regulations that are applicable to Seller, Buyer and their subsidiaries. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that there are no factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger and we have further assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals, no restriction will be imposed on Buyer or the surviving corporations that would have a material adverse effect on the surviving corporations or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have also assumed that no change in applicable law or regulation would occur that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Buyer or any of the surviving corporations after the Merger.

Sincerely,

/s/ Hovde Financial
