PROXY STATEMENT

General Information

These proxy materials are delivered in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of United Bankshares, Inc. (United, the Company, we, or us), a West Virginia corporation, of proxies to be voted at our 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and at any adjournment or postponement.

You are invited to attend our Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 16, 2005, beginning at 4:00 p.m. The Meeting will be held at the University of Charleston, 2300 MacCorkle Avenue, S.E., Charleston, West Virginia.

This Proxy Statement, form of proxy and voting instructions are being mailed on or about April 8, 2005.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

Holders of record of United common shares at the close of business on March 28, 2005 are entitled to receive this notice and to vote their shares at the Annual Meeting. As of that date, there were 42,795,243 common shares outstanding. Each common share is entitled to one vote on each matter properly brought before the Meeting.

Proxies

Shareholders of record may vote their proxies by mail, in person, by telephone or by Internet.

Proxies may be revoked at any time before they are exercised by (1) written notice to the Secretary of the Company, (2) timely delivery of a valid, later-dated proxy or (3) voting at the Annual Meeting.

You may save us the expense of a second mailing by voting promptly. Choose one of the following voting methods to cast your vote.

Vote By Mail

If you choose to vote by mail, simply mark your proxy, date and sign it, and return it to us in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Vote By Telephone or Internet

If you have telephone or Internet access, you may submit your proxy by following the instructions on the proxy card.

Vote at the Annual Meeting

The method by which you vote now will in no way limit your right to vote at the Annual Meeting if you later decide to attend in person. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the Meeting.

All shares that have been properly voted and not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with your instructions. If you sign your proxy card but do not give voting instructions, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors.

Voting of Other Matters

If any other matters are properly presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you. At the date this proxy statement went to press, we do not know of any other matter to be raised at the Annual Meeting.

Required Vote and Cumulative Voting

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

A plurality of the votes cast is required for the election of directors. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of the election of directors.

In the election of directors, shareholders cast one (1) vote for each nominee for each share held. However, every shareholder has the right of cumulative voting, in person or by proxy, in the election of directors. Cumulative voting gives each shareholder the right to aggregate all votes which he or she is entitled to cast in the election of directors and to cast all such votes for one candidate or distribute them among as many candidates and in such a manner as the shareholder desires.

At our 2005 Annual Meeting, the number of directors to be elected is seventeen (17). Each shareholder has the right to cast seventeen (17) votes in the election of directors for each share of stock held on the record date. If you wish to exercise, by proxy, your right to cumulative voting in the election of directors, you must provide a proxy showing how your votes are to be distributed among one or more candidates. Unless contrary instructions are given by a shareholder who signs and returns a proxy, all votes for the election of directors represented by such proxy will be divided equally among the seventeen (17) nominees. If cumulative voting is invoked by any shareholder, the vote represented by the proxies delivered pursuant to this solicitation, which do not contain contrary instructions, may be cumulated at the discretion of the Board of Directors of United Bankshares, Inc. in order to elect to the Board of Directors the maximum nominees named in this proxy statement.

On March 28, 2005, there were 42,795,243 shares of common stock outstanding that are held by approximately 6,099 shareholders of record and 9,841 shareholders in street name. A majority of the outstanding shares of United Bankshares, Inc. will constitute a quorum at the meeting.

Cost of Proxy Solicitation

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies. Proxies may be solicited on our behalf by directors, officers or employees in person or by telephone, electronic transmission, facsimile transmission or by telegram. Brokers, fiduciaries, custodians and other nominees have been requested to forward solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of the Company's common stock. Upon request we will reimburse these entities for their reasonable expenses.

In order to facilitate and expedite distribution of these proxy solicitation materials to brokers, fiduciaries, custodians, nominee holders and institutional investors, United has retained Mellon Investor Services LLC of New York, New York (Mellon). Pursuant to a retention letter dated February 2, 2005, Mellon will contact all broker and other nominee accounts identified on United's shareholder mailing list in order to facilitate determination of the number of sets of proxy materials such accounts require for purposes of forwarding the same to the beneficial owners. Mellon will then assist in the delivery of proxy materials to these accounts for distribution. Mellon will also (i) assist in the distribution of proxy materials to institutional investors, and (ii) follow-up with any brokers, other nominee accounts and institutional investors, requesting return of proxies. United is not retaining Mellon to solicit proxies from registered holders or from non-objecting beneficial owners. Mellon's fee for the above services is $4,500 plus reasonable disbursements that may include the broker search, printing, postage, courier charges, filing reports, data transmissions and other expenses approved by United.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors consists of one class of seventeen (17) directors. Seventeen (17) directors will be elected at our 2005 Annual Meeting to serve for a one-year term expiring at our Annual Meeting in the year 2006. The Company's Bylaws provide that the number of directors shall be at least five (5) and no more than thirty-five (35) with the composition and number of nominees to be set at the discretion of the Board of Directors. For the election of directors at the 2005 Annual Meeting, the Board of Directors established the composition and number of nominees to be elected at seventeen (17).

The persons named in the enclosed proxy intend to vote the proxy for the election of each of the seventeen (17) nominees, unless you indicate on the proxy card that your vote should be withheld from any or all of such nominees. Each nominee elected as a director will continue in office until his successor has been elected or until his death, resignation or retirement.

The Board of Directors has proposed the following nominees for election as directors with terms expiring in 2006 at the Annual Meeting: Richard M. Adams, Robert G. Astorg, Thomas J. Blair, III, Harry L. Buch, W. Gaston Caperton, III, Lawrence K. Doll, H. Smoot Fahlgren, Theodore J. Georgelas, F. T. Graff, Jr., Russell L. Isaacs, John M. McMahon, J. Paul McNamara, G. Ogden Nutting, William C. Pitt, III, I. N. Smith, Jr., Mary K. Weddle, and P. Clinton Winter, Jr.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of each of these nominees for director.

We expect each nominee for election as a director to be able to serve if elected. If any nominee is not able to serve, proxies will be voted in favor of the remainder of those nominated and may be voted for substitute nominees, unless the Board chooses to reduce the number of directors serving on the Board.

The principal occupation and certain other information about the nominees for director are set forth on the following pages.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Duties of the Compensation Committee

United's Compensation Committee (the Committee) administers United's executive compensation program. In this regard, the role of the Committee is to review annually and approve all compensation arrangements for the CEO of the Company and for all executive officers who are subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16 of the Exchange Act. The Committee has overall responsibility for evaluating and approving the benefits, bonus, incentive compensation, severance, equity-based or other compensation plans, policies and programs of the Company. With respect to the CEO's compensation, the Committee reviews and approves corporate goals and objectives of the Company relevant to the CEO's compensation, evaluates the CEO's performance in light of these goals and objectives and reviews and approves all compensation arrangements.

The Committee also reviews and approves all grants of stock options under the Company's Incentive Stock Option Plan. The Committee is composed entirely of non-employee, independent directors. The Committee meets at scheduled times during the year as required, generally one to two times, and the Committee reports on its actions and recommendations to the Company's Board of Directors. The Committee's has the authority to retain outside counsel and any other advisors as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.

Periodically, the Committee retains the services of nationally recognized compensation consulting firms to perform a review of the Company's compensation program for all executive officers. In late 2004, the Company retained Aon Consulting, Inc. (Aon) to conduct an evaluation of the Company's executive compensation program. In its report, Aon concluded that compared to peer group compensation, the Company was generally within a competitive range for base salary, bonus (measured over a three year period) and total cash compensation. Long-term incentives (measured over a three year period) are below the competitive range in some cases.

Overview of Compensation Philosophy

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to:

- retain executive officers by paying them competitively, motivate them to contribute to the Company's success, and reward them for their performance;

- link a substantial part of each executive officer's compensation to the performance of both the Company and the individual executive officer; and

- encourage ownership of Company common stock by executive officers.

The Company's fundamental philosophy is to closely link executive compensation with the achievement of annual financial and non-financial performance goals. It is the Committee's practice to provide a balanced mix of cash and equity-based compensation that the Committee believes promotes the best interests of the Company's executives and the Company's shareholders.

As discussed below, the program consists of, and is intended to balance, three elements:

- Salaries. Salaries are based on the Committee's evaluation of individual job performance and an assessment of the salaries and total compensation mix paid by the Company's Peer Group to executive officers holding equivalent positions. The Company's Peer Group is a group consisting of all public banks and thrifts in the United States with assets of $5 Billion - $10 Billion.

Annual Incentive Compensation. Executive Annual Incentive Compensation is based on an evaluation of both individual and Company performance against qualitative and quantitative measures.

Long-term Incentive Compensation. Long-term incentive awards, which consist of stock options, are designed to insure that incentive compensation is linked to the long-term performance of the Company and its common stock.

Salaries

The first element of the executive compensation program is salaries. In recent years, the Board and the Committee have been directing a shift in the mix of the Company's executive compensation towards incentive compensation, with proportionately less emphasis on salaries. This strategy is intended to increase the performance orientation of the Company's executive compensation, and the Board intends to continue this emphasis in 2005. In setting the base salary for the CEO, and in reviewing and approving the salaries for the other named executive officers, the Committee first reviews the history of and the proposals for the compensation for each individual, including cash and equity-based components. In setting salaries, the Committee does not use a predetermined formula. Instead, the salaries of the CEO and the other executive officers are based on:

the Board's review of the Chief Executive Officer's evaluation of each officer's individual job performance, and the Board's evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer's job performance;

an assessment of the Company's performance;

the perquisites provided to the CEO and named executive officer;

a consideration of salaries paid by the Peer Group to executive officers holding equivalent positions. The Company participates in the Watson Wyatt Data Service Annual Cole Compensation Survey (the Watson Wyatt Survey). The 2004 comparative data in the Watson Wyatt Survey includes information from over 220 financial organizations and summarizes data for over 430 position descriptions. Publicly available information relating to executive compensation from various peer group bank holding companies is also collected for reference and comparison;

a consideration of aggregate amount of all components of compensation paid to the CEO and other executive officers.

The Company reviews the range of salaries for executive officers holding equivalent positions in companies participating in the Watson Wyatt Survey. The Company establishes a midpoint in this range which is used as a guideline to determine the executive officer's base salary for the following year.

Annual Incentive Compensation

The second element of the executive compensation program is annual incentive compensation. The purpose of the Company's annual incentive compensation is to motivate and reward eligible employees for their contributions to the Company's performance by making a large portion of their cash compensation variable and dependent upon the Company's performance. The Committee annually adopts a plan for cash incentive awards. In determining the potential annual incentive compensation to which an executive officer may be entitled in 2005, the Company uses a percentage of the salary midpoint discussed under Salaries above as a guideline to determine annual incentive compensation. This percentage is reviewed and established by the Committee each year. For 2004, all bonuses awarded were based primarily on the achievement of earnings goals, accomplishment of goals assigned to each executive officer and the executive officer's annual performance review conducted by the CEO. Generally, the better the Company's performance the greater the annual compensation awarded to the executive officer.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

The third element of the executive compensation program is long-term incentive compensation. The main component of the long-term incentive compensation program is the 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan. At our 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the shareholders approved the 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan. The purpose of the 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan is to reward and retain officers in a manner that best aligns officers' interests with stockholders' interests. Under this plan, the Company may award options for up to 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock to qualified officers of the Company and its subsidiaries. Each option granted under the Plan must have an exercise price of no less than the fair market value of Company's common stock as of the date of grant. Options granted under the plan vest according to a schedule designated at the grant date. Annual stock option grants for executive officers are a key element of market-competitive total compensation. In 2004, the Committee approved annual stock option grants for the executive officers based on internal factors, such as the size of prior grants, relative job scope and contributions made during the past year, as well as a review of publicly available data on senior management compensation within the Peer Group.

Evaluation of Executive Performance

The Committee does not usually rely solely on predetermined formulae or a limited set of criteria when it evaluates the performance of the CEO and the Company's other named executive officers. Instead, the Committee considers:

management's overall accomplishments;

the accomplishments of the individual executives;

the Company's financial performance; and recommendations of the CEO relating to the named executive officer's base salary for 2005, annual incentive compensation for 2004 and grants of stock options under the Company's 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan.

Compensation of the CEO

On November 4, 2004, the Compensation Committee met to determine the compensation package for the CEO. The Committee considered the following factors in determining the base salary for 2005 for Mr. Adams: the Company's success in attaining its goals in 2004, Mr. Adams' contribution to the Company's financial performance, and the level of compensation paid to the highest paid executives by the companies selected for peer comparison. The Committee also considered Mr. Adams' 35 years of service to the Company and the growth in the Company from a $100 million dollar bank to a $6.4 billion dollar bank holding company during Mr. Adams' 30 year tenure as CEO. Based on these factors, the Committee established Mr. Adams' 2005 base salary effective January 1, 2005, at $625,000, which represents a $38,500 increase from his 2004 salary level. The Committee also recommended that Mr. Adams' Employment Agreement be extended for an additional year to 2010. On November 22, 2004, the Company's Independent Directors ratified this extension and Mr. Adams' compensation package.

The Committee also awarded Mr. Adams a bonus in 2004 in the amount of $385,000, and 30,000 stock options under the Company's 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan.

The Committee reviewed all components of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation including salary, bonus, stock options, the dollar value of all perquisites and other personal benefits. Based on this review, the Compensation Committee finds that the Chief Executive Officer's total compensation package in the aggregate is reasonable and not excessive.

Conclusion

Attracting and retaining talented and motivated management and employees is essential to create long term shareholder value. Offering a competitive performance based compensation program helps to achieve this objective by aligning the interests of the CEO and the other named executive officers with those of our shareholders. We believe United's 2004 compensation programs met those objectives.

Employment Contracts

Richard M. Adams, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of United and United Bank (WV), entered into an employment contract with United effective April 11, 1986. The original term of Mr. Adams' employment contract was five years commencing on March 31, 1986, with the provision that the contract could be extended annually for one (1) year to maintain a rolling five (5) year contract. This contract was amended in November, 2002, to extend the initial term of the contract through March 31, 2008 with the provision for additional one (1) year term extensions by the Executive Committee with the approval of Mr. Adams. The term of this contract has been extended through March 31, 2010. Under the amended contract, Mr. Adams is required to devote his full-time energies to performing his duties as Chairman and CEO on behalf of United and its subsidiaries. The contract provides for a base compensation of $625,000 and additional benefits consistent with the office. This base compensation may be increased but not decreased. If the contract is terminated for any reason other than mutual consent or cause, Mr. Adams, or his family or estate, is entitled to his base salary for a sixty (60) month period. Under Mr. Adams' contract, cause is defined as based on (i) excessive, unapproved absences, (ii) gross or willful neglect of duty that results in some substantial loss to United, or (iii) fraud or commission of any criminal act, if proven. If the contract is terminated by mutual consent, Mr. Adams, his family or estate are entitled to receive the amount mutually agreed upon by Mr. Adams and United. If the contract is terminated for cause, United shall pay Mr. Adams base salary only for the period of his active full-time employment to the date of termination.

The contract between Mr. Adams and United also provides for an additional gross-up payment by United to Mr. Adams in the event that a payment or distribution pursuant to the contract would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Any calculated gross-up payment amount shall be equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the excise tax plus one hundred percent (100%) of any federal, state and local income taxes plus the additional excise tax on the gross-up amount. Any gross-up payment pursuant to the contract must be paid to Mr. Adams within 30 days of the receipt of the amount determined.

United and United Bank (WV) also entered into an employment agreement with I. N. Smith, Jr. on December 17, 1985. The term of the agreement extends until Mr. Smith reaches the age of 75. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Smith provides such consulting and advisory services as United may request, and receives for such services an annual fee of $30,000. In addition, United agrees to use its best efforts to nominate and elect Mr. Smith to the Company's Board of Directors.

James G. Tardiff and United entered into a consulting agreement that was effective on January 2, 2004 and expired on December 31, 2004. However, United will continue Mr. Tardiff's participation in health and welfare benefits, or provide similar coverage, to Mr. Tardiff for a period of 36 months from the expiration of the consulting agreement. Mr. Tardiff agreed that for two years after the expiration of the consulting agreement, he will not work for or serve as a director of a competing business in Maryland, Virginia or Washington, D.C., nor will he disclose confidential business information or solicit employees of United to work for a competitor.

J. Paul McNamara entered into an employment agreement with United, effective as of October 11, 2003. During the three-year term of the agreement, Mr. McNamara serves as Vice Chairman of United Bank (VA) and a member of United's Board of Directors. Mr. McNamara receives an annual base salary of $250,000 and is entitled to participate in incentive bonus, retirement, and health and welfare benefit programs and receive certain perquisites, including use of an automobile and paid country club memberships. In addition, United granted Mr. McNamara 20,000 options to purchase stock under United's 2001 Incentive Stock Option Plan pursuant to the employment agreement. Upon a termination of the employment agreement for any reason, Mr. McNamara will be fully vested in the normal retirement benefit provided for under the salary continuation agreement assumed by United, and United will continue his participation in health and welfare benefits, or provide similar coverage, for a period of 36 months. During his employment and for two years following termination of employment, Mr. McNamara agrees not to work for or serve as a director of a business competitor in Maryland, Virginia or Washington, D.C. and to refrain from disclosing confidential business information or soliciting employees of United for a competing business.

Change of Control Agreements

In March of 1994, United entered into agreements with Steven E. Wilson, James B. Hayhurst, Jr. and Joe L. Wilson to encourage those executive officers not to terminate their employment with United because of the possibility that United might be acquired by another entity. In August of 2000, United entered into similar change of control agreements with Richard M. Adams, Jr., Kendal E. Carson, James J. Consagra, Jr. and John Neuner, III. On April 4, 2003, United entered into an employment agreement with J. Paul McNamara that contained change in control provisions similar to agreements with Messrs. S. Wilson, Hayhurst, J. Wilson, Adams, Carson, Consagra and Neuner. The Board of Directors determined that such an arrangement was appropriate, considering the entry of large regional bank holding companies into West Virginia. The agreements were not undertaken in the belief that a change of control of United was imminent.

Generally, the agreements provide severance compensation to those officers if their employment should end under certain specified conditions after a change of control of United. Compensation is paid upon any involuntary termination following a change of control unless the officer is terminated for cause. In addition, compensation will be paid after a change of control if the officer voluntarily terminates employment because of a decrease in the total amount of the officer's base salary below the level in effect on the date of consummation of the change of control, without the officer's consent; a material reduction in the importance of the officer's job responsibilities without the officer's consent; geographical relocation of the officer without consent to an office more than fifty (50) miles from the officer's location at the time of a change of control; failure by United to obtain assumption of the contract by its successor or any termination of employment within thirty-six (36) months after consummation of a change of control which is effected for any reason other than good cause.

Under the agreements, a change of control is deemed to occur in the event of a change of ownership of United which must be reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission as a change of control, including but not limited to the acquisition by any person (as such term is used in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act)) of direct or indirect beneficial ownership (as defined by Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act) of twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the combined voting power of United's then outstanding securities, or the failure during any period of two (2) consecutive years of individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each director who was not a director at the beginning of such period has been approved in advance by directors representing at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors at the beginning of the period.

Under the agreements, severance benefits include: (a) cash payment equal to the officer's monthly base salary in effect on either (i) the date of termination; (ii) the date immediately preceding the change of control, whichever is higher, multiplied by the number of full months between the date of termination and the date that is thirty-six (36) months after the date of consummation of the change of control; (b) payment of cash incentive award, if any, under United's Incentive Plan; (c) continuing participation in employee benefit plans and programs such as retirement, disability and medical insurance for a period of thirty-six (36) months following the date of termination.

The agreements do not effect the right of United to terminate the officer, or change the salary or benefits of the officer, with or without good cause, prior to any change of control; provided, however, any termination or change which takes place after discussions have commenced which result in a change of control will be presumed to be a violation of the agreement and will entitle the officer to the benefits under the agreement, absent clear and convincing evidence to the contrary.

Employee Benefit Plans

No directors or principal shareholders of United and its subsidiaries, other than those persons who are salaried officers, participate in any type of benefit plan of United.

United's subsidiaries provide, on a substantially non-contributory basis for all full-time employees, life, and disability insurance. Life insurance with a value of 250% of base salary, up to a maximum benefit of $1,000,000, is provided to all full-time employees, including executive officers. The premiums paid by United for life insurance on any individual, which has a face value greater than $50,000 is properly reported as compensation. These plans do not discriminate, in scope, terms or operation, in favor of the executive officers of United or its subsidiaries and are available generally to all salaried employees of United and its subsidiaries.

Each employee of United, or its participating subsidiaries, who completes one year of eligible service and is 21 years of age is eligible to participate in United's Pension Plan (the Pension Plan). The plan is noncontributory on the part of the employee. Pension benefits are based on years of service and the average of the employee's highest five consecutive plan years of basic compensation paid during the ten plan years preceding the date of determination. United's funding policy is to contribute annually the maximum amount that can be deducted for federal income tax purposes. Contributions are intended to provide not only for benefits attributed to service to date, but also for those expected to be earned in the future. Vesting is attained after five years of participation.

The table below illustrates the operation of the Pension Plan and the Supplemental Retirement Plan (the SERP) (described on page 21 under the caption Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements) by showing various annual benefits, after reduction for Social Security retirement income, assuming various annual base salaries and years of credited service.

Benefits under both the Pension Plan and the SERP are based on annual base salary and do not include bonuses, directors' fees, expense reimbursements, and employer contributions to retirement plans. The annual benefit under both the Pension Plan and the SERP is reduced by Social Security benefits and the annual benefit under the SERP is further reduced by annual benefits payable at retirement under the Pension Plan and benefits under United's Savings and Stock Investment Plan. Benefit figures shown are computed on the assumption that participants retire at the normal retirement age of 65. For purposes of the table, it is assumed each participant is receiving benefits from the Pension Plan in the form of a life annuity.

The estimated credited years of service for each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table under the Pension Plan as of December 31, 2004, are as follows: Mr. Adams 36 years; Mr. S. Wilson 33 years; Mr. Hayhurst 33 years; Mr. Carson 7 years; and Mr. Consagra 7 years.

Other Employee Plans

Each employee of United, who completes ninety (90) days of qualified service, is eligible to participate in the United Savings and Stock Investment Plan, a deferred compensation plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. Each participant may contribute from 1% to 100% of compensation to his/her account, subject to Internal Revenue Service maximum deferral limits. After one year of eligible service, United matches 100% of the first 2% of salary deferred and 25% of the second 2% of salary deferred with United stock. Vesting is 100% for employee deferrals and the company match at the time the employee makes his/her deferral.

United employees may participate in an employee stock purchase plan whereby its employees may purchase shares of United's common stock. Purchases made by employees under this plan are coordinated by the Personnel and Shareholder Relations Department of United Bank (WV), and involve stock purchased at market price for this purpose.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements

On July 27, 1990, United also entered into a Supplemental Retirement Agreement (SERP) with Mr. Richard Adams. The agreement was amended on November 1, 2001. This amended agreement provides for an annual supplemental retirement benefit upon his reaching age 65 or upon the later termination of his employment with United or an affiliated or successor entity to United, whichever last occurs. The annual benefit will be equal to seventy percent (70%) of the average of Mr. Adams' three highest base salaries, reduced by benefits actuarially calculated at the time the supplemental retirement benefit becomes payable under (i) the United Pension Plan; (ii) social security; and the United Savings and Stock Investment Plan. The table on page 20 may be used to estimate Mr. Adams' annual supplemental retirement benefit. The amended agreement also provides for reduced benefits for early retirement before age 65 as well as payments to his spouse or his estate if unmarried in the event of his death. The benefits under the amended agreement are fully vested in Mr. Adams and survive his termination of employment from United or an affiliated or successor entity to United for whatever reason, including but not limited to, change in control, dismissal with or without cause, voluntary termination, expiration of contract or disability.

On October 1, 2003, United entered into Supplemental Retirement Agreements with the named executive officers, Kendal E. Carson, James J. Consagra, Jr., James B. Hayhurst, Jr., and Steven E. Wilson to encourage them to remain an employee of United. The SERP for Messrs. James B. Hayhurst, Jr. and Steven E. Wilson ensures that each of these participating executive officers, when retiring at age 65 or later, receives a level of retirement benefits, without regard to years of service, equal to 70% of the executive officer's total base salary projected to be in effect at age 65 and is updated each January 1 by United. At the time one of these participating executive officers retires, the benefit the participant is entitled to through the SERP is calculated, and then funds from the following sources are deducted to determine the amount, if any, of the payment due under the SERP (i) the benefit under the Pension Plan; (ii) Social Security benefits payable; and (iii) any benefits under United's Savings and Stock Investment Plan. The table on page 20 may be used to estimate Messrs. Hayhurst's and Wilson's annual supplemental retirement benefit. The annual benefit will be paid monthly for a period of fifteen years. The executive may retire early at the age specified in the SERP and receive a benefit equal to 60% of the executives final pay based on the same provisions set forth above. The SERP for Messrs. Kendal E. Carson and James J. Consagra, Jr. ensures that each of these participating executive officers, will receive, at the age set forth in the SERP, an annual benefit equal to $100,000, paid in monthly installments for a period of 15 years. If the executive retires or leaves employment early, the executive will receive an accrual benefit set forth in a Schedule to the SERP, subject to a ten (10) year vesting schedule. This early termination benefit will be paid monthly for a period of fifteen (15) years.

AUDIT COMMITTEE AND INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Audit Committee Report

The United Bankshares, Inc. Audit Committee reviews United's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal control. United's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the 2004 audited financial statements. This discussion included the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as Amended by Statement on Auditing Standards, No. 90, Communications with Audit Committees. In addition, the Audit Committee received from the independent registered public accounting firm the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees) and discussed with them their independence from the Company and its management. And, the Audit Committee determined that the nonaudit services provided to the Company by the independent registered public accounting firm are compatible with the auditors' independence.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors approved, that the audited financial statements and management's report on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting be included in United's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

No member of the Audit Committee is a former or current officer or employee of United.

the Audit Committee authority to approve permitted services provided that the Chair reports any decisions to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting. During 2004 and 2003, all fees paid to Ernst & Young LLP were approved by the Audit Committee.

Ernst & Young LLP, Charleston, West Virginia, has served as the independent auditors for United and its subsidiaries since 1986 and has been selected by the Board of Directors to continue as the independent registered public accounting firm for United and its subsidiaries for the next fiscal year.
